ARION ITEMS.

Mr. Rosenberger was an Arion visitor Friday evening. Chas. Grant and Jay Lynch drove to Dunlap Sunday afternoon. F. M. South of the New Specialty Light, transacted business in Arion Friday. Eugene Gulick of Denison was in town between trains Thursday. Operator Rule is on the sick list this week. Mrs. W. B. Evans returned last week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Byron Clow, of Omaha. Chas. Butler and Martin Conroy took advantage of the sale at Manilla and purchased some fine registered Duroc-Jersey swine. Emil Swartz has purchased the fine home residence from Mr. N. P. Underhill. This is one of the nicest houses in town and has a beautiful location. It is now occupied by Mr. M. L. Houlihan. Milo Kelly has shelled and marketed a fine lot of corn last week. John Tranter and family loaded their household goods, stock, machinery etc. last week and have moved to South Dakota near Wendt. Mr. and Mrs. Tranter are fine young people, good citizens and good neighbors and will be missed in this neighborhood. We hope they will meet with success in their new home. Arthur Rule has been acting as Milwaukee agent in the absence of Mr. Nichols. Will May of Ute visited Arion Friday evening. Verne Talcott and Edward Butler attended a party in Dow City last Tuesday evening given by Miss Bessie Griffin. They report a most enjoyable evening. Thos. Howlett and Mr. Elder were Denison visitors Thursday evening. Mrs. C. E. Selby of Dunlap was an Arion visitor Sunday. Mr. Nichols, the Milwaukee agent, went to South Dakota last week. Mr. Geo. Taylor of Dunlap was an Arion visitor Sunday. Chas. Underhill of Omaha came to see his father, Mr. N. P. Underhill Thursday. Several Arion members of the senior class of the Dow City High School attended a banquet at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dow last week. The banquet was given by the teachers. Prof. Bunch and Miss King and the members of the class who attended say that they enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Mrs. John Chambers of Omaha came to Arion to attend the wedding of Miss Olive Talcott and her son, Mr. Earl Chambers. The class for Bible Study will meet at the parsonage next Thursday evening. These meetings are very instructive and interesting and it is hoped that many will be present. Nine Dow City ladies, Mesdames Swasey, F. Ishel, Dow, Smith, Ahart, Chabmerlin, Judd, Butterworth and Van Metre were hostess at a delightful party given the evening of Feb 11th, at Ahart's hall. The guests were met and shown to the cloak room by Miss Mildred Butterworth and then paid their respects to the receiving ladies who were beautifully gowned in white and stood at one side of the hall. Some of the ladies of artistic ability had decorated the programs appropriately to the season with a Cupid with drawn bow. A large company was present and everyone enjoyed the evening, some in conversation, some playing Somerset, but the majority much preferred dancing to the beautiful harp music played by Mr. Barborka until one o'clock when a delicious supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler and daughters, Grace and Ava, Mrs. D. J. Butler, Mrs. Carr, Guild Evans, Verne Talcott, Vernon Carr, Clifford Barborka and Edward Butler were out of town guests. At high noon on Valentine Day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley A. Talcott, Everett Earl Chambers of Dow City was united in marriage with Miss Clara Olive Talcott of Arion. Rev. Chas. E. Walsh, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony which was witnessed by a large number of friends. After the ceremony the newly married couple and friends sat down to a sumptuous dinner. After receiving the congratulations of a host of friends the happy couple left Arion on the 1:20 p. m. train for Omaha, amid a plentiful shower of rice and old shoes. They are to spend their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents at Omaha. Friday evening a large number of Arion young people gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lee and had a very pleasant social evening. Each guest was measured and fined according to excess height. The event proved both entertaining and profitable. Mrs. Lee donated refreshments of sandwiches and coffee. Look out for the next social. Mr. A. J. Mackey, our school director, is superintending some repairs to the school house in the way of a new roof. These repairs will help the school house and are much needed. Miss Bertha Lueck and Mr. Fred Marr were married in Denison Saturday afternoon by the Lutheran minister, Rev. Freese. Sunday a large company of relatives were entertained at the home of the groom's parents a mile north of Arion. These young people are well known in this community and have many friends who extend congratulations and good wishes. Fred and Frank Marr are in partnership and will soon with their wives move to a farm four miles from Denison. M. A. Parmentier transacted business in Charter Oak last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lientz were Denison callers Thursday. Mrs. C. C. Iripp was in Denison visiting relatives last week.

Not Coughing Today? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. Your doctor's approval of its use will certainly set all doubt at rest. Do as he says. He knows. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Robust health is a great safeguard against attacks of throat and lung troubles, but constipation will destroy the best of health. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills.
