

DOW CITY ITEMS.

Mr and Mrs. D. E. Bremer were Omaha visitors Tuesday. J. L. Fields has gone down to Woodbine and will remain for several days. C. O. Miller has been confined to the house for several days suffering with an attack of rheumatism. On bargain counter at Herman's Store we have placed on sale 150 pair boys shoes, sizes 2 to 5, regular price $2.00 and $2.25 pr, on sale while they last at $1.50 pr. O. E. Holcomb started Friday morning for Independence, Mo., where they expect to make their home in the future. Rev. D. M. Houghtellin, who was pastor of the Methodist church at the time the building was remodelled was calling on friends last week. Ed. Abart went to Crofton, Neb., last week with a car of horses for Birkhofer & Omars. A letter has been received from Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Whaley, who were so many years residents of our town that they are now at Santa Anna, Cal., are in good health and are enjoying their extended visit very much. They have been gone from home two months. Mr. R. C. Stempel came home from Western, Kan., Friday for a visit with his family. Mrs. Stempel was quite sick several days last week. The moving is now about all completed. Mrs. Bixler has moved to the house vacated by Walter Swatman and Jesse Kipe has moved in the house vacated by Bixler's and Mrs. Nell Lee moved into the rooms where Mr. Kipe's family lived. Mrs. W. C. Rolls and Mrs. R. T. Baber were Denison shoppers Thursday. Quite a large number of the Odd Fellows attended a meeting of the order in Denison last Thursday evening and report a very enjoyable time and returned home the next day. Last Thursday all the hired help quit work at the hotel since which time the hotel has been closed, or rather not serving meals. This is unfortunate as we need the hotel every day. It is not justice to the public or the town to have the hotel periodically closed. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rudd and family, who have been living near Rolfe, arrived Saturday evening for a visit with relatives. We are informed that on account of Mr. Rudd's failing health they are moving to Missouri to live. Remember that we are yet telling

Ethan Allen Minnesota flour at $1.65 sack—this flour has made many friends in Dow City. Herman's Store has the exclusive sale. Mr. Hatch went Friday to Grand Rapids, Mich., on business to begin on several days. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Butts went to Onawa Friday for a few day's visit with relatives. They returned home Monday afternoon. Mr. Thomas Munsey of Deloit was in town Saturday. He will move his family here if he can get a house to live in, but at present every room in town is occupied and some families will have to locate in other towns because they can't rent houses in Dow City. Henry Messenbrink and sons, Albert and Ben, went to Chicago Saturday night with a shipment of three cars of stock. Last Friday was the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, who live west of town. Their children came home to spend the day with them. Adolph Nelson was a Sunday visitor at the George Fritz home. A jolly delegation went down to Omaha last Friday evening to witness the Westergaard-Zbyako wrestling match. They report a good time and lots of sport. Mrs. J. U. Wise was in Denison several days last week on account of the illness of her mother. Mrs. Herman Lasarus went to Omaha Monday for a few day's visit with relatives. Mrs. Leslie Rifer is here from Nebraska visiting with Mrs. Henry Bell. Monday afternoon Mrs. Luie Cohen and her two daughters, Rosa and Sarah, started for their new home in Texas. James Turnlund went down to Council Bluffs last Thursday for a few day's visit with his brother. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Swatman were down to Council Bluffs a few days visiting Mr. Swatman's twin sisters, who will soon move to Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Granda of Warsaw, Indiana, who have been visiting at the Marion Cole home, started home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Herman Koenekamp and daughter, Louise, of Denison were visiting Mrs. Joe Best Saturday. We have just received our spring line of ladies' shoes and oxfords. We want you to look at the new styles next time you call at Herman's Store. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rule came from Fort Dodge Sunday for a few days visit with his parents. Mr. John Cross and Mr. Solomon

Gibson are both quite sick with pneumonia. Mrs. Briggs, a cousin of Mrs. M. H. Blanding, came Sunday for a few day's visit. Tuesday she went to Carroll and will also visit a son at Glidden. She will return to her home in Illinois in about two weeks. John Griffin went Saturday to Meckling, S. D., on business. Last Wednesday evening Mesdames Van Metre and Wiggins entertained the Priscella Club members and their husbands at the Van Metre home. A delicious supper was served and one of the most pleasant evenings of the season was enjoyed. On Thursday evening those same ladies gave a card party to a number of their friends. Miss Jessie Goodrich is still at the Howorth home helping to care for Miss Mary Howorth who is still sick. Miss Bessie Griffin, one of our popular rural teachers went to Denison Friday evening to visit over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. August Messenbrink. Mrs. Bert McCord came Friday to help her mother, Mrs. Bixler, to get settled in her new home. Mr. P. J. Griffin came over from Buck Grove and spent Saturday with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Wiggins. Mrs. Fred Baber was taken to Denison and underwent a very serious operation at the hospital Monday. She came through the operation all right and all hope for a speedy recovery. Have you seen our new French gingham at 18c yard, they are beauties. Our spring goods are coming in every day at Herman's Store. Sunday morning Mrs. E. N. Chamberlain and Mrs. E. H. Swasey entertained at nine o'clock breakfast at the Chamberlain home sixteen of their friends. The breakfast was very elaborate, served in four courses. After all were "too full for utterance" they went to the Baptist church and enjoyed one of Rev. Place's fine sermons. Next Monday is school election, at which time a vote will be cast to see if the voters are willing to bond the district in the sum of four thousand dollars to build an addition to the school house. The women can vote on this issue. The family that had scarlet fever are all getting along nicely and will soon be out of quarantine, only this one family having had it. Special on our dry goods counter—lawn, dimities and gingham worth up to 30c yard, on sale at 10c at Herman's Store.

ARION ITEMS. Mrs. Hoefler, Ada Lyons and Mrs. Smith of Buck Grove were visitors at the C. C. Tripp home Saturday. At the school meeting held Monday afternoon Dean Talcott was elected sub-director for the next year. Mrs. Davis of Grinnell stopped for a short visit with Mrs. Evans on her way home from Nebraska, where she has been visiting her daughter. D. M. Houghtelling, a former pastor of Arion, called on friends last week. Mrs. Helen Swasey visited Ava and Grace Butler the latter part of the week. Arion people regret very much to learn of the very serious illness of Mrs. Coon. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kelly were entertained at the Jos. McColl home at dinner Monday. Mrs. M. A. Parmentier has been quite sick during the past week but is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bolton attended church in Arion Sunday and took dinner with their sister, Mrs. Rvans. Quite a number of young people spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Kepford and all speak highly of a very pleasant evening's entertainment. The next Christian Endeavor social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doidge. Mrs. Levi Green is much improved in health and is now able to sit up. Mrs. M. L. Houlihan and Misses Gertrude Conroy and Munley went to Denison Saturday to visit relatives and also to attend church Sunday. L. C. Butler and daughter, Dorothy, were Dunlap visitors Saturday. Miss Hattie Kent of Woodbine visited her sister, Mrs. Grant, last week. James Butler and Ed. Dorsey have exchanged houses and moved Saturday. Misses Trena Chamberlin and Genevieve Dow visited Arion friends Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Molter who has been caring for Mrs. Hoke, returned home Friday. Miss Munley accompanied Miss Gertrude Conroy to her home for a short visit Friday afternoon. Mrs. Nellie Carson is now clerking in A. A. Conrad's store.
