HELP TEDDY BY KEEPING TAFT ON JOB

Old Pennsylvanian Believes Republicans Should Help Teddy by Keeping Taft Longer.

TAFT MAKES A GOOD MAN

Straightened Matters in Philippines; Smoothed Over Affairs in Cuba and Panama, Then President

The following bit of timely philosophy which is making the rounds is just a little amusing.

A Jefferson county Pennsylvanian who is one of the unique characters of the county, has been engaged in farming and lumbering on a small scale and is now keeping a hotel. He speaks with a slow, inimitable drawl and is withal a steadfast republican.

Last Monday a commercial traveler asked him for his views on the contest for the republican nomination for president; after some deliberation Jake replied:

"Wal now, I dunno, but I kind of like this man Mr. Roosevelt; he knows what to do when he gets in a bo-ox. You see, they got into an awful snarl out there in the Philippine Islands, but Mr. Roosevelt knew what to do, and he sent a fellow by the name of Ta-aft out there, and he fixed it up purty nice. Then these here fellows down in Cuba got to kickin' up a kind of ruction, and Mr. Roosevelt sent this here man Ta-aft down there and he smoothed things purty well. And then you know Mr. R. he stole a piece of ground down there somewhere about Pan-a-ma, and he wanted folks to think he got it honest so he called in this here T. and got him to fix it up on pa-per so that it looked about half decent. And you know Mr. R. was president about seven years and a ha-half and got the republican party and business and the whole county into a hell of a mullix, and he put this man Ta-aft in to see if he couldn't fix it up to-o, and it is a devil of a big undertaking and no fellow could get through with it inside of about eight years; so I think we ought to stick to Mr. R. and give this ma-an Ta-aft about four more years in which to finish his job."

FAMILY OF EIGHT MURDERED WITH AX

circumstances surrounding the two tragedies that he is certain they were both committed by the same person or else the person who killed the eight people in the Moore home studiously copied the features of the Kansas murder. It is also the theory of the officers and detectives that the murderer was concealed in one of the closets in the house when the family reached home after a church entertainment. One can hardly conceive of the motive that would bring about the killing of eight people in such a manner.

A MOTHER'S INSTINCT.

Willing to Forgive Erring Son, Even Though His Viciousness Nearly Caused Her Death.

Mrs. Alex Christy proves the motherly instinct to forgive an erring son, even though his viciousness came near causing her death. At her request we publish the following letter, which takes exception to criticism directed toward her son for the wicked assault made by him with an ax upon his mother. There is no limit to which a mother will not go to excuse a wayward child.

"The piece you have in your paper is greatly enlarged, since there was not a cross word between Robert and myself that day or week, nor any time, and another thing, he had not been to town all the week to stay half an hour since the first of the week. I think he came home on Monday and he only went to town as I sent him on errands and came right back, and it is no more than right that this be corrected. Don't make the poor boy worse than he is, and as for going to hit me, he never would only he took me for someone after him as I came in, and as for the lacerating, there was only a cut not an inch long. Many a one has done worse and nothing was said. Mrs. Alex Christy."

B. S. Andresen is down from Schleswig today transacting business.

J. Peter Jepsen, of Schleswig, is in Denison today. We understand that he made a deal this morning whereby he became the owner of a part of the Hugg farm, which is owned by Mr. Hubbel.

The office of the W. R. Temple Lumber company was broken into some time Sunday night and the safe opened, but nothing of value was secured. Entrance to the building was made through a window and the party who broke into the place no doubt was familiar with the surroundings for the safe was opened without the use of crow bars or explosives. Mr. Temple in locking his safe only turned the dick a few notches and the party seemed to be familiar with this and easily opened it and ransacked the contents, which were found strewn on the floor Monday morning. It is exceedingly fortunate that no money was left in the safe, but as the place has been burglarized before no valuables are left there. The city authorities are working on the case and it is their opinion that it was the work of home talent.

ren, and Mr. Paul Halligan, of North Platte, Neb.

Following the ceremony dainty refreshments were served in the dining room.

The bride and groom were both born and raised in Denison and lived here continuously until they reached the age to take up life at college for a higher education. They enjoy a wide circle of close friends whose well wishes will follow them through the journey of life, hoping they may enjoy the lion's share of all its good things.

All regret to lose them from the social circles of Denison, but what is our loss is Aberdeen's gain, as that is where they will make their future home, the groom being engaged in business with his father at that place. We bespeak for Mrs. Romans a cordial reception in her new home and that as she becomes acquainted will grow in the affections of the people of Aberdeen the same as she has here.

They were the recipients of many valuable and beautiful gifts. They left on the night train for a short honeymoon in Chicago, after which they will return to Aberdeen and begin housekeeping at once.
