JAS. R. SMITH DEAD.

An Old Settler of Crawford County Passes Away at His Home in Iowa Falls.

The Review just received notice of the death of Mr. Jas. R. Smith, formerly a resident of this county. Mr. Smith died at his home in Iowa Falls, August 30th. Funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Smith lived on a farm near the Wm. Eggers place in Denison township for many years and was a highly respected citizen. Many old time friends will regret to learn of his death.

The sisters of St. Francis, connected with the parochial schools here, have returned from Clinton and will open the schools next Monday for the coming year. The rooms have been treated to new floors and fresco; there is a good heating plant and electric lights have been added to make everything comfortable for the sisters and the boarders that may be committed to their care.

Word comes to Denison that Herbert Oswald, son of A. Oswald, who formerly lived in this city, accidentally shot and killed a friend at his home in Albia on last Sunday. It seems that Mr. Bert VanScholack and a young lady friend were calling at the home of Herbert Oswald and were handling revolvers and in some manner the one held by Oswald accidentally went off, the bullet killing his friend instantly. Mr. VanScholack was the son of the chief of police of Albia.

The County Sunday school association is helping the children about the Heiden school house in East Boyer to have a Sunday school. Rev. DePree and Mr. Chas. K. Meyers were out at the school house last Sunday. Owing to the coming on of the rain storm the attendance was not large, but the interest shown by all present was most encouraging. The organization will be finally made next Sunday afternoon at three. The parents are asked to come and bring the children.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. Bond, Miss Marshall and Miss King gave a trinket shower at the residence of Miss King for Miss Edith Gilmor. Only the most intimate friends of Miss Gilmor were present. Among the gifts was a "much talked of" bird cage which contained not the bird, but the trinkets. A delicious supper was served at 6:30. The tables were beautifully decorated with hearts and cupid. Miss Gilmor was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and good wishes.

The Methodist Sunday school picnic will be held at Conyne and Cochran's grove on Friday afternoon of this week. Persons attending should drive across the bridge on the road to Manilla and drive into the field at the right, either at the foot of the hill or through the gate half way up the hill. Autos can go to the grounds. Games will be arranged for the boys and girls—a ball game for the boys after supper and a girls' indoor game out of doors. Arrangements will be made for those who cannot come early to stay and return in the early evening.

On Friday evening the P. E. O. sisterhood met with Miss Alice Stevens and proceeded in a body to the Gilmer residence for a surprise shower on Miss Edith Gilmer. The entertainment was in charge of the unmarried ladies of the chapter with Miss Raim as chairman, who proved herself a very proficient manager.

Each sister brought her gift carefully wrapped and accompanied by an original poem by which Miss Gilmer guessed the contents of the package. These gifts covered a wide range of articles, both useful and beautiful. The ladies, as a chapter, presented their departing sister with their usual wedding gift, a dozen silver spoons. The flowers provided for the decorations were white roses. At rather a late hour light and dainty refreshments were served. With the departing of Miss Gilmer from Denison the chapter loses one of its oldest, most valued and most faithful members.
