Miss Beatrice Johnson returned to her home at Lincoln, Neb., last Saturday after a pleasant week's visit at the Lally home.

Any wishing to teach or to raise their grade should take note of the examinations coming the last Wednesday in January.

Alfred Bowen returned to Simpson college Monday after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bowen.

The Misses Blaind and Inez Lally will leave this week for Dubuque, Iowa, where they will attend the Mt. St. Joseph's school.

There is not so much doing in town now that the students attending higher educational institutions have returned to their work.

Miss Eunice Meyers spent part of her holidays at the fine farm home of Chris Groth up in Goodrich, where her cousin, Miss Shillington, is teaching school.

Mrs. Bartcher, who has been living alone at her home on Pine street since the marriage of her daughter, has been quite sick this week with a severe cold.

Miss Mildred Bowen returned to her school work at Macedonia, Iowa, the fore part of the week after a pleasant vacation spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bowen, in Denison.

County Surveyor McHenry has been busy of late correcting the books up to date, showing the ownership of lands and lots in the county. This information was needed by the assessors.

As will be seen by the notice elsewhere, the saloon consent petition has been filed and the date of hearing of remonstrance and canvass of the names has been set for Monday, Jan. 16, 1911.

The Denison churches are observing the week of prayer with union services, in many cases led by laymen. For Thursday the meeting is at the Presbyterian church and for Friday at the Methodist.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hilk returned Thursday from Olive, Calif., where they have been for the past few months visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Kusel, and son, A. M. Lorenzen.

The Northwestern has made the concession to Denison that the fast mail train at a little after one will stop for mail. When it did not our people were seriously inconvenienced in reaching Charter Oak, Dow City and Arion.

The recent marriage licenses are as follows: Paul Schoning and Minnie Burmeister; Andrew Reuwsat and Emma Guth; Willie Buman and Selma Watke. None had been issued up to Wednesday noon in the new year.

Mr. Enoch Erickson left the fore part of the week for Oakland, Neb., where he has accepted a position in a meat market. Enoch is a hard working young man and we predict that he will make a success of whatever he undertakes.

There was a dance at the opera house Tuesday night under the auspices of the young folks of the Catholic church. The Wheeler-Hoover orchestra furnished the music. Supper was served at the Merchants hotel. Over $100 was gained by the management and the affair was a decided success.

A hog weighing seven hundred and fifty pounds was marketed last week, bringing the neat sum of $54.37, on the Denison market. The hog was raised on the McHenry farm southwest of the city. John Brown tells us that the hog could have easily carried another hundred pounds, but he was afraid to put it on for fear the weight would break its legs.

The Review was given the contract for printing the 1911 telephone directory for the Crawford County Telephone company. The directory will contain the names of all the subscribers in Crawford county, with each town indexed. There will be twenty-five hundred books published and the book will be rushed out as soon as possible.

Miss Grace Holland, of Vail, was a Denison caller Tuesday.

Miss Ada Sewell arrived last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Sewell.

In another column will be found the sale notice of Wm. Kahl, which will be held on January 19th. In last week's Review the date read Jan. 12. Please note change in date.

County Superintendent Oly has moved his family to Denison and to the home on North Main recently occupied by Mr. Boylan. This makes him near the court house and convenient to be found. His family consists of his wife and a child of four years.

Supt. Oly has begun the necessary steps looking to the graduation of pupils from the rural schools. The children who feel themselves qualified have two examinations. One is a preliminary to see in what studies they may be weak. In these they have a chance to post up before the final. The first examination will come in a few weeks.

Prof. Brush appeared on the lecture course Monday evening and entertained a large audience with tricks in magic. The entire evening was devoted to the mysterious doings of Prof. Brush and the audience were well pleased with this number of the lecture course.

The S. U. I. Glee club entertainment last Wednesday night proved to be all that it was advertised. The special feature of the entertainment was the reader who was eulogized a number of times. The club was entertained at a 12 o'clock dinner by Mrs. Philbrook and a reception was held at the library after the entertainment.

Mr. E. A. Stone, of Spokane, Wash., arrived in Denison last week and assumed the active management of the Stewart Lumber company. Mr. Stone is an old time resident of Denison, having conducted a lumber yard in this city for a number of years under the name of Stone & Temple, and has a host of friends in this locality who are glad to hear he will make Denison his home again. Mrs. Stone will not return till spring, but will remain at Spokane until warmer weather.

Prof. Rhodenbaugh, of Boise City, Idaho, was the guest of E. W. Pierce and wife during the early days of the week. He is a Crawford county boy who has "made good." He grew up on the farm in Hays, south of Vail. In time he attended the college at Ames and did so well in physics and chemistry that he was able to obtain good positions as a teacher. He has been in the high school at Boise for some time. He is not satisfied with his present attainments and having been granted a year's leave will take a post-graduate course at the University of Chicago.

New Well Completed.
The new city well is completed and from the present outlook it will be able to furnish enough water to keep the standpipe filled. The well is thirty-three feet deep and now has fourteen feet of water in it. The bottom of the well is sunk in a bed of clean gravel with a good flow of water. The new well is not connected up as yet, but by the latter part of the week pumping from it will commence.

When buying a cough medicine for children bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is most effectual for colds, croup and whooping cough and that it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

HAYES HAPPENINGS.
John Peterson and John Pencker are the owners of a new "Sandwich Junior" hay press. Now they are ready to do all kinds of baling at a reasonable price, so give them a chance if you have anything to bale.
Frank Norman and Dick Maxwell spent last week visiting with relatives in Denison.
Mr. John Pencker was a Manning caller Tuesday.
Mr. Chas. Brockelsby shipped his fat cattle to Chicago Saturday night.
Gallagher brothers shipped a load of yearling steers to Chicago Saturday night.
All who attended the New Year's ball at West Side report a fine time.
Julius Thiedemann was a Denison caller Thursday.
Alex Hannonmann was an Omaha business caller a few days last week.
Bob Bradshaw and his little daughter, Amanda, who has been making her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Labendorf, Sr., left Thursday for a visit with Mrs. Bradshaw's parents, who live in Kansas City, Mo.
Ed Kearney and his sisters, Nellie and Alice, attended the Manilla dance last Monday night.
Mrs. Chris Hargens was confined to her bed last week.
Don't forget the mask ball at the Five Mile house January 8th. Come out and have a good time.

There is a certain style of man who always believes, if he has heard of the controversy, that Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays. There is no reason whatever to believe that Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays, but that's exactly the reason why a certain style of man always believes that he did.

Social Notes.
The S. S. club had their initial meeting for the new year on Tuesday with a splendid attendance, a delicious supper and a goodly number of guests to add to the evening's enjoyment.

The reception at the club room on Wednesday evening, given in honor of the S. U. I.'s in general and the glee club in particular, was a very pleasant affair indeed and was largely attended by the alumni and friends of the State University.

Mrs. Dr. Brannon was hostess at a large and very enjoyable Kensington Tuesday. The occasion honored Miss Leeper, of South Bend and Mrs. Clem Mahon, of Missouri. During the afternoon the guests were favored with some delightful music, Miss Leeper contributing a group of folk songs and Miss Beatrice Lally rendering some pleasing solos. Mrs. Brannon was assisted by her sisters in serving a splendid supper.

A series of parties will be given this week at the A. J. Bond home in East Denison, the first one occurring today. The guests are requested to appear representing a special season or holiday. Thus the affair will be in the nature of a "Festival of Days," and no doubt many pretty costumes will be in evidence.

The largest and most prominent of the week's social events was the dancing party given by the Misses Lally in honor of their house guests. The opera house was in gala attire for the occasion and with the excellent music the evening's pleasure was perfect. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the dancing program.

The Shakespeare club postponed their meeting for last Monday evening for one week, at which time they will be entertained by Mrs. M. E. Jones.

The young ladies gave a dancing party Wednesday night in honor of the many out of town visitors, which was a most delightful affair and greatly appreciated by the honored guests. Mesdames Philbrook and Sims acted as chaperones.

Mrs. B. F. Philbrook entertained the S. U. I. Glee club at a beautifully appointed dinner on Wednesday. The decorations were all in red and the same color scheme was carried out in the menu, which was very elaborate. Misses Balle, Kuehne, Patterson and Brodersen assisted the hostess in serving.

The Misses Bamford entertained at cards on Tuesday evening.

Paul Neubaum.
On the afternoon of Monday, January 2nd, Paul Neubaum, a young farmer of Hanover township, died at the Denison hospital. About five weeks ago he was operated on for appendicitis, but the disease had advanced too far and he failed to recover. He was but twenty-one years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neubaum respected residents of Hanover township. But five months ago Paul was married to Miss Stena Christiansen and life seemed to open very brightly before them. Besides the grief stricken young widow he leaves his parents and five sisters to mourn his untimely death. Funeral services will be held tomorrow Thursday, afternoon at the Hanover township church, Rev. Runge officiating. Many friends will mourn with the bereaved loved ones over the death of this fine and promising young man.

When given as soon as the croupy cough appears Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will ward off an attack of croup and prevent all danger and cause of anxiety. Thousands of mothers use it successfully. Sold by all dealers.

Scarcity of Timber.
Wood is becoming scarcer and scarcer every year. As population increases we shall be obliged to use more acreage in its sustenance. The trees will be planted again on the watersheds and dams will be built to hold surplus water for use in times of drouth, as is done in older countries. Your rivers then will be more serviceable in summer and less dangerous in the spring time.
