KIRON NEWS.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; good wages. Inquire at Review office.

Nels Bergman, residing northwest of town, in a recent visit at Korshoren, Minn., purchased a fine farm. Several Kiron people have made their home in that part of the country.

Rev. Fred A. Nelson, the noted evangelist among the Free Mission people, will be in Kiron the latter part of the week and will preach at the Mission church Sunday morning and evening. This will be an opportunity to again listen to this able speaker by our people, and possibly the last time he visits Kiron before leaving for Sweden, where he expects to spend some time in evangelistic work.

Emil Wangler and N. P. Swanson returned home Friday from a trip and visit of several days in Woodbury county and at Sioux City.

Some fifteen cars of stock were shipped from Kiron Saturday evening for the Chicago markets.

N. E. Sandstrom and Nels Johnson went into Chicago Saturday evening, both having stock for Monday's market.

Considerable wheat has been seeded in this locality, the acreage being ahead of that of the past year. The fair quality and yield of the last harvest encouraged the farmers to increase the sowing this year.

Chas. Winquist came down from Alcester, S. D., Saturday to spend a few days with his parents and other relatives and renew old acquaintances.

V. E. Michaelson made three auto sales recently. One goes to Mr. Goetch, our liveryman, who will use the same in his livery business, and the other two go to German farmers west of town.

Mrs. Richard Johnson, on her way home from Schleswig to Denison Friday, stopped off for a brief visit with friends at Kiron.

P. A. Peterson has transformed the former O. E. Johnson blacksmith building into an auto garage, where he stores and also repairs autos.

Several new houses will be built in Kiron this summer by parties who will occupy the same. We need a half a dozen residences for renting purposes and it would be a good investment to those who would erect same. Residence properties are at a premium in Kiron and will be. Kiron has a booming future, is our prediction. Today taxation is lower in this place than any other town in the county, if our informant is correct. A more peaceful, quiet and orderly and law abiding town is not in existence. No arrests have been made during the past two years, a record that no other town in the county can equal. No nuisances or immoral or degrading institutions are allowed or tolerated.

P. A. Peterson returned Monday from a business trip to Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Miss Alice Christianson was a caller in Schleswig between train hours Monday forenoon.

Some time last Thursday night the Dow City postoffice was burglarized. Entrance was gained by breaking the glass in the door in the rear of the building. The seams of the safe had been soaped, but the explosion failed to blow it open. About a dollar in pennies, which were kept in the drawer for change, was taken, also a few stamp books and a small amount of small change received for postal cards and kept in a box separate from the office money. The thief or thieves got probably about three dollars in stamps and money. It is not thought to be the work of experts, but success in this may lead to greater efforts. People are wondering what will happen next.
