Annual January White Goods Sale

Commencing Saturday, January 22, and Ending Friday, January 28.

It has always been our policy to have the best that can be gotten in the market for our trade. This is acknowledged to be the time of year when business in the market are the duller and being anxious to get all the business possible, the largest and best manufacturers and wholesalers are making big concessions on goods for immediate delivery. Our buyer has just returned from two of the largest markets in the United States, and we have the greatest values that we have ever offered in White Goods. Not only are the selections the best that will be shown in Denison this season, but the prices we are putting on these goods will make them move so fast that next week will be, without doubt, the largest week that we have ever had in January and February. Compare these prices.
