EIGHTH ANNUAL CORN SHOW.

Iowa Corn Growers' Association Will Give $20,000 in Premiums—Des Moines December 5-17.

Twenty thousand dollars in premiums is the inducement held out by the Iowa Corn Growers' association to the farmers of Iowa, for exhibits at the annual corn show to be given at the coliseum, Des Moines, December 5-17, inclusive.

Corn is king in Iowa. The Hawkeye state leads the world in this important cereal. This is a bumper crop, and the 1910 show will be the greatest in our history.

Every condition is right. The interest in proper selection and care of seed corn, the widespread teaching on this subject through the public press, farmers' institutes, short courses, Chautauqua lectures and the schools—all these have aroused tremendous enthusiasm.

The work recently done by the soils special in teaching rotation of crops, liberal and proper application of farm manures, thorough drainage and the feeding of live stock—all this has culminated in intense interest in corn culture.

How to double the yield and gain big returns from high-priced lands, how to get a better grade of corn, in fact, the very best, and how to get the most money out of this magnificent crop—all these are implied in the great Iowa Corn show.

This show calls for not only corn, but wheat, oats and other grains. One thousand dollars in cash, together with four silver medals and one gold medal has been offered by the Quaker Oats Company for the best Iowa oats, sixteen different classes with liberal premiums. The $20,000 in prizes consists of cash, merchandise, manufactured articles in implements, machinery and silos or live stock. You can ascertain all the facts by writing to the secretary, Prof. M. L. Bowman, 1125 Fleming Building, Des Moines, Iowa, for catalog and premium list.

Remember the date—December 5 to 17 inclusive, 1910—Coliseum, Des Moines.

Thackeray was not a vain man and he disliked vanity in others and made it the subject of his ridicule and sarcasm. After long pleading, his family induced him to have his portrait painted, and Lawrence, a famous London artist, gladly undertook the task. Soon after the picture was completed Thackeray chanced to be dining at his club when a pompous officer of the guard stopped beside the table and said:

"Haw, Thackeray, old boy, I hear Lawrence has been painting your portrait."

"So he has," was the response.

"Full length?"

"No; full length portraits are for soldiers, that we may see their spurs. But the other end of the man is the principal thing with authors," said Thackeray.

Side Lights on Next Sunday's Lesson for Teachers and Pupils

By CHAS. K. MEYERS

Nov. 27—The Trial of Jesus.—Matt. 26, 57-68.

Our last lesson found Jesus in the garden just outside of the city of Jerusalem. There also went the traitor Judas and the band of men whom the Jewish authorities had given to his charge, to effect the capture of Jesus on that fateful night. It might be well to remember that when Jesus stepped forth announcing Himself the Christ, that the mob before Him fell down overcome by the majesty of His person.

It was the hour of the evil one, and soon the men took Jesus under arrest and moved with Him to the city. It would appear that He first was taken before Annas, who up to a short time before had been the High Priest of the Jewish nation. In the lesson verses of this day we find Jesus on trial before Caiaphas, the then reigning head of the Jewish people, and the body of some seventy other respected Jews who formed what is known as the Sanhedrin. Rome was the master of the country at this time, but in line with its policy of conquered nations, it was allowing the former rulers to administer the laws in local affairs, there being over them a representative of the emperor at Rome. Thus it was in proper procedure to have a hearing before the Sanhedrin or Jewish law making and expounding body.

Of course there was no idea in the hearts of Caiaphas and his band as to what the outcome of the hearing or trial would be. It was they who had given Judas the thirty pieces of silver to show the Master to the soldiers who took Him in charge. They had also sworn that they would put Jesus to death, so the trial by the Jews was a mockery or farce. It is told that Peter followed a long way off. In the lesson of the next Sunday we will consider the denial of Jesus by Peter, so will not speak of him at this time.

The bible record tells how the high priest and his associates tried to get witnesses to testify against Jesus, but no two told the same story. Caiaphas therefore turned to Jesus to try to gain a case which would justify the death penalty. He practically put Jesus under oath to say whether He was the Son of God, and when the prison said that he was, the high priest made a great show of wrath and indignation so to appear to have evidence which would convict Jesus of blasphemy. For this the Jewish law directed that death might follow at the hands of the authorities.

When asked for an answer Jesus spoke boldly, claiming sonship with God and fortelling that at a future time He would come to earth sitting on the right hand of God, appearing in the clouds. Caiaphas declared Jesus guilty, worthy of death and then called on the rest of his conspirators to confirm what he had said. This they did, none daring to speak a good word for the lone prisoner. After the judgment a spirit of further lawlessness took place and the crowd began to torment Jesus, spitting upon Him, striking Him, and asking Him to tell who smote Him. As none but the Roman governor could give the death sentence Jesus was taken before Pilate. This man, although well convinced that Jesus had done nothing worthy of death, consented to it, to please the Jews.

When one remembers that although Jesus said little He was thoroughly alive to everything going on about Him, they can appreciate His feelings as the rude attendants made Him the object of their scorn and ridicule. Let it be further remembered that Jesus bore this all as a part of His pain to redeem mankind through death and abject humiliation. All this should add to our determination to serve Him and sacrifice for Him. Although reviled Jesus replied not in bitterness. His attitude toward the mob about Him is shown in His prayer for His tormentors and murderers. Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

If it were not for the fact that Jesus underwent all this for each of us, we would turn away from this fearful narrative to other parts of the bible. But the death and resurrection of Jesus are the central things of the holy book. One of the songs we often sing has a verse, "He died for you, He died for me," and another reads, "He bore, He bore it all for thee, what hast thou done for me? Yes, what have we done or do we propose to do in recognition of what Jesus has done for us? This is a question which all must answer. Indifference will not be an excuse in the last day of accounting. May the study of the death of Jesus make deep impress on our minds, and lead all to a further consecration to His service.

It Made Her Tired.

A handsome woman who had been so unfortunate as to find occasion to divorce not one, but several husbands, was in Chicago, where she happened to meet her first husband, for whom, by the way, she always has entertained a real affection.

"Upon my soul, if it isn't Charlie!" exclaimed the ex-wife, cordially shaking hands with the gentleman whose name she had formerly borne. "I'm awfully glad to see you, Charlie!" then after a wistful expression of regret had come to and had been banished from her countenance, she added:

"Old chap, I've often wondered where you were and what you were doing. It was too bad we didn't get on better together. I hope your experience hasn't been as unpleasant as mine. I'm just sick and tired of marrying strangers!"—N. Y. Press.

The manufacture of 60,000 tons of structural steel for the lock gates of the Panama canal at a cost of $7,500,000, has started in one of the Pittsburgh mills. The first shipment will be made in three weeks.

The erection of the gates is expected to be started about January 1st and two hundred experts will be sent to the isthmus for this work. It will require nearly three years to complete the job.

There will be forty-six sets of gates of structural steel. Each lock will have two of these gates, one leaf of which will weigh 600 tons and will be 665 feet wide and 77 feet high. There will be twenty sets of the gates at Gatun, twelve at Pedro Maguel, and remaining fourteen at Mira Flores.

Half of one of the biggest plants here has been given over to the fabrication of this steel work for the big canal, which will require some time owing to the constructive plans submitted by the engineers.—Pittsburg Paper.

ORIGINAL NOTICE.

In the District Court of Iowa, in and for Crawford County, January term, 1911.

Patrick Fineran, Plaintiff, vs. East Alexander & Company, William H. East, Mrs. W. H. East, Basil W. Alexander, Mrs. Basil W. Alexander, R. G. Lansing, Mrs. R. G. Lansing and the unknown heirs of G. V. East and the unknown claimants of the West half (W 1/2) of the Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of section thirty-five (35), Township eighty-three (83), North, Range thirty-nine (39), West of the Fifth (5th) Principal Meridian, Crawford County, Iowa, Defendants.

You and each of you are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court in the State of Iowa in and for Crawford County, Iowa, a petition in equity by the plaintiff, Patrick Fineran, alleging that he is the absolute and unqualified fee simple owner of the West half (W 1/2) of the Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of section thirty-five (35), Township eighty-three (83), North, Range thirty-nine (39), West of the Fifth (5th) Principal Meridian, in Crawford County, Iowa, and that under color of title and claim of right he and his grantors have been in the open, public, notorious and undisturbed possession of said premises for more than ten years last past; that a patent to the above described land was issued by the government of the United States to one Alexander S. Robertson on the 1st day of May, 1860, and through him by various mesne conveyances, the said real estate was, on the 25th day of July, 1860, conveyed by J. C. Ramsey and wife to the partnership of East, Alexander & Company, of St. Louis, Missouri, defendant herein, composed of the following named persons: William H. East, Basil W. Alexander, G. V. East and R. G. Lansing; and that by further mesne conveyances since said date the property on the 23d day of February, 1910, was conveyed by Mary J. Barrett, her husband, Earl Barrett, joining to the plaintiff herein, she being in the possession of said property and the Principal thereof at the time of such conveyance; that the said partnership of East, Alexander & Company has never made any conveyance to any one of said property, and while two of said partners, to-wit: William H. East and Basil W. Alexander, their wives joining, had conveyed said property to plaintiff and his grantors, G. V. East and R. G. Lansing, two of the partners in said partnership, have made conveyance to no one; that the said G. V. East has since the date of said conveyance of said property to said partnership departed this life and the names, residences, addresses and number of the heirs and representatives of said G. V. East are unknown to the plaintiff, although he has made diligent effort to ascertain the same; that while the defendants, including the unknown heirs of said G. V. East may have some claim or interest, right or title to said property, the plaintiff alleges in said petition that such claim, interest, right or title, so made by said defendants are junior and inferior to the plaintiff's ownership and title to the same. (For particulars see petition now on file in this case.) Now unless you appear thereto and defend before noon of the 2nd day of the next term of said Court, commencing at Denison, Iowa, on the 23d day of January, 1911, default will be entered against you and judgment and decree rendered as prayed in said petition.

W. L. GUNTER & COMPANY, Attorneys for Plaintiff. Upon reading the foregoing petition and inspecting the foregoing notice, said notice is hereby approved and ordered published for four consecutive weeks in the Denison Review, a newspaper printed and published at Denison, Crawford county, Iowa. Dated this 8th day of October, 1910.
