

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

Miss Lillian Petersen came Saturday afternoon from Council Bluffs and is visiting in the Thomsen and Petersen homes. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates came Saturday morning for a visit with the gentleman's sister, Mrs. G. B. Goin. They were moving from San Luis Obispo, Calif., to South Dakota and stopped off here on their way to their new home. G. W. Woodward went to Des Moines Saturday evening on a business mission. Prof. D. D. Carlton went to Des Moines Friday morning, returning on Monday in time for his school work. Miss Lorraine Vollerton, of Battle Creek, came over Friday evening for a visit with her old friends. The first base ball game of the season was played Saturday between the Danbury and Charter Oak high school teams at Danbury. The game was a well played one and but an average amount of errors made. The game was victorious for Charter Oak, the score being 7 to 3. The next ball game will be next Saturday in Charter Oak between the home school and Dow City high school. Charles Sciford was a passenger to Manilla Thursday morning. Miss Amelia Adams came over from Denison Wednesday afternoon to visit her many friends here. She returned Saturday morning. Miss Fae Goin went to Rodney on Wednesday for a business trip. She returned in the evening. H. C. Pitman and Wm. Peters were Denison callers Thursday. Mrs. A. J. Mackey and daughter, Miss Alta, came from Elk Point last week and visited with relatives. They took the east bound train Thursday and will visit friends and relatives in other parts of Iowa before returning to their home in South Dakota. The car containing Jay Stuart's household goods left Thursday morning for northern Minnesota, where he has a summer resort. He will be settled in Vining, Minn., in a short time. Albert Jacobsen came home the first of the week from Cedar Rapids. A rash broke out on his face and he was taken for smallpox, and he was asked to come home. He will not return to school this year, but will begin the first of May to hold a position in a bank at Mapleton. The Methodist ladies are planning on giving a bazaar and supper about Easter. Ed Eckert returned Tuesday morning from Arapahoe, Neb., where he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Dora Muldoon. Ed and Will Eckert went to Sioux City Wednesday to report again for duty on the road after a long vacation. Miss Catherine Reese invited fifteen of her little friends to help her celebrate her fifth birthday Sunday afternoon. A three course luncheon was served, which delighted the little people. They all say they had lots of fun. Wm. Kuntz, a brother of Mrs. C. Neddermeyer, went to Sioux City on Tuesday and from there to Minnesota. Miss Marie McGrath went to Denison Monday morning to visit friends and relatives. Miss Elsie Thomsen was a Denison caller Monday. Her mission was a double one—social and shopping. Mrs. Herman Brummer and oldest daughter went to Sioux City Monday afternoon. The younger lady entered a hospital in that city. Mrs. Anna James and the Misses Rosa Neuhau returned to Sioux City Monday morning. They had come to Charter Oak in response to a message that their father was very sick. He has improved enough now to let the ladies return to their homes and work in Sioux City. Grandma Nipkow has been very sick but is somewhat better. F. S. Probasco is fixing the walls in the Rae building. The walls between the brewery and the building occupied by Hans Hendricksen were beginning to rot and the trouble is being repaired. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hagemann last Thursday, a girl. James Healy is moving to the Mrs. L. M. Jones house. Mrs. Jones is living with her children. Hazel and Evan Wilson came Friday morning from Woodbine for a visit with their uncles and other relatives here. Mrs. C. C. Cooper and daughter, Miss Ethel, came Saturday afternoon from Portsmouth. J. P. Murphy went to Sioux City Saturday afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Kevan returned from Arion Saturday afternoon from a visit with friends. Harry Wood and Louis Kelm went to Denison Monday to serve on the jury.

BOYER ITEMS.

SCHLESWIG ITEMS.

Julius Peters returned from a business trip to Omaha Friday. Will Naeve returned from a Sunday's visit at Fort Dodge Monday. Ed Willert went to Audubon one day last week, where he will visit his parents. Hon. Frank Stock is now up, after having been sick for several weeks with the grip. Elma Lorenzen and several others, of Schleswig, went to Wall Lake to attend a wedding Wednesday. H. I. Schroeder is on the sick list this week. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bergindale Friday morning. Peter C. Hollander and wife returned from Stratford, Iowa, Monday. Mrs. Rev. Wetzler returned from a pleasant trip to Omaha Saturday. Henry Hansen, of Boyer, was in the city on business the first of this week. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Petersen Saturday. Will Grieves was a caller in Denison and vicinity for a couple of days last week. Charles Robinault and Fritz Anderson, the up-to-date painters and paper hangers, of Denison, are doing some more of their good work in this vicinity. Mrs. H. W. Schultz was a Denison caller Friday. Will Miller is among those on the sick list this week. Little Fern Jones celebrated her birthday Thursday. Miss Elma Lorenzen visited a couple of days at Des Moines with her brother, Harry, who is attending the C college. He is very sick. Mr. and Mrs. August Schultz spent a pleasant week with their daughter, Mrs. Hugo Weigand, near Bronson, Iowa. The school kids certainly did have some fun this week, it being vacation. Miss Porter, our up-to-date milliner, had the pleasure of selling some Easter bonnets to Mrs. Reed and the Misses Christmann, of Ute, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson expect to go to Idaho soon, where they will make their future home. Miss Luella Koontz returned Monday from a visit in Onawa. She will teach the spring term at the Henry LaPrantz school. The dances Saturday night were well attended, there being one in the hall and one in the restaurant building. The annual meeting of the Maple Valley Firemen's association was held in Wall Lake Wednesday. John Bond went as a substitute. John Clausen was delegate, but on account of the illness of Mrs. Clausen he was unable to attend. Arlo Schmidt drove to Denison and back Friday. On Wednesday at the Lutheran church occurred the wedding of Miss Lizzie Bendixen to John Wiedemann, Rev. Wetzler officiating. Miss Bendixen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bendixen, and is a most charming young lady, who will make home seem like heaven to her husband. The groom is one of our straight, honest, progressive farmers and is to be congratulated upon his choice. After the ceremony a big celebration was held at the home of the bride's parents. Their many friends wish them a long, happy and successful life. Mrs. E. Stoltenberg of Boone, Iowa, was in town this week. Julius Schroeder spent a few days in Denison this week. (Too late for last week.) Mrs. Jones is visiting in Denison this week. Will Naeve left Saturday for Fort Dodge, where he will visit a few days with a friend. Miss Emma Schroeder returned to her home, after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Will Hennings. Honas Lohse is among those on the sick list this week. Mary Schmidt is visiting among relatives and friends here this week. Paul Wolleson, of Kiron, was a business caller in Schleswig Monday. Miss Irma Bennet, of Onawa, is visiting in Schleswig with relatives and friends. Aug Rickert and wife returned from Omaha Thursday, where they were visiting. A baby boy arrived at the Chris Rusch home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klotz are now pleasantly located in a cozy little cottage just east of the gas house. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Naeve drove to Denison Monday. Bert, Walter and Frank Hill were Schleswig callers Thursday. Mr. Jacobs and family, who have been visiting at the Robert Naeve home, returned to their home in Elwood, Iowa, last week. Mrs. Paul Wilson went to Denison Monday and on Tuesday she went to Omaha, where she joined her husband, who is working for a furniture house. Miss Olga Schroeder celebrated her 10th birthday Sunday. Mrs. Luella Hoover spent last Sunday in Denison. Neil Koch was a visitor at the Paul Wolleson home in Kiron last Friday. A baby boy arrived at the John Petersen home Saturday. H. C. Simmons and wife left for Vernon, Colo., last week, at which place they will run a store. A large crowd attended the old folks dance Saturday night. Rudolph Jensen is laid up with the rheumatism this week. Bennie Naeve was sick several days this week. Miss Lillie Hansen is packing her household goods and will ship them to Oregon, where she and her brother, Henry, will live. Misses Flynn and Mary Burch went to Denison Saturday to spend their vacation at their respective homes. Mrs. Fisher left for her home in Chicago Tuesday, after a visit of several weeks with relatives here. Prof. and Mrs. Kramer spent a week with his parents in Ida Grove. Nursegirl—No; the missus says I'm too young and inexperienced. I only look after the children.—Sacred Heart Review.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Miss Ruth Robertson, of Manilla, taught the Buck Grove school last Monday, during the absence of Miss Ida Sowles at Omaha. Fred Reinwaldt was a county seat visitor Saturday. Dr. Gardner, of Manilla, transacted business in our town Saturday. Albert Polzein, who has been quite sick with the mumps, is again able to be out. He doesn't think he has been having a very good time. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Albertson are the proud parents of a baby boy. The dear old stork called on them Saturday and left the little one as a house, hold blessing. Miss Bernice Hain and her brother, Frank, each had a birthday last week and were handsomely remembered by their friends. Each received valuable presents. Dr. Van Meter, of Dow City, was a business visitor here Thursday. Mrs. Albertson's sister and two children came over from Manilla Saturday to help celebrate the arrival of their little nephew. Glenn Hemphill has recovered from an attack of the grip. S. S. Rice and wife, of Denison, are the guests of J. F. Slater and wife. Mr. Slater celebrated a birthday Sunday and was remembered with a postal card shower. These little attentions are very pleasant. The work of invoicing the Stewart Lumber company's yards at this place is progressing rapidly. Mr. Beutel expects to resign in favor of Mr. Asmus, who will soon take charge of the business in the interest of the Farmers' Lumber yard, they having bought out the former company. Cora Macomber returned from Manilla Saturday and began her spring term of school Monday at the Keppord school house. Henry Bohm shipped a car load of sheep to Omaha Friday. Saturday evening a few of the neighbors with a fine lunch gathered at the pleasant home of J. T. Slater and spent a very pleasant evening. Miss Martha Watje, of Denison, is visiting friends and relatives in this section for a few days. Last Sunday was J. T. Slater's sixty-third birthday and he has good reasons to always remember the day as it was a very happy one for him. His relatives planned and carried out a genuine surprise party on him and his estimable wife. They commenced to gather at his hospitable home early Sunday morning and kept coming until they numbered forty guests. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Rice and daughter, of Dow City; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonesteel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Walworth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Winn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hain and family, and Jasper Hain and family. Miss Martha Watje was also there. They presented Mr. Slater with the finest rocking chair they could get from Quahamer & Finnegan's and also with other valuable presents, to say nothing of the many good things that the visitors brought that were good to eat. The tables fairly groaned with their load of dainties. Each one present had a most enjoyable time, and after wishing the host and hostess many more birthdays, they departed to their respective homes, fully intending to repeat the happy time as soon as possible. Whoever has a birthday coming soon better get their house in order. Samuel Moffitt is recovering from quite a siege of the grip. Mrs. Susie Moffitt is taking her turn with the grip. She is able to be around, but feels very miserable.

MORGAN ITEMS.

J. R. Jensen made a business trip to Chicago with stock last Saturday evening, returning Tuesday. The Misses Trinklebach spent last Sunday and Monday at the Henry Bergendahl home in Otter Creek. Fred Schwartz, Sr., and son, Fred, went to Sioux City by way of Charter Oak last Friday for his son to continue his medical treatment. Rudolph Jensen has been on the sick list for a week. During that dreadful storm of March 26th, two men found shelter in the school house. No damage was done only the director had to buy coal before school could continue. Teachers of this township are planning to be able to attend the county teachers' meeting at Denison Friday and Saturday. The directors should not object. Amanda Boysen is now taking music lessons of Mrs. Hover.

GOODRICH NEWS.

Hannibal Fink is expecting to put in a site soon on his farm. John Hennings and Pete Jensen shipped hogs Wednesday. A. D. Winey shipped poultry on Wednesday. Mrs. Daniel Fink spent Thursday at the H. Fink home. Messrs. Boysen, Ehlers, Thoms, Jensen and Henry Jensen were over to Deloit helping Hennings and Jensen haul hogs Wednesday. Carl Winey and E. McNeal were down to the county seat Thursday. Mr. McNeal is having gas lights put in his house. Herman Grill, after a siege of rheumatism, was able to take a drive to Deloit Friday. Arthur Winey's little babe has been very sick, but is reported better. Louie Grill shipped hogs Saturday. Of all the monopolist the one we most detest is he who monopolizes conversation and prevents us from getting in our word. The mountain of work before you can all be worked off if you just keep a cheery heart and peg away.

Copyright Hart Shaffner & Marx

FOR your Easter clothes you can not do better than come to us for Hart Shaffner & Marx fine suits and overcoats. You'll be dressed right and you'll find such clothes the real economy. HAUGH & BRUMMER, The Old Reliable Clothiers

This store is the home of Hart Shaffner & Marx clothes

KENWOOD ITEMS. Mrs. Carl Dohrmann spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mahnke. M. N. Scott, of Buck Grove, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rockwell. Fred Lipsky and John Listerman visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schriber Sunday. A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Listerman last Sunday and enjoyed the day in dancing, playing cards and joking. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schriber, Misses Marie and Alma Schriber, Messrs. Herman and Adolph Schriber, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Boehm, Misses Betta, Anna, Sophia, Emma, Dora and Elsie Boehm, Lena Heida and Martha Rust, Mr. Fred Boettger, Fred and Max Lipsky, Adolph, Wm. and Oscar Boehm. A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rust in honor of her birthday. Everybody reported a good time. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Listerman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dougherty, Messrs. Adolph and Wm. Boehm, Mr. Fred Boettger, Misses Betta, Anna and Sophia Boehm and Lena Heida.

and Martha Rust, Mr. Fred Boettger, Fred and Max Lipsky, Adolph, Wm. and Oscar Boehm. A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rust in honor of her birthday. Everybody reported a good time. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Listerman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dougherty, Messrs. Adolph and Wm. Boehm, Mr. Fred Boettger, Misses Betta, Anna and Sophia Boehm and Lena Heida. It will require more than one coat of whitewash to renovate some politicians. Indeed, some of them need a disinfectant added to the lime. Wiseacres advise us not to go to extremes; but how can we comb our hair or put on our shoes in the morning without going to extremes?

The chestnut tree is exceedingly popular with the small boy; but a well-laden dough-nut tree would give him greater joy. At last we have something to be really thankful for. Fashion has decreed that the "rampant rat" and the "bulging bun" must go. Eat Squabs Have a bunch of squabs for market purposes, bred from the famous Plymouth Rock Homers, Four weeks old, weighing from 8 to 10 pounds to the dozen, fat and plump. These kind of squabs are constantly in demand. Call phone No. 1441.

Advertisement for Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets. Features an illustration of a kitchen cabinet with a sink, stove, and shelves. Text includes: 'Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets None Better THE TRUTH ABOUT CHEAPER THINGS A customer of ours once told us that she could buy a table exactly like this one for less money. Then we took her to another part of our store and showed her a table exactly like the one she had been examining, so far as first looks went, for $10.00 less. We still have that cheaper table. We keep it as an object lesson. We do not recommend it to our friends. When you buy a piece of furniture it is good to be assured that underneath the varnish and coverings are sound wood and honest workmanship—the best insurance for a long and useful life. Don't buy imitation goods; it will not wear. Buy the genuine, and buy your furniture of THE HOOSIER SPECIAL JOHN FASTJE, The Furniture Man'