Social Notes of the Week.

As a fitting close to a month which has certainly surpassed all others of the year in beautiful days and enjoyable nights, came the banquet on last Wednesday evening when members of the Current Events Club and guests, to the number of seventy-three, gathered to celebrate in the month of March the anniversary of the beginning of its existence. Officers of the club formed a reception committee and soon after seven o'clock the company entered the banquet room to the music of the Norwegian Wedding March. No decorations could have more effectively harmonized with the loveliness of the season than did the green and white, the club colors, which formed the whole color scheme and which in the hands of the decorating committee with Mrs. Bollen as chairman, and the table committee led by Mrs. McMahon, were most gracefully used in festoons and draperies, candle shades, ferns and carnations, while the touch of the Easter-time was given in the egg-shaped bon bon dishes which served as most attractive souvenirs. A pretty march of the young daughters of the club, who acted as waitresses, prepared the way for the enjoyment of a delicious repast in which the color scheme was pleasantly evident. Having thoroughly shown their appreciation of the menu the guests assumed that attitude of expectancy which comes naturally to those who have become accustomed to what a Denison club can do in mental as well as physical entertainment, and having been assured of their hearty welcome in a short address by the president, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. J. B. Romans, toastmistress, treated the audience to the following delightful program of music and toasts, embellished by her own happy introductions: Piano Solo—Mrs. McMahon. Toast, "Our Admirers"—Mrs. Penny. Song, "Carmena"—Mrs. McConaughy. Toast, "The Babies, God Bless Them"—Mr. McMahon. Toast, "Our Civic Improvements"—Mr. Chas. Meyers. Music, "To the Spring." "To a Water Lily"—Miss Senseny. Toast, "Club-itis"—Prof. Fellows. Quartette, "Good Night Serenade"—Messrs. McConaughy, Friend, Kahler, Carpenter. Toast, "Bon Voyage"—Mrs. Jensen.

A most delightful dinner was given last Thursday evening by Mrs. McAndrews to the senior class of the High School of which her daughter, Esie, is a member, and including also the members of the faculty. About thirty-five guests were seated at tables which were decorated with the class colors, green and white, the same scheme being carried out in the menu of the delicious four course repast, in the place cards of green cardboard with white lettering and in the souvenirs, tiny fans in green and white wrappings. An intellectual program was enjoyed both during the progress of the dinner and in the delightful hour following, including an address by Prof. Fellows, merry stories, jokes etc. Such a happy evening adds greatly to the pleasure of this senior class and will be one of the events of joyful recollection in the future.

Mrs. Sarah Kimball was given a surprise party and post card shower on her birthday, March 30, 1910, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Matt Wells. Grandma Kimball was eighty-nine years old and received nearly 150 cards from relatives and friends. The guests were Mrs. John Williamson and children of Dow City, Messdames C. Lundgren, Mrs. Schwann, W. J. Hultsch, John Rabe, Detrick Rabe, Sophia Nordholm, Seymour Bond, W. M. Savory, C. E. Lee. The ladies had prepared and brought a delicious luncheon which was served at five o'clock, after which the guests departed wishing Mrs. Kimball many happy returns of the day.

The Epworth League Bible Study Class of forty-two members held its social last Tuesday evening in the church parlors. Some time ago leaders were appointed and a contest was had between the Whites and the Reds. The former made 656 points in punctuality and attendance and the latter 697. The Whites being the losers were hosts to the Reds in one of the most enjoyable socials of the season. Various games, a two course luncheon and some special stunts which the Reds were made to go through made a very enjoyable evening for all. A contest for the next two months between the Whites and Reds will now be had by the whole League membership. The losers will be hosts to the winners at an outdoor evening picnic.

The ladies of the City Federation have decided to take charge of the lecture course for next season.

Miss Clara Strahn entertained the Klatter Klub at her home on Monday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and the evening was spent in playing games. A most delightful time was reported by all the members of the club.

Miss Grace Meyers entertained the Dix Club and a few invited guests in honor of Miss Ethel Gulick at dinner at the Hotel Denison on Sunday.

A number of the young ladies of Denison held a "beef steak fry" in Grace Park in honor of Miss Ethel Gulick, who is spending her Easter vacation at home in Denison.

The next regular meeting of the Current Events Club will be on April 14th.

Dr. and Mrs. Philbrook were host and hostess at a very elegant "Bon Voyage" dinner given at their pleasant home Tuesday evening. The guests included the voyagers and a few other friends. The table was beautifully decorated, the center piece being a very artistically executed representation in miniature of a trans-Atlantic steamer, bearing on its bow the names, "Gedric" and "Coronia." The favors were tiny steamer trunks filled with raisins, a preventative for the dreaded "mal de mer." The four course dinner was perfection in every detail and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant conversation. Those who go abroad will carry with them many pleasant memories of the "Bon Voyage" dinner and of the genuine hospitality of the Philbrooks.

of the defendants to have the record corrected to show that a certain motion which was filed in the early history of the case to permit the defendants to examine certain exhibits in the case was overruled by the court, the record failing to disclose any ruling on the motion. After hearing the evidence the court ordered the record corrected so as to show that the motion was formerly overruled by the court at the time it was heard. This was made necessary by the fact that the case has gone to the Supreme Court and the defendants in appeal desire to have the record of the ruling of the court as it was made.

FOR AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

County Sunday School Association Make Preparations for Next Work.

The present County Sunday School Association with Rev. DePree as president and Mr. Chas. K. Meyers, secretary, plans an active campaign this spring. The first of the township conventions was held at Boyer on Sunday afternoon in the M. E. church. The attendance was large and the interest shown marked. The convention was presided over by James Fleming, who is superintendent of the Sunday School there. Those living near by taking part in the stated program were the pastor, Rev. Crombie, Mrs. John Mueller, Mr. Frank Woolston and Mr. Fred Smith. Mr. Meyers conducted a round table during which Postmaster Johnson of Boyer, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. Chamberlin and Mrs. R. A. Romans and others took part. Rev. DePree made a stirring address on the thought that the only aim of the Sunday School was to make professing Christians of the scholars. R. A. Romans and Mr. Chamberlin drove their autos up, carrying their families. After the convention they were guests at the farm home of Frank Woolston and wife. A telephone message sent from Boyer after our correspondence was printed says that Boyer people were greatly pleased and most thankful to the county officers for arranging the convention.
