Just Three More Days and the Winners of the Excellent List of Prizes Will be Announced. The Ballot Box is Now Sealed and Will Remain so Until the Judges Break the Seal to Make Final Count.

Voting Will Cease at 9 O'clock P. M.

VERY IMPORTANT.

The judges will only count what is deposited in the box from now until the close. The Contest Manager made the last count Tuesday night, and all candidates have had an opportunity to have all errors rectified. If your count as published in today's paper is not correct, be sure and let the Contest Manager know so that he can count all your votes over again, or let you count them, as the judges will not count the votes that have been counted by the Contest Manager. Candidates can turn in their money to the Contest Manager right up until FIVE minutes before Nine O'clock, then their money and names to correspond, will have to be put in an envelope and dropped in the ballot box, or you can put your entire report, with money to correspond, in an envelope and drop it in the box. No one will know what is in the ballot box until the judges open it for the final count. We have good, reliable men for judges and we do not think that any candidate will feel dissatisfied with her count. Be sure that your count up to date is correct before Saturday.

The Review's big contest will come to a close Christmas Eve at 9 p. m. sharp. To say that the contest has been a success would be putting it mildly, for it certainly has been a grand success from start to finish. An avalanche of subscriptions have come to The Review office, and the young ladies who are in the contest have certainly been hustling ever since the first announcement.

GET THE BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The big subscriptions are the ones that will win the big prizes, as we have an offer for them that will last until the close. The schedule is given above and runs up to 20 years, but subscriptions can be paid for any number of years, and will be figured with an increase just as the schedule is figured up to twenty years, including one thousand extra votes for every year on subscriptions that are multiples of five.

This is the big week and the week to get in your good strong work, as the prizes are not won yet, but will be won in the remaining time. Don't get the idea that you have done enough, but get right after them and turn in every subscription you possibly can, as you might lose by just a couple thousand votes.

LEARN PARTICULARS OF CLOSE.

Every candidate should have a talk with the Contest Manager before Saturday, so she can ask about features that are not clear to her. Be sure that you understand everything thoroughly, as a mistake on the last day would be very unfortunate.

The count in this paper is the last count made by the Contest Manager and the judges will count only what is deposited in the box from now on, and their total will be added to the total each candidate has in this count.

ABOUT THE CLOSE.

All voting will be done at The Review office, and the judges will call off the minutes starting at five minutes before nine. When the clock strikes nine the judges will take the ballot box to the Crawford County State bank, where the count will be made and the winners will be announced at The Review office just as soon as the counting is finished.

PHONE AND FIND OUT.

Anyone who is interested in the contest is at perfect liberty to phone to The Review office and ask any questions that are not clear to them about the contest.

We wish all the candidates success in the contest, a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The Review's Popular Voting Contest is rapidly nearing the close and has proved to be a great success from the very beginning. From the time that the candidates were first announced great interest has been taken by the people all over the county, and by friends of candidates near and far. The prizes that will be given away on Saturday night are the most elaborate that have ever been awarded by a newspaper in this county. The first grand prize is a beautiful Bellvue piano, which lists at $400.00. The piano is a beauty, having a highly polished walnut case with a bench to match.

The second grand prize is a $300.00 piano of the same make, with a mahogany case and stool to match. These pianos were purchased from Mr. McVey, who has been handling pianos in this vicinity for a number of years. Mr. McVey guarantees these pianos to you just the same as he would to you should you buy one from him. They have been on exhibition at Fastje's Furniture store since the start of the contest, and all of those who have seen them pronounce them to be beauties.

The third grand prize is a beautiful $125.00 diamond ring of exceptional brilliancy.

The fourth grand prize is a smaller diamond ring—value $50.00. These diamonds are on display at J. V. Barbor's Jewelry store, from whom we purchased them. Both of these stones are perfect cut and are guaranteed to us as pure white stones.

The fifth grand prize is a $50.00 lady's gold watch—"O" size—has a 15-jewel Waltham movement in a twenty-five year case. This watch was purchased from E. C. Chamberlin. Mr. Chamberlin says it is one of the best watches he has for sale.

The sixth and seventh grand prizes are scholarships in the Denison Normal and Business college. It is unnecessary to give any explanation in regard to these two prizes, as you all know this college.

Thirteen young ladies, who are active workers in the contest, are all very well satisfied with the management of the contest, and have no complaints whatever to make. The contest has been run on the square from start to finish, and the final count will be judged by four prominent business men in this city. The men who have condescended to act as judges are Messrs. Will Miller, Alfred Wright, Lute Seeman and Chris Kemming. These men are well-known throughout the entire county, and we place at nine o'clock on Saturday evening. At nine o'clock the voting will cease and the judges will take charge of the ballot box and the counting will take place at the Crawford County State bank. As soon as the counting is completed the winners will be announced at The Review office. Inquiries by phone will also receive attention.

Next week's issue of The Review will contain a detailed account of the close and the number of votes each candidate secured, also the prizes won by them.

Theobald-Weiss Nuptials.

Word was received in Denison on Friday morning that Mr. Robert Theobald, of this city, and Miss Mae Weiss, of Miles City, Mont., were united in marriage on Thursday evening, December 15th., at the home of the bride's sister at Miles City, Mont.

Miss Weiss is well and favorably known in this vicinity, having clerked for some time in the Menagh department store in this city. Mr. Theobald is a young man of sterling qualities, and has a host of friends who will be glad to learn of his happy marriage. He recently bought an interest in the Magnet Pool Hall of this city, and the happy couple will make their home here. They are expected to return today.

The Review joins with the many friends of this estimable couple in hearty congratulations.

BOY SCOUTS DULY ORGANIZED

troop leader, Roy Gebert, Corporal. The boys, after discussing the financial situation, decided to ask an initiation fee of 25c for each scout to start a treasury fund to meet all bills as they may come. There must be some expense to the business of the organization but it will be light. Give the scouts a chance to earn the money.

One of the duties of the scouts is to look pleasant under all circumstances as if you see some exceptionally pleasant boys in Denison from this time on do not lay it all to the visit of Santa Claus. If the citizens should hear some wild animals about they need not be unnecessarily alarmed as the scouts must practice their calls and signals.

Pres. Taft in Honorary National president of the Boy Scout Organization, and Mr. Roosevelt is Vice President, Mr. Seton is National Chief Scout. Watch the Denison troop grow and do things.

Baptist Church to Have Tree.

The Baptist church and Sunday school will have a tree on Christmas eve, when the following program will be given by the younger members of the school:

Song by the School.
Invocation.....Rev. Mr. LaReau
Sacred Exercise, Mrs. Pearson's Class
Recitation.....Evelyn Vassar
Exercise, 14 Children from Beginner's Class.
Watt's Cradle Hymn—Eunice and Dorothy Jones.
Christmas Poem, Mrs. Weberg's Class
Christmas Wishes, 12 Children from Beginner's Class.
Class Song.....Garnet Norman's Class
Recitation.....Esther Jenkins
Dialogue, Bernice and Verna LaReau
Duet.....Ina Halloran, Elva Tuper
Dialogue, Leslie Hultsch and Guy Schwarzenbach.
Distribution of presents.

On Christmas night at the regular hour for church service the choir and older boys and girls of the school will render "Zion," a service of song, including solos, duets and choruses, all bearing upon the central theme, the Church of God. All are cordially invited to attend both services.

Exercises at Presbyterian Church.

The annual Christmas exercises of the Presbyterian Sabbath school will be held at the church Saturday, Christmas eve, at 7:30 o'clock. The committee in charge has arranged for a program of lantern slides, entitled "Bethlehem and Nazareth." While the pictures are being thrown on the screen various musical numbers and readings will be rendered. A tree will be provided, and Santa Claus will be there to entertain the little folks. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

College Notes.

Mr. Thomas Michaelson brought in his sons, Herbert and Erhardt, to begin school work on Monday.

Mr. William Gehring and Mr. Henry Ullrich entered college for the winter on Monday.

The students are working hard on the play which is billed for Jan. 4th. There will be no school during the week between Christmas and New Years.

Miss Grace Van Ness returned from Cornell college last Friday evening for the holiday vacation.

Marriage Licenses.

Dec. 14—Albert Jochims and Elsie Kuhlmann.

Dec. 16—Chester Bryan and Margaret Jones.

Dec. 17—Charlie Christie and Nellie Scott.

Dec. 19—Albert C. Hamann and Dora Kuhl.

During the last week the Denison postoffice suffered the mutilation of a considerable amount of mail matter, it being thrown off the fast mail, No. 9, while it was going at a high speed. The postmaster took the matter up by letter and by wire and has succeeded in getting an order that this train shall go through here at a slow rate. It is hoped this will prevent accidents to the mail in the future. The postmaster has also taken up the matter of inducing the authorities of the postal service to stop No. 15, the afternoon fast mail, at this point and it is probable that this will be done. The Denison office dispatches a larger amount of mail on this train daily than can be delivered to a moving train.

In order to accommodate those expecting Christmas packages the Denison postoffice will be open for two hours on Sunday, Dec. 25th. Hours from 9 to 10 a. m. and 2 to 3 p. m. On Monday, which is a legal holiday, the office will be open during the same hours. Rural carriers will make regular delivery on Monday and city carriers will make one delivery only, that of the forenoon.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS VICTIM,

Mrs. P. A. McCarthy Dies at Her Home in West Denison on Tuesday Morning.

On Tuesday morning, December 20, occurred the death of Mrs. P. A. McCarthy, aged wife of P. A. McCarthy, the drayman. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of her death. She was a woman well advanced in years and had lived in Denison for many years. The ladies of the Holiness band had been caring for her during her illness and were with her at the time of her death. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. LaReau preaching the sermon.

Obituary.

On Monday, December 19th, at her home in Denison, occurred the death of Mrs. Samuel Eastman.

Amanda C. Godfrey was born in Vermont in 1825 and on March 24, 1851, was married to Samuel Eastman. Two children were born to this union, Frank S. Eastman, who was a graduate of Ripon college and lived in Fond du Lac, Wis., but who is now deceased, and Louise B. Rogers, formerly of Waupun, Wis., but now living in Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman moved from Vermont to Terra Haute, Ind., in 1852, then to Dodge Co., Wis., in 1856, and from there to Denison in May, 1887. Mr. Eastman departed this life May 16, 1902.

Mrs. Eastman was a loving mother and a kind neighbor, and the sympathy of her many friends goes out to the daughter, who is left to mourn her death.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow from the home, Rev. J. Jas DePree officiating. Mrs. Eastman had been a member of the Presbyterian church for a good many years.

Word was received last Sunday that Gust Selander died in Sweden, Nov. 28, 1910, from heart failure. Gustaf Vilhelm Selander was born in Westergotland, Sweden, Sept. 4, 1853, came to America in the summer of 1880, and has ever since resided in Crawford county. He was married in March, 1886, to Miss Amanda Flodin, of Denison, his wife having died in November, 1908. Mr. Selander left Denison the 18th of May, 1910, for a trip to Sweden to visit relatives. He and his wife made a trip to Sweden in 1901. He leaves three brothers and one sister in Sweden and one sister-in-law and three nephews and three nieces at Denison, besides many friends. He was converted to God 32 years ago, and has ever since lived a true christian life.

Many Denison and Crawford county friends deeply regret Mr. Selander's demise. For the past few years he had lived on the 40-acre farm just south of Denison, near the Woolston farm. He was a kind hearted, cheerful citizen and neighbor and will be missed by many.

HASSAN CASE AGAIN CONFIRMED

probabilities are that the murder was committed at some other place and the body taken and left in the pasture some time during Saturday night before the body was discovered. The case attracted a great deal of attention while it was on trial, there being a large number of witnesses from almost every section of the county and from a good many places outside of the county.

The University of Iowa has come into possession of the large elephant tooth that was unearthed in the Mill sand pit south of the city. It is thought that it is the largest elephant tooth ever discovered in the world. The tooth is one foot square, the exact dimensions being twelve by thirteen inches. The grinding surface is just thirteen inches long. The tooth is now being polished in order to be preserved in perfect condition in the Iowa museum.

NOTE HARD TO COUNTERFEIT

New French $20 Issue Is Said to Present Many Difficult Obstacles to Forgers.

Paris.—Samples of the new French $20 bank notes were shown to a few favored visitors at the mint and the assertion was made by the designer that he had been at work on the bill for ten years and cherished the firm conviction that no counterfeiter ever would be able successfully to imitate it.

The note is smaller than the present one, being about four by six inches. It bears emblematic figures of Ceres, Mercury and other gods and goddesses, but the greatest attraction lies in the agreeable colors—blue, yellow, rose and green—all arranged on the scale of the rainbow. These colors, says Luc-Olivier Merson, the famous designer, who is responsible for the note, it will be almost impossible to counterfeit.

In the first week of the new year the government will issue 28,000,000 francs ($5,600,000) worth of these notes, gradually retiring those now in circulation. The new notes cost $14 for each 1,000 to manufacture and the operation of putting them in circulation will involve an expense of $20,000 a year. M. Merson, the designer, is paid a retainer of $10,000 a year for ten years by the government.

The old notes have been in use since 1889. During that period they have been counterfeited frequently and to such an extent that only the lack of anything with which to replace them prevented their abandonment.

TO PROTECT THE DRAFT DOG

Bill Is Laid Before Dutch Government Providing for Uniform Regulation of Canines.

The Hague.—A bill has been laid before the second chamber of the government providing a uniform regulation concerning draft dogs. This, it is hoped, will render the protection of those animals easier than has been the case heretofore. Every province or municipality had its own laws on the subject. The awful treatment to which some of the dogs are subjected long ago started the friends of animals to action and a national society for the protection of draft dogs was formed and it has been actively engaged in bettering conditions. It is largely due to the insight into the matter gained by this society that the present bill has been satisfactorily framed. Stringent provisions are made against the use of sick and feeble dogs and the size of the animals, the relation to the carts and loads is regulated. Suitable harness is prescribed. A dog cart may not be in the exclusive care of minors, but must be accompanied by some responsible grown person. Every owner of a dog cart must apply for a government license and such a license can at once be withdrawn in case the provisions of the law are not complied with. No one who has been convicted of cruelty to his dogs will be given such a license.

TREASURE IN SPANISH CASTLE

American Who Buys Historical Estate Digs Up Bodies of Sultans and Ancient Rulers.

Gibraltar.—Leading Spanish and other papers here and also recent arrivals from the town of Ronda have much to say respecting the discoveries that are being made in the old structure known as El Castillo de Rey Moro, recently purchased by Lawrence Perin of Baltimore for $15,000. Artistic frescoes and other splendid works of art are being constantly revealed and subterranean chambers have been found containing bodies believed to have been those of Moorish sultans. In these chambers also have been discovered a large quantity of precious antiquities, such as amphorae, arms, clothing and many gold, silver and copper coins.

The house is being closely watched by the civil guard, as the excitement of the townspeople is great. It is learned on apparently good authority that Mr. Perin has come across an immense treasure and that the discoveries in the way of buildings and walls are almost equivalent to the finding of a second Alhambra. One thousand men are now at work and further important finds are expected.

The More, the Merrier.

Norristown, Pa.—Notwithstanding she had 11 children of her own, Mrs. Frank Pass, wife of a Bridgeport teamster, adopted two motherless children of William Alexander in juvenile court the other day.

The children had been abandoned by their father, or at least he had been put into county jail here because he had refused to contribute to their support.

Mrs. Pass, as she took the two little girls away, declared: "I have 11 and two more won't make any difference—the more the merrier."

Amusement in Manchuria.

Tairen, Manchuria.—With a view to making Tairen (Dalny) a more attractive place, the South Manchuria Railway Company has gone into the amusement business. It now proposes to establish an electric recreation ground in the suburbs. An engineer was recently sent to America to study amusement resorts and new recreation apparatus has already arrived here. Similar arrangements will also be made at Changchun, Liaoyang and other places along the railway.
