

I KNOW

THAT
Buster Brown
Blue Ribbon Shoes
are the proper foot apparel for nicely-dressed boys and girls. There is quality in them that is not found in the ordinary kind—quality that is appreciated more by critical comparison.

—GET THEM AT—

The Boy's Store

where Buster Brown and Tige, his dog, will make their headquarters

November 18th

Fine Singers

We just received from the Importers an extra fine lot of Imported

Harz Mountain Canaries

and Andreasberg Rollers, which we still sell at $3.00 and $4.00 resp. Although all Imported Canaries are higher in price at New York.

Come at once to make your selection—You will be pleased to do so.

I cordially invite you to hear them.

R. KNAUL

Everyone Pleased

The Well Known
Oculist - Aurist

Dr. A. H. Weber

of Des Moines

will be at the

Hotel Denison,

Monday, November 22nd,

to cure diseases of the

Eye, Ear, Nose Throat

with mild medicines. No medicines used in the eye that will injure the sight. All treatment painless straightened in two minutes without pain.

Cross Eyes

Cataract Cured

Glasses

Fitted to correct all sights and guaranteed.

Headache

Cured by glasses. Eyes and ingrowing lashes cured.

Catarrh

Cured by a new method.

Examination Free.

Come!

RELATIVES CONTEST

SNELLBAKER WILL

INTERESTING CONTEST PROMISED OVER RICHES OF ECCENTRIC WOMAN

RATH WILL TO BE CONTESTED

Suits Arising Out of Real Estate Deals Will Also Attract Attention of Judge and Jury at Next Term.

District Court will convene on Monday next, with Judge Z. A. Church presiding. There are quite a large number of trial cases on the calendar, but whether they will be tried or not, remains to be seen. Some of the cases are of such a character as to attract the attention of the community.

We notice, what is claimed to be the last will of Miss Snellbaker, who died a short time ago, is offered for probate. The alleged will appears to have been made a long time since, in the neighborhood of twenty years ago. It disposes of her estate by giving certain small legacies to her brothers and sisters and to two other people she must have known at that time, by the name of Nixon. Allen Nixon, one of the legatees, lives in Ohio and his sister, the other legatee in Kansas. The bulk of the estate, after the payment of a few small legacies goes to the two Nixons. What reason existed for giving the estate to the Nixons, rather than to her own family, does not appear, but it is very evident that conditions have changed since her will was made in 1890, because since then, she has legally or illegally, cancelled her will by drawing a line across the face of it and writing, under it that she cancelled it. We understand that some of her brothers and sisters will probably make a contest of the probate of the will as they claim she never made it. It is known by several people here, that Miss Snellbaker, conceived a positive dislike for Miss Nixon, one of the beneficiaries in the will, who visited her at one time, and it is presumed that this dislike on the part of Miss Snellbaker for Miss Nixon, accounts for the attempted cancellation of the will.

Another contest of a will is that of Mrs. Henrietta Rath, who died several years ago. The will was admitted to probate in due time and the estate has been fully settled and distributed. Lena Wendt, one of the heirs, a daughter, has filed a petition to set aside the probate of the will. This is the third petition that she has filed to set aside the probate of the will. On the two former occasions she dismissed her contest, when the case was reached for trial. We do not know what the purpose is of filing the petition at this time, but presume it is to press the matter to judgment.

W. W. Cushman brings a suit against D. C. Thew for commission, for selling a farm south of Denison to Mr. McBride. He alleges the farm had been sold, and the parties met in an office in Denison, to draw up the contract, and before consummation, Mr. Thew, abandoned the sale, and refused to pay the commission. The Court will have to decide the liability on Mr. Thew's part to pay the commission before he will pay it.

Another commission case is that of Frank Robb vs Borchardt Brothers of Charter Oak. Mr. Robb claims that Borchardt Brothers who are engaged in the real estate business, solicited his efforts to help dispose of some land near Charter Oak, and that they received the commission, and refused to settle with him for it.

Another case, which will probably come up for trial, is that of Paulina Graham vs The First National Bank, of Denison which is an action on her part to recover the amount due on a certificate of deposit, payable to her brother who died a short time ago. The certificate of deposit was given to Mrs. Graham before her brother's death, and some of the other heirs, are disposed to contest her right to recover the money, hence the suit against the bank to recover the amount. The bank is ready, able and willing to pay, whoever is entitled to the money on the certificate of deposit, but prefers to have the order of the Court to protect it against any possible danger in the future.

The grand jury will meet on Nov 15, but the trial jurors are not called for a week later. Some thirty trial notices have been filed but this may not mean many jury cases. A recent case filed is one brought for $5,000 for slander brought by Phoebe Johnson against Noah Johnson. This is a case from Deloit. The plaintiff claims that the defendant told John W. Rickman that she had stolen some corn and potatoes and said other things to damage her character. The barber, McGoff, who was indicted by the name of Wood for entering the Christiansen barber shop will probably be tried again, as the jury disagreed in his case at the last term of court.

Try The Racket Store for toilet soap.

Gail Richardson will attend the Iowa-Ames game.

On Thursday the Dieux Club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Balle.

Large 14 inch hand bag, all leather for 98c at The Racket Store.

Coffee Club meets a week from Friday with Mrs. E. K. Burch.

Coterie Club will meet a week from Thursday with Mrs. Ralph Norris.

The Somerset Club met Tuesday night with Miss Myrtle McAhren.

The largest hand bag you ever saw for the money at The Racket Store.

Buster Brown's coming and so is Tige on a Thursday, November eighteenth.

The Queen Esther Circle will hold their annual Musical at Miss Scribers' home tonight.

You never saw anything to beat this—a silk elastic belt for 10c at The Racket Store.

Mrs. C. F. Kuehnle and Mrs. Haller were over Sunday guests at the E. C. Laub home in Sioux City.

Home Made Comforters. Best ever. At prices cheaper than you can make them. R. W. Bamford.

FOR SALE—Ten pure bred Poland China fall boars and one old herd boar. Arthur Girard, Schleswig, 42tf.

Mr. Fred Arnold came Saturday from Anoka, Neb., for an extended visit with his sister, Mrs. Will Jordan.

Mr. C. F. Kuehnle and Carl Frederick will go to Iowa City for the Ames-Iowa game, being joined there by Miss Lydia Belle.

FOR SALE—I have for sale a number of thoroughbred White Wyandotte cockerals. Arnold Bachman, Denison, Route 4. 44-2pd

P. H. Schwartz of Gildford, Mont., who has been visiting relatives here for the past ten days, returned to his western home to-day.

Miss Alice Stevens and Miss Anna Peterson visited friends in Cedar Rapids over Sunday. While there they heard Billy Sunday, the great Revivalist.

Mrs. E. Gulick went to Des Moines Tuesday joining Mrs. Voss. A number of luncheons and receptions will be given in these ladies honor during their Des Moines visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lang and grandson, Robert Harthun, returned on Monday evening from St. Joseph, Mo., where they have been enjoying a visit with relatives and friends for the past five weeks.

Friday night the P. E. O. minstrels at the club room. Possum, water melon and fried chicken—all razors taken from guests at door. No common white trash admitted. Only members and their husbands. No chestnuts in the way of jokes allowed.

The Zulu Twins

in their "Trip Through Africa" will make their appearance on Dec. 3. See the Zulu Chorus—20 in number—with Bolivar, the big elephant. This is a home talent production original and first class, out-classing anything put on here before. The boys promise a red hot performance.

Fresh Buckwheat Flour at West Denison Mill. 44-2

WANTED—A man to husk corn. Inquire of R. L. Lowmes, Denison, Route 2. C. C. Phone 7K. 42tf.

Smith Says:

The old Book Store is not going out of the Holiday business. This year you will find a bigger and better assortment of

Books, Toys, Fancy Goods,

Etc., Etc., than ever before. Watch the Book Store ads in the near future for particulars. It will not be long before the goods will be on display for your inspection.

The Corner Book Store

Special Millinery Sale

Special Sale on all Millinery for two days, commencing Friday and continuing over Saturday, we will make prices so low you cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

SALE WILL LAST ONLY TWO DAYS

Friday and Saturday Nov. 12-13

This Sale will include all Millinery. Prices will surprise you during this sale. See our Special Tables. Hats valued up to $6 during this Sale for $2.75. Over seventy-five hats to select at this low price.

ATTEND THIS SPECIAL SALE AND SAVE MONEY

BAMFORDS

Queen Louise

"Noblesse Oblige"

The old French phrase means that Nobility brings with it obligation.

The Queen Quality Shoes

FOR WOMEN AND MISSES

FULFILL EVERY OBLIGATION OF THAT NOBLE NAME.

Handsome, Durable, Neat, Well Fitting, Made on Honor and Sold on Their Merits. Every Queenly Foot should be shod with Queen Quality Shoes.

In Denison They Are Sold Only at

The Boy's Department Store

THE KNIGHTS HAVE A SOCIAL

The Membership of Dowdall Lodge Knights of Pythias Entertain Lady Friends.

One of the most prosperous of the various lodges of Denison is that of the Knights of Pythias. It has a snug sum at interest on good investment and so can afford to have a spread once or twice a year and a program of music and readings. One of these was given on last Monday evening, and was well attended. The Chancellor Commander W. R. Kirkup, presided. In due time he made a most gracious address of welcome and announced the following program:

Music—Wheeler-Hover orchestra. Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Sibbert. Reading—Mrs. J. B. Romans. Duet—Misses Gebert and Lyon. Reading—Miss Hedwig Brodersen. The singing of Mr. and Mrs. Sibbert was charming. Mrs. Romans had to appear twice and then the listeners wanted more. The Misses Gebert and Lyon chime sweetly together and Miss Brodersen gave her two selections in a way to gain new laurels. The orchestra played some entrancing music and some who danced could not resist a whirl about the hall.

After a further social time the refreshments were announced in the reading room hall below. Several pretty girls served a fine supper on trays to the over one hundred Knights and their ladies. The supper over, there was an adjournment to the hall above where games were in order and dignity was to be thrown aside for the time. Games old and new were indulged in for an hour and about midnight the separation, all present feeling that the Knights had been entertaining hosts.

"The Girl and the Gawk," which showed here last evening at the theater, was welcomed by a crowded house, as it should have been, and it is safe to say that all who witnessed the production felt that their money was certainly well spent and enjoyed a good, clean comedy drama, which was a welcome departure from the usual blood-curdling plays, in which shooting is the main feature. Della Locke as Annie Laurie, the girl, was exceptionally good, and completely won the audience by her innocent ways and good heartedness. She is certainly a winsome little body. Will H. Locke as Jim Jones, the Gawk, was certainly worth seeing. A more awkward acting person could not possibly be imagined, yet he was so pure and good at heart that you had to like him, for "you couldn't help it." Henry W. Locke as Colonel Strong, gave a perfect delineation of the true Southern gentleman, without resorting to coarseness to induce laughter.

The scenery throughout the play is carried by the company, and is very appropriate and pretty. The costumes are exquisite.—Deadwood Daily Telegraph. Germania Opera House Nov. 17.

$25.00 Reward.

I will give a reward of $25.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of parties who tipped over the wood and coal shed on my premises on the High School grounds.

W. A. LANG.

"A Trip Through Africa"—Dec. 6.