

BOYER ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kullberg returned Thursday from their visit at Langon, Iowa.

Henry Brown was a passenger for Odebolt last Tuesday.

Elmer Kullberg came home from Kiron Saturday.

Nels Taylor and John Andersen came home from Chicago Thursday morning, where they marketed stock.

Mrs. Chas. Richardson and son, Clifford, returned Saturday from West Side. Mr. Richardson went to Chicago with a shipment of stock belonging to his father.

Among those who were drawn as petit jurors from this vicinity are F. A. Smith, P. J. Wolf and Wm. Meyers.

Last Thursday, Feb. 3rd, Mr. Christ Sonksen and Miss Leona Cowhman were married at Denison. The bride and groom are well known, having lived here in this vicinity all their lifetimes. We extend our congratulations.

Johnny Olson and Otto Olson accompanied two cars of cattle and machinery belonging to S. S. Stolt, Selbert, Col. Mr. Stolt left on Thursday for their new home. Wish them prosperity and health in their future home.

Wm. Simon returned Friday from his visit to Datoke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frahm came home Monday from Wall Lake.

Mr. H. B. Hanson, who is conducting the grain business at Boyer for the Trans-Mississippi Elevator Co., has taken in over twelve thousand bushel of grain during the month of January. Speaks well for the manager.

Wm. Paulson of Kiron was in Boyer on business last Wednesday.

Geo. Cowhman was in Denison last Thursday.

Joe Dozark returned Thursday morning from Omaha with one car of feed cattle.

Louie Wulf went to Denison last week to resume his studies at the college.

Miss Dora Erne came home Friday from her visit with friends near Wall Lake.

Mrs. Aug. Andersen of near Deloit visited at Gust Anderson's the past week.

Chas. Richardson had two cars of hay shipped to Boyer last week.

O. Graham and family drove to Odebolt Sunday.

Mrs. Lem Watts and Irene went to Kiron Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Slechts of Denison visited with L. B. Watts and family over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Maynard and daughter, Mrs. Anthony Slechts, went to Omaha Saturday. Mr. Maynard will join them on Tuesday, when they will leave for Fowler, Kansas.

Mrs. John Anderson is reported on the sick list, also Mrs. Ben Ella, who is slightly improving.

Miss Edna Nelson will have a program at her school Dist. No. 2 on Feb. 11. Also a box social. Everybody welcome.

Carl Erne and sister, Lizzie, came home Monday from their visit in Wall Lake.

Wm. Neuman was a passenger for Denison Monday.

Adolph Brown transacted business at Odebolt Monday.

Our townsman, Mr. John Koeb, received the sad news that their little granddaughter, Edna Hanson, aged nine months old had died at her home in Bloomfield, Neb. The remains are to be shipped here for burial at the German Lutheran cemetery.

Eddie Neville was a happy boy knowing he was home again from his stay in Omaha.

Rev. Lagerquist and Jolmer Sievers returned from Omaha last Wednesday.

Ether Hutlander came home Monday from Kiron.

Last Friday evening a program and basket social was given at the Hill school Dist. No. 7, Stockholm township. The little school house was crowded to overflowing and all enjoyed themselves immensely. A good program was rendered after which twenty-four beautiful baskets were sold at good prices. The school has to its credit about twenty-four dollars as the proceeds of this entertainment. The patrons take a good deal of interest in their school and the pupils and the intelligent teacher, James Fleming, are doing good work.

ASPINWALL ITEMS.

Dan R. McGrath spent Sunday with his folks at Charter Oak.

A large number attended the dance given at the hall Sunday evening.

Mr. Frank Yeager of Manning was a Sunday visitor in our little burg.

P. H. May and wife left Friday evening for their new home at Council Bluffs.

Our Agent C. A. Cose is enjoying a visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cose, of Logan.

Mr. Ed. Brady returned to Aspinwall on Friday from a short visit with relatives at Stone City.

C. H. Molter was a Denison caller the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Hanson spent several days the first of the week with her folks at Panama.

C. A. Cose and wife attended the big clothing sale at Templeton Saturday.

Wm. Ranninger was a business caller in Manning Saturday.

Miss Anna Sneekloth returned Sunday from Clinton, where she has been visiting friends and relatives for the past few weeks.

Adam Wiese was a business visitor in Council Bluffs the first of the week.

MILFORD CENTER NEWS.

Swan Johnson went to Sac City Monday.

Nelle and Thomas Collins were visitors at the Byrnes home Saturday.

Miss Grace Inghram has returned to school, after an absence of two weeks.

John Robinson and Charley Slechts were Denison visitors Friday.

Miss Mable Shives returned Thursday evening from an extended visit with relatives and friends at Osceola.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrnes and son, Raymond, visited with Horace Miller's Sunday.

Mrs. Taylor and daughters visited at the Steve Slechts home Sunday.

Carl Johnson was a Kiron visitor Sunday.

Thomas Hutchinson shipped a carload of sheep to Omaha Monday.

Swan Johnson and Nels Miller shipped a carload of hogs to Omaha Tuesday.

Miss Lizzie Slechts of Boyer is visiting at Mrs. Taylor's this week.

Miss Hilda Pearson went to Omaha Tuesday.

Swan Odgaard and Nels Johnson and friends were Deloit visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. John Robinson called at the Jurgensen home Friday.

Hilda Pearson, Hannah and Swan Johnson were Denison callers Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Inghram returned to her home from Sioux City Monday.

The little Pearson boy is in a very critical condition, owing to a fall from a sled while coasting.

Miss Hilda Pearson returned from an extended visit with friends at Dow City Monday.

A number of friends of Miss Rose Lawson quietly surprised her at her home Sunday. An enjoyable time was had by all.

A number of neighbors and friends completely surprised Charles and Tress Breen at their home Friday evening. After indulging in games, a delicious supper was served to which all did ample justice. The party departed in the wee hours of the morning, declaring they had had a most delightful time, but deeply regretting the loss of these young people from the community in which they have been held in such high esteem.

Wealth in Swedish Bogs.
The bogs of Sweden, it is now estimated, would yield 10,000 million tons of air-dried peat. Compared with present coal imports, this would supply the country with fuel for 1,500 years.

World's Best Ten Ears of Corn--Sold for $335.
Won Six Thousand Dollars in Prizes.

TO BE EXHIBITED IN DENISON FEBRUARY 23RD.

BERNE ITEMS.

Fred Mohr celebrated his birthday on Feb. 1st. All the young folks reporting a good time.

Miss Dora Koenekamp of Schleswig will make her home this spring with Mrs. Henry Dahm.

Miss Lena Paulsen has concluded her stay at Henry Witt's and will be at home during the spring. Miss Minnie Plagge is spending a few days at the Witt home.

William Goslar transacted business in the county seat last week.

M. Lowry, C. Dahm and H. Bockelman were in Ricketts attending important business.

Mr. Taylor north of town shipped a car of well fed cattle to Chicago this week and expects the best price of the day.

Mrs. Goslar of Charter Oak comes home to visit on the farm a few days.

M. Lowry goes to Omaha for a few days' visit. While there he will combine business with pleasure and he may bring back some steers for feeding.

Guests from far and near came to the Goslar farm to celebrate Miss Perth's birthday. The event is one of the joyous ones of the year. The evening was spent in dancing and a good social time all around. A bounteous luncheon was served.

GOODRICH NEWS.

Miss Clara Grill and Miss Lilly Schmidt and friends were Deloit shoppers Monday.

John Miller and wife from Otter Creek passed through Goodrich to Deloit Monday.

E. R. Snell was up to Deloit Monday.

Harry Anderson was in Deloit getting ready for their sale Monday.

Hannibal Fink took advantage of the fine weather and drove up to Deloit Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Newcom of Boyer came down on the train Tuesday to visit at her grandfather's, L. F. Morris.

Mrs. S. D. Newton spent Tuesday under the parental roof.

Vernon Meyers has rented the Romans place better known as the old Albright farm.

Roscoe Romans was in Deloit Tuesday.

Mrs. Watt Wilkinson is on the sick list.

Mrs. Jas. McKim is down taking care of her sister, Mrs. Wilkinson.

Anderson Bros. were well pleased with their sale. Everything brought good prices.

Miss Lucy Flint is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilkinson, this week.

Gene Brogden was a passenger to Denison Tuesday.

Meastames Anderson, Newcom and Winey visited at Mrs. Samuel Anderson's Wednesday.

Miss Mina Laudon spent a few days at her sister's, Mrs. Naslund.

Abbie Winey has a fine new piano we understand and now she will treat her friends to some fine music.

There was a box social at No. 1 Friday evening and we understand the proceeds will be used to purchase an organ for the school.

Louie and Willie Grill shipped a car each of cattle and hogs Saturday evening. Hugo Jensen, Henry Ehlers, Fred Petersen and Sinke Petersen were among those who assisted the Grill Bros. in getting their stock loaded for Chicago.

Contributed.

W. V. Huffman and wife spent Sunday at the Nash home in Denison. The school in Dist. No. 7 commenced a couple of weeks ago. Chas. Robinson is a teacher.

J. P. Woodruff shipped his sheep to Omaha one day last week.

Ruth Goodrich returned Saturday evening from her visit at Kiron.

Mr. Thompson was a Denison caller Thursday.

Ike Howarth is having some carpenter work done on his barn.

Jerry Buffington and wife visited Manilla Wednesday.

Leslie Johnson was calling on friends in Denison Saturday.

Will Huffman has returned from his visit at Rodney.

B. C. Woodruff attended the Odd Fellows' lodge in Denison Friday night.

Peculiarity About Money.
The strange thing about money is what it looks as if it could do for you until you have it.

DELOIT.

Harry Childress bought his father's place, where he was born and raised for $10,000. He rented the farm this year to his brother, Chas. Childress, who was already on the place. Harry and family returned to Oldham, S. D., and will return next fall or spring. We congratulate Harry for obtaining the old home.

Maruice Winans was in Dow City one day last week.

Vernon Spence and Clair McKim was in Denison Tuesday last week.

Quite a few attended the Anderson sale last week.

Earl Kessler went to Stanhope Wednesday morning of last week.

Orval and Nina McKim spent a few days in Deloit the past week.

A. J. Mason bought Thomas Munsey's farm last week.

Joe True was at Omaha a few days last week.

Mrs. Alma Prentice had the misfortune of breaking her arm by falling on the ice while on the way to church Thursday evening.

Among those who were in Denison Saturday were Charles Shives Dick Brogden, Mrs. Spence and Vernon and Bert Kessler.

Miss Elbert went home Friday night to Woodbine, her father being sick.

The Misses Myrtle Cose and Abbie Lee were in Denison Saturday.

Revival meetings are being held at the M. E. Church each evening. Rev. McMillan of Wall Lake is assisting Rev. Cromby. All invited.

Rev. Cromby occupied the pulpit at Wall Lake Sunday.

George Winans and son, Ray, went to Sioux City Monday evening.

Thomas Munsey and family contemplate moving to Dow City soon.

Mrs. S. Brown had a box social at the Fink school house, where she teaches, Friday evening. A good time is reported.

RICKETTS NEWS.

T. A. Curry of Denison and D. A. McWilliams of Charter Oak were in this vicinity Tuesday working life insurance.

Anna Vollersen and niece, Sophia Sorgenfrei are visiting relatives near Dow City this week.

Anna Muenster is acting as night operator at the telephone office during Minnie Petersen's absence.

Albert Schultz and children of Schleswig visited his sisters here Monday.

Russel Ainsworth of Ute has spent the past week with his brother, Lees.

Gus Kroll is still quite sick at his home northeast of town.

Mrs. I. N. Vollersen called on friends in Charter Oak Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Neubaum are the proud parents of a fine baby boy who arrived Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kroll, Jr., of Woolsey, S. D., are guests at the Kroll home.

Mrs. Robt. Bradshaw has been quite sick the past week with blood poisoning. We all hope she will be around soon.

C. P. Hoefler and Herman Tobka attended the bazaar at Charter Oak Saturday evening.

E. W. Luyd and L. E. Ainsworth drove to Ute Saturday to spend Sunday with relatives.

The Misses Munt of near Battle Creek visited their sister, Mrs. J. H. Detlefs, over Sunday.

Helen Garber of Denison is the guest of Mrs. H. R. Timm this week.

C. P. Hoefler visited his mother in Charter Oak Sunday.

Life of the Red Deer.
According to an old Gaelic legend a red deer might live for 210 years, an eagle for 630, and an oak tree for nearly 19 centuries! Nowadays, however, 100-year-old deer would be difficult to find. From 25 to 35 years apparently may be about the range of their existence.—Country Gentleman, London.

Double Puzzle.
"Girl twins are a puzzle," says a Boston writer. "Twins? Should say so. One adult girl will often puzzle an entire community."

A Modern Exotic.
"You speak of two kinds of newspapers." "Yes; there's the old reliable newspaper that prints the current news; and there's the new-fangled newspaper that makes its own news."—Kansas City Journal.

LISTEN!

$1.50

ONE : YEAR

THE REVIEW

And The

Orange Judd Farmer

ONE : YEAR

$1.50

$4.00

Chicago Daily

Tribune

...And...

THE REVIEW

$4.00

SUBSCRIBE!

Old Dutch
Cleanser
Will Clean It!

Easier, quicker and better than soap, soap-powder, scouring-brick or metal-polish. Just you try it and see. This new, handy all-round cleanser does all kinds of cleaning—

Cleans
Scours
Scrubs and Polishes

Milk pails, separators, glassware, cutlery, floors, woodwork, bath-tubs, painted walls, pots, kettles, cooking utensils; brass, nickel, steel and metal surfaces, etc., etc., in a

New and Better Way

Wet the article, sprinkle with Old Dutch Cleanser, rub well with cloth or brush, rinse with clean water and wipe dry. Nothing equals Old Dutch Cleanser for quick, easy and hygienic cleaning.

10¢ For Large Sifter Can
At All Grocers