BUCK GROVE ITEMS.

Jess Lorenzen went to Grant Center last Saturday on a fishing trip. He found some fishing all right, but only caught four fish. He returned home Monday morning.

John Griffin returned from his South Dakota trip Tuesday. He says weather conditions are about the same as here. The unknown man killed last Tuesday on the railroad track between here and Manilla, was a victim of the morphine habit. When the way freight stopped here Tuesday evening he got off and hurried up to the drug store. He was very much excited and asked for the doctor. He was told he was in Dakota. He then begged for morphine and was told there was none in stock. He then wanted cocaine and was again told there was none, but insisted on looking for the drugs and followed the lady in charge behind the counters and took up several bottles with white powders in them, only to find they were not what he wanted. At this time the way freight began to leave the station and the poor man was told that he had better take it and go on to Manilla, where there were several doctors who might minister to him. He ran for the train, losing one shoe down by the switch, caught the caboose and was assisted onto the moving train. Frank and Bernice Hain, Louise Arndt and Mabel Brewster, with others, attended the carnival at Charter Oak Wednesday, and all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley went to Logan last week to attend the wedding of a brother of Mr. Finley. Mr. Finley returned home Friday, his wife remaining until Sunday. The dance at Buck Grove Friday evening was well attended, being about twice as many young ladies as young men. It is safe to say that the gentlemen had a fine time anyway and the ladies always have. The dances here are so orderly and quiet that it is a pleasure to attend and many who do not dance like to go and listen to the music which is certainly very enjoyable.

Joe Zimmer returned from the fair at Des Moines Friday. John Col, who bought out Mr. Wellen's stock of goods, has again sold the stock to a Mr. Asmusen. The latter gentleman has moved here with his family and proposes to sell out the old stock he has just bought and put in a fine big stock of new goods. This is certainly good news. There is plenty of room for two general stores here and money enough for both.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith are entertaining company. Your scribe did not learn their names. Mrs. Julia Habe and other relatives from the west visited a week with Charles Zimmer and family. Frank Hain has purchased a moving picture machine and expects to exhibit in Buck Grove. It is hoped it will prove a financial success for it surely would be fine to have something of that kind for amusement during the long winter evenings.

Mr. M. Carroll, of Chicago, is visiting his relatives, Michael Kane and family. Rev. Father Murphy, of Vail, took dinner with J. P. Welsh and family Sunday. Father Lynch is improving in health and expects to be back in this parish in about a week, but will not take up his duties for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wheland and family moved Saturday to Walnut, Iowa, where they expect to make their future home. The first day, Wednesday, the Omaha Union band came at 9:30 a. m. and a large parade marched to the school ground, where a large platform was built and listened to an address by Senator Kenyon, who was introduced by C. G. Saunders, of Council Bluffs. In the afternoon a ball game was played between Vail and Manilla. Thursday morning a grand auto parade was given, the autos being prettily decorated and making quite a show. After the parade a water fight followed. Earling and Manilla played ball in the afternoon, followed by a grand display of fireworks in the evening. Friday morning was the horse and colt show. Two professors from Ames delivered addresses and this was followed by a tug of war. Charter Oak and Manilla played ball in the afternoon. A balloon ascension and parachute leap was given each day. On Wednesday at 10:30 in the morning at the Catholic church occurred the marriage of Miss Gladys Crakes daughter of Cash Crakes, to Mr. Ed Probasco, of Charter Oak. Miss Crakes is well known in this community, as her home has always been here. She is a young lady of good character and will certainly make a good wife for this young man. The groom comes from Charter Oak and although he is unknown to us he must be a gentleman of sterling character to be worthy of his choice. They will make their home in Charter Oak. The Review wishes this young couple a world of happiness and joy through life.
