

July 11 to 16, we will be in Milwaukee attending the National Convention of Photographers

W. W. Ferguson

Mr. Jos. Hunter, of Charter Oak, was in town Tuesday on business.

Rex Truesdale, of Sioux City, is in Denison this week visiting friends.

Clark Dunham, of Dunlap, transacted business in Denison Thursday.

Miss Laura Roth, of Dunlap, was the guest of Mrs. C. M. Jensen last week.

J. P. Conner is transacting business in Box Butte county, Nebraska, this week.

Miss Hazel Mahon is visiting at the Cushman cottage at Lake View this week.

Mr. Harold Tyler, of Dunlap, has been spending a week with Denison friends.

Messrs. Henry and Hugo Saggau are in Sioux City this week, visiting friends.

Miss Fern Ashmore, of Omaha, Neb., is the guest of Miss Marie Rath in Denison this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Silletto and children left this week for a two weeks' outing at Lake View.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Liscomb and son, of Dunlap, were guests of Mrs. Hattie Ferrill last week.

Rev. Father Farrelly left on Tuesday for Philadelphia, where he will spend a month's vacation.

Mrs. Ross Nicholson, of Newton, Ia., is visiting at the George Nicholson home in Denison this week.

Carl F. Kuehne delivered the Fourth of July address at Pisgah, Iowa, before a large audience.

Mrs. A. B. Wood returned this week from Kansas, where she has been visiting her parents for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Goodwith, of Sioux City, were guests at the J. B. Romans home in this city over the Fourth.

Mrs. Bert Lyman left this week for Sterling, Colo., where she will visit Mrs. Walter Bell for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Omaha, visited their son, the superintendent of the hospital, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moeller returned to their home in Council Bluffs after a pleasant visit with Denison friends and relatives.

The Carnegie library is the recipient of a beautiful vase, given by Mrs. R. A. Romans before her departure for Aberdeen, S. D.

Miss Fanchon Bamford leaves tomorrow for an extended visit with friends and relatives in Boulder, Loveland and Denver, Colorado.

Miss Frances Gannon, of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Marie Giger, of Missouri Valley, are guests of Miss Marjorie Lyon in Denison this week.

Chas. Milligan, of Sioux City, visited at the L. Romans home over Sunday. Mrs. Milligan will remain in Denison for a few days' visit with her parents.

Announcements were received in Denison the fore part of the week of the marriage of Miss Helen Morrill, formerly a resident of Denison, to Mr. George Baer, on June 30th, at Kent, Washington.

Mrs. Penny, the newly elected president of the Current Event club, informs us that the sanitary drinking fountain will be installed some time in the near future. The fountain will be larger than was planned at first. They are going to provide for three drinking cups instead of one.

Miss Lydia Belle Kuehne leaves tomorrow for Lake Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobsen, of Ute, celebrated the Fourth in Denison.

Miss Grace Coan is attending summer school and will teach this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Arff, of Charter Oak, were Denison shoppers Monday.

Miss Ella Buesing is in Nebraska this week, visiting friends and relatives.

George Bowen, of Carroll, visited friends in the city the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Frank Stone, of Nampa, Idaho, is visiting friends in Denison this week.

James Schlumberger came up from Omaha to spend the Fourth with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobsen, of Mapleton, visited friends in Denison on the Fourth.

Miss Hazel McWilliams, of Charter Oak, is visiting with Mrs. Samuel Luney this week.

Mrs. Harry Pester, of Des Moines, is a guest at the Joe Christensen home this week.

Frank Friend, of Elkador, Iowa, visited his brother, Ray, in Denison over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Peters, of Charter Oak, spent Monday in Denison shopping and calling on friends.

Mrs. John Kott is visiting at the Orphan's Home this week, with the view of adopting a little boy.

Miss Levern Luney visited with her cousin, Miss Naomi Luney, last week. Here's to the man whose hand

Miss Hattie McCracken, of Scranton, was a guest at the Ben Nicholson home the fore part of the week.

Mrs. E. R. Heflin, of Grand Junction, Colorado, is a guest of Miss Ella Harding in Denison this week.

Miss Eusebia Dudley, of Council Bluffs, was the guest of Miss Gena Hart the latter part of the week.

Miss Marie Rath returned on Saturday evening from Omaha, where she has been visiting for the past month.

Mrs. Jim Armstrong has landed in Scotland and writes that she enjoyed her trip across the ocean very much.

Mrs. Rex Smith returned the fore part of the week from a two weeks' visit with Mr. Smith's parents at Sigourney, Iowa.

The Misses Garnet, Irene and Lola Johnson, of Aberdeen, S. D., are in Denison visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Jurgen Saggau.

Mrs. R. O. McConnaughey leaves today for Benzonia, Michigan, where she will remain during the summer visiting Dr. McConnaughey's parents.

Julius Sonnksen left the hospital on Saturday, having recovered sufficiently from his recent operation for appendicitis to be removed to his home.

John McCarty and sister, Miss Irene McCarty, of Springfield, S. D., are in Denison this week, visiting friends and relatives. Miss McCarty is deputy postmistress at Springfield.

Miss Alvena Remeln left on Saturday for her home at Mayne, Iowa. Miss Remeln has resigned her position with the Boys store and her many friends will be sorry to hear that she will not return to Denison.

Ethel Chamberlin is visiting friends near Vail this week.

Rhody Champion is taking a vacation and visiting in Ohio.

Miss Elizabeth Sarachon visited friends in Carroll on Saturday.

The Klatter Klub met with Miss Kate Silletto on Tuesday evening.

Agnes and Anne Hooley returned to their home at Iowa City last Friday.

Frances Gable and family spent the Fourth in Denison with relatives and friends.

Miss Josephine Lynch, of Sioux City, is a guest of Miss Hilda Broder-son this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garrison and children, of Grand Junction, Colo., are visiting at the Garrison and Weeks homes this week.

Miss Margarite Haugh has gone to Philadelphia and Atlantic City for her summer vacation.

Miss Jenna Strahn and Miss Myrtle McAhren visited friends in Dow City Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullock left this morning for a visit of some duration in Denver, Colorado.

Regina Molsed, Stella Hickey and Fae Ratchford, of Vail, visited Margarite Haugh this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolston have been guests of the R. A. Romans family for several days recently.

John Sewell, of Fremont, Nebraska, came home to spend the Fourth with his mother, Mrs. L. A. Sewell.

S. L. Clarke and family, of Pochontas, autoed to Denison and spent the Fourth with the Caswell family.

Mr. Jacob Johnson, of Cedar Falls, arrived in Denison the fore part of the week for a few weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, of Sharon Springs, New York, are guests at the Charles Jones home in this city this week.

Mrs. N. J. Wheeler left Sunday for Des Moines, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Edgar Westcott, for a few weeks.

Miss Hazel Laub will leave on Sunday for Chicago, where she will remain for a month or six weeks, studying music at the conservatory.

Fritz Franke and family came over from Battle Creek on the Fourth in a new automobile and visited Mrs. Franke's mother, Mrs. Fritz Miller.

Miss Mary McHenry accompanied her friend, Miss Lorena Evans, to her home in Columbus, Neb., where she will make a visit of indefinite length.

Miss Ethel Hunter, of Kansas City, Mo., is in Denison visiting friends. While here she will attend summer school and expects to teach school in the vicinity of Denison during the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Potter, of Des Moines, Iowa, are the guests of Mrs. C. W. Merrell this week. Mrs. Potter will be better remembered by Denison people as Miss Kittle Rollinson.

Mrs. P. E. C. Lally and children left on Monday for Lake Okoboji, where they will spend the remainder of the summer. Mrs. P. J. Brainson accompanied them and will remain for some time.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehne, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. A. L. Bartholomew of Chicago, left on Tuesday for Sioux City to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. Laub for a few days prior to going to Lake Okoboji.

George McMinemee, of Tacoma, Wash., visited his brother, Andrew, in Denison the past few days, returning home Tuesday morning. He has a very fine position with a railroad company here.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Krauth have made arrangements to care for the little Slater twins, left motherless recently. They have certainly been placed in good hands. Mrs. Krauth will care for them as she would her own.

Frank Swoboda and wife, of Omaha, attended the "crackergram" in Denison on the Fourth, the guests of Mrs. W. P. Gillett. Mr. Swoboda returned Tuesday and Mrs. Swoboda will visit her grandmother the remainder of the week.

Miss Grace Meyers leaves this week for Iowa City, where she will attend the library school for two weeks, taking the children's school work under Miss Lyman, who made several addresses at the Denison public library last winter.

Mrs. Samuel Luney and baby, Naomi, returned home last week from a pleasant two weeks' visit down south. Luney visited with Mrs. Wieland at Emporia, Kansas, and Mrs. O. Guffee at Exeter, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Wieland send best regards to their Denison friends.

Base ball Saturday, July 9th, Council Bluffs Invincibles vs. Denison. Game called at 3:30, at College grounds. The Council Bluffs Invincibles are one of the strongest amateur teams in Iowa. Denison's team will be strengthened considerably for this game. Be sure and come out and boost for the home team. Admission 25 cents. Grandstand 15 cents.

MYRTLE MC CORMICK MARRIED.

Former Denison Girl Marries Man of Her Choice at Wagner, South Dakota.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and prosperous life.

From the Wagner Leader, published at Wagner, South Dakota, we learn of the marriage of Miss Myrtle McCormick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, formerly of Denison, to Mr. Elmer Grimes, of Wagner, on June 21st. Miss McCormick will be remembered by her many Denison friends as a charming and accomplished young lady. For the past year she has been a teacher in the public high school at Wagner, where she has gained an enviable reputation as an educator. She is a young lady of refinement and culture, possessing sterling qualities. The Review joins with her many friends in wishing her a happy and