

"Before you are a day older"

Have those photos made at . . .

Ferguson's

LOCAL EVENTS

Mr. Leo Hopp, from Charter Oak, spent a week at the Lenz home in Denison.

Mr. Will Brown, from Fontainelle, called on Miss Ida Kusel one day last week.

Mr. B. J. Sibbert made a business trip to Omaha the fore part of the week.

Mr. Dave Ringer, of Omaha, is in Denison this week visiting his old friends and neighbors.

Mr. J. V. Barborak and son, Clifford, visited at the John Kral home at Vail over Sunday.

Mrs. H. A. Logsdon, of Dow City, was a Denison shopper the fore part of the week.

George McCutcheon, of Presho, S. D., is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Rollins, in Denison this week.

Mr. Joe True, the merchant of Deloit, was a business caller in Denison Tuesday afternoon.

James A. Rollins and daughter are visiting friends and relatives in Chicago this week.

Mrs. Don Butler was up from Arion Monday calling on Denison friends and transacting business.

Master Ralph Holmes returned to Chicago Monday evening after a pleasant visit with friends in Denison.

Mr. B. Truuper was over from Buck Grove Thursday and made the Review office a pleasant call.

Mr. Jacob Kropf, of Boyer, was a county seat business caller last Thursday.

Miss Nell Cushman spent several days last week visiting friends at Council Bluffs.

Mr. John McCutcheon and family, of Garrison, N. D., are visiting at the John Rollins home in Denison this week.

Mr. E. Gulick was laid up several days last week with a cold. We are glad that he has sufficiently recovered to be up town again.

Mrs. Will Laub and Mrs. Lottie Ley visited Mrs. Laub's mother, Mrs. Austen, at Jefferson, several days last week.

Mrs. J. C. Kott and daughter returned Friday from their visit to Cedar Rapids, where they had spent the holidays.

Mrs. Sam Kelly was called to Council Bluffs last week on account of the serious illness and death of a sister who resided at that place.

Mr. A. C. Weeks was in Sac City last week attending a meeting of the Sons of Veterans, which was held at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones returned on Monday from Cedar Rapids, where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cassidy January 10th, a daughter. The Review congratulates the happy parents on this arrival.

Only one marriage license has been issued at the clerk's office this year, that being January 9th, to John C. Smith and Miss Agnes LaTuins.

Mr. Thomas Rae was up from Arion Tuesday auditing the books of the Masonic order. Mr. Rae has done this work for a number of years for the order.

Miss Grace Woods, who is employed at the Paxton Gallagher company, in Omaha, as stenographer, arrived in Denison last week for a few days' visit at the parental home.

The Misses Margaret McHenry and Erna Naove returned to Lake Forest Monday evening to resume their school work at the Ferry Hall school for girls.

A party was given last Sunday evening by the Misses Lena and Martha Lenz. A crowd of twenty-seven young people was present. Refreshments were served by Miss Louise Lenz and all report a good time.

Leslie Gulick returned to his school work at Cedar Rapids last Sunday instead of Saturday evening, giving him one more day of "grace." Leslie tells us he likes the work at the Cedar Rapids Business college very much.

Mr. A. J. Cheeseman, of Boone, who is traveling agent for the Northwestern, was in Denison last week calling on the business men of the city in relation to the train service of the Northwestern through Denison.

Fred Poley, of Milford township, will hold a public sale at his place on January 25th, a notice of which will be found on another page of The Review. Mr. Poley will move to Denison, having purchased the Sievers property of Peter Atzen.

Mr. E. G. Dannett, of West Side, was a pleasant county seat caller Monday.

Pierre Schlumberger visited his brother, James, at Omaha last Thursday.

Mr. C. W. Firth was down from Wall Lake on Monday calling on his many Denison friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunham, of Dunlap, were pleasant guests at the C. M. Jensen home several days last week.

Miss Gena Hart visited at the A. L. Dunham home near Dunlap several days the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maguire visited at the M. O'Connor home at Vail the fore part of the week.

Mrs. James Duffy was down from Vail Friday calling on her many Denison friends.

Mr. John P. Barrett, of Chicago, was in Denison over Sunday visiting his sister, Mrs. P. D. McMahon.

Mr. Barton Baker is up from Council Bluffs this week visiting his brother, Mr. John Baker.

Miss Margaret Kaven, of Wichita, Kan., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. P. W. Harding, in Denison this week.

W. J. Scriver and W. W. Cushman transacted business at Mapleton Monday.

Mr. Frank Simon, of Vail, was a business caller in Denison the fore part of the week.

The Review and the Chicago Daily Inter Ocean only $3.50 per year. Subscribe now at the Review office.

Mrs. H. C. West, of Miller, S. D., is expected here this week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. V. L. Byers.

Mr. Lawrence McNertney, of Manilla, is attending the Denison Normal and Business college.

John Moeller spent several days last week visiting his brother, Mr. Lenzon Moeller, at Council Bluffs.

Mrs. John Rachwitz and daughter, Magdalena, visited friends and relatives at Council Bluffs several days last week.

Mrs. Hattie Ferrell returned Thursday from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Liscomb, at Dunlap.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fienholdt rejoice over the arrival of a bright little daughter, born Jan. 7, 1911, in Paradise township.

Mr. A. P. Anderson was down from Ellis Friday and made the Review office a pleasant call and while here paid for The Review for another year.

Miss Myrtle McAhren returned Sunday evening from a two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. T. T. Barrett, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Miss Myrtle McAhren returned Sunday evening from Kansas City, where she visited her brother, W. D. McAhren, for two weeks.

Why not have those letterheads printed at the Review office? The latest thing in business stationery can be found at the Review office. Our prices are right.

Dr. Isminger returned last week from Fort Wayne, Ind., where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Evans, for the past two weeks.

Mr. Jacob Schnoor, of Amhurst, Neb., who was called to Denison on account of the death of his mother, returned last Saturday.

Mr. A. D. Randall went in to Chicago last week with two cars of cattle, returning the fore part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schlueter, of Hutchinson, Minn., are visiting at the Peter Miller home in Denison this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson, of Vail, were guests at the George Watson home in Denison the fore part of the week.

John Kott went to Aberdeen, S. D., yesterday, where he was to meet Contractor E. W. Johnson and do some figuring on a number of big painting contracts.

Dr. Hal C. Simpson, president of the Iowa State Veterinary association, was called to Missouri Valley Monday to inspect some live stock before shipment to Mexico.

Messrs. W. W. Ferguson, Jas. Christensen and T. J. Kelly were among the many hunters who were in Des Moines Tuesday looking into the hunter's license law.

Miss Ethel Gulick returned to Indianola Saturday to resume her work at Simpson college, after a pleasant vacation spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gulick, in Denison.

Miss Adella Carson, of Geneva, Neb., who has been in the employ of the Bell Telephone company at Great Falls and Butte, Mont., is now employed by the Crawford County Telephone company at this place as chief operator.

Mrs. Lottie D. Ley is on the sick list this week.

The Review and the Chicago Daily Tribune for $4.00 per year.

Mr. F. H. Downes was up from Dow City Tuesday transacting business and calling on his many Denison friends.

Mr. P. E. Flodine was up from Dow City Saturday transacting business and calling on his many Denison friends.

Mr. Flodine made the Review office a pleasant call and while here paid for The Review for another year.

A deal was consummated last week whereby the Stewart Lumber company, under the management of Mr. E. A. Stone, purchased the coal business of the Menagh company, including their sheds near the Northwestern tracks.

As the telephone company is now getting out a new directory all those who contemplate moving before the first of March should call up the company and inform them of their new address so as to have it correct in the directory.

Mrs. Victor Hedman entertained a number of young boys at her home in the north part of the city on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. A most enjoyable time was reported by those present.

Roy Mote, who left Denison a short time ago and located at Kintyre, S. D., is now a member of the Kintyre Real Estate company and holds the position of manager of the concern. The company is engaged in selling lots in the new town and Roy writes that the new firm is doing a fine business.

The Woodmen of the World held their annual installation of officers at their lodge rooms Saturday evening, January 7th. There were about one hundred and thirty members and their friends present and after the exercises a sumptuous supper was served. Every one reports having had a most enjoyable time.

Rev. J. James DePree and son, Donald, left Monday for the state of Washington to visit his parents. Mrs. DePree is visiting her parents at Sioux Center during their absence. There will be no services at the Presbyterian church for two weeks, excepting the regular Sunday school services.

Mr. Noah Lingle and family have been busy this week packing their household goods for shipment to Bay City, Texas, where they will make their future home. They expect to get started today. Mr. Lingle has purchased a farm near Bay City and has built a nice new home. Their many friends in this locality will be sorry to learn of their departure.

Those of our readers who are interested in public sales should not fail to read the quarter-page advertisement of Mrs. C. A. Selander, who advertises a sale on Tuesday, Jan. 24th, on her farm just northwest of Denison, better known as the Joe Brogden farm. Mrs. Selander intends moving to Denison in order to make a home for her sons, who have engaged in the butcher business.

Mr. W. W. Cushman received word from his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Merrick, that their little daughter underwent a serious operation at the hospital at Albany, N. Y., the fore part of the week. The little one has been troubled for some time with a mastoid and it was found necessary to operate upon her. The operation was successful and the little one is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. Will Chupp has consolidated the pantoriums of the city, having purchased the Peerless Cleaners and Dyers shop from Carl Berndt. Mr. Chupp is nicely located in one of the Sonksen buildings on Broadway and has fitted up an up to date place for the cleaning, pressing and repairing of clothing. He has secured the services of Mr. Philip Michaels to do the repair work. Mr. Chupp is a young man with excellent habits and we feel sure that he will make a success of his new undertaking.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the kind neighbors and friends who assisted us during the sudden death of our beloved mother; also to the ladies who donated flowers and the Larkin club who donated the wreath which was much appreciated.

The Campbell Family.

Saturday, Jan. 14th. Kemming's clothing auction.

Pays to Carry Accident Insurance.

Mr. E. Gulick, who was injured by his auto October 15th, received a check last week from the Woodman Accident Insurance company for $90, for three weeks' total disability and six weeks' partial disability. Mr. Gulick tells us that his injured arm is much better since receiving the check.

Supply your clothing wants at Kemming's clothing auction, Saturday, Jan. 14th.

You hear of a great many more things than you ever see.

The members of the Rebekah lodge will have a covered dish social to follow installation at their next regular meeting.

The W. R. C. ladies will have a supper at the McKim hall on Friday, to which the G. A. R.'s and Sons of Veterans and their families are invited. Installation ceremonies will follow the serving of supper.

Mrs. W. W. Ferguson entertained the D. A. R. on Monday evening at her home on East Broadway. It was the annual election of officers and after the regular business meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Miss Helen Burch was elected a member of the organization. The following are the new officers: Regent, Mrs. W. W. Ferguson; Vice Regent, Mrs. H. A. Boyle; Recording Secretary, Miss Ethel Miller; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mae Hayes; Treasurer, Miss Bernice Osborn; Registrar, Mrs. E. L. Crippen; Historian, Mrs. C. F. Cassidy; Chaplain, Mrs. F. J. Young.

The Board of Management is as follows: Mrs. C. M. Jensen, chairman; Mrs. W. T. Wright, Mrs. W. H. Laub, Mrs. R. P. Plimpton and Miss Elva Dell Bond.

A large number of ladies were entertained most delightfully at the A. J. Bond home in East Denison on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. A series of four parties were given, commemorating Twelfth Night. The decorations, favors, etc., all were appropriate to the season. On each occasion there was a "mystery cake" served in connection with the splendid supper. Mesdames Hill, McAhren and Misses Gulick and Smith were the fortunate winners of the mystery prizes, handsome volumes of "Twelfth Night." A unique game was also introduced, in which the guests were asked to represent some special day, season or month. Mesdames Ferguson, Fellows, Johnston and R. Clark carried off the prizes for the best representations, which were beautifully decorated calendars. At the last party the crowning festivity of burning the Christmas greens according to the tradition was indulged in to the delight of the guests. The souvenirs were dainty hand painted cards and on the reverse side of which were the names of the hostesses, Mesdames Bond, Ainsworth, Plimpton, Thew and Miss Bond.

Klatter Klub met with Miss Bertha Romans Friday evening. A jolly social evening was spent by the members and a few invited guests, and delicious refreshments were served at the close.

The Woman's club were delightfully surprised at the close of their meeting Monday afternoon by having a delicious luncheon served to them by Miss Meyers. The courtesy was greatly appreciated by all the members.

Mrs. Pfarr was hostess for the Penelopes on Tuesday, a number of guests being present to add to the pleasure of the gathering. The hostess was assisted by her daughter in serving a splendid supper.

Miss Agnes Malone, who has been quite sick the past week, is able to be up again.

Misses Pearl and Vera Squibb returned Saturday to their home at Jefferson, Iowa.

Will Turner visited at home last Thursday.

A steel bridge has been put in west of Snake Hill to replace the one taken out by the high water last fall.

Chris Welbeck is putting up a nice addition to his barn this week.

Miss Fan Malone was a pleasant caller at the home of her uncle, Robert, Sunday.

Bob Turner called at the Birkhofer home Sunday.

Miss Lottie and George Blackman were on the sick list this week.

Mrs. John Rockwell has been very sick the past week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fienholdt, another girl. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

Grace and Gus Armstrong visited at the Reeser home Thursday.

Misses Maude Turner and Mary Eyer were Dow City callers Saturday.

Guy Rockwell was an Arion caller Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coleman visited with his brother east of Arion Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Price, who has been in a hospital in Omaha the past week, had several successful operations performed and is improving very nicely. She expects to return home this week.

Kemming Clothing Co. will have a clothing auction Saturday, Jan. 14th. Be sure and attend.

Public installation of John A. Logan post and corps will be held in Masonic hall Friday evening, January 13, 1911, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Supper will be served by the W. R. C. to the post, sons of veterans, W. R. C. and their families at 6 p. m. in the same building. All are invited to the public installation.

John L. Richardson, Adjutant John A. Logan Post, Georgia Wade McClellan, Secretary John A. Logan Corps.

P. HILLEBRANT, Carpenter.

Denison - - - - - Iowa

Odd Jobs Solicited. Rag Carpets Woven.

52-4t

COAL COAL COAL

Remember, we have just what you want—

Sunnyside, Hard Coal,
Wonderland, Coke,
Splint Boone Lump
Illinois Lump, Steam Coal
Illinois Egg

We have added to our stock

BOONE COAL

Farmers, town and you can get loaded without having to drive to the track. We want your trade and will try to please you.

STEWART LUMBER CO.

Woodmen of the World, Attention: There will be a regular meeting of the Camp on Saturday evening, January 14th, at which time some important business will come before the Camp. Your presence is desired. John Rollins, Clerk. 2-1t

That you may know best how to supply your future needs in life insurance, let me show you the New York Life's brand new policy. It is an ideal policy for young men and women. If you drop it, it automatically returns to you value received for what you have paid. Ex-Co. Supt. F. L. Hoffman, Denison, Iowa. 2-1t

Nothing will give you a business standing, start an estate for you, cultivate the habit of saving and bring you the safest returns for your investment like one of those very fine new policies issued by the New York Life Insurance company. Take one and lay the foundation for your estate. Ex-Co. Supt. F. L. Hoffman, Denison, Iowa. 2-1t

A complete change of pictures at the Dreamland theater Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. We have purchased the most expensive lens for our machine which gives our pictures clearness and better detail. Be sure and visit the Dreamland theater. 2-1t

Have that wedding stationery printed at The Review office. The latest thing in wedding stationery just received. 2-1t

Weak and Diseased Hearts Treated Free.

By the Great Specialist in Treating Weak and Diseased Hearts, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B. Who Will Send $2.50 Worth of Special Treatment and New Book Free.

To prove the remarkable curative powers of his new Special Personal Treatments for heart disease, short breath, pain in side, shoulder or arm, oppression, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering, puffing or ankles, or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send free, to every afflicted person, a $2.50 treatment. The worst cases usually soon relieved.

These treatments are the result of 25 years' extensive research and remarkable success in treating various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his treatment that he offers all sick persons a two-pound Trial Treatment free. Our Book contains many remarkable cures. A few are given below.

Certainly nothing could be more generous. Few physicians have such confidence in their treatments. All afflicted persons should avail themselves of this liberal offer, as they may never have such an opportunity again. Delays are dangerous. No death comes more suddenly than that from heart disease.

Mr. W. J. Crites, Ludington, Mich., cured after 4 physicians failed. Mr. George Lee, Maxwell, Ia.; Mrs. P. W. Runyan, Spencer, Iowa, and Mrs. Emma Scheier, Maize, Kans., each cured after 3 physicians failed. Mrs. Joseph Wisler, Peru, Ind., cured after local doctor failed. Mrs. J. P. Baldwin, Mulberry Grove, Ill., cured after 6 failed. Cures from your state sent on request. Many cured after 5 to 20 physicians had pronounced them incurable.

Send to Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. A848 to 858 Main St., Elkhart, Ind., at once, for his Free Book, Examination Chart, Opinion, Advice and Free Treatment. Describe your disease.

Now is the time Wygants is the place

To secure choice RED CLOVER and TIMOTHY before prices go out of sight.

Attend Kemming's clothing auction Saturday, Jan. 14th.

We have purchased a new lens for our moving picture machine and our pictures cannot be beat for clearness. Visit the Dreamland Picture show. 2-1t

Live agents wanted for Petrel automobiles; good territory and commissions. Iowa Motor Sales Co., Little Rock, Iowa. 51-4t

Anyone desiring to have sales will do well to call M. J. Griffin, Auct., Dunlap, Iowa, who called Noah Lingle's sale on Dec. 19th. 51-4tpd

FOR SALE—A span of bay horse colts, 6 months old. Inquire of B. F. Metcalf, Coon Grove, Iowa. 44-4t

FOR SALE—Ten-room house in good repair, including two lots, good barn, fine orchard, ideal location. For further particulars inquire of A. D. Randall. 35-4t

Mound City Paint may cost a trifle more, but—! R. Knaul. 28-52t

Seal-Shipt oysters, solid meat, direct from the shuckers. J. B. Lyon. 43-4t

The farm of Mrs. Hester McKim, adjoining the village of Deloit, is for sale. For particulars call on Conner & Lally. 43-4t

Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale. A. C. Weeks, City Marshal. 52-3tpd

The Review and the Chicago Daily Inter Ocean only $3.50 per year. Subscribe now. 51-4t

Notice. Those knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please call at the old stand and settle with Mr. A. D. Randall, who has charge of the books. C. M. JENSEN. 50-5t pd

Bring in your old iron and old rubbers. I am paying the highest market price. G. Kaplin, Denison, Ia. 52-4t

We want good, clean rags at The Review office and will pay 5 cents per pound for them.

FOR SALE—Five young horses. Gustav H. Kroenk, Route 5, Denison, Iowa. Phone 47-A. 2-4t

For Sale by the owner, two fine Iowa farms, 5 miles northwest of Anthon, 35 miles east of Sioux City; ¼ mile from school. These farms are in good condition, well watered and good fences. As I am going to Canada, I will sell cheap. Joe C. Kimry, Vail, Iowa. 2-4t

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Inquire at R. W. Bamford's store. 2-1t

FURNISHED ROOMS; also furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Furnace heat. Mrs. E. O. Tniem, 212 Church St. 2-3t

WANTED: Room and board or room for light housekeeping. Enquire at Telephone Office. 2-1t

Chicago Operatic company January 18th. Seats may be reserved on Tuesday at Corner Book store any time after 8 o'clock. "First come, first served." 2-2t

White Pine

Cough Syrup

WITH TAR

(The old reliable)

Throat Lozenges

(The good kind)

Cough Drops--All Kinds

Ph. A. Schlumberger

Pharmacist.