50c Fleeced Underwear, clearing sale 39c. $1.50 Men's Sweater Coats 95c. $2.00 Men's Sweater Coats $1.75, at Herman's store.

Last Thursday night some one smashed in the door of the washing room of the Northwestern depot. This is hardly to be wondered at as the depot is kept locked and any one coming or going in the night is compelled to wait on the platform in all kinds of weather, which is not pleasant. Dow City is entitled to better service from the railroad company.

Quite a number from here attended the masquerade ball in Denison last Friday evening and report a good time.

The Misses Edna Fritz and Esther Turnlund visited friends in Arion Sunday afternoon.

Last Thursday evening the Friday club went down to the Enos Cross home for a surprise party. The evening was spent in dancing and card playing and other amusements. One of the most enjoyable features was the nice supper which the ladies had prepared and taken with them. If they were not having a good time they would not have stayed so long.

$25.00 Fur Coat, black Galloway with wombat collar, good size, biggest bargain of the year $17.75. $35.00 Australian calf fur coat, has double cuffs and large collar, large size and fine color. If you want to make $10.25 here is your chance. Only $24.75 at Herman's store.

Last Wednesday night a window on the north side of G. W. Langley's feed and flour store was broken in and a sack of flour was dragged out and carried away. That looks a little better than to say stolen. Fortunately the thief cut his hand so badly, also the flour sack was so badly torn on the broken glass that he was trailed by the blood and flour for over three blocks. There is strong suspicion who the guilty party is, but no arrests have been made. There has been a number of sacks of flour and feed been stolen from in front of this store and taken from buggies after night. Some one is very apt to get into trouble if such thieving is kept up.

Mr. Leonard Butterworth was an over Sunday visitor with friends at Deloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lazerns went to Omaha Sunday afternoon and returned home Monday.

Sunday Henry Olmstead's children were at play when one accidentally struck another in the forehead with an ax cutting it quite badly. A physician dressed the wound and the little fellow is getting along very nicely.

Miss Winnie Rudd was an over Sunday visitor with relatives at Deloit.

Quite a number of the members of the Dow City Encampment went to Jefferson one night last week to attend the annual banquet and meeting at that place.

Mrs. William Blackman who lives north of town, has been quite sick, but is somewhat better.

Mrs. A. H. Cook and son Oliver, of Paradise, were over Sunday visitors with relatives in town.

Only two of those fur coats left. They are this year's stock and fully guaranteed. Will sacrifice them for quick sales at Herman's store.

Miss Ora Butterworth went out in the country Monday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Leslie Holcomb.

Mrs. Isaac Bixler received a letter Monday, stating that her son Sam, and wife were the proud parents of twin girls which arrived at their home very recently.

Last Wednesday W. C. Rolls had nearly a gallon of oysters set out on the snow behind his restaurant to keep cool until he was ready for them. When he went out to get them they had mysteriously disappeared, pall and all.

The Diamond Concert company gave a show in Abart's hall every night last week. It was a company selling and advertising a line of medicine. It was pronounced the best ten cent show ever seen in Dow City. Of course they sold lots of their medicine. In a voting contest Miss Grace Hansen was awarded the prize for being the most popular lady in Dow City, the prize being a gold watch. Her many friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. Henry Scott has been quite sick the last week but is now improving.

Mr. Will Morrison sold his household goods on the street last Saturday. They will visit relatives in Des Moines for a time, then go to Wyoming where they expect to make their future home.

Last Saturday afternoon Landlady Huntington entertained the Friday club at the hotel. Every one says Jennie is a fine entertainer.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Joe Pearlall invited about twenty-four of the friends of her little son Meard, to help him celebrate his birthday. Most seems like the children enjoy a party better than grown up folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rule went to Lake View Monday for a several days visit with Mr. Rule's brother, George, who lives at that place.

Mrs. Fields had the pleasure of entertaining two of her nieces the first of this week.

Clarence and Eldredge Bryan have just recently purchased a tract of three hundred and twenty acres of land joining their present farm on the north. This makes them four hundred and eighty acres of land and a very fine farm indeed. They are hustling young farmers and will make good.

Mr. Link Riddle has just finished harvesting a very fine crop of ice. He shipped something like twenty car loads to Charter Oak and Ute.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John Rae started west. They are going to visit for a time in Colorado, also will go to Green River, Utah where Mrs. Rae's sister, Mrs. N. F. Smith, lives. They are yet undecided where they will locate. This is one of the best families of the community and will be very greatly missed, as Mrs. Rae was a very active member in all branches of work in the Methodist church. A host of friends wish for them a continuation of health and prosperity and congratulates the community where they may locate. Our loss is their gain.

Mr. John Duff and wife and Mrs. Jerome Blackman and son Fred, were Sunday visitors at the R. W. Houston home.

Verne Fouts has come to the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Miller and is sick with tuberculosis.

Rev. Kosier has closed the series of revival services which has been conducted in the Methodist church, Monday evening being the last.

The last number on the lecture course will be held Friday evening, January 28. Mr. L. W. Ford, a noted cartoonist, will furnish the entertainment which promises to be one of the best in the course. The management extends and invitation to all to attend this number and enjoy the evening.

On Monday afternoon at about five o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. William Kelley had been out about the barn. She slipped on the ice and fell and was so badly hurt she could not get up. She lay on the ground quite a while before she was able to make any one hear her call for help. She was carried into the house and a physician called. On examination it was found that her right hip was broken and she was suffering intensely. All was done for her relief that could be done. This is very serious as Mrs. Kelley is quite advanced in years, being some where in seventy, and is quite frail. All sympathize with her and very much regret that this great misfortune has overtaken her.
