Kemming Clothing Co.

If you notice carefully what the weather man says for the next few days, you'll find that it can be condensed, so far as your clothes comfort is concerned, with two words:

Overcoats! Overcoats!

If he knows much about clothes, he'd probably like to add, "Kemming's Overcoats."

But of course, that wouldn't do for an impartial government official.

The forecast ought to read: Indications for Denison and Crawford County: Kemming's fine overcoats still prevail throughout the entire county.

Get yours now. If he did that, he'd come as near giving you the right tip as he ever came in his life. We haven't any doubt on the overcoat question that we can please and satisfy every man who comes to us for an overcoat.
