DEATH OF AMOS SEAGRAVES
SEAGRAVE.—After a lingering illness Amos E. Seagrave passed away at his home, 519 North Sixtieth street, Sunday morning, May 22. Mr. Seagrave and wife came here from Ivanhoe, Minn., a year ago for the benefit of his health, and last winter removed to a tent at 519 North Sixtieth street. He appeared to be improving, and even resumed his work, going to Cashmere, where, being a newspaper man, he took charge of a paper for a short time. The undertaking proved too much, and he returned home just three weeks before he died.
Besides his wife and little daughter, Rosemary, 15 months old, Mr. Seagrave is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Seagrave, 716 North street; a brother, Ernest, an employe in the post office department, and his sister, Mrs. Albin Belfrage of Gertrude, Wash.
Mr. Seagrave was born at Denison, Iowa, Dec. 26, 1870. At 12 years of age he entered a newspaper, and at 14 he for a few months edited a paper of his own, The Mirror, which he printed on a hand press. At the age of 18 he became editor of the Iowa Baptist, a denominational paper with a state wide circulation. He later started papers at Panama, Iowa, and Claire, Iowa, removing from the latter place to Ivanhoe, Minn., where he became editor and proprietor of the Lincoln County Advertiser, remaining there about four years.
The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from the Rosenburg undertaking parlors, the services being conducted by Rev. W. A. McCall, assisted by Rev. J. D. O. Powers.
BELFRAGE.—Herbert Theos Belfrage, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Belfrage, quietly passed away at the family home on McNell's Island on April 29. The little son had added his share of happiness and joy to the little home during his brief existence of 15 months, and is sadly missed by his parents and a little sister of 3. The services were held on May 1 from the home by Rev. Mr. Upcraft. Mr. and Mrs. Belfrage formerly lived at Green Lake, Wash.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases of deafness caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
