Bert Hill met with a very painful accident on Thursday morning. His new auto was out of commission, and in order to take it to the garage for repair, he hitched a team of horses to it. After arriving at the garage he began to unhitch the team from the automobile the horses became frightened and in some way backed up, catching his head between the back end of the wagon and the head lights of the machine, resulting in a very bad scalp wound. Mr. Hill is fortunate that the wound is not more serious than it is.

SCHOOLS' COMMENCEMENT WEEK

The Parochial Schools Hold Exercises Tonight and the City Schools on Friday Night Next.

Tonight at the Germania Opera House occurs the graduating exercises of the parochial schools. A fine program has been arranged and will be carried out to the letter, and without question to the entire credit of the pupils and the satisfaction of their parents and many friends. We will give a complete account of the entertainment in our next issue.

Tomorrow night the high school annual class play will take place, at which time there promises to be a large attendance. Friday night the regular graduation exercises will occur, when eighteen girls and six boys will graduate. The city superintendent and graduates are making extensive preparations for this event and it promises to surpass past exercises of this character. Further comment will be made in next week's paper.

SOCIAL NOTES OF THE WEEK.

The Teachers' Club enjoyed a picnic at Coon Grove Saturday afternoon. The gentlemen of the club provided and served the splendid menu. It is needless to say that the cuisine was perfect. Never was beefsteak cooked so well or eggs fried so deliciously. The shower that came on in full force at serving time only whetted the appetites of the guests. As a picnic this was the greatest success of the season.

Between 50 and 60 ladies were entertained by Mrs. G. L. Caswell and Miss Ruth Clark last Wednesday afternoon. The affair was in the nature of a Kensington, but the thoughtful hostess provided further entertainment for their guests in the shape of some clever readings by Mrs. Romans and some splendidly executed piano numbers by Miss Flo Caswell. The Misses Fluent, Norris and Lally assisted in serving a delicious menu. Altogether, the function was one of the pleasantest of the season and was thoroughly appreciated by the ladies.

Mrs. Cavett entertained the F. H. Club and a few guests on Wednesday. The afternoon's work consisted of making a friendship quilt, the planning and arranging of which provided a great deal of pleasure. The hostess was assisted in serving a splendid supper by her daughters, Miss Edna and Mrs. Earl Cavett.

Penelope met with Mrs. T. J. Kelly on Thursday with a good attendance of members and a number of guests. The club were delighted to have with them one of their old members, Mrs. Wild McAhren. Mrs. Knaul of Kansas City and Mrs. Rumsey of Denver were also out of town guests. A game of statement was introduced and produced a great deal of merriment. At supper the guests were seated at small tables, daintily laid, and decorated with carnations. Mmes. Kahler, Wright and Ferguson assisted in the serving.

Fifteen ladies, comprising the Sunday School Club of Dunlap, were the guests of Mrs. C. M. Jensen last Saturday. Music, readings and games furnished the afternoon's entertainment and the occasion was one of mutual engagement to both hostess and guests. Before departing the ladies presented Mr. Jensen with a handsome souvenir fork in memory of old time friendships and associations.

Little Miss Marlon Green was the hostess at a birthday party on Friday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Kelly. Nothing was left undone to make the affair a success and the little folks all enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mrs. Simpson, wife of Dr. Simpson, entertained a large company of ladies Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Rumsey and Mrs. Knaul, her house guests. The affair was most delightful in every detail and reflected great credit on the hospitality of the hostess.

Hon. H. L. Bosquet, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, is entitled to a renomination on his merits.

To prove his qualifications he was first selected by the Supreme Court from a list of several candidates.

His work since his appointment speaks for itself.

He is one of the most charming gentlemen whom one can meet and is a favorite with the members of the legal profession of the state.

We bespeak for him a large vote in this county.

Mrs. W. V. Huffman returned on Monday after a week spent in Omaha, being called there by the illness of her sister, Mrs. A. F. Durkee, who has been suffering with a severe attack of quinsy, but who is much improved at present.

COMMENCEMENT GIFTS

If it is for a boy, give a watch. At this age it will teach him to be careful of time.

This habit is of untold value for TIME is the stuff that life is made of. Boys of this age have reached the second step in their career. The little fellow who once looked forward to the time when he might own a jack knife, now looks forward to the time when he may own a watch. And at Commencement time his real life begins, so give him a watch—and give him a good one. And teach him to be careful of his most valuable possession—TIME.

J. V. Barborka.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Thursday, June 2nd, at 3 o'clock, at the McKim Hall. A very interesting flower mission program has been planned and a large attendance is desired.

Girls Who Love Books.

Girls who love books will find in them all that makes life pleasant, according to the opinion of Isaac Barrow. Concerning book-loving girls he wrote: "She that loveth a book will never want a faithful friend, a wholesome counsellor, a cheerful companion, an effectual comforter. By study, by reading, by thinking, one may innocently divert and pleasantly entertain oneself, as in all weathers, as in all fortunes."—Home Notes.
