A Small Talk About Our Store

It is a surprise to visitors to find a good drug store in a town the size of Buck Grove, and it is only rendered possible by the liberal patronage of the farmers in the vicinity, for which we are duly grateful. Of course it saves them some driving, but they patronize us because they can get what they want, and buy even cheaper than they can in larger towns.

Everybody knows why this is, nothing but a saving in cost of running a business, and having several iron's in the fire. Then, too, we generally have what our customers want.

Now here are a few things generally kept in stock:

Plasters of all kinds,	Post Cards,
Petrolatum,	Post Card Albums,
Cold Cream,	Novels,
Talcom Powder,	Perfumes,
Denver Mud,	Pressed Herbs,
Denatured Alcohol,	Syringes,
Alcohol Stoves,	Playing Cards,
Chamois Skins,	Rubber Goods,
Inks and Mucilage,	Elastic Stockings,
Trusses,	Paper and Envelopes,
Surgical Appliances,	Cigars,

Patent Medicines, Salts, Glue, Copperas, Sulphur, Pills, Rock Candy, Licorise, Prescription Drugs, Castor Oil, Sweet Oil, Ammonia, Sulphur, et cetera.

WALL PAPER

For the coming season I have just placed the largest order for Wall Paper I ever bought. Come in and see my samples before you buy, and you will be delighted with what I have to show you. I have more than One Hundred fine patterns of The Latest Styles, bought from headquarters and at lowest Cash Price. Wait.

A convenience is, Dr. Bonney is now always at home, and while not able to drive will attend to all office work, and fit Glasses at prices from $1.00 up, according to quality.

We generally have for sale Honey—Section, Chunk and Extracted.

Finally, you can get into the store day or night. When store is closed, come to the back door and kick.

We will be glad to get up any time in the night to sell a poor farmer a pill or give him his mail. Yes.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Word has reached here from Rodney, Iowa, that Mr. and Mrs. James Boyer, formerly of this place, have recently adopted a little girl from the orphans home in Sioux City. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer recently lost a baby, a daughter, so they have taken to their hearts an infant about a month old, whom they have named Joy LuVerne. It is hoped that the little one who is so fortunate as to have secured so good a home, will grow up a blessing to her benefactors and fill the place left vacant by the death of their baby daughter.

Mr. Frank Hain has been dealing in horses lately. He bought a fine team and buggy about two weeks ago and Saturday sold them at an advance in price to his brother, Herman.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Haine of Indianola, Iowa, have been visiting relatives here for the past week dividing their time between Jasper Hain's and Will Moffitt's homes. The former a brother, and the latter, Mrs. Moffitt, being a sister. They left Monday morning for a few days' visit with relatives near Dow City, before returning to their home.

Roy Slater was a visitor Wednesday at Byron McMullen's.

Mrs. Sue Moffitt had a birthday Wednesday and received quite a shower of post cards. This is a pleasant way of showing kind remembrance. Fritz Olsen returned Thursday from Denison, where he had been serving on the jury. It was pleasanter work than picking corn these days anyway.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Slater last Friday morning and left them a dear little baby boy. All doing well.

The Misses Gertrude Kearney of Vail and Maggie McNertney of Manilla, were guests at Mayor Finnigan's over Sunday.

Robert Beutel was a county seat visitor from Saturday until Sunday night.

Mrs. John Faulkner has been quite sick for several days, but was able to sit up Sunday afternoon.

There were no services at St. Joseph's church here Sunday owing to bad roads. It was impossible for Father Lynch to get here.

ARION ITEMS.

Riley Talcott, Jr., left Monday for Sioux City, where he will enter a law office.

Miss Lillian Flahive was in town between trains Monday.

A. A. Conrad was a Denison caller last Thursday.

Benson Smith shipped a car load of fat cattle Monday.

Miss Lulu Howorth resigned her position as teacher in the Meeves' school to accept a position as teacher in the schools of St. Anthony, Idaho. Miss Leona Henry is finishing the term.

N. P. Underhill was a Denison visitor Sunday.

Robt. McKim of Des Moines stopped at Arion last week and drove out to see his farm which lies south of town.

L. C. Butler has purchased Mr. Chas. Horn's fine residence.

Ray Lehan was a Denison caller Saturday.

W. Brown came Sunday for a visit at the Arion Hotel.

M. D. Hill bought two cars of cattle in this neighborhood last week.

Al Eggers and wife shipped their household goods and stock to Crofton, Neb., and will make their home on a farm about eleven miles from that place.

The school children are being drilled by the teacher, Miss Mumley, in a very pretty cantata, which will be given at the closing exercises of the school and also at the church on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tranter were guests at the Arion Hotel Monday going from here to Denison for a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. Nelda Smith.

Mrs. Jennie Winters, who has been visiting here for some time, returned to her home in South Dakota last week. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Roberts.

Edward Wigg, a former Arion boy, made a short visit with friends Sunday.

Jay Lynch was a Sunday visitor to Denison.

Miss Garnet Norman came Wednesday evening to see her friends, who gave the musical number here, and attended the concert.

Mrs. Martin Conroy has returned from a pleasant visit to her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, who live at Ashton, S. D. While on her way home she stopped to visit friends at Dixon, Neb.

The second number of the lecture course was presented on the evening of Dec. 1st by the Russell Concert Co. A very good audience was present. The music was given by Miss Russell, who played the cello and by Mr. Russell, who proved to be a master in bringing melodies from a number of new and novel musical instruments and they were encored several times. Mrs. Russell, the reader, gave several selections that held the interest of her hearers throughout and pleased them very much.

Mr. B. Romans was a guest of the L. Green Hotel Saturday.

We have just received another shipment of winter goods. If you want a bargain call at once at Nelson Bros. Dow City, Iowa.
