NOVEMBER NOTABLE FOR NUPTIAL KNOTSLITTLE DAN CUPID HAS TO HUSTLE TO KEEP WARM

THREE HAPPY WEDDINGS RESULT

Denison Young People Greatly Interested In Fair Young Brides and Stalwart Grooms of the Month.

"It was in the grey November" seems to have no terrors for Dan Cupid in Denison town. Within the next few days three of as pretty and attractive young ladies as Denison can boast will have been wedded to three stalwart and worthy young men. Two of the brides are to leave our city while one is to remain.

The first of the three weddings scheduled for nearby dates was that of Mr. Robert Earl Cavett and Miss Cecil Maude Quade. The ceremony took place last Thursday at ten-thirty at the parsonage of St. Rose of Lima church, Rev. Father M. J. Farrelly officiating. The young people went to Omaha for a visit with friends and relatives and will then return to make Denison their home.

Mr. Cavett is a splendid young man. His character is fine. He has sown no wild oats. He has been as steady as clockwork, reliable, straightforward and hard working. Although a young man he has made rapid advancement with the Fairmount Creamery Co. and he occupies a position of trust and responsibility. He is a young man of whom his parents and Denison as a community may well be proud.

The fair bride is a delightfully attractive and handsome young lady. She too has a record for ability and industry and splendid womanly qualities which it would be difficult to excel. Certainly the pathway of life opens brightly before these energetic, high-minded young people and the Review wishes them a worldful of joy and happiness.

Of the other weddings of which the Review will speak more at length next week, the first will be that of Miss Lucy Fitzpatrick, one of the handsome daughters of Mr. Frank Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Thomas L. McAndrews of Portsmouth, Iowa. The ceremony will take place at St. Rose of Lima church and will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McCarthy with whom the bride has made her home since girlhood. These young people will be at home at Portsmouth, Iowa, after December first.

On Thursday, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. McNeal, will occur the wedding of Mr. Wintford A. McPeck and Miss Carrie McNeal. The bride is well known in this vicinity, she is a charmingly pretty, vivacious little lady and the groom is indeed fortunate in having won her for his own. Mr. and Mrs. McPeck will be at home after December twentieth at Crescent City, Oklahoma. The Review has full confidence that these well mated couples give promise of happy homes and contented, useful lives. It is with pleasure that we present to our readers the portraits of this trio of handsome November brides.

Miss Lula Howorth of Dow City was a shopper in Denison on Monday.

Mr. E. H. Swasey of Dow City transacted business in Denison Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dunn of Camanche, Iowa, were guests at the E. Gulick home over Sunday.

A Western Wedding.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dwyer, 02528 Glenwood St., Spokane, Wash., Nov. 17th, 1909, at 8 p. m., Miss Ora E. Dwyer and Clyde C. Rowland, Rev. Gallagher of the First United Brethren church officiating. The bride was handsomely gowned in a cream colored silk aedien dress trimmed in satin novelty braid and carried white roses. The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Hazel Rowland was bridesmaid and wore white Persian lawn and carried pink carnations. Clark A. Stone was groomsmen.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dwyer and is an accomplished young lady. For the past two years she has been stenographer for Collins Bros. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rowland and is a young man of exemplary habits. He holds the position of shipping clerk of the box department of the Washington Mill Co.

After the ceremony a bounteous wedding dinner was served. The many gifts were beautiful and costly. After a short trip to Cement, Wash., they will be at home at 02528 Glenwood St., Spokane, Wash.

The Review in Demand.

Although more than four thousand copies of last week's Review were printed we still have not had enough to supply all who wished them. Friends of those whose portraits appeared in that issue are anxious to obtain more copies than we could give them. If you still have yours they would appreciate it if you would bring or send it to this office and we will give it to them with your compliments. It is the Review of Nov. 17, last week's paper, that is wanted.

Prof. L. C. Rusmisl sends us an invitation to attend the convention of the Missouri Valley Commercial Teachers Association. Mr Rusmisl is President of the association and the meeting place is St Joseph and the dates Nov 26-27. Prof. Rusmisl is gaining an enviable place in his profession and is becoming recognized as one of the leading commercial teachers of the United States.

Mrs. Dora Louis of Iowa City, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Meyers, left last week to spend two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. A. Van Wagenen, of Sioux City, after which she will return to Denison.

THE RELIEF CORPS
GIVES RECEPTION

IN HONOR OF MRS. GEORGIA WADE McCLELLAN.

NATIONAL OFFICERS PRESENT

Patriotic Societies Unite in Tributes to Distinguished Denison Woman. National Secretary of a Great Order.

Not since the days of years ago when W. A. McHenry was welcomed home as department commander, and later Mrs. Mary Sears McHenry was given recognition by her neighbors upon her election to the position of National President, has there been in Denison such enthusiasm shown in G. A. R. and W. R. C. circles as was manifested last Wednesday evening when a formal reception was given Mrs. Georgia Wade McClellan the newly selected national secretary of the Womans' Relief Corps. The occasion was of such consequence as to call to Denison the National President, Mrs. Jennie Iowa Berry; the department president, Mrs. Marie L. Basham, and Mrs. Hinman, one of the national aides.

The reception was in charge of the John A. Logan Relief Corps at whose head is Mrs. Emma Boylan, a woman well versed in lodge affairs and thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the order. She was ably assisted by the other members of the Corps. In fact all vied with the other in trying to make the affair a success in every way, desiring to show honor to the Mrs. McClellan, who had been their friend and neighbor for so many years.

The ladies chose for the place of the reception the lodge hall of the Masonic order and the reading room of the McKim hall. It was most fitting indeed that this should be the place where Mrs. McClellan was to be honored for the McKim hall is one of the monuments in Denison of her activities along temperance lines. She was a prominent worker in the W. C. T. U. when the funds were given to build the hall and she served as a trustee and leading manager when the structure was erected and has been an officer in some capacity in the Union ever since.

During the afternoon of the day the distinguished officers had arrived and were entertained at dinner together with Mrs. Boylan at the home of Mrs. Christine Snyder Romans, who by the way, was once an Iowa department president, and has been in close touch with the corps since, as inspector, lecturer and member of the committee to look after the Memorial University. In the evening the G. A. R. members, Sons of Veterans and Corps united in the great reception. The lodge room had been decorated with beautiful flags and the banners of the three patriotic orders and looked magnificent.

At the appointed time the hall was crowded with people. Mrs. Boylan presided. There was music by an orchestra for the opening and then came the forming of the receiving line and the formal tendering of congratulation to the distinguished woman, and introduction to the national officers. Mr. J. B. Lyon, commander of the S. of V. represented his order, and Mr. Ed. Sierer, post commander, the G. A. R. Many were the kind and appreciative words showered on Mrs. McClellan by her friends as they grasped her hand.

Mrs. Boylan announced the program for the evening, calling first on Mr. and Mrs. McManaghey, who sang a charming duet. Mrs. Christine Snyder Romans spoke for the local corps in her inimitable manner expressing the pleasure of the corps on the elevation of their sister, Mrs. McClellan, to the high and responsible office of national secretary and adding her personal words of eulogy and praise. On behalf of the G. A. R. Comrade John Richardson spoke. He has known the self-sacrificing labors of the honored one of the occasion during a period of over thirty years. His words of tribute and appreciation touched the heart of Mrs. McClellan and when he sat down she arose and thanked him, and renewed her pledge to care for the union soldiers and their families as long as her life was spared. Comrade Lyon spoke for the S. of V. As might be expected he began with a couple of good stories and in well considered words paid tribute to the worth of the national secretary. He was followed by R. Shaw Van.

There was a change in the program, and a call for music made. Mrs. Lou Gulick Martin, daughter of a veteran, responded. Mr. Borboroka was present with his violin to assist Miss May Hayes on the piano, with the accompaniment. The solos by Mrs. Martin were highly appreciated particularly when she sang America.

The Great Victrola at $125.00 Can't
Be BeatDo You Know that Christmas
Is Right at Our Door?

It hardly seems possible, but the old saying that "Time and tide wait for no man" is again proven true. You know that the weather and roads may both be bad at Christmas time, so don't you see that the wise thing to do is to come in early and get the first choice.

Now there's one thing that we will give you timely warning of. Everything in the watch line has advanced in price from $1.00 to $2.50 each. Now we were fortunate enough to know this and bought our stock early, so we are going to make DECEMBER OUR GREAT WATCH MONTH. We are going to sell you watches at a price you won't soon get again. We have a dandy watch for a boy at $4.50 or a nice twenty year gold watch for only $9 and ladies watches $10 and up. Now do not delay buying your watches as the price must go up as soon as our present stock is sold, so it is very necessary for you to act promptly.

The only way to appreciate our stock of rings in both signet and set is to see them. We will make you some very attractive prices on Diamond Rings also. You, of course, will see us before buying.

You have never looked at a nicer assortment of Souvenir Spoons than we have to show you and, of course, you will want to remember that you get a superior job of engraving on the spoons you buy of us.
