

VAIL ITEMS.

Miss O'Connell was a passenger to Denison Tuesday.

Miss Irene Hickey was an over-Sunday visitor at the Jno. Kearney home south of town.

Mrs. Will Mitchell and sons, Roy and Fay, spent Tuesday in Denison with Mrs. Mitchell's mother.

M. J. Breen was down from Dow City the first of last week on business.

Mrs. Tetwell arrived here this (Monday) morning from California, called here by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Fitzsimmons, who still remains quite low.

Wm. Hill, Jr. visited the first of the week with relatives at Audubon, Iowa.

J. A. Houlihan, of Charter Oak, was visiting his brother, M. L., here Saturday and attending to some business matters.

James Mangan is on the sick list for the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson and daughter, Audrey, of Denison, visited relatives in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

Maurice O'Connor, of Fort Dodge, delivered an address in the town hall Thursday evening to the democrats of this locality.

Born, Thursday, Oct. 27th, to John Algoe and wife, a son.

Charles Tabor, Mrs. S. M. Martin, L. L. Cornwall and wife, of Denison, motored over here Monday afternoon and visited friends.

Rev. Father Murphy is confined to his bed with rheumatism. His nephew, Rev. Peter Murphy, is here and will be Rev. James Murphy's assistant for the winter.

M. J. Collins, democratic candidate for auditor, was here last Thursday and made a very favorable impression among the voters.

Our teachers attended the state convention in Des Moines the latter part of last week.

Henry Loechner and wife, of Lincoln, Neb., visited here last week with the former's mother, Mrs. Jno. Loechner, and other relatives.

Mrs. Jorgensen and daughter were calling on Denison friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick and son, of Denison, visited relatives here over Sunday.

P. J. Klinker was down from Denison Tuesday.

Miss Agnes Monaghan was a Denison caller Thursday.

Earl Hoffman and wife were Omaha visitors last week.

Mike Giblin was in Denison Monday.

H. J. Enebach and wife were visiting friends in Arcadia Sunday.

Miss Pauline Cranny spent Thursday in Denison.

George Nicholson, of Denison, was on our streets Saturday.

M. J. Casey spent a part of last week in Omaha purchasing goods for his store.

Mrs. A. Starek, of West Side, visited relatives here Saturday and attended the matinee.

Miss Sadie Smith left Saturday for an over-Sunday visit with her folks at Audubon.

Miss Nellie Hickey was visiting in Denison Tuesday.

Eddie Mitchell, who attended business college at Cedar Rapids, was an over-Sunday visitor at the parental B. Mitchell home.

Mrs. Jno. Cranny and daughter, Miss Lillian, were calling on friends in Denison the first of last week.

Mrs. Bartley Mitchell went to Denison Sunday for a few days' visit with her brother, L. Gaffey, and family.

Miss Minnie Evison returned home last week from a six weeks' visit with her father at Winterset, Iowa.

James Langan and son, Cyril, of Omaha, spent a couple of days last week here with relatives.

Mrs. Chas. Magill spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

T. J. Hoffman was transacting business at the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McCorkindale, of Odebolt, visited relatives in this vicinity last week.

Fritz Hanss was down from Denison Monday on business.

A. J. Barrow, of Manilla, was here on business Saturday.

Rolland Tonner and sister, Laura, returned last week from a few weeks' visit with relatives in Nebraska.

Miss Lessie Marshall, of Denison, visited friends here the first of last week.

Hans Arff, of Charter Oak, was here Saturday on business.

Mr. Barber was down from Denison Tuesday on business.

Joe Coates was transacting business at the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Rose Fortson was shopping in Denison Monday.

Mrs. J. D. Brown, who has been visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Downey, and other relatives for the last couple of weeks, left for her home at Sioux Falls, S. D. last week.

Mrs. Ben Wahlin and daughter, Agda, were Omaha visitors last week.

Miss Mable Tonner came down from Denison and spent Sunday here with her folks.

Mrs. M. L. Houlihan spent Tuesday with Denison friends.

Peter Mumm was up from West Side the first of the week on business.

Jess Cranny spent Sunday in Vail.

Mrs. Petersen and Miss Kate Molony, of Denison, were guests at the John, Champion home Sunday.

Mrs. Frank O'Boyle and two daughters were trading in Denison Tuesday.

Miss Flossie White is visiting her sisters in Dakota for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. Algoe, of Winterset, is here for a visit with her son, John Algoe, and wife.

Andrew Whiting was in Denison on business Tuesday.

Miss Ella Kreuger returned to her home at Omaha Tuesday after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Miss Lillian Lawler, of West Side, was calling on Vail friends Tuesday.

NISHNABOTNY NEWS.

Willie Sullivan came Tuesday for a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. John McGinn.

Miss Alma Steinkuehler and brother, Otto, Herschel Tryon, John Tate and August Loewe were visitors at the Wm. Mullenger home Sunday.

Joe Healy came home Thursday for a visit. He has been working with the Fairmont Creamery company at Omaha the past few years.

Jacob Rusterholz, wife and children, Willie Boyens, Henry Miller and Barney Loewe spent Sunday at the Steinkuehler home.

John Hamann and son, Dewey, were Omaha visitors Wednesday.

Herman Lochmiller and wife spent Sunday in Denison at the Wm. Luney home.

Fritz Mundt was a Sunday visitor at the Charley Gessman home.

Miss Clara Gessman was the over-Sunday visitor at the home of her sister, Miss Bertha Gessman.

Joe Bauman and family, of near Buck Grove, came over for a visit at the Francis McSorley home Sunday.

Hilda Lochmiller spent the past week in Denison at the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Luney.

Misses Ruby Mullenger and Minnie Loewe were guests of Mrs. John McGinn Sunday.

Mrs. Francis McSorley and children were visiting at the Jerry Hassett home, east of Boyer, last Thursday.

Miss Sarah Tryon was the guest of Caroline Kuhl Sunday.

Miss Alma Steinkuehler spent the past week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Hast, near Buck Grove.

Josephine and Bernardine Tate are staying with their sister, Mrs. Frank Costello, near Vail, this week.

Mrs. Mary Scheurman was a caller at the William Mullenger home Friday.

Earl Hickey and Paul Tate visited with James McGinn Sunday.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued at the clerks office during the past week:

Oct. 25—Earl E. Buffington and Edith Eva Lilleholm.

Oct. 29—Alexander E. Schmidt and Margaret C. Hadenfeldt.

Oct. 31—Carl W. Burk and Jessie M. McWilliams.

Nov. 1—Carl F. Bohnsach and Mary Ackerman.

Farm for Sale.

The farm of Mrs. Hester McKim, adjoining the village of Deloit, is for sale. For particulars call on Conner & Lally. 43-tf

The Review and Weekly Inter Ocean & Farmer, $2.00

Have Just Unloaded and Placed on Sale a Car of

Hood River Apples!

"From the World Famed Valley Where Rain and Sunshine Meet."

GROWN AND PACKED BY

Hood River Apple Growers Union

HOOD RIVER, OREGON

Growers and Packers of the Finest Boxed Apples in the World. The first in Prosperous Iowa--read the following letter.

Hood River, Oregon, Oct. 7, 1910

The Balle-Brodersen Co.,
Denison, Iowa,

Gentlemen:--

We acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 3rd, and desire to say that we have already placed your order given to our Mr. Dethman on file, and we assure you we shall take great pleasure in filling this order, for the reason that it is the first full carload of our Fancy apples which the great and prosperous State of Iowa has seen fit to purchase, and we are very certain that you will make a winner with it. We further desire to say that we will give the matter our personal attention and will see that you get the best we have.

Yours very truly

Hood River Apple Growers' Union
Per C. H. Sproat, Manager.

See our Window Display

Prices quoted on Request.

The Balle-Brodersen Co.
DENISON, IOWA.
FANCY GROCERIES

The Denison Bakery

At last our new bakery is finished and it is no longer necessary for us to obtain bread elsewhere

It is the best, cleanest and most sanitary conducted bakery in western Iowa. We take great pleasure in it, and invite all the people of Denison and elsewhere to come in and inspect it.

I do my own work and know how to do it. One visit from you will make you a regular customer.

COME IN AND SEE.

The Denison Bakery
118 Broadway Phone 32 S. P. Jacobsen, Prop.

HAVES NEWS.

Gustav and Walter Bornhoft spent Sunday at the home of their brother, John.

Wm. Jahn started last week to build a new house on one of his unimproved farms.

Frank Norman went to Denison on Wednesday to attend the wedding of his cousin.

Hans voss was a Sunday visitor at the home of his brother, August, in West Side.

Bartley Mitchell and wife, of South Dakota, visited at the home of their sons, Bert and Bart.

Alex. Hannemann is building a new double corn crib. When completed it will add greatly to the appearance of his place.

Bob Bradshaw, of near Ricketts, visited his little daughter, Amanda, who is making her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landorf, Sr.

Miss Myrtle Norman again returned from Denison last week to visit at the home of her cousin, Mrs. P. E. Gallagher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landorf, Sr. and granddaughter visited at the home of John Anthony, of West Side, Sunday.

John Pencher went to Sioux City Wednesday to get his auto, which he left there about three weeks ago, having had a breakdown coming home from South Dakota.

Henry Hammer transacted business in Denison last Tuesday.

The Review and Weekly Inter Ocean & Farmer, $2.00

ARION NEWS.

Curtis Reynolds was leading a horse from the barn Sunday, when the animal kicked him in the face, inflicting a most painful wound, from which Curtis is suffering a great deal.

Mrs. Riley Talcott and daughter, Gladys, were Denison visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldsworthy, of Spencer, were Arion visitors Tuesday and with their daughters, Mrs. Anderson and Miss Lisle Goldsworthy, who is teaching here, took dinner with Mrs. Wm. Marr.

Wm. Butler and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Marr.

The school work is progressing well. A class in bookkeeping will soon begin study.

The Gleaners club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler last Wednesday evening. A program was rendered, consisting of a piano duet by Gladys Talcott and Grace Butler; recitation by Mr. Underwood; quartette, Grace Butler, Gladys Talcott, Louis Carroll, David Cruise; paper by Mrs. Percy Doidge; duet by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Phillippi. After the program there were games, including a ghost dance given by several young ladies appropriately dressed. Miss Mabel Howorth proved to be quite an artist drawing profiles of the members. Bessie Marr gained the prize for guessing the greatest number. Mrs. Underwood, dressed in a very pretty costume, made an ideal kypsy and the fortune telling room was crowded. Cakes and coffee were served.

There will be a supper for the benefit of the church at the home of Mrs. V. Talcott next Thursday evening.

Mrs. Otis Nelson was a Denison visitor Wednesday.

The young people's Christian Endeavor society will give a sociable on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carroll.

Mr. Spurr was an Omaha visitor last week, returning Monday.

Miss Sophie Mathias was an Arion visitor last week.

A class in bible study met at the parsonage Tuesday evening. Rev. E. D. Calkins makes the study of the scripture very interesting.

Mrs. Phillippi went to Ute to visit relatives last Thursday.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Florence Burnquist, who is teaching near Arthur, Iowa, visited her sister from Friday until Monday.

Prof. Van Ness attended the state teachers' meeting in Des Moines last week.

Miss Grace Thomas visited at the dormitory over Sunday.

Mr. Earl Hoffman called at the college while on his visit and short vacation from the State University.

Mr. Rowland Philbrook, from the State University, was present at chapel on Monday morning, the 7th, and gave the students a short talk. It was quite an inspiration and encouragement to them all.

Miss Gotter spent Saturday and Sunday with her people in Scranton.

The football team goes to Omaha to play Creighton college on Saturday.

The football team went to Storm Lake on Friday for a game with the Buena Vista college team. The day was ideal for the game. The Buena Vista team was quite a bit heavier than ours and it was pretty hard for our boys to hold their line smashes, but we surpassed them in team work and end runs. Every man on our team did excellent work. It was clean football from start to finish, with a score of 16 to 0 in our favor. We expect a return game in Denison on Thanksgiving.

The teachers entertained the students at a Hallowe'en social at the dormitory Monday evening. Black cats, witches and jack-o'-lanterns were abundant in decorations. All entered into the game with spirit and evident enjoyment and before we were scarcely aware of it the evening was over.

Prof. VanNess will attend the state teachers' meeting at Des Moines. He has a place on the program.