It is never helter-skelter buying that brings you such complete assortments—that keeps a store like this always in a state of readiness. It is careful consideration for weeks—often months—beforehand. The educational value of a visit to The Balle-Brodersen Co. at this time should appeal with force to every woman who is interested in the trend of fashion.

There are scores of charming, refined garments, reflecting the very highest of style elegance and bearing the ear-marks of the skilled needle-work received at the hand of men-tailors in the Workshop of Worth.

Sparkling jeweled buttons without, and shimmering changeable taffetas within, are familiar notes in the newest suits gathered for your pleasure.

The soft-roll-collars of moire or Satin Duchesse give distinction to the 32 inch suit coats which button almost to the waist line; the unique pockets and button trimming are novel touches, and the skirts are, for the most part, plaited in attractive and practical manner.

The stylish full-length covert and serge coats reveal low-rolling reverses under graceful shawl and notch collars. In skirts, tunic effects and the new cluster plaitings are refreshing features.

Those who desire to make selections during the Opening Days will be offered every opportunity and assistance, but whether you come to buy or merely to look, be assured you are equally welcome.

Social Notes of the Week.
Mrs. E. W. Pierce entertained the members of the Denison Womans' Club at luncheon on Monday in honor of Mrs. S. J. Woodruff, who is soon to sever her connection with this club and take up her residence in Omaha. The genial hostess had spared no pains in making the affair a success. The guests were seated at one long and two small tables which were beautifully decorated with the yellow rose which is the club flower. The favors were dainty handpainted cards containing a farewell sentiment quite in keeping with the occasion. The menu which was perfect in every detail was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. Frank McHenry and the Misses Goodrich and Marshall.
The Penelope meeting was postponed for two weeks at which time Mrs. Gulick will be hostess.
The largest party of the week was given by Mrs. Geo. Richardson on Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Nash being the honored guest. The floral decorations were pink carnations and during the afternoon some delightful musical numbers were given to add to the pleasure of the occasion. The hostess was assisted in serving delicious refreshments by her daughters and Miss Hazel Nash.

On Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. Philbrook gave a delightful Bridge dinner at which, covers were laid for twelve. The decorations and favors were all in keeping with the approaching Easter season and the hostess fully sustained their reputation for being royal entertainers.
One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. C. L. Voss on Saturday in honor of Mrs. Nash and Mrs. J. W. Smith. The guests were seated at small tables which were beautifully decorated with roses and a most tempting luncheon was served.
The W. C. T. U. ladies entertained their friends Monday afternoon by presenting Dr. Emma Drake in a pleasing lecture on the responsibilities of motherhood which was greatly appreciated.
The Thimble party given by the ladies of the W. R. C. at the home of Mrs. Staininger on Thursday proved to be a very enjoyable affair. A delicious lunch was served at five o'clock at which time about forty were served.
Mrs. Eugene Gulick entertained at luncheon on Friday in honor of Mrs. Norman Nash, who is soon to take her departure for her new home in Redfield, S. D.
The members of the Current Event Club are busy planning for their annual banquet which will be held in Carnegie Club room March 30th.
Mrs. J. Phil Jones was hostess to the F. H. Club and several outside guests on Friday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with fancy work and a delicious three course dinner was served at six o'clock. This is one of the most practical and helpful of Denison's social clubs and last week's meeting was among the most enjoyable of the season.

College Notes.
A second test of seed corn was made at the college, this time of 1909 corn. It was somewhat surprising to find its grade to be 96 percent.
Miss Edna Childress of Deloit called on Monday. She has been detained at home by sickness in the family.

Mr. Otto Bliesman entered school on Monday of this week.
Miss Thomas spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Carroll. The tennis court has been fitted and the boys had a game on Saturday, March 12. This is a little early for the season to begin.

Several of the students have secured certificates and go out to teach school this spring.

To the Teachers

WHILE in the city we invite you to call and see our beautiful line of Spring Hats.

Never before have we been able to show such a wealth of variety at such low prices.

Your trip to Denison will not be complete unless you see our hats, so don't fail to call whether you wish to purchase or not.
