

DOW CITY

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wilson came up from Woodbine Wednesday and visited at the Fred Coleman home until Thursday, when they, together with Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, went to Charter Oak, where they helped Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

A delightful time was had last Friday by the members of the Friday club when they went out to the country home of Mrs. Frank Binnall for their regular meeting. A number of other guests were present to help make a good time. Mrs. Binnall served a delicious lunch.

Fred Beane is going around on crutches these days, all on account of stepping on a nail.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Swatman gave an old fashioned "hoe-down" to their numerous friends and neighbors last Saturday night, about seventy-five persons being present. The dancing continued for several hours, after which a lappsupper was served, which all greatly enjoyed. All report a good time.

On account of loud and offensive language and boisterous conduct a certain young man of this vicinity languished in the new city jail last Saturday night. This being his first time up, Mayor Dow released him with a reprimand, and it is to be hoped that this experience will be a warning and he will desist from the present course he is pursuing.

There has been more or less complaint about the carelessness of auto drivers in running their machines during the late evening and early night without lights or with insufficient lights. This is a state offense and the officers are requested to exercise a keen lookout and arrest any party guilty of the above named offense. A single accident may exact the toll of a human life or lives, and too great precaution can hardly be exercised.

An electric motion picture show opened here Tuesday night, showing that night and the two following. They returned Monday evening of this week and put on the famous Passion play.

Mr. and Mrs. Con Toohy returned Sunday to their home at Sioux Falls, S. D.

Mrs. Jack Griffin is here from Omaha for a visit at the Willis Wiggins home.

A goodly number of Standard Bearers went out to the home of their member, Ruth Glassburner, for their regular meeting last Friday evening. They are studying the year book, "Under Marching Orders" and had a very helpful lesson, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Fred Beane's new house on Pretty Prairie is ready for the plasterers and if all goes along smoothly it won't be many weeks until they will occupy it.

After the boosters came home last week from their auto trip, the people of our little burg gathered down on Main street and Rev. Joseph Stephen gave a talk, telling of their various experiences while gone. The crowd gave excellent attention and all enjoyed the account of the trip.

The delegates from here to the two county conventions at Denison last Saturday were in attendance at these affairs. Union township was well represented at each.

We are called upon to chronicle this week the death of Charles H. McHenry, a former resident here for many years, and whose home in later years was at Mitchell S. D. Charley will always be remembered as a man of more than ordinary intellect and ability, a man whose family was the pride of his heart, and whose delight was in cheering some one up and making happiness for others. His musical ability was well known and many will remember with delight the old "Dow City Male Quartet," of which he was a member, together with W. N. Schouten, Louis M. Coon and Frank Stone. Charles H. McHenry was born in Denison, Iowa, on the 10th day of September, 1866. He grew to manhood near the place of his birth. On Oct. 15, 1887, he was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Crandall. They continued to reside in Iowa until the year 1907, at which time they moved to South Dakota. His death occurred on the 25th day of June, 1912, after a protracted illness. Surviving him is a devoted wife, one son, Vincent, three daughters, Mrs. Ethel Toohy, Bessie and Helen, also a widowed mother, Mrs. Mary L. McHenry, of this city, one sister, Mrs. Mary L. Wilder, two brothers, William C. McHenry and Morris McHenry. He experienced religion as expounded by the M. E. church about two years before his death and he died in the christian faith. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church in this city last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Joseph Stephen, after which the body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery on the hill.

"To live in hearts we leave behind Is not to die."

The sincere sympathy of many friends is freely given to the bereaved ones.

Misses Minnie and Mary Vollerson went out to Buck Grove the last of the week for a visit at the Bertram home. Mr. and Mrs. Vollerson drove out in the car Sunday and spent the day, bringing the young ladies home with them.

Miss Ferne Pearsall went to Arion Friday for a couple of days' visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Hain.

Bob Houston drove from Schleswig and Charter Oak Monday.

George Leland was up from Dunlap Monday in the interests of the games and sports for the celebration.

Mike O'Day sent a car of hogs and Geo. Jordan two cars of cattle to the Omaha market Monday night.

Mrs. L. C. Core, of Pierre, S. D., came Wednesday for a visit at the L. A. Vore home. On Monday she departed for home, stopping off at Ute on the way.

seven and that of Kuyper of ten persons with two coaches, each drawn by four horses, to Keokuk for $100, including the transportation of our bedding. All other baggage, about 5,000 pounds, is carried by way of St. Louis to the address of Graham at Keokuk. At 9 o'clock we leave Peoria in the two coaches. We keep on riding with changes of drivers and horses, even at night, until 5 a. m., Sunday, July 22d, when we reached Oquawka on the Mississippi river, and ferried across to Burlington. Burlington is a town where our hotel was the first house 14 years ago, and now counts fully 4,000 souls."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Diary of Early Immigrant to Iowa. An interesting diary kept by John Hoppers, an early Dutch immigrant who made the journey from Holland to Pella, Iowa, in 1849, is translated by Mr. Jacob Van der Zee and printed in the July number of "The Iowa Journal of History and Politics," published by the State Historical Society of Iowa. The diary presents a vivid account of the vicissitudes of an ocean voyage at that period before the advent of the modern steamships, and illustrates the experiences and impressions of aliens when they first land in America. A good idea of the cost and means of transportation to Iowa in the early days is furnished in the following extract from the diary: "Saturday, July 21. In the morning from Peoria to the Clinton house—contracted with the stage coach company to convey our family of
