savings on every fur in this entire stock. Not a garment reserved.

We are going to sell every fur garment in our stock at a sacrifice. We are going to do it now, in December. We are going to begin today and make one great sweeping reduction on the entire stock, instead of reducing prices on one fur garment after another for the next six weeks. Every fur in stock, mind you, and that means $1000 worth! One Thousand dollars' worth of dependable fur coats, sets and separate pieces in the newest styles and made for us selected skins. We are not going to wait; we will sell furs at reductions so pronounced as to permit of no further price cutting later in the winter.
