

YOURS

Yours for uniformity.

Yours for greatest leavening power.

Yours for never failing results.

Yours for purity.

Yours for economy.

Yours for everything that goes to make up a strictly high grade, ever-dependable baking powder.

That is Calumet. Try it once and note the improvement in your baking. See how much more economical over the high-priced trust brands, how much better than the cheap and big-can kinds.

Calumet is highest in quality—moderate in cost.

Received Highest Award—World's Pure Food Exposition.

MANILLA ITEMS.

Mr. R. Rasmussen transacted business in Omaha Thursday. Mrs. John Gluckstadt left Thursday for Dedham for a visit there at the parental home. Geraldine Perion left Thursday for Buck Grove for a visit there with Miss Nellie Welch. Mrs. Frank Willis and daughter, Alice, and Mrs. Chas. McHendrick returned to their home in Camanche Friday, after a visit here with relatives and friends. Frank Knott left Friday for Sheffield, Ill., for a visit with his aunt, Mrs. Timothy Ford. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Buffington spent Sunday here at the B. H. Buffington home. D. P. Robertson and daughter, Ruth, drove over from Vail Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Wm. Robertson's little daughter, Glem, which was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. S. M. Neely is an out of town visitor this week. Miss Thelma Dyson returned home from Woodbine Sunday. Ethel Barr visited at Sioux City the fore part of the week. Miss Lelia Hosbrook visited here Thursday night at the W. E. Draper home. Miss Nellie Welch, of Buck Grove, came Thursday for a week's visit with her friend, Miss Geraldine Perion. J. B. Barber left for Des Moines Thursday to attend the state fair. Miss Mattie Miller left Thursday for Grant Center for a visit there at her parental home. Mr. Porter, of Lehigh, Neb., came Monday for a visit here with old acquaintances and friends. Isaac Hird and sons transacted business in Omaha Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dyson and daughter, Ethel, spent Sunday in Woodbine at the M. M. Cable home. Miss Hattie Slag, of Clough, S. D., left for Leroy, where she intends to teach. Harry Hoffeins left Thursday for Ames to attend college. Mrs. Porter and children, of Lehigh, Neb., came Tuesday for a visit here with friends. Miss Milda Hoffeins left Thursday for Manning for a visit there with relatives and friends. Miss Agnes Collins, of Omaha, came the fore part of the week for a visit here with Nora Collins. C. Allen Hogle, of Mt. Vernon, transacted business here the past week. Mr. Ira Tweedy left for Yuma, Colo., the first part of the week. Dr. W. E. Draper transacted business in Omaha Wednesday. Mr. Rodney is reported on the sick list this week. Miss Sadie Saunders left Friday for Wilton Junction, where she intends to teach. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. VanSlyke came Thursday from Dunlap for a visit at the F. L. VanSlyke home. Mrs. H. Reinholdt returned to her home in Manning Wednesday, after a visit at the Pete Hoffeins home. Gladys Crakes returned from Charter Oak Tuesday for a visit here at the parental home. Mrs. Caldwell and Verda, returned to their home in Manning the middle of the week. R. C. Jackson transacted business in Denison the first part of the week. Mrs. John Miller, of Mechanicsville, came the latter part of the week for a visit at the B. H. Winey home. Miss Lottie Vennik left the middle of the week for her home in Vail. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sutton left for Omaha Tuesday morning, where Mr. Sutton underwent an operation for appendicitis Wednesday. As soon as Mr. Sutton is able they will leave for California, where they expect to spend the winter. His many friends around here hope he will soon be able to be around again. The music pupils of Mrs. Gaummer held a recital at the home of Mrs. R. C. Jackson, which was excellent. Mr. Ed Knott, the night watch, resigned his position the latter part of the week. Miss Martha Hird came Saturday to resume her duties in school the coming year. The Ladies' Aid society meets in the Sunday school room Wednesday afternoon. The Missionary society meets with Mrs. J. C. Grief Thursday afternoon. The Guild meets Friday with Miss Bessie Gardner. The Philathian society meets with Mrs. Offiner Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Grand left Monday for Perry, where he will attend conference. Mr. Blair fell off the truck and hurt himself very badly the fore part of the week. Mrs. Miller returned Tuesday for her home in Mechanicsville after a week's visit at her parental home. Messrs. Berkmler and Buffington left Wednesday for Earlring, where they will attend the carnival. Miss Kinmer came Friday to resume her duties the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh and son, Don, came Friday from Wisconsin, after a month's visit there with relatives and friends. Miss Lillie Schrader, of Hornick, came Sunday to finish her school work. Miss Lillian Dougherty came Saturday from Kenwood for a visit here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Blair returned from Dunlap Sunday, after a visit there with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Campbell, of Browdel, S. D., came the latter part of the week for a visit with old acquaintances and friends. Mrs. Akers returned home from Grant Center Sunday, at which place she has been visiting with friends. Miss Freda Fredrickson returned from Sioux City the fore part of the week, where she has been visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Silvesta Thew, of Idaho, spent Sunday with Mrs. James Ivey and Mrs. Isaac Hird. Mr. and Mrs. Al Ivey are expected home from Yuma, Colo., Wednesday night. Newton McCracken has resigned his position as deliveryman for C... store and Gifford Theobald is now employed there. Messrs. Ed Rhine and George Dieter of Vail, transacted business in Manilla Monday. Effie Sowles and Clem Jordan unexpectedly left Thursday night. It is rumored that they were married and had gone to Dakota.

The Stylish Fisherman. One of the guests at a fashionable summer resort in West Virginia got himself up in his best "fishing togs" and started along a certain mountain stream. Meeting a native he asked: "Here, my good man! Kindly tell me whether it would be worth my while to try fishing in this vicinity." "The native regarded him scornfully. "The fishin' ain't good," he finally said, "but I ain't informed as to how you value your time."—Lippincott's.

RUB your stove with your handkerchief. If the handkerchief becomes black it shows that the polish rubs off. It also shows that you are not using Black Silk Stove Polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off. Does not dust off. It anneals to the iron—becomes a part of the stove.

makes old stoves look like new and lasts four times as long as any other shine. It is so much better than other stove polishes that there is absolutely no comparison. It is in a class all by itself. Now these are facts that we want to prove to you. Ask your dealer for a can of Black Silk Stove Polish and give it a good trial. Try it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best polish you ever used your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Made in liquid or paste, one quality. Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware dealers. BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH WORKS L. K. WYNN, Maker, Sterling, Illinois. Ask your dealer for Black Silk Stove Polish. For use on grates, fenders, registers, stovepipes, etc. Prevents rusting.

DOW CITY ITEMS.

H. A. Rudd was up from Omaha a few days last week calling on relatives. Chris Suhr was down to Omaha last week and purchased seven hundred sheep for feeding purposes. Mrs. Frank Binnall entertained the Friday club at her country home last Friday afternoon. In the evening the gentlemen were entertained as guests of the club. Dancing was the principal enjoyment of the evening. All report a dandy good time. Thomas Walters, with his wife and daughter, have moved into the house with his mother, she having been alone. Mrs. Poucher arrived from Ames on Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Poucher will, for the present, live in the house with Mrs. B. H. Wiggins. Lloyd Brake has decided to learn telegraphy with O. J. Judd, the I. C. agent at Dow City. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hallowell spent last week at the capital city visiting their daughter, Inez, and attending the state fair. Quite a number from here will attend the Latter Day Saints' reunion, which will commence at Little Sioux September 9th and last until the 18th. The household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kipe were packed and shipped last Friday to Springfield, S. D., where they will make their home in the future. Many friends regret to lose this family from our town. Miss Esie Butterworth, of Merrill, Iowa, was here last week visiting relatives. Mr. Fred Isaacs was here a few days last week attending to business interests. He is the husband of Helen Woodruff and their home is in Wyoming. Morris Wilder has returned to Ames, where he will resume his work at the agricultural college. Miss Chloe Harper returned to her home at Bigler's Grove last Thursday after a visit with her friend, Miss Ora Butterworth. Mr. and Mrs. Mat McHenry were taking in the sights at the state fair last week. Mrs. Jane Wood returned home last Wednesday from Creighton, Neb., where she has been spending a few months with her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Tiddle. Mrs. Wiggins, of Ottumwa, arrived Thursday to see his brother, M. G. Wiggins, who is very sick. He returned home Saturday. The Misses Agnes Goddard and Alice Poitevan have gone to Cedar Falls to resume their studies at the teachers' college. William H. Rule loaded his household goods into a car and shipped last Friday to Ruthland, Iowa, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Rule and her daughter went Saturday. This family has lived here for so many years that they will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, who will always be glad to welcome them back to the old home and wish for them a pleasant home in their new location. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barber have sold their home in town to the Bybell boys, who will move their mother there. This will make a nice little home for them. We have been told that Mrs. Barber will go to Oklahoma to visit relatives and that Mr. Barber will go to the home of his daughter at North Platte, Neb. T. M. Swatman has rented the Thomas Walters farm and will move to the country in about two weeks. Rev. Place has returned home from visiting his daughter in Des Moines. The J. E. Pearsall family, who recently arrived from Wendt, S. D., have moved into the Booth property, recently vacated by the Rule family. Adolph Nelson has gone to Newman Grove, Neb., where he expects to remain for several weeks. Mrs. Sam Brasel has gone to Beardstown, Ill., for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hallowell returned home Saturday from their Des Moines visit. Mrs. Cora Beech and daughters were Sunday visitors at the Joseph McColl home. They are changing their residence from Omaha to Cedar Rapids. Mrs. Vail and daughter, of Blue Rapids, Kansas, are guests of her sister, Mrs. Frank Berka. They expect to become residents of our town. Mrs. Dr. Norman, of Cherry Vale, Kansas, is here for a brief visit with her many friends. She and the doctor were residents of our town for a number of years and will always meet with a hearty welcome when they return. Mrs. Reuben, of Omaha, is here for a few days' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Lazerus. There is being some good work done on some of the streets; they are being graded up in fine shape, which will prevent such deep mud as we have been having in wet weather. Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Mayne, of Harlan, mother and sister of Mrs. Dan Howorth, came to attend the funeral of Dan Howorth. Mr. and Mrs. Van Steinburg, of Marysville, Mo., have been here for a few days visiting at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young. Mrs. Thomas Doud, of Omaha, returned home Friday from a visit with her mother, Mrs. D. McNair. Miss Jennie Rae, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, returned to Red Oak Friday, where she has a position as teacher in the high school. The many friends of Miss Newman were made glad by having her return from Muskogee, Okla., Saturday for a brief visit. The graduates of the class of '10 were especially pleased to see her as she was teaching here at that time. She and Mrs. Dr. Norman visited the schools Monday. G. Rae Woodruff returned to his home at Omaha Friday after spending a week with relatives in this vicinity. Chester and Elsie Butterworth, who have spent several days with relatives here, started Monday for Woodbine, where they will visit a few days before going on to their home at Merrill Iowa. Mrs. Hamilton, of Treynor, Iowa, came last Thursday for a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Coleman. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Swatman went to Lincoln Monday, where they will visit relatives and attend the Nebraska state fair. Miss Hazel Williamson, who is at attending school at Woodbine, came up to visit relatives over Sunday. Will Cramer, of Denison, was a Sunday guest at the George Binnall home. Earl Brake went to Lincoln, Neb., Monday, where he will enjoy the sights at the state fair for a few days. Miss Rose Dodge, of Chicago, who has spent several months as the guest of Mrs. Charley Smith, returned to her home. While here she has made many warm friends who hope she may visit Dow City again. Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Rudd have received the announcement of a new baby girl, who arrived at their home Aug. 30th. Their home is now at Norfolk, Neb. Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Jess Henderson were called upon to part with one of their nine-months-old twin boys, who died of cholera infantum. The funeral was held Sunday at two o'clock at the Latter Day Saints' church and the little form was laid to rest in the Dow City cemetery. The other one of the twins is very sick with the same dread disease. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved family and all hope their other baby may be spared them. The four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Christensen is still very sick with cholera infantum. A week or so ago Roy Randel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art S. Randel, met with a very serious and painful accident. He had been hauling grain. His team became frightened and ran away. He was violently thrown to the ground and sustained some very bad bruises. His ankle was dislocated and one bone of his leg was broken. He was very badly hurt, but is getting along very nicely. Rev. G. W. Koser started Tuesday for Perry, where he will attend the annual conference of the Methodist church. Grandfather Baber was moved Sunday to the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Coburn, who lives in the house on the county farm. He is getting quite feeble, being about eighty-eight years old. Mr. and Mrs. Will Blackman, who are here from the eastern part of the state, have rented the Chris Voller farm and will move onto it for next year. Mrs. Fisher came up from Omaha Monday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Judd. The all day missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. A. H. Cook was a great success. The members took well filled baskets and a sumptuous dinner was served to an unusually large crowd. At this meeting two babies, Evelyn Buss and Francis Eugene, were made life members of the Little Light Bearers. This auxiliary numbering not more than thirty-five, has paid into the foreign missionary fund $223.00. The Methodist church, including all branches of the work, paid this year $313.15 for benevolences. Word was received in town Monday evening that H. S. Green, who was president of the bank at this place which failed six years ago, had returned to Denison and given himself up for trial. His friends here hope that he may be able to clear himself of any criminal action. While a resident of Dow City he helped many a poor person who was in need and he did much for the town. Mr. M. G. Wiggins, who was stricken with paralysis some three weeks ago, is still very bad and does not seem to improve any. Although it was not asurprise, still it was a shock to the whole community to hear that Dan Howorth had died. Much sympathy is expressed for the young wife, the aged father and the entire family. The funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. Interment was made in the Dow City cemetery. Many relatives came from a distance to attend the funeral. The public school opened Monday with an enrollment as follows: First primary 32, second primary 31, intermediate 22, grammar 20, high school 51. More are expected next week. A year of German has been added to the high school course of study, to be taught in the senior class. Miss Hayes starts work with us teaching four high school subjects, the balance of her time being given to music throughout the building. Misses King, Strahan and Haysa spent Sunday at their respective homes.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK AT Denison, Iowa, at the close of business on the 1st day of September 1910, as required by the Comptroller of the Currency. RESOURCES. Loans and Discounts.....$596,308 08 Overdrafts secured.....13,935 67 United States Bonds to secure circulation.....100,000 00 Bonds, Securities, etc.....10,148 08 Bank Building, furniture and fixtures.....15,000 00 Due from National Banks (not reserve agents).....8 69 Due from Approved Reserve Agents.....64,988 96 Checks and other cash items.....179 37 Notes of other National Banks.....700 00 Fractional paper currency, Nickels and Cents.....215 61 Special.....20,061 75 Legal Tender Notes.....9,890 00 Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 percent of circulation).....5,000 00 Total.....$835,796 12 LIABILITIES Capital stock paid in.....$100,000 00 Surplus fund.....25,000 00 Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid.....15,544 84 National Bank Notes outstanding.....99,997 50 Individual Deposits subject to check.....224,064 69 Demand deposits.....35,145 90 Time Certificates of Deposits.....336,023 19 Total.....$835,796 12

STATE OF IOWA, COUNTY OF CRAWFORD, J. S. SEARS, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. SEARS, Cashier. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of September 1910. E. W. PIERCE, Notary Public. Correct Attest: L. SEAMAN, J. H. MCHENRY, Directors

W. C. VAN NESS, A. M., - Principal DENISON, IOWA

For Further Information Address W. C. VAN NESS, A. M., - Principal DENISON, IOWA

LOCATION Every one who visits the college praises the location. On a hill, giving perfect drainage, a beautiful view over the valley and rich fields, just outside of the business street, the location is ideal for a school. EQUIPMENT Abundant in all departments. Students have experiments performed that some have said they did not have the privilege of seeing in higher institutions. TEACHERS Fully qualified for the work, give especial attention to the individual pupil. Our personal help has been especially praised.

The Crawford County Fair AT ARION Sept. 13, 14, 15 Three Great Days Of Amusement and Educational Merit. Excellent Music, Unexcelled Live Stock Exhibit, and Fine Educational Display.

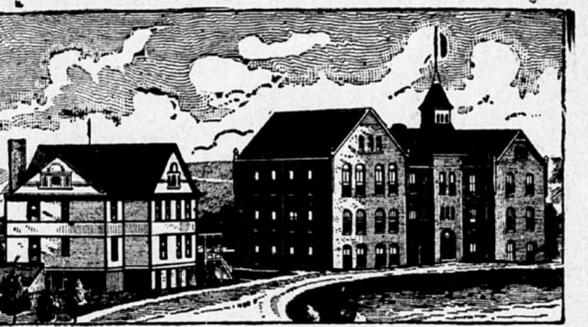

Table with 2 columns: Wednesday, Sept. 14 and Thursday, Sept. 15. Lists various events like Band Concert, Stock Parade, Running Races, etc.

See the $20,000 Stock Parade Which Takes Place Thursday Afternoon.

A Public Sale Will Take Place On the Grounds on the Afternoon of September 15th, With F. O. Cabbage, an Experienced Live Stock Salesman, as Auctioneer.

Everybody Plan to Attend

Denison Normal & Business College

Fall Term Opens Tuesday, September 6, 1910

LOCATION Every one who visits the college praises the location. On a hill, giving perfect drainage, a beautiful view over the valley and rich fields, just outside of the business street, the location is ideal for a school. EQUIPMENT Abundant in all departments. Students have experiments performed that some have said they did not have the privilege of seeing in higher institutions. TEACHERS Fully qualified for the work, give especial attention to the individual pupil. Our personal help has been especially praised.

The Register and Leader will be mailed daily from now to Jan. 1, 1911, for $1.00—daily and Sunday $1.50. This great Iowa paper through its force of trained correspondents gathers all the state news quickly and accurately. Its daily visits will keep you closely in touch with all the nation and the world. Take advantage of this liberal offer now—the publisher of this paper will gladly send in your subscription. 36-11