

FALL FASHIONS A RIOT OF CHARM FROM FASHIONLAND

Today marks the beginning of an unusually attractive display of the newest Autumn and Winter styles.

THE book of Fashion is open! We have given you a peep at its pages from day to day; now the covers are wide open and there awaits you an exposition of delightful revelations. Never have we entered a season in which the fabrics or colorings were more fascinating; in which the styles were more truly charming than these. The fashions are so varied that every woman is assured something distinctive and becoming, no matter whether her purchase is to be from the simple, practical styles or from the charmingly fashioned novelties.

THE THREE TENDENCIES in Autumn Styles which we told you about are presented today. The "Band-below-the-knee" tendency will be noted largely on separate skirts and to a great extent on suit skirts.

THE "Restoration influences" are identified almost entirely with the long separate coats, while the third tendency—"Simplicity"—is in evidence on every hand.

DECIDED DEPARTURES from last season's styles are to be noted in the "lines" of the garments. Strikingly beautiful new outlines are noticeable in the late suit modes and women in quest of something entirely charming will at once admire these uncommon coat suits.

LONG COATS are especially made more distinctive because of the generous proportions and the original trimming touches which characterize them. The whole trend of our style collection is toward individuality,—apparel that sort of distinguishes one in the Fashion world.

EACH SEASON, it seems impossible for the Workshop of Worth to send us lovelier skirts, and each season they surprise us by doing so. Make a point of seeing the extremely pretty and practical skirts with the new banded-in effects, skirts which carry out the new straight-line ideas, yet do not sacrifice fullness. Every line in these skirts is a revelation.

WORDS fail to convey the alluring charms of the beautiful two-toned tweeds, the pretty soft diagonal weaves in barthea and basket effects, the lovely new brown tones in worsteds, chevots and serges, the strikingly clever effects in Scotch and Steamer Rug plaids; quite the most charming brown and gray shades in Rob Roy and Bannockburn tweeds and the novel and irresistible Polo cloths.

IN POINT OF BEAUTY, style and fascination of price this exposition of Women's Autumn apparel is unrivaled. We shall be pleased to have you attend this style event.

poor people. That his business promises to increase and that eventually he will be able to settle what he is owing. He says that he thinks he will be able to commence making payments on what he owes within the coming year. He gives his address as 429 Atlantic Ave., Long Beach, Cal.

HORSESHOE CONTEST OCT. 11.

Will Take Place at Denison for Championship of Western Iowa and Dr. Philbrook Medal.

The big horseshoe pitching contest for the championship of western Iowa and the Dr. Philbrook gold medal will take place in Denison on Tuesday, October 11th. In case of bad weather the contest will be postponed until Thursday, October 13th. Announcement of this contest is made at this time to enable all who may desire to take part to get into training and see if they can "come back." The contest of last year proved exciting, and profiting by the experience then gained the promoters have something good in store for this year. Further announcement as to rules, entries, etc. will be made later. County papers and all interested please copy and pass the news along.

Dewey Noakes, the six-year-old son of Mrs. Laura Noakes, living at DeLoit, accidentally shot himself with a 44-calibre Colt's revolver last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the ball entering the mouth and when located was found to be in the back of his neck. The little fellow was playing with the revolver, not knowing or realizing that it might be loaded, when the accident occurred. A physician was called, who located the bullet and removed it, but at the present writing the young lad is in a very precarious condition and fears are entertained for his recovery.

Ray Staininger returned on Thursday from Kennebec, S. D., where he has been working during the past summer.

Auld Lang Syne.

The following song was omitted from the list of those to be sung at the Old Settlers' Picnic: Should auld acquaintance be forgot, and never brought to mind, Should auld acquaintance be forgot, and days of auld lang syne?"

Chorus.
For auld lang syne, my dear, for auld lang syne;
We'll tak' a cup 'o kindness yet, for auld lang syne.

Chorus.
We twa ha'e run about the braes, and pu'd the gowans fine;
But we've wandered mony a weary foot, sin' auld lang syne.

Chorus.
We twa ha'e sported i' the burn, frae mornin' sun till dine,
But seas between us braid ha'e roar'd, sin' auld lang syne.

Chorus.
And here's a hand, my trusy frien', and gie's a hand o' thine;
We'll tak' a cup 'o kindness yet, for auld lang syne.

Chorus.
The Coffee club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. W. Bamford tomorrow afternoon.

Editor G. L. Caswell is in Des Moines this week attending the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

Only one marriage license was issued at the clerk's office during the past week, that being to William Clifford Morris and Miss Mary Della Peters on Wednesday, August 31st.

Mr. Paul Reihman and family are expecting to move to Clinton in the near future, where they will make their home. Their many friends are sorry of their departure from Denison.

Mr. Marshall, of Kansas, City, Mo., with a corps of assistants, is now installing a new pipe organ in the M. E. church. It will probably be several days before the organ will be ready for use.

Jacob Sims was in Council Bluffs on Tuesday transacting legal business. Leon Vassar has sold the West Side Journal and is now moving his household goods to Denison and intends to make his future home here.

Perhaps the most notable social event of the week was the surprise party given to Mr. Henry Shirtcliffe on Tuesday afternoon, this being the eightieth birthday anniversary of this esteemed gentleman. About thirty of his friends from Vail and Denison gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ainsworth to participate in the festivities. Mr. Ainsworth in his usual unique manner introduced the visitors to the guest of honor, who was completely surprised and genuinely pleased to greet them. In behalf of the Vail friends Mr. Fitch presented Mr. Shirtcliffe with an elegant easy chair, while Dr. Wright in a few well chosen remarks, represented the Denison friends with the gift of a fine gold watch and chain, both of which presents were greatly appreciated by the recipient. Mrs. Ainsworth, assisted by Mesdames Woodruff and Nicholson and the Misses Short and Strong, of Vail, served a most delicious supper on the lawn, presenting each guest with a beautiful handpainted booklet containing an appropriate quotation and also a small picture of the guest of honor. The occasion will be long remembered by those fortunate enough to be present.

Ninus Hunt, wife and son returned this morning from a six weeks' trip in the east. They visited friends in Buffalo, New York City, Niagara, and Washington, D. C. They report having had a most enjoyable trip, but are glad to get back to Denison again.

Miss Florence Baker, reader, and Miss Grace Schlumberger, pianist, in their recital on Tuesday evening of this week, very pleasantly entertained all who were fortunate enough to hear them. The program was very well chosen and rendered in an excellent manner. Both of the young ladies proved themselves to be artists, and the hearty applause of the audience assured them of their popularity with the people of Denison.

Peters-Morris Nuptials.

On Wednesday evening, August 31st, at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Otto Peters, in Denison, occurred the marriage of Miss Mary D. Peters, of Dunlap, to Mr. W. C. Morris, of Whittier, California, Rev. J. J. Senseney, of the M. E. church officiating. The marriage ceremony was performed in the family parlor, which was beautifully decorated in white and green, and as Miss Francis Waddington played the wedding march the bride and groom entered the room, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Peters. The bride wore a handsome gown of messaline silk trimmed in baby Irish lace, and looked lovely. The groom wore the conventional black. The out of town guests were Mrs. C. F. Peters, Mrs. W. J. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. L. Nurse, Miss Adda Johnson and Mr. Arch Norris, of Dunlap, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waddington, of Charter Oak. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were extended the happy couple, after which the guests partook of a delicious two-course luncheon. The bride is a young lady of sterling qualities, and for the past three years has been the leading saleslady of the Nordaker Department store at Dunlap, where she has many friends. The groom is a stranger in this community, but judging from his choice in life companionship, is a young man of worth and integrity. The young couple left Thursday morning for Whittier, Calif., where they will make their future home, and where they will be at home to their friends after September 15th.

"What beautiful public building that?"
"That isn't a public building. It's the old Man Savitt's summer cottage."
"And whose neat little cottage is that means of grace?"
"The little one story frame affair."
"That isn't a cottage. It's the First Episcopal church."—Life.

Beck—Do you believe that marriage is a means of grace?
Peck—Sure! Anything is a means of grace that leads to repentance.

DENISON PLAYS BALL.

Defeat the "Muddy" Boys Two Out of Three Games—Will Play Charter Oak Here Sept. 9th.

The Denison ball team has been playing some fast ball of late. On last Saturday they played the Omaha Americans, a very fast team, and defeated them 2 to 0. Faul and Freed was the Denison battery and both gentlemen were in excellent trim. Sunday the same teams played at Vail and the Omaha boys reversed things, beating Denison 4 to 2. A man by the name of Wilson started the twirling act for Denison, but soon showed that he couldn't "come back" and Faul was pressed into service. On Monday the best game of the year was pulled off on the Denison grounds, the same teams holding the boards, with the exception that Louie Jacobsen pitched for Denison. It took sixteen innings to beat the boys from across the "Muddy," and the score stood 2 to 1. The attendance at the Denison games was very discouraging. On Friday, Sept. 9th, the boys will play the last game of the season when they play Charter Oak and combat with Jacobsen. As it is advertised the game will be "air tight" and full of sensational plays and we hope a large crowd will turn out and witness the game.

On Thursday, September 1st, at the Gilmore home in Denison, occurred the marriage of Edith Gilmore, of this city, and Dr. I. E. Huffman, of Tucson, Arizona. The wedding was a quiet affair, there being no one present except the immediate family and a few personal friends. Dr. Senseney performed the ceremony. The bride is one of Denison's charming young ladies, and while we congratulate the Doctor in securing her, we regret the fact that she is to be taken from us, as their plans are to live in Arizona. A wedding dinner was served, after which the happy couple took the train for an extended tour throughout the west, going first to Denver and later to Salt Lake City, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. They do not expect to arrive in Tucson until about the first of October. Doctor

Huffman was born and reared in Iowa and is a graduate of Drake University of Des Moines. The Doctor has been engaged in the practice of medicine at Tucson for about five years, and is well established in his profession. The Review joins with the many other friends of the happy couple in extending congratulations.
