

Only Twenty-one Days left Closing Out Sale at the Denison Clothing Company old stand.

McCoid Bolter & Co.

MANILLA SOCIAL AND NEWS DOINGS

As Told by The Review's Most Excellent Correspondent at That Enterprising Little City.

The Juniors of the M. H. S. and a few others received an invitation to an entertainment at the pleasant home of Anna Nelson on Thursday evening.

A jolly crowd of about twenty-five responded Friday evening to the invitations sent out by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Calvin to the party at their home in honor of Fred.

Miss Minds Tillott visited over Sunday in Buck Grove at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Kepford.

Miss Lorece Jackson, who attends school at Morningside, is home this week enjoying a spring vacation.

John Schram spent Sunday in Sioux City with his brother, Charley.

tion at the Dyson & Calvin store and is now clerking at Ciant's store.

Miss Dora Schroeder is spending her spring vacation here at her parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kester celebrated their silver anniversary Sunday. A number of relatives and friends were present and heartily enjoyed the bounteous dinner the hostesses had prepared.

Mrs. Lute Tillott and children, Ella and Ralph, left Tuesday noon for Buck Grove where they will visit the former's sister, Mrs. John Kepford and family, a week before they leave for their home in Redfield, S. D.

Miss Clara Morgan is home this week spending her spring vacation.

W. C. Hayward has rented the Isaac Hird property in the east part of town and will move in about a week.

Miss Ethel Crakes of Sioux City visited here over Sunday at her home.

Miss Abbie Cook spent the latter part of the week in Neola, Iowa, visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Pearce.

Alden Sykes of Des Moines spent Easter here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sykes.

Chas. Buffington has accepted a position as switchman on the railroad and commenced work the first of the week.

Mrs. E. M. Smith was a Defiance visitor Friday afternoon.

Claude Breckenridge of Mitchell, S. D., visited here Wednesday at his parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hird were Denison business visitors Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Draper spent Saturday and Sunday in Omaha visiting friends.

Mrs. Henry Hargens of Manning visited here Friday with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Carothers.

Miss Katherine Elliott of Sioux City visited over Sunday here with her friend, Miss Lorece Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stammer and Mrs. C. J. Holling visited Sunday at the D. P. Robertson home.

S. O. Van Aradoll of Audubon visited here Sunday with friends.

Supt. D. H. Boot spent Sunday at his parental home in Ute.

Miss Cora Slagg visited Saturday and Sunday in Woodbine at the Rev. M. M. Cable home.

Mrs. J. C. Grief went to Dallas Centre Monday to attend the wedding of a niece.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday with Mrs. A. J. Barrow.

Julius Miller left Tuesday for Dakota. Mrs. Miller expects to go the middle of April.

The Westminster Circle will meet Wednesday with the McClees girls.

Tom Woodyard went to Yuma, Col., Monday to transact some business.

Mrs. Grief and Mrs. Dr. Gardner went to Manning Saturday.

J. M. Hladik and Fred Kester leave Monday evening with the car for Montana, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Hladik and two daughters, Marie and Clara, will go to Plainview, Neb., Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Hladik's mother before they leave for their home in Montana.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

Mr and Mrs. I. A. Mains were Denison visitors last week.

Mrs. Wm Miller received word of her mother's illness last week. She and her children went to Sioux City the latter part of last week.

The Ladies' Aid gave Mrs. D. N. Kemp a farewell reception at the home of Mrs. Torrey last Wednesday evening.

The ladies presented Mrs. Kemp with a very pretty china bon bon dish. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp have moved to Fort Dodge, where Mr. Kemp has gone into the grain and feed business.

Mrs. Frank Van Devere realized good prices on everything at her sale last week. She has moved into town and will live in the house lately occupied by Mr. Kemp.

Miss Egbert accompanied her sister, Mrs. Rachel Tilton, to Merrill last Wednesday. Mrs. Tilton will visit her son, Warren, at Merrill.

Miss Amelia Adams of Denison is visiting Miss Fee Goin and other Charter Oak friends this week.

Carl Kagerah closed his sale Saturday night and Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the managers, have returned to Mariod, Kansas, where Mr. Smith has a good position.

Mr. Dan Purcell of Sac City is visiting the home people this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robertson went to Sioux City for the day last Thursday. Miss Nan Egbert returned home with them.

Geo. Schells dropped in from Sioux City Saturday to spend Easter with his parents in the Oak.

Miss Gusta Wyckoff is quite sick with tonsillitis.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins had the misfortune to break a leg last Sunday.

W. W. Cushman and J. H. Patterson were over from Denison on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rae were Sioux City visitors on Monday.

R. H. Sweet and family gave his new Chalmers-Detroit car a trip to Woodbine last Sunday.

R. W. Bamford of Denison was shaking hands with old friends on our streets Monday.

Mrs. C. C. Jacobsen and children came down from Mapleton last week to spend a few days with the grandparents in the Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Way of Mapleton spent Easter under the parental roof at Charter Oak.

Mrs. D. D. Carlton was called away several days ago by the serious illness of her mother at Rippey. The mother is somewhat improved.

Mrs. D. A. Waterhouse enjoyed a visit last week from her nephew, Ben F. Waterfield, of Sedoys, S. D.

Monday was election day and it went off very quietly as there was but one ticket in the field.

Dist. Supt. Carr preached in the Methodist church Sunday evening and held the quarterly conference Monday evening.

Mr. Harry Jones of Dow City visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jones in Charter Oak the first of the week.

THE CHILDREN LIKE IT KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

Easy Terms on Irrigated Lands.

With fully paid up perpetual water rights. One TENTH cash, balance one to TWENTY years. These lands are within easy driving distance of Denver, Colorado, a city of over two hundred thousand people. These lands produce from $40 to $500 an acre yearly. They rent readily, and are profitable either as a home or investment. Good representatives wanted. ISAAC CONNER Omaha, Neb.

ARION ITEMS.

Ray Lehan has gone to Dunlap. Mrs. Phillippi has returned from a pleasant visit to her home at Ute.

Hillas Fox and family, who have been visiting at the home of his parents, have returned to their home in South Dakota.

Mrs. Jennie Winters of Marion Junction, Dakota, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Roberts.

Mrs. Sparger of Omaha came to Arion to see her husband Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fox attended the Easter exercises.

Ed. Dorsey is putting a nice addition to his home which will improve his property very much.

The exercises at the Congregational church Easter evening were well attended. The choir sang some very pretty anthems and the children rendered their part of the program in a very pleasing manner.

Mr. Clyde Rose has purchased the McDonald house which will make a nice home.

Benson Smith is making some nice improvements papering and painting his property south of town.

M. L. Houlihan, Jr., mayor; C. C. Phillippe, treasurer; J. A. Rule, assessor; N. F. Stilson, O. W. Nelson, S. J. Maurer, J. N. Lee, Henry Petersen, councilmen. The above officers elected on Independent ticket Arion, Iowa.

JACKSON ITEMS.

John Kelly and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy that arrived Sunday, March 27th.

Miss Irene Kernan spent Sunday with friends in Crawford county.

Agnes and Veronica Lawler Sunday with D. Murphy.

Tim Costello of Sioux City is visiting with his sister, Mrs. J. Murphy. Leo Dunn Sunday with the B. McLaughlin family.

Mrs. John Lawler has been on the sick list a few days the past week, but is on the mend at this writing.

Jenny Auen spent a few days last week with her uncle near Carnarvon. Will Kealey called on Peter Lawler Sunday.

Easter Sunday has prophesied an early spring this year and we hope prophecy will be a successful affair.

West Side has bills out for a dance April 2nd. An Italian orchestra will furnish the music and a good time is promised everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Lawler transacted business in West Side last week.

Owen O'Conner departed for Omaha Friday, where he will spend a few days, then return to his home near Donahue, Iowa.

Alecia Lawler spent last with her Uncle John.

PRICE, 25 CTS. THE PEOPLE'S REMEDY for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Grippe, Cough, Hoarseness, etc. It is safe and sure.

PERSONEL MENTIONINGS AT VAIL

Citizens of Vail Always on the Move. Something Doing to Keep the Reporter Busy. A Live Letter.

The banns of marriage were proclaimed last Sunday at St. Ann's church, between Mr. Ed. McMahon of Manilla and Miss Agnes Powers of his parish.

Jan. O'Boyle spent Sunday with his family in Carroll.

Miss Maude Leahy of Denison spent a couple of days the first of the week here with her aunt, Mrs. S. Kral.

Mr. Chas. Knowles of Sioux City was the guest of Miss Lulu Maguire over Sunday.

Mrs. John Duffy and Miss Gertrude O'Donnell were Omaha visitors last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Downey of Jackson township spent a couple of days in Vail last week with her sister, Mrs. Ratchford, and attended the Lenten devotions.

Miss Agnes O'Boyle returned last week from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. J. Conner, in Boone.

Miss Buelah White is visiting the past two weeks at the Dr. Wier home at Portmouth.

Miss Kate Kavanaugh, who has been visiting in Vail and vicinity for the past week, returned to her home in Omaha Sunday.

Pat Costello is having a bee gathering corn on the farm purchased this spring by Jas. Hickey. Pat has been busy moving and his neighbors turned out to help get out his corn.

J. J. McCormick and wife took the Monday morning train to Omaha.

Mrs. William Hill and son, Floyd, went to Denison Monday on business. Elect on of city officers today. Monday, no excitement only one ticket.

Mrs. M. J. Keane was a Denison visitor Monday.

Miss Mae Lynch was shopping in Denison Saturday.

Miss Mary Blessington is learning the millinery trade at the shop in West Side conducted by Miss Lulu Maguire.

Misses Ora and Herma Hulce are central girls for the East Boyer Telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, Mrs. Clint Paine and Mrs. A. W. Lyman and daughter, Rooka, were passengers to Omaha Monday morning.

Jess Ratchford returned to Omaha Monday, where he is attending Creighton University, after spending Easter at home.

E. T. Ryan spent the most of the past week with his folks at Omaha. His wife's brother died of pneumonia while Mr. Ryan was there. The deceased, who was a robust, healthy man and was assistant yard master at the Union Stock Yards at South Omaha, lived but a few days after coming down with the dreaded disease.

Clinton Paine of Kennebec, S. D., arrived here Friday and will spend Easter with his wife. Clint has plenty of friends around Vail, who are glad to see him.

John Champion spent Sunday in Denison with his wife, who is visiting at her father's home south of Denison.

Mrs. C. C. Vail returned from Omaha Saturday, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks.

Jess Cranny of Arion spent East r here with his parents.

Tom Costello of East Boyer township sold a span of horses here Saturday for $500.

Miss Christine Sheridan, who is a trained nurse, was called to Grand Junction to take care of Mrs. Long, who is quite sick.

Mr. Raymond Langan of Clinton was here one day last week looking after extensive improvements being made on one of his farms east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Healey of Schyler, Neb., visited a couple of days last week at the T. J. Kenney home.

Mrs. M. McGrath and Miss Nellie Hickey spent a couple of days last week in Grand Junction with Mrs. Long.

R. Maguire and P. M. McCarthy were in Odebolt on business last week. Miss Maud Cranny was a Denison caller Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy of Jackson visited Vail friends last week.

Mr. P. Lane of Joliet, Ill., visited last week here with his nephew, P. M. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Monon of Rock Valley, Ill., came last week and will take possession of the Wallace House the first of April.

E. Duffy of Boone spent Sunday here at the parental, John Duffy home.

Mike Costello took his departure for Davenport Tuesday to visit his sister.

Mrs. John Champion spent last week in Denison with relatives.

Wm. White is seriously sick at the present writing.

Mrs. Keeler of Wall Lake and her mother, Mrs. Gavin, of Odebolt, spent last week here at the H. Norton home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Connor were calling on Denison relatives Tuesday.

Mrs. Alma Farley returned Friday from an extended visit with her sons in Omaha.

R. Brockleby spent the first of last week in Chicago on business.

Mart Lynch is learning the barber trade at the Champion & Holland shop.

The band boys will give an Easter Ball next Friday night, April 1. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Connor of Toronto, Iowa, was calling on Vail friends last week.

Mrs. Tureck of Glidden spent last week here with her daughter, Mrs. E. Kral.

Miss Hansman of West Side was an over Sunday visitor at the Abrenkiel home here.

Mrs. Kate Lynch and family moved last week to the Dr. Langan farm east of town.

Miss Regina Moleseed and Rooka Lyman spent Friday evening with West Side friends.

Mrs. Henry Hagge of West Side spent Friday here with her aunt, Mrs. A. Short.

Dr. Karshner took his departure last Friday for Chicago to spend Easter with friends.

Eugene Murtaugh and son, Frank, were in Omaha on business last week.

Miss Sarah Welch was calling on Carroll friends Tuesday.

James Long spent a couple of days last week in Grand Junction called there by the serious illness of his grandmother, Mrs. B. Long.

Mrs. Otto Christiansen of Denison spent the first of last week here with her friend, Mrs. K. Anderson.

Lace Curtains.

Eleven hundred pairs Curtains direct from the mill in Philadelphia.

Goods of real merit at enormous savings just at spring house cleaning time. 28 PAIRS $1.25 NOTTINGHAMS, all are white and all are 3-yards long. Good, reliable weave and any person needing an inexpensive curtain will find these irresistible, this week at, pair 69c

BRUSSELS, NOTTINGHAMS and CABLE NETS, in white or ecru, hand made Cluny's and Battenbergs or imported nets, several patterns, always $4 to $4.50 2.65

DUCHESS POINTS, Ecru only, the finest curtains we have, opportunity to obtain these fine curtains at 5.75

30-INCH CURTAIN NETS, over-locked edges, reduced, yard 10c

Hand made Opaque Window Shades, on Hartshorn roller, in lots of 6 or more 50 Cents Each

THE BOYS' STORE

MAIN AND CENTER STREETS, DENISON.

NOTTINGHAMS, in big variety of parlor, living room and dining room patterns, Cable nets in real lace effects; bobinet curtains with beautiful wide borders, $2.50 to $2.75 1.59

FINE DOMESTIC and IMPORTED CABLE NETS, Brussels, in a number of beautiful designs, made for parlor and living room: 3.95

FIGURED SIKOLINES, desirable colors, usual 11 cent grade, this week special at .08c

CURTAIN SWISS, standard quality, figured and dotted patterns, special 09c

WINDOW SHADES, 3x6 feet, on warranted rollers, each 19c

Rugs at 75 cents on the Dollar

$20 BRUSSELS RUG, 9x12 feet, heavy grade, woven with a pure woolen surface, attractive oriental design, at the very low price of 15.98

$2 00 WILTON VELVET RUGS, 27x54 inches, heavy all wool quality, attractive oriental effects, reduced to 1.49

$24 Wilton Velvet Rugs, 9x12ft. woven with a heavy, close nap, a bargain, this week at $18.98

This is an exceptionally high grade Rug for the money, and to inspect it is to buy it.

$40 9x12 Wilton Rug

heavy woven quality, designs and colorings exact copy of high class

Turkish Weave, very special, at only 27.75

$14.50 BRUSSELS RUGS, 9x12 feet, oriental designs and colorings, a decided bargain in a servicable rug 10.50

$28 ROYAL AXMINSTER RUGS, 9x12 feet, good dependable quality, woven with an extra deep pile, made to give years of hard wear and service, a marvelous value at the very low price of 19.98

We aim to keep abreast of the times, not only in our Curtain and Rug Departments, but in all Departments, and an inspection of our different and varied lines will not only prove this assertion, but will convince the most exacting. We'll be pleased to see you.