

Hallowe'en
Hart Schaffner & Marx
Good Clothes Makers

Copyright 1909 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

HALLOWE'EN--a time for fun and frolic; for social festivities, for all sorts of good times for all of us.

If you're going to be involved in any functions where good clothes count, better see us beforehand and let us look after that part of it for you. We'll put you into some of these fine clothes; and we can promise you one thing sure; nobody else in the crowd will be better dressed than you'll be.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

Fine suits in all the latest weaves; dress clothes for formal affairs; overcoats for hay rides or sleigh rides or dressy use. We've got all these things ready for you; all wool, fine tailoring and correct fit and style.

HAUGH & BRUMMER
"The Old Reliable Clothiers"

DOW CITY ITEMS

A team belonging to Mr. Cal Wilson ran away last Tuesday making things lively for a short time, breaking the harness and slightly injuring a horse which was standing on the street was the principal damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodruff went of Council Bluffs last Wednesday morning. They will spend a week there and in Omaha buying their furniture and other supplies before they return to their home at Green River, Utah.

Mrs. R. A. Talcott of Arion was down recently shopping and calling on friends.

Ex-Marshall R. T. Baber has again donned the official star. He understands the business and is one of the best marshals Dow City has ever had.

Mrs. B. H. Wiggins returned home last Wednesday from a very pleasant visit with her daughters, Ola and Josie Bruner, at Cherokee.

Miss Sadie Rudd, who has been visiting her mother and other relatives, returned to her home at Omaha last Tuesday.

Mrs. W. A. Cameron entertained the Friday Club last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Graul, our Northwestern agent and wife, started last Wednesday for an extended visit in South Dakota and Nebraska.

It looked like old times to see Clair Butterworth back in the meat market last Tuesday. He was only there for the day while Mr. H. A. Rudd was in Omaha.

Lloyd Bruke has been appointed substitute rural mail carrier on route No. 1.

Mrs. Ed. R. Green has returned to her home at Overton, Neb., after a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends in and about town.

Miss Luella Crandall very nicely entertained the G. H. C. at her nice home south of town last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Fern Crandall is home from Boone for a visit with parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Isaac Bixler spent most of last week in the country at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert McCord.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson was down from Deloit Thursday to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Rudd.

Mark Pearsall was an Omaha visitor Thursday.

Mrs. F. J. Branaka of Cedar Rapids visited last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Will Buss West, of town.

Mr. Alfred Jackson has put down a cement walk on the south side of his residence property.

Will Butler of Woodbine was in town Friday.

Mr. Cushman and Mr. Bamford were down from Denison Friday.

Morris Wilder came home Friday evening for an over Sunday visit with the home folks. He is attending the Agricultural college at Ames.

The Misses Kate Furlund and Edna Fritz each completed a successful fall term of school last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Griffin were visiting relatives in the country the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hallowell and daughter, Jennie, were Denison shoppers Saturday.

Miss Elsie Randall went to Omaha Thursday. Being a fine pianist and vocalist she is taking lessons in Omaha to further perfect herself in her chosen profession.

The Misses Mayne and Kate O'Brien of near Dunlap were Dow City visitors Saturday.

So far as heard from Mr. Marion Cole is the only lucky Dow City man to draw a number in the recent land drawing. We have been informed that he drew No. 4779, which should entitle him to a good quarter section of land.

Mr. David Walters is enjoying a visit from his brother, Samuel Walters and wife, of Colorado.

Mrs. Turnland and daughters, Kate and Esther, were Denison shoppers Saturday.

The M. E. people expect to resume their Sunday evening services next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harper and their aunt, Mrs. Cain, arrived home Thursday evening from an extended tour of the West. They were at the exposition at Seattle and visited many other places of interest. It goes without saying that they had a very enjoyable time, but glad to get home.

The usual Hallowe'en hilarity depredations and vexations occurred Saturday evening, but so far as heard no great damage was done, just the usual number of small out buildings being overturned.

The Baptist people will continue their revival services through this week. There seems to be considerable interest and some conversions are reported.

Mr. William Galland, who was reported quite sick last week, is somewhat improved, but is still confined to the house.

There was an impromptu Hallowe'en party at the E. H. Swasey home. They made candy and had a good time generally.

Sears Nelson returned Saturday evening after spending nearly seven weeks in the West. He reports the Yukon-Pacific exposition as being great. He visited the coast and all the principal cities of the west also the big orange groves near Riverside, Cal. He reports the trip well worth the price and reports having "the time of his life," but glad to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rudd and daughters attended the funeral of Mr. Rudd's brother at Deloit Sunday. Much sympathy is expressed for the relatives in their sad bereavement.

Miss Ida Waterhouse of Dunlap was visiting Miss Grace Swatman over Sunday.

Miss Ellen Scott of Paradise was a Sunday visitor at the Bixler home.

The Dow City high school football team went down to Missouri Valley Saturday and played the Missouri Valley high school team. The score stood 16 to 0 in favor of the Dow City team. Our boys are well trained and can beat almost anything, but they take victory as modestly as they take defeat pleasantly. They speak very highly of the boys down there and say they were entertained handsomely. The next game will be played on the Dow City grounds November 13. Bear the date in mind and everybody turn out and boost for the Dow City high school.

The Rebekah convention of the twenty fourth district will be at Charter Oak November 6th.

James Riddle and Lew Smith came from Creighton, Neb., to attend the James Riddle funeral. Deceased was an uncle of James Riddle.

William McBride and wife were business visitors at Denison Saturday.

Miss Grace Hansen is to be the cook in the new hotel.

Mrs. J. U. Wise and Mrs. Will Seamen and daughter were in Denison Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brake and sons, Earl and Vincent, went to Lincoln, Neb., Saturday to visit relatives till Monday.

Mr. John Berka and family of Arion visited at the Frank Berka home Sunday.

Mrs. O. A. Cooper gave a birthday party for her little son, Monday evening which was much enjoyed by the little folks.

Mrs. J. J. Carson came down from Sac county last Thursday and packed her mother's household goods for shipment as her mother, Mrs. S. J. Waters, is getting too aged and feeble to be left alone. She will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Carson. Mrs. Waters has lived in Dow City continuously for more than twenty years and it is hard for her to leave her home. She will remain for a few days at the M. H. Blanding home before going to the home of her daughter.

Word was received last Thursday that James Riddle had died that afternoon at Indianola, Iowa. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddle, both now deceased. He was born in Michigan thirty-nine years ago and has lived for most of his life in and about Dow City. He has been in failing health for several

A NOTABLE REUNION SUNDAY
The Near Relatives of Mr. J. M. Potter Gather at Denison to do Honor to the Family's Head.

A few weeks ago we noted the celebration of Mr. J. M. Potter of his eighty-third birthday. At that time his near relatives could not find it convenient to be in Denison to commemorate the event by a family reunion, and so it took place on Saturday and Sunday last. All the week the clan began to gather and by Sunday twenty-two were under the roof of Mr. Potter in the north part of Denison. Mrs. Merrill was the hostess. It will be needless to say that all enjoyed a fine time. The relatives and friends from out of town were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Potter and baby of Colorado Springs, Chester Potter of Des Moines, Miss Kittie Rollinson of Des Moines, Mr. Clay Priny of Dubuque, Kate Priny of Sac City, Mrs. H. C. Priny of Center Point, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lee and children of Sac City, Mrs. Ellen Nichols of Glidden, Iowa, Mr. Clifford Merrill of Omaha.

ARION ITEMS.

Mrs. Michels is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Clark.

The Arion members of the Dow City High School foot ball team stopped at that place on their return months and everything that could be done for his relief has failed, and death was not unexpected. The body was brought to Dow City Saturday morning and the funeral was held at the Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. of which order he was a member. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Kosier of the Methodist church and the remains were laid to rest by the side of his father and mother in the Dow City cemetery. He leaves to mourn his loss two brothers, R. L. Riddle and Edward Riddle, both of near Dow City and Mrs. W. W. Cushman of Denison and many other relatives, who have the sympathy of their friends.

MRS. MARY CURRIE FLEMING,
A True Hearted Wife and Mother Whose Sad Death Was Recorded Last Week.

Saturday H. C. Stempel, W. E. Fishel, Ed. Abart and C. L. Butler of Arion started for the Missouri bottoms for a duck hunt.

Robert Woodruff came up from Council Bluffs for a short business visit. He and his wife started for their home at Green River, Utah, Tuesday.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all druggists. 44-4

A Pink and White Reception.

On Monday afternoon in striking contrast to the gray without, Mrs. J. H. Patterson gave a pink and white reception to Mrs. Kelly of Omaha, a guest of Mrs. George Nicholson. Mesdames Patterson, Nicholson, Baker and Kelly were in the receiving line standing in the living room which was decorated in pink roses. Frappe was served in the hall, the bevy of pretty girls wearing either pink or white. The Misses McHenry, Sims, Cushman, Neave and Hart assisting. Mrs. Ray Friend poured tea and Miss Cushman cofee during the serving hours. The dining room was very attractive in pink roses, the side board having an especially artistic arrangement of roses. Refreshments were served in two courses and were very nice. The reception was very informal and was dainty and elegant in all its effects.

from the game at Missouri Valley. There was great rejoicing over the victory and a jolly taffy pull at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swasey.

Mrs. E. R. Holden of Castana spent several days visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Walsh.

N. P. Underhill was a Dunlap visitor last Sunday.

Ava Butler went to Omaha Saturday.

An automobile party of young people spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly.

Miss Bertha Lewis is spending a week here visiting friends, which term includes everyone, who knows her.

A number of young people went last Saturday evening to the home of Miss Vada Kevan for a Hallowe'en party. They report a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Ira Underhill of Omaha and Mrs. Carr of Denison were guests of Mrs. Evans on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horn and little daughter returned last week from their trip west.

Mrs. L. C. Butler, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. V. Talcott and Mrs. Reynolds were Denison callers last Saturday.

Atha Stilson was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

The officers of the Ladies' Aid Society prepared a very nice lunch and served it at the Thursday afternoon meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Evans and at which nearly all the members were present. Mrs. Kevan was an out of town guest.

The young people enjoyed a very pleasant evening with games at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stilson last Friday.

There was a good attendance at the Thursday evening meeting for Bible study. These meetings are very interesting. The next one will be held at the manse.

Miss Mary Redfern of Holdridge, Neb., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Maxey.

Dr. Luxford moved into the rooms above the bank last week.

HERE IS RELIEF FOR WOMEN.
If you have pains in the back, urinary, bladder or kidney trouble and want a certain, pleasant herb relief from Women's Ills, try Mother Gray's "AUSTRALIAN-LEAF." It is a safe, reliable regulator, and relieves all Female Weaknesses, including inflammation and ulcerations. Mother Gray's Australian-Leaf is sold by Druggists or sent by mail for 50 cts. Sample sent FREE. Address, The Mother Gray Co., Le Roy, N.Y.