A large crowd was in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Will McCracken returned from Marne Monday, after a pleasant visit there with relatives and friends. Miss Anna Fredrickson left for Sioux City the latter part of the week, where she will resume her work after her vacation here at home. Rev. H. Wendt is conducting a German summer school at Aspinwall and Charter Oak, and has over 30 pupils at each place. The community was greatly shocked Friday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Wm. Hill, whose demise occurred Thursday night about 12:30 at the Methodist hospital in Omaha, to which place she had been taken on Tuesday for an operation for a tumor. Mrs. Hill had been troubled slightly for the past two years with a tumor, however, the last few weeks it was thought best she should be operated upon. She left here Tuesday for Omaha, where she was taken to the Methodist hospital, her husband having accompanied her. She underwent the operation successfully and was getting along as well as could be expected, so Mr. Hill came home to be with the children. The next day a relapse set in and the family were sent for. Mr. Hill left on the noon train Thursday and was at her bedside during her last hours of abode here. She realized the end was near at hand and bidding him and having him bid the children good-bye, she peacefully departed this life soon after midnight to be with her Savior and the dear ones gone before. Her death was the loss of her precious one whom she left behind. Mrs. Alvina Hill nee Yetter, was born Oct. 28, 1871, at Belle Plaine, Yuma county, Iowa, and died at Omaha, Neb., Thursday, July 14, 1910, being at the time of her death 39 years, 8 months and 18 days old. At the age of 7 she moved with her parents to Hayes township, Crawford county, Iowa, where, on June 11, 1887, she was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Hill. In 1894 they moved to Manilla and lived here ever since. To this union were born eight children, of whom three preceded the mother to the land beyond. The living are John, Clara, George, Elenora and Albert. Besides the above named children, she leaves her bereaved husband and three brothers, Peter, John and Fred Yetter, and three sisters, Mrs. P. Peterson, of Minnesota; Mrs. H. Wenter, of Nebraska; and Mrs. Fred Landorf, of Hayes township, to mourn her loss. The deceased always has been a very strong and healthy lady. She worked hard and cared for her family to the best of her ability. She will therefore be greatly missed by them as well as by the large host of friends she numbered by always being ready to assist and help in her neighborhood. The remains were brought here Friday night for burial and the funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lutheran Trinity church, Rev. H. Wendt officiating. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and appropriate music. The remains were laid to rest in the Nishnabotny cemetery beside those of her loved ones. To the many friends and relatives and especially to the bereaved husband and children, the whole community extends their heartfelt sympathy by reminding them "she is not lost, but gone before."

INSURANCE.

What people do not understand about life and fire insurance would fill an encyclopedia Britannica payable fifty cents down and two dollars a month for the next four hundred years. This is the reason why a few companies have been able to amass millions of "reserve" funds with which they are able to manipulate the business of the entire country. This is the reason why the officers of some companies are able to loot the treasuries of thousands upon thousands, WITHOUT IMPAIRING THE ABILITY OF THE COMPANY TO MEET ALL OBLIGATIONS. If the company receives twice as much as necessary to carry on its business successfully in the first place, it is an easy matter for the officers to vamoose with half the surplus without wrecking the concern, for this the policy holders should be profoundly grateful. In life insurance the only alternative is the Fraternal Order. These are conducted on such a cheap basis as to be absolutely unsound, the high officials wax fat off the "per capita" and initiation fees and care not a tinker's middle-deck for the ultimate fate of the society which is sure to go bankrupt with thousands of poor men left without the protection for which they have paid month by month. It is almost pitiful to attend the meetings of some of these fraternities and to hear the earnest and sincere and patriotic utterances of many of the members, and at the same time to know that this is all the rankest cant and hypocrisy with the heads of the organization, who, nine times out of ten, are simply feathering their own nests without a thought of the time when old age and infirmity will make havoc in the ranks and the supply of "new blood" will run short and their policy holders will be left without protection. The only way to beat the fraternal insurance game is to die young, and most of us hesitate to realize on our policies in this way. Some day insurance will be sold over the counter just like sugar or coffee without the intervention of glib-tongued agents or two-penny fraternal orators. That time will come when the people understand more about the cost of insurance and cease to regard it as a gambling enterprise. Better still, it will come when the people, through the government, insure themselves not only against death and fire, but against the infirmities of age and property losses. Denison has paid in fire insurance premiums ten times the amount that it has received for fire losses. Denison has paid for life insurance one hundred times as much as it has received for death losses, yet every time an insurance company pays a loss it cackles like a rooster that has just laid an egg by proxy, and poses as a benefactor to mankind. All of which reminds us that every man ought to be insured and that our own policy comes due next month at which time we shall help build up that monumental and unnecessary reserve for which our company is noted. In the meantime, let us hope for that day of enlightenment when insurance shall cease to be that mysterious, get-rich-quick-for-the-stockholders-business which it is today. In a New Light. Strong Healthy Women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Dr. B. A. Stockdale The Noted Specialist of Des Moines, Iowa, will visit Denison at Hotel Denison, Tuesday, July 26 From 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Chronic Diseases Cured

The doctor has had such wonderful success in the treatment of certain diseases that he feels fully warranted in making the following liberal offer. He will make a thorough examination and tell you just what can be done; what the treatment will cost and about how long it will take to effect a cure; you will not be required to pay any money, except for the medicine used until cured or thoroughly satisfied with the results. Dr. Stockdale wants every person who suffers from a chronic disease—it makes no difference how bad their case is, or how long they have suffered, or who has treated them and pronounced them incurable, to call and consult him. He will make a thorough examination of their case, tell exactly what can be done, whether they are curable or not, how long it will require and all about it. He treats only chronic diseases, as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach troubles, Liver disease, Constipation, Rheumatism, Bladder troubles, Diseases of the Kidneys, Chronic Catarrh in all its forms, Heart and Nerve troubles—in fact, every variety of chronic diseases. Dr. Stockdale has a system of treatment which he believes is the best known for chronic diseases. He is able to cure many cases that have resisted other treatments—that are considered incurable. He wants it distinctly understood that he does not undertake any case that he thinks is incurable, and will tell the patient candidly when he has made the examination. He has a special treatment for general weakness of men, which he would like to see in person. He will examine every case that calls on him on the above date absolutely free. If for any reason you cannot call or visit him personally, write him for an examination blank at his home office. Address
