

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in the baking.

Use CALUMET—the Modern Baking Powder.

At All Grocers.

SCHLESWIG ITEMS.

J. Peter Jepsen drove to Denison last Friday evening with his family to visit a few days at the home of Mrs. Mary Henig.

Will Schmidt and family and Ella Witt stayed at the Robt. Naeve home last week while Robert and wife were at Elwood, Iowa.

Henry Krohnke returned from Omaha Friday.

Mrs. Mary Herrig and daughter, Alfreda Naeve, visited at the J. Peter Jepsen home this week.

A large party was given at the Reimer home east of town Saturday eve. All had a good time.

Will Holliday, of Dow City, is now employed at the Stock barber shop.

Lulu and Nellie Girard were passengers to Denison Wednesday, returning Friday.

Will Holliday returned from Kiron Friday.

Miss Grace Schlumberger, of Denison, was here Friday and Saturday.

Ella Holten returned to Aberdeen, S. D. recently, where she will take a position as bookkeeper in a store there.

Arthur Girard returned from his Colorado trip Thursday.

Threshing will all be finished in this locality this week, and fall work is well under way. If the frost stays away a while longer the corn will be a fine crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stegeman are spending the week in South Dakota visiting.

Wm. Piggars and wife visited in Denison Wednesday.

Jurgen Schroeder attended the fair at Arion Wednesday.

Henry Miller and wife are visiting at the Peter Mohr home at Larchwood, Iowa, this week.

Mrs. John Nicholson is spending the week at Ft. Dodge.

Chas. Schmidt and Will Jacobs, who had been at the Robt. Naeve home, returned Wednesday to Elwood.

On Friday, September 9, 1910, the home of Robt. Naeve was stricken with the deepest sorrow, when their only daughter, Little Viola Emma Henrietta Naeve, was called by the Angel of Death to the world beyond where suffering is no more. The cause of her death was bronchitis and bowel trouble, death coming as a relief for her suffering after many days' illness, while she was with her mother at Elwood, Iowa, where they went for a visit. Robt. Naeve went to her bedside to be with her during her illness and she improved after the first attack, but later complications set in which caused her death. Viola was born Feb. 15, 1909, and was 1 year, 6 months and 14 days old. The services were held at the home Monday. The flower offerings were many and beautiful. The services were conducted by Rev. Wetzel. Four little girls dressed in white were pall bearers. The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of all in this, the loss of their only darling little Viola Henrietta. May she rest forever in peace.

Ferdinand Carstens returned this week from Omaha, where he spent the past week.

Arthur Girard and Henry Schroeder went down to the Boyer Sunday to feed the fish with bait.

WILLOW ITEMS.

Will Nutter transacted business in the Oak Monday evening.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the fair at Arion and a large number are planning on taking in the Sioux City fair also.

Mrs. Otto Staley was a Charter Oak shopper Saturday.

DELOIT ITEMS.

Deloit and vicinity were well represented at the Old Settlers' reunion in Denison.

Dewey Noakes was very fortunate in recovering so quickly from his accidentally shooting himself in the mouth the 6th day of September. He went to visit his Grandpa Patchin, who has been very sick for some time and the next day he was down town as joyous as ever. It is hardly possible such an accident would occur with as little trouble once in a hundred times.

Deloit has made quite a little improvement this summer as several new buildings have been erected and cement walks laid.

Mrs. Bessie Winans-Myers had quite a serious accident Friday morning by being around one of their horses. She was struck in the face by one of the horse's hind feet. She received a bad cut in her forehead in the edge of the hair, which had to be sewed up. She also had some bones in her nose broken. She was brought to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Winans, and it is reported she is getting along very nicely, which is good news to her many friends.

Several attended the Arion fair last week.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson is visiting with her children at Selby, S. D., at the home of Alma Dobson and wife. She was met there by her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Riggelman and husband and little girl. She will arrive home about the middle of this week.

Mrs. Martha Hattery went to the Denison hospital last week and had a tumor removed. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ehlers. She is getting along nicely and is expected to be able to return home Monday afternoon, a fact which her many friends will be glad to learn.

Oaker Myers and Sol Laugherty were in a railroad wreck last Friday. Two trains ran into each other. Both were quite severely injured. Jay Myers took the train Saturday afternoon to go to his son, and upon his return we will learn more of the particulars. Later—Jay Myers returned and reported his son in a very bad condition. Two ribs were broken in front and 5 or 6 in the back and at present it is hard to tell how the injuries will terminate, but all hope for his recovery. His parents and sisters have the sympathy of all in their trouble.

Elder C. J. Hunt and J. A. Wedlock and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winans and little daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Richardson and little son were in attendance at the L. D. S. reunion at Little Sioux, Iowa, which closed Sunday evening. We learn the reunion will be held at Magnolia. People in this vicinity hoped that it might be held at Denison.

L. F. Morris drove down to meet the flyer very early on Sunday morning. He was rewarded by receiving a visit from his eldest daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Hensen, of Montana.

Rev. Crumby preached his farewell sermon a week ago last Sunday and took his departure a day or two later for conference. We learn he will attend school the next year. His wife and daughter went to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson and family entertained company from Omaha Sunday.

There were no services at the M. E. church Sunday on account of the pastor's absence.

Mrs. Jos. True and little sons returned home last week from their visit with relatives at Avoca, Iowa.

Mrs. Fred True, of the True Merc. Co., had her millinery opening three days of last week.

Miss Bertha Tittsworth and Miss Eunice Dobson are teaching the Deloit school. A good attendance is reported.

A. G. Myers is teaching what was commonly known as the Jordan school just east of Deloit.

Mrs. Winnie Browne is teaching just west of Deloit. She and Mr. Browne have the same schools they taught last year.

Mrs. A. J. Mason and little son are visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. Willoughby, and children at Bonestell, S. D.

Miss Golda Mason went to Denison Monday morning to attend college. She will stay at the home of her aunt, Mrs. N. L. Hunt.

Miss Iva Mason started in school at Deloit Monday morning. She spent her summer vacation in the Deloit postoffice.

I hereby wish to express my gratitude to all those who showed so much interest in my recent illness and to those who presented me with such lovely bouquets of flowers, which were so greatly appreciated.

Mrs. S. Horr.

Chas. Childress returned Saturday from an extended trip through Colorado.

Ray Winans is recovering from his recent illness.

Mr. A. D. Bland was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pilcher and Bessie Pilcher, of Ida Grove, came down on Sunday and spent the day with little Bessie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Winans. They made the trip in their automobile.

About seventy-five of our citizens attended the Arion fair Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dethman, living just north of town, are completing their fine new residence and will soon have it ready for occupancy.

Clarence Brogden, Dale Case and Ross Shives were business visitors in Omaha the latter part of last week.

The Myers Brothers have their mother nicely settled in a fine new cottage located on Main street.

Among those who attended the Latter Day Saints' reunion at Little Sioux were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winans and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Richardson and Jas. Wedlock.

Mrs. Florence True, of Dunlap, spent a few days in Deloit last week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fear and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Taylor attended the theater in Denison last Friday evening.

Mr. N. H. Brogden left last week for an extended trip through the eastern states.

Mr. Silas Wedlock has just completed a fine barn, which makes a fine addition to his property.

A "Funny" Column

By A. Pare Shears.

Got Stung, All Right.
Bill—This paper says that bees were unknown to the Indians.
Jill—Yes, I believe it was the traders who used to sting them.—Yonkers Statesman.

The Minister—In the next world, Tommy, the last shall be first.
Tommy—Say, won't I shine when the minister comes to supper at our house up there!—Puck.

Hooked!
"Pshaw!" exclaimed Miss Yerner, impatiently, "I'm sure we'll miss the opening number. We've waited a good many minutes for that mother of mine."
"Hours, I should say," Mr. Sloman retorted, rather crossly.
"Ours? Oh, George!" she cried, and laid her blushing cheek upon his shirt front.—Argonaut.

Partly Made Over.
"Weren't we engaged last summer?" inquired the girl.
"Your face is familiar," faltered the man.
"Well, I'll forgive you for not recognizing me. My hair and figure are new."

Egotism of Genius.
When Wordsworth Southley and Coleridge were walking together, and Coleridge remarked that the day was so fine, "it might have been ordered for three poets," the gentle Wordsworth promptly exclaimed: "Three poets! Who are the other two?"

Disraeli, when a mere youth, wrote to his sister that he had heard Macaulay, Shell and Grant speak, "but between ourselves I could find them all." And again he said, "When I want to read a good book I write one."

Explained.
"Our air mattresses," said the dealer, "are all filled in the months of April and May. That accounts for their remarkable resilient qualities."
"Is the air of those months better than others?"
"They are the spring months, you know."—Exchange.

Roughing It.
"Does your wife enjoy roughing it?"
"Does she? Well, say, you should see her in a bargain rush."—Detroit Free Press.

His Bad Break.
"Whooper humiliated his wife terribly last night."
"—?"
"Oh, the minister read two chapters from the Acts, and Whooper went out between them."—Puck.

Citizen—What'll you charge me, Uncle Rastus, to cart away that pile of stone? Uncle Rastus—About $2, sah. Citizen—Isn't that very high? Uncle Rastus—Yes, sah, jes' fo' cuthin' away the stone, but I got ter hire a man ter he'p me mahness de mule.—Harper's Bazaar.

Women's Lefts.
Miss Bikle—So you have given up advocating women's rights?
Miss Passee—Yes; I now go in for women's lefts.
"Women's lefts? What's that?"
"Widowers."

Plain Enough.
"You can tell from the extraordinary likeness that the pretty woman yonder is this child's mother."
"Yes, there is something about the case that is evidently a parent."

Even the Children.
Ex-Governor Pennypacker, condemning in his witty way the American divorce evil, told, at a Philadelphia luncheon, an appropriate story.
"Even our children," he said, "are becoming infected. A Kensington school teacher, examining a little girl in grammar said:
"What is the future of 'I love'?"
"A divorce," the child answered promptly.

An Interference.
Rose—Why don't you pop in and have a game of bridge sometimes?
Violet—Oh, well, you see—I've become a bit of a recluse lately.
Rose—How much do you owe?

Thriftless.
"Did she marry the man who rescued her?"
"Yes, and now she's discovered that her life was the only thing he ever saved."—Detroit Free Press.

Harker—I met Smith a week after he had faced the parson, and he declared he had married his ideal.
Farker—Well?
Harker—A year after he confessed his mistake—said it was his ordeal instead of his ideal he had married.—Chicago News.

ARION ITEMS.

The Crawford County fair was a decided success, although the rain of last Thursday postponed the races and prevented very many from coming who had intended to do so. The stalls were filled with fine and well bred horses, cattle and sheep. Much attention was paid to the swine. They were about as fine specimens of the different breeds shown as are to be found anywhere and they were noticeably well groomed. In the main tent was a beautiful display of needlework of various kinds, cakes, pies, breads, delicious butter, pickles, jelly, canned fruit, etc., a table of handsome house plants and cut flowers and some very fine chickens, ducks and geese. People were much interested in the educational exhibit conducted by Supt. Hoffman and Prof. VanNess. From the exhibit of the Denison Normal college, which is a credit to the county, down to the work done by the little ones, Crawford county shows that its schools take a first place. A few plates of nice grapes and plums, that in some way had escaped the destructive freeze of last spring, were on the fruit table that is usually so well filled, but the vegetables made up. One side of the tent was taken up by a handsome display of fine vegetables and melons, while the corn and small grain were of excellent quality. There were amusements for all. The merry-go-round was filled with a happy crowd. The show company, that is one making larger fairs, fulfilled its promises well. People cheered the well trained horses and Frank Rysdyk, who paces without a driver in 2:20. The roadster race was won by John McNally's Red Bird, Ed Ahart's horse, Pip, second. Farmers' trot or pace won by H. Scott's horse, Dewey, Irish Mack, second. Free-for-all running race won by Ed Ahart's horse, Cap, Irish Mack, owned by Tubbs, second. Free-for-all trot or pace, McNally's Red Bird, first; Frank Rysdyk second; Joe Wood owned by P. Eggers, third. Cowboy race won by Joker, owned by John Eggers, Phyllis second. The relay race was won by Jim Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Dow City, were in Arion callers last week.

John Schwarz's have moved into their new home and the back part of the meat market will be used for groceries.

Mrs. Winters is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Roberts, after which she will go to her new home in Mitchell, S. D.

John McNally has returned to Dunlap with his horse, Bud, which he intends to enter in the races at Missouri Valley.

Mrs. Una Mathews, of Oklahoma, was visiting here with relatives last Saturday.

Mr. Ellison, the painter, has moved from Arion.

Mrs. J. L. Barnard and daughter, Elinore, visited with Arion friends on their way home from Council Bluffs.

Miss Helen Bell, of Dow City, visited with Stella Butler last week.

N. P. Underhill, from Omaha, was an Arion visitor last week.

Vern Talcott went to Denison Monday to enter the Denison Normal college.

Paul Bennett, from Carroll, was in Arion Friday on business.

Mrs. Andrew Mackey, of Elk Point, S. D., visited with Arion friends last week.

Mrs. Vern Snyder visited at the L. Roberts home during the fair.

Roy Williamson spent last week visiting with his sister, Mrs. Dean Talcott.

On Friday, Miss Goldsworthy, our primary teacher, was so ill that she could not take charge of her work and Mrs. Phillippi taught the one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fishel, of Dow City, enjoyed a pleasant visit at the Milo Kelly home Monday last.

Miss Golda Lee is teaching school about ten miles west of Charter Oak.

Stella Butler and Helen Bell attended a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butterworth last Thursday evening in honor of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Butterworth, who are here for a short time on their wedding trip.

L. C. Butler went to Denison Tuesday on business.

Mrs. C. A. Davis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Carroll, went to Northwood to visit friends Friday.

Mesdames S. M. and E. T. Child and Miss Francis, of Dunlap, and Mr. David Child, of Seattle, who is visiting at home, spent Saturday with Mrs. D. J. Butler.

Rev. E. Dale Calkins, our new minister, arrived here last Saturday, and preached sermons Sunday morning and evening which showed him to be a man of marked ability. His family followed Monday. They will live in the C. C. Tripp house in the west part of town.

Mr. Messerbrink, of Charter Oak, was an over-Sunday visitor with his daughter, Mrs. H. G. Neubaum.

There will be a big dance in the new hall here Friday evening of this week. A big crowd and a big time are expected.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Mrs. Will Kelly has been suffering for the last few days with neuralgia. Leo Downey and sisters, Rachael and Bell, attended services at Wall Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Will Rickers, formerly Margaret Wiers, died at her home south of West Side on Tuesday, September 13th. So suddenly was she called out of this world that it is indeed a sad blow to her husband and friends. But it is most pitiful for the little baby that is left to never know a mother's love.

Will Kelly is about to erect a new double corn crib on his place.

The Misses Mary and Veronica Lawler were passengers to Carroll Saturday.

James Malloy called at the White home last Friday.

Willie Lawler visited at the M. O'Connell home recently.
