

Stops Neuralgia Pains

The shooting, tearing pains of neuralgia are caused by excitement of the nerves. Sciatica is also a nerve pain.

Sloan's Liniment, a soothing external application, stops neuralgia pains at once, quiets the nerves, relieves that feeling of numbness which is often a warning of paralysis, and by its tonic effect on the nervous and muscular tissues, gives permanent as well as immediate relief.

One Application Relieved the Pain.

Mr. J. C. Lee, of 1100 Ninth St., S. E., Washington, D. C., writes:—"I advised a lady who was a great sufferer from neuralgia to try Sloan's Liniment. After one application the pain left her and she has not been troubled with it since."

Mr. L. J. Carter returned last week from a three week's trip through Minnesota.

Berry Goin, the real estate man from Charter Oak, was in Denison on Friday, on business.

John Carey, the supervisor, was at Ricketts Friday of last week, where he was inspecting some bridge work.

George Newcom, of Boyer, was in town on Saturday, shaking hands with his old time college friends and transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen are having some extensive alterations made in their home on East Broadway, F. S. Bolton having the contract.

The Rebekahs are giving a social to their members at their hall this evening to which there promises to be a good attendance and a jolly good time.

Frank Rollins is in Chicago, to which place he went last Friday and where he will visit for a couple of weeks, and take in the National Cement Show.

Ex-Sheriff Tom Meehan has been at Manila and vicinity the past week, where he has been renewing acquaintances and getting better acquainted with relatives.

Henry Hansen of Milford township has sold his 120 acre farm to Hans Carsons, receiving $110 per acre for it. Mr. Hansen is undecided as to what he will do in the future.

The town of Glidden has been negotiating with the Carroll electric light company to furnish light for Glidden from the Carroll plant, by means of stringing wires similar to telephone lines.

Clyde James of Sioux Falls, S. D., was in Denison last week calling on friends. Clyde has not been back to Denison for over two years, and his many friends were glad to see him again.

As a result of a fight on the street Thursday night the city treasury was enriched something like $55.00, yet the city and all concerned would have been much better off had the "scrap" not taken place.

Frank Jackson, who now has headquarters, at Eagle Grove, Iowa, where he is connected with the American Express Co., was in Denison over Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cassaday.

Chris Lorentzen is again a resident of Denison, having purchased the Welton property on North Jefferson Ave. Chris has made a success at farming and only retires to enable his children to further their education.

Dennis O'Leary, who in past years operated all along the Northwestern between Boone and Council Bluffs as a printer, is now cashier of a money bank up at Dallas, S. D. He made his start on the Woodbine Twiner.

Ben Parker, well known in Crawford county, who at one time controlled the saloon business of Des Moines, is to take the lecture platform as a temperance advocate. Ben says he wishes to atone for his part in the saloon business of past years.

A special train load of fine Percheron horses passed through Denison on Thursday from New York to Oregon. The train was running on express time and the horses were very comfortable in palace horse cars and were given much care and attention.

Charley Russell, formerly of Goodrich township, but now a prosperous live stock man near Carroll, has just been elected first vice-president and is thus chairman of the executive committee of the Aberdeen-Angus Association of Iowa. The association met in Des Moines recently.

Corn that had soured in the crib, has been the cause of considerable loss of cattle up in Ida county. The corn was soft when picked and when cribbed it soured and became unfit for feed.

The town of Danbury over in Monona county was visited by a $35,000 fire last week—the fire starting in the O'Day drug store. The Danbury Review published by L. B. Jenness was destroyed, only a job press being saved.

We understand that A. J. Gary, the Denison contractor, has just secured another big contract at Boone, in which he agrees to build about nine miles of sewer, for that city. The contract will require all of the work completed this year, and Mr. Gary is certainly getting his share of the big contract work at Boone.

W. H. Krebs of Carroll, who until married a couple of years ago, made his home with B. I. Sallinger, has just been appointed assistant claim agent, under B. I. Sallinger, Jr., for the Milwaukee road. He will make his home in Sioux City in the future. His acquaintances in Denison extend congratulations.

W. R. Kirkup will leave the first of next week for a trip East, stopping at Boone to visit relatives, and then go on to Chicago, and spend a week. Upon his return he and his family will go to Portland, Oregon, with the intention of making that place their future home. Mr. Kirkup has rented his home to the Anderson boys of near Deloit.

A negro, Henry Coleman, will represent Cornell College on the state oratorical contest March 4. Coleman defeated all his rivals at the home contest on the subject, "The Philosophy of the Race Problem." His home is in Boone and is in college by virtue of having won the Mary Ellwell scholarship for pupils of the Boone schools.

According to Revenue Collector M. J. Tobin of Dubuque, only a fraction of the corporations in this district have made the returns required by law to be in his hands by March 1. Officers evidently fail to realize that all corporations must report, regard less of income or kind of business, or subject themselves to fine and imprisonment. All interested should take notice and attend to this matter at once.

John Thompson, a Larrabee, Iowa, farmer, unable to get a stock car in which to ship his hogs, tried the experiment of using an ordinary coal car, and the shipment went through to Sioux City in good shape. This is the first record of any one having made use of a coal car for the shipping of hogs. The car was well bedded with straw, and the hogs made a very comfortable trip.

Mrs. Roland Caldwell of Iowa City sold the body of her husband to the State University for $20. Immediately afterwards her daughter secured a writ of replevin from the court and the body was turned over to the daughter's attorneys and now proceedings have been started to have President McLean cited to appear before the court and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

Charles S. Billings has received the appointment as postmaster at Kiron, succeeding E. E. Clauson. Mr. Billings is conducting a drug business at Kiron, having purchased the C. C. Walter's store when Mr. Walters went to South Dakota. During his residence in Kiron he has made a host of friends, who join in extending congratulations on his good luck in having secured the postoffice appointment. Ed. Clauson has been in the postoffice at Kiron for many years and what his plans are for the future we have not learned.

The Iowa State Agricultural college is offering to test free of charge all samples of seed corn sent them by farmers of the state. In order that a proper test be made great care should be exercised in selecting of samples that it may represent accurately the condition of the seed supply Crawford county farmers should take advantage of this opportunity of having their seed corn tested, the rains of last fall filled the ears with water, and then came the freeze-up, and good seed corn will be at a premium. The recent corn shows over the state some show startling discoveries. Samples which were to all appearances the best, were entirely worthless.

The Jefferson Bee says the indications are that beginning April 1, Iowa will experience the greatest coal famine in its history. The only thing that can prevent such a famine is for the people to lay in the balance of their winter's supply within the next two weeks. If they do not they will find that when they want coal it will be a scarce commodity. The situation, according to Secretary Stamm, of the State mine department, is this: Beginning April 1 there will be a suspension of mining to last from six weeks to two months. The railroads are now preparing to store vast quantities of coal to tide them over the period of suspension. This work of storing coal will commence within two weeks. The state has not yet recovered from the recent coal famine, and consequently if the people do not get in their coal before the railroads start their storage process, they will find that when the suspension comes, that the railroads have all the coal cornered and the people will be left to get along as best they can. This means an advance in coal prices and much suffering.
