Miss Ethel Murray and Miss Jessie Healep were shopping in Carroll between trains Saturday evening.

Mr. I. Patterson was a Denison caller Friday.

Mr. Harry Pahl and sister, Miss Ella Pahl, arrived Saturday from Preston for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pahl.

Mrs. A. Schneckloth of Denison visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Spottswood, this week.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society met with Mrs. F. E. Glascock last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Payne leader. A well prepared program on the subject, "The Bondsmen," was given after which Mrs. E. G. Dann sang a solo which was much enjoyed by all. Rev. J. J. Davies also gave a pleasing address. At the close of the afternoon's program Mrs. Glascock gave a very delicious two course luncheon for her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen of Denison were guests at the August Voss home last Sunday.

The Ladies' Industrial met at the home of Mrs. F. J. Gary last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Catharine Joens died Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Lamp. She was 82 years of age and had been an invalid for a great many years from rheumatism. She had been gradually failing on account of her advanced age but it was not thought she was in immediate danger, but her death came peacefully though sudden. She was the mother of seven children, five living, four sons and one daughter. The sons being John of Manning, Claus of Denison, Hans of Colony, Kansas, and Jurgen of Minnesota, the daughter, Mrs. Henry Lamp, with whom Mrs. Joens made her home. Services were held at the home conducted by Rev.

Karl Fauth, after which the remains were laid to rest in Hays township cemetery. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends.

Miss Lulu McGuire of Vail was in West Side Friday looking for a location in which to start a milliner store.

Miss Lulu E. Kilpatrick entertained her Sabbath School class at her home Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. All report a very pleasant afternoon.

KIRON ITEMS.

Rev. A. J. Youngberg from Washington will preach at the Mission church next Sunday morning and evening.

Tilda Johnston ended a most pleasant visit vacation of a couple of months with her parents and friends and returned to Sioux City to continue her work as nurse.

W. J. Sandberg and G. A. Norelius Odebolton on Monday last.

B. D. Clark from Denver, Col., visited the Chas. Waldemar home north of town the latter part of the week.

N. E. Chalmer of Washington D. C. is the honored guest at the home of S. N. and N. E. Sandstrom this week. He will locate in Brownsville, Texas, where he holds a government position.

Everett Warren is making preparations to move to Pomeroy, Iowa, where he recently purchased a farm.

All regret seeing Mr. Warren and family remove from our midst.

Peter Miller and wife spent the first of the week at Lake View with relatives.

Oscar Larson of Sioux City spent several days last week in Kiron.

From now on the Kiron letters will appear regular. Owing to lack of time ye scribe has neglected.

The Baptist people north of town will remodel their church and have an addition built on the north 28x30 and a kitchen on the east side 14x36. Joseph Engberg has been secured to superintend the work.

Kiron will have a change in post-mastership and the aspirants for the same are C. S. Billings, Aron Sedarberg and P. C. Lawrence. The commission of E. E. Clausen has expired and upon the request of the department to renew same he declines to do so as he does not desire the reappointment. Petitions have been circulated by the aspirants among the patrons of the office.

Rumors hath it that C. B. Larson entered the bonds of matrimony several weeks ago and if true has succeeded in keeping it from his friends. His numerous friends are investigating and if true Charles will have a hot time at their hands.

Carl Newman of Hudson, Wis., is spending a couple of weeks among his relatives and friends in Kiron.

N. P. S. wanson sold his fine black team of horses last week to Aron Miller for the sum of $500. It pays to raise good horses.

Chas. Dolk and N. P. Larson are jurying at Denison this week.
