"If I were sure the candy sold in that shop was pure and free from bacteria, I should be glad to get you a couple of pounds," says the scientific swain.

The fair young thing, who has a normal candy appetite, coos a word of appreciation of his thoughtfulness.

"You are fond of soda and ice cream, are you not?" he asks.

"I just love it."

"If it weren't so often filled with dangerous germs I would be happy to get you some."

This time she does not coo appreciatively, and they continue their homeward walk in silence.

When he is leaving her, he bashfully hints that he would like to kiss her good-by.

"You may," she says, to his surprise.

"You can be sure there won't be any germs in the kiss, either, for you haven't given me the chance to acquire any."

He sleeps but little that night, because of his mental effort to determine whether she is thoughtful or sarcastic.

Caught.

"Do you remember me buying a hair mattress from you the other day?" asked the lady.

"Perfectly well, ma'am," was the reply of the dealer.

"Well, I've discovered that only about one-quarter of the filling is hair."

"Then you certainly do seem to have me where the hair is short, ma'am."

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest.

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

Different From a Mountain. A certain Philadelphian, who is at once a minister of the gospel and a registered physician had an amusing experience in his attempt to corner a Christian Scientist. Every time they met this scientist took occasion to scoff at medical science and to dwell upon the wonders that could be performed through faith. "You are convinced that through faith you can do anything," said the medical man one day. "Yes," he replied, "faith will move mountains."

"O, thundering guns!" exclaimed the grocer, his tone changed and his face drawn in a pucker. "Why, you blamed idiot, I heard at that woman's house."—November Lippincott's.

By Another Name.

"Then there is no bowing to public men in America?" "No; we call it respect for the office."

In the Grand Stand.

Stella—Do you understand baseball? Bella—Perfectly; but why does that man run so hard with nobody after him?

Reached His.

Mrs. Crimsonbeak—They say the shortest way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

Mr. Crimsonbeak—Well, dear, your biscuits always do give me heartburn!—Yonkers Statesman.

A Few.

You will find all sorts of people in the world, including a few who pretend to like mineral water.—Atchison Globe.

Enlightened. "Before I married," said Mr. Henpack, "I didn't know what it meant to support a wife." "I presume you know now." "Yes, indeed, I looked up the word 'support' in the dictionary and discovered that one of its meanings is 'endure.'"

Knows What's Coming. Hewitt—Gruett is discharged about every Saturday night. Jewett—Yes, during the week he feels as if he were between two fires.—New York Press.

Nothing is law that is not reason.—Sir John Powell.

Not the Reason. "So you want to marry my daughter, sir?" said the grouchy old man. "Ye-yes, sir," said the youth. "Do you take her for a fool?" "Oh no-no, sir. That is not the reason I want to marry her."

Not Seeking Trouble. "I should think it would be the bugbear of your life trying to get up new brand-new jokes," said the sympathetic caller. "That," said the humorist, cheerfully, "is the least of our troubles."

He Wasn't Afraid. "Oh, well," said the grocer to the dissatisfied customer, as the argument waxed warm, "don't get put out about it." "I don't intend to," snapped the customer. "And you can't put me out."

The Cold Storage Wall. "Say, boss, I worked off some of that cold storage butter today," said the new clerk, with an air of one who expected a compliment.

"Indeed! Well, that's good! Who drew the prize?" said the pleased grocer, for it was getting to be a difficult thing to do. "Why, I sent it to Mrs. Hash around on Board street."

Words of a Sage. Better a blush in the face than a blot in the heart.—Cervantes.

Benedict Arnold's Last Wish. A New York public school teacher recently asked a pupil in her United States history class to describe the death and repentance of Benedict Arnold. She was somewhat astonished when the child, in whose mind American, British, Union and Confederate soldiers were pretty well mixed, replied: "He begged to be allowed to die in a Union suit."

Cutting. A Scotch lawyer was well reproved when, seated by a lady fully aware of her own plain looks, having bowed to his hostess in giving the toast, "Honest Men and Bonnie Lassies," she rejoined, raising her own glass, "We may both drink that toast, since it refers to neither of us."

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly, and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wisner's of Sycamore, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Punished.

"People who lie are always punished in one way or another."

"That's right."

"You know of incidents which bear out my statement?"

"One. I used to exaggerate the size of my fortune when talking to a girl I used to call on before I was married."

"And she discovered that you were lying and despised you ever afterward?"

"No, she married me."
