

Has Father had his picture taken yet? If not you better send him around to

The Ferguson Studio

Local Events

(Additional Locals on Twelfth Page)

A. H. Rudd made his weekly visit to Denison yesterday.

E. T. Cochran was a business visitor at Logan Saturday last.

Rowland Philbrook was at Maning last week visiting friends.

Miss Gertie Conroy was visiting in Denison Friday from Arion.

Eugene Gulick was at Jefferson on Thursday as a business visitor.

F. H. Smith is attending a meeting of photographers at Omaha today.

Mrs. Aug. Moeller visited with her son, Lenzen, at Council Bluffs Thursday.

Dr. R. L. Osborn, of Harlan, visited at the Hugo Gebert home on Sunday last.

The Misses Welsh and Grace Mullen, of Buck Grove, autoed to Denison on Monday.

Attorney E. H. Swasey, of Dow City, had legal business in our city Friday afternoon.

Fred Smith, of the Ferguson studio, was an Omaha visitor Tuesday of this week.

Miss Helen Hayes spent Thursday in Jefferson with her many friends at that place.

E. A. Stone, of the Stewart Lumber company, transacted business at Dow City Saturday.

Messrs. J. H. Tamm and H. W. Moeller attended the auto races at Harlan Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Duffy, Mrs. T. Ryan and Miss Flossie Duffy, of Vail, visited Denison friends Friday.

After spending a week in Chicago, Mr. T. J. Garrison and son, Earling, returned home Thursday.

Hugo Gebert and Dr. R. L. Osborn went to Omaha Monday for a day's business visit in that city.

Mrs. Theodore Walker visited in Deloit on Sunday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McKim.

Mr. F. O. Reynolds, of Dow City, was in Denison Monday afternoon, attending to business matters.

Russell and Osher Lindman, of Kiron, motored to Denison Sunday last, where they visited friends.

Mrs. Thos. Nielsen and daughter, Emma, were at Omaha Saturday visiting and doing some shopping.

Miss Alice Stevens entertained a number of her friends at a dinner at the Hotel Denison Sunday last.

Mrs. Aug. Voss, of West Side, was a three days' visitor at the Charles Bollen home in Denison last week.

Omer Murry, of the Balle-Brodersen company, has returned from a two-weeks' visit with relatives at Boone.

Mark Clark came up from Des Moines Sunday morning and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. Thos. Clark.

Misses Martha and Lizzie Lenz spent Sunday in Ricketts, where they visited their sister, Mrs. Carl Hoppe.

Miss Ruth and Marie Weiss are spending a few weeks at the home of their sister, Mrs. Joe Speaks, in Omaha.

Mrs. Roy Wiblishauser and children are visiting relatives at Exeter, Neb., this week, going to that place Saturday.

Mr. Thos. White and daughter, Mrs. J. P. Welsh, of Buck Grove, drove to Denison Tuesday on a shopping tour.

Miss Mabel Tonner, of the Boys' store, is taking a week's vacation and visiting at the home of her parents at Vail.

Frank McBride is out at Norfolk, Neb., going out on Monday last, where he will visit with friends and relatives.

Dr. Houlihan, of Ida Grove, motored over from that place Sunday, and visited with his parents and other relatives.

George Lamberty, of the first county seat east, was in Denison Thursday evening mingling with his many friends.

Misses Ella Buessing and Emilia Benecke visited at Schleswig the latter part of the week with friends at that place.

Mrs. J. H. C. Peters and Mrs. Wm. Effert, of West Side, were Denison visitors with relatives and friends on Friday last.

W. E. Terry returned Saturday from Burlington, where he attended a meeting of the Iowa State Recorders' association.

Mrs. O. T. Nelson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Fredrickson, of Wilton, was in Denison Friday visiting friends.

Miss Louise Schworm, who has been visiting at the Caswell home the past week, returned to her home at Nevada Friday.

Martin Saggau and M. E. Jones returned Monday from Lake View after spending Sunday with their families at that place.

David Menagh left Monday evening over the Northwestern for New York City in the interest of the Menagh Department store.

Mrs. J. T. Carey returned Tuesday from Woonsocket, S. D., where she has been spending the past two weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Amelia Haskins is spending the day in Omaha visiting friends and viewing the many attractive stores of that city.

Mrs. A. H. Rudd, of Dow City, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Sunshine, were visiting with friends in Denison Friday last.

Miss Beulah White and Mrs. Ed Quirk, of Vail, were in Denison Monday inspecting the county seat palaces of merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. Link Goddard, of Dow City, together with Miss Hilda Turnlund, spent all of Tuesday in Denison doing some shopping.

Sheriff Cummings attended the meeting of sheriffs at Burlington last week, returning home Friday. He reports a splendid meeting.

Mrs. Lizzie Temple-Patterson returned to her home at Onawa Friday after a week pleasantly spent at the parental home in Denison.

Mrs. Samuel Stewart and children, who have been visiting at the W. D. Luney home, returned to their home at Medina, N. D., Monday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Moeller, of Chicago, are in Denison this week visiting their brother, F. O. Moeller, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hildebrandt.

City carrier of route No. 2, Alex Aebischer, returned home from Lake View Monday after a two weeks' visit at the Larson home at the lake.

Miss Minnie Mill is spending her annual vacation at Sioux City and Onawa visiting friends at Sioux City and Mrs. Lizzie Patterson at Onawa.

Messrs. John Tamm and H. W. Wilroth went to Council Bluffs Monday morning, and returned with a fine touring car for Mr. Wilroth's father.

Miss Fanchon Bamford came down from Boone Monday noon for a few days' rest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford.

Mr. Fritz Jacobsen, of Omaha, stopped over in Denison a couple of days this week to visit with his brother, S. P. Jacobsen, of the Denison bakery.

J. V. Barborka and son, Clifford, assisted in the music at Carroll Monday evening, when the German Singing society of that place gave a concert.

Mr. and Mrs. James Luney returned to their home at Montrose, Colo., on last Monday after a most pleasant visit in Denison with Mr. Luney's parents.

Mrs. W. E. Terry, Miss Mildred and Master John, returned Tuesday from Sioux City, where they have been visiting at the John G. Schumaker home.

Mrs. Wm. Rath and daughter, Erma, left last Wednesday evening for Grand Forks, N. D., for a visit with her son and daughter, William and Maria.

Mrs. Mariana Crampton, who has been visiting the McHenry home, returned to her home at Boone on Sunday last, after a very pleasant visit in Denison.

Misses Lillie and Emma Raine are at Dunlap this week, visiting their sister, Mrs. A. N. Jordan, and taking in the chautauqua now in session at that place.

Musicians Seymour Bond, George Hover and Russell Norman were at Lake View Saturday evening, where they assisted in furnishing music at that place.

Mrs. T. J. Shropshire and son, Harry, went to Burleigh county, N. D., Saturday morning, called there by the serious illness of a child of Clarence Shropshire.

Mrs. E. B. Spottwood returned to her home in West Side Monday afternoon after an over-Sunday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schnecloth.

Rev. Calkins and family, of Arion, plan to put up a tent on the chautauqua grounds and enjoy the entire program.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wiggins, of Ottumwa, arrived in Denison Monday evening and are visiting with Mrs. Wiggins' sister, Mrs. F. L. Hoffman, and many friends.

Earl Chase, of Buck Grove, was a visitor at Denison Friday. He is a member of the D. N. C. alumni, and has many friends in Denison who were pleased to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Burke and Mr. M. J. Breen returned from Friend, Neb., where they had spent the past week. Miss Kate Lonergan returned to Denison with the party.

Mrs. Jacob Sims went to Iowa City last Wednesday evening, where she will visit her son, James, for ten days. Before returning she will visit her mother at Ottumwa, Iowa.

Word from Dr. L. M. Coon, who is at Denver, is to the effect that he is slowly regaining his health, but it will be some time before he will be able to return to Denison.

During the absence of Miss Anna Schlumberger in the east, her place in her father's store is being filled by her brother, Pierre, who is proving an accommodating salesman.

C. L. Voss has placed an order with the Denison Auto company for a fine six-cylinder Pierce Arrow auto of 1913 model, and he expects the machine some time during the month.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Farrelly left Monday noon for a three weeks' trip through Colorado, where they will visit Colorado Springs, Denver, Pueblo and other points of interest.

Charley Chase, of South Washington township, was in Denison Monday, driving up in his Ford auto. He does not keep a driving horse on the farm, the auto has taken their place.

Mr. Willis Wiggins, of Dow City, was in Denison Tuesday morning. He has recently disposed of his merchandise business at Dow City, and is enjoying a much needed rest.

A number of Denison young men visited at Dunlap over Sunday last. Among those going were: Messrs. Victor Selander, Grover Tucker, Clarence Swartzenbaugh and Guy Buffington.

The young people of the Epworth League will hold a stocking and card social at the league club rooms in the M. E. Church, to night, to which there promises to be a large attendance.

Harry Wearmouth, who is acting as messenger for the American Express company with headquarters at Missouri Valley, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wearmouth, over Sunday.

Clifford Barborka has been in Ida Grove the past week, where he has been giving harp instructions to a customer who purchased a fine harp from the Barborka jewelry house in Denison.

Mrs. F. W. Vanderwall went to Omaha Monday afternoon, taking the infant belonging to the "little mother" with her. It is deemed necessary that an operation be performed upon the little one.

County Chairman Cushman was down from his summer home at Lake View Monday. He reports getting possession of a fine pickarel on Saturday last. Mind you, we do not say he caught it.

Word came to Denison Sunday that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyon, of Jefferson. Mrs. Jack Swartzenbaugh went to Jefferson on Monday to get acquainted with the new grandson.

Rolla Tranter returned last week from a visit with his brother, Guy, at Armour, S. D. He reports the crops in that part of South Dakota in the pink of condition, there having been ample rainfall.

Mr. B. Brodersen and son, Walter, left for Ames this morning, where Mr. Brodersen will arrange for Walter to enter Ames college this fall. Walter will take up an electrical engineering course.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conner, accompanied by R. P. Conner and Miss Eusebia Dudley, are touring Nebraska this week, going as far west as Alliance, near which place Mr. Conner has some land holdings.

At the national prohibition convention, held at Atlantic City last week, Mr. Eugene Chafin, of Arizona, was nominated for president, and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, received the nomination for vice-president.

The Misses Helen Posner, Marguerite Lewis, Gertrude Casey and Vera King, who have been visiting at the James Armstrong home in Denison the past two weeks, returned to their home in South Omaha Saturday.

The big dredging machine is again at a standstill, having broken the engine again. So far this month the dredge has thrown out just 20 feet of ditch. Since the first of June the machine has gone a distance of 800 feet.

The summer school of the Denison college closes this week.

Dr. S. E. Wilcox, of Des Moines, state missionary of the Baptist church, preached in Denison on Sunday last. His visits to the churches of the state are always a pleasure and a help to all.

Miss Bertha Romans has returned from Lake Geneva, Ill., where she had been with her father, Mr. Louis Romans. She remained over for a short time after her father had returned home for a longer visit with friends.

S. G. Wright has been in Omaha the past week, where he is looking after the repair work on his residence property. He expects to go to Boston in a couple of weeks, where he will visit the Eaton shoe factory, for which concern he travels.

Through the courtesy of the Hotel News service of New York City, we note that Mrs. John Silletto and her daughter, Miss Katharine, accompanied by Miss Lillie Deeter, of Harrisburg, Pa., are in New York, and are stopping at the Hotel Martha Washington.

Mr. J. B. Truesdall, of Glidden, was a Denison visitor over Sunday. He had been over to Carroll, where he placed bids on a number of cement bridges and succeeded in landing three of the contracts. Carroll county let the contract for fourteen of these bridges.

The Catholic congregation to the number of about fifty, went to Lake View Monday morning for a day's outing at the lake. A special car was provided for their convenience, and each one went provided with sufficient lunch for two. They undoubtedly had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Romans returned to Denison Saturday from Cedar Rapids, where they have been visiting. From here they go to the mountains of Colorado, and will spend two months in that delightful altitude. They will be joined by their daughters, Alice and Gertrude.

The postoffice department is advertising for bids for the mail messenger service at the Denison office. Bids will be received until July 22d. Proper blanks and full information can be obtained at the postoffice. This service is for carrying the mails between the postoffice and the railway stations.

The T. R. progressives have issued a call for a state convention, to be held in Des Moines on July 24th. Conventions will be held in each county on the 20th. Crawford county, under this call, is entitled to seven delegates. A call is signed by John L. Stevens, of Boone, and John McVicar, of Des Moines.

Miss Rhea Wheeler, of Watertown, S. D., arrived in Denison Thursday, and has taken a position with the Crawford County Telephone company as night operator, filling the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Emma Wells. Miss Wheeler is an experienced operator, having worked for some time at Watertown.

At the meeting of the Iowa State Pharmaceutical association held at Sioux City July 9th, 10th and 11th, Mr. Ph. A. Schlumberger read a paper, and was honored by being named as one of the four delegates to represent the association at the meeting of the National Pharmaceutical association to be held at Denver next month.

Editor Caswell, of the Bulletin, returned Saturday from Burlington, where he attended a meeting of the southeastern Iowa editors. A very interesting meeting was held, and a trip by boat down the Mississippi to inspect the big dam at Keokuk made up part of the program. This week he goes to Des Moines to meet with the Upper Des Moines Editorial association.

William Gilbreath, of Portland, Ore., arrived in Denison on Saturday last for a month's visit with his brother, Al, and many old-time friends. This is his first visit to Denison since leaving six years ago. He has been engaged in the contracting business up until recently, and is now dealing in horses, and says he is doing well. His many friends are pleased to again meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tamm leave tomorrow for Pine Cone camp, Minn., where they will spend the next month on the shore of that beautiful lake, where they have a cottage. Miss Dorothy Pfarr accompanied them and the trip will be made by auto. Pine Cone camp is situated about 500 miles north and west of St. Paul, and is said to be a beautiful place, and the fishing of the best.

Superintendent of City Schools E. W. Fellows is spending the week at Ames, where he is gathering some useful information regarding the conducting of an agricultural course in the Denison high school the coming term. This course will be taught in connection with that of manual training. In this work Mr. Fellows has the hearty co-operation of the Denison school board.

Mrs. Margaret Josten, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Minter, has returned to her home in Omaha. Mrs. Minter has been quite ill for some time, but is very much improved at this writing.

A crowd of Denison boys have been camping at Wall Lake for a week or more. They are now home, looking sunburned, but happy. In the party were Carl Kuehnle, Harry Meyers, Paul Caswell, Herbert Cushman, Lloyd McWilliams and Phillip Ransom.

While excavating in the gravel pit south of Denison this week, Mr. Mat Mill unearthed a huge molar, supposed to have once ornamented the mammoth mouth of a mastodon of the early ages. The molar is exceptionally well preserved. A piece resembling a petrified tongue was also found at the time of finding the molar.

The ladies of the Woman's Christian union have bought a fine large tent, which will be put up on the chautauqua grounds to be used as a rest tent for mothers with children, and all who may need its easy chairs and couches. This is the third year that a similar tent has been on the grounds under the auspices of the noble women.

During the week of chautauqua the Germania opera house will be closed, undergoing much needed repairs. The contract was let Monday to John Kott for painting and papering the interior. Manager Krauth is anxious that patrons have every possible convenience and comfort to be afforded under the circumstances, and is not begrudging the small outlay necessary to make the improvement.

The county has been putting in some permanent culverts on the Arion road the past week. One is placed near the Mill gravel pit, between the Illinois Central and the Northwestern tracks, and the other is near the county home. The cement bridge over the lateral a mile north of Dow City is nearing completion. The spans are 28 feet, and the bridge is very substantial in every way.

Mr. Chas. K. Meyers, the county Sabbath school secretary, was present last Sunday at the Nelson school, located four miles northwest of Dunlap, in the extreme southwest corner of the county. Despite the very hot weather, nearly thirty were present, and much interest was shown. Mr. T. C. Christensen is superintendent of the school, which has been running continuously since last September.

Out at Denison, in Crawford county, the across state interurban and electric light and power proposition is being taken up. The matter has interested members of the Commercial club and it is a matter of interest and much discussion to that body. The Cedar Rapids parties backing the proposition are in earnest and are working hard to secure the necessary options on the properties and franchises from the towns and cities along the line.—Nevada Evening Journal.

Just after the unveiling ceremonies at Oakland cemetery last Sunday afternoon the horse driven by George Myers became frightened at a passing auto and ran away. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were thrown from the carriage and Mr. Myers severely bruised about the face. Mrs. Myers escaped without injury other than a hard shaking up. The carriage was more or less demolished and the harness torn apart. The accident might have proven very serious and Mr. and Mrs. Myers are congratulating themselves upon their lucky escape.

Want Ads

Lost, Found, For Sale, Etc.

Two Shorthorn bull calves, nearly a year old, for sale. P. W. Weberg. 22tf

For Sale at Bargain Price—Hard coal heater, saddle and single harness. E. J. Brown, E. Tremont St. 27-tf

While attending the chautauqua be sure and come to our store and see the pianos we are offering at exceptionally low prices. John Fastje, Furniture and Pianos. 29-1t

We'll have a car of bushel baskets of Elberta Peaches of Arkansas, between 20th of July and August 1st, at a time when they are in their finest condition, free from brown specks and split pits. The early crop is apt to be poor flavor and immature. The Boys. 28-2t

Monarch oil cook stove, the very best blue flame, only $4.50 for 2 burner, $6 for 3 burner, at Wygants. 14-tf

Pianos! Pianos! It is not our fault if you have not purchased a piano; we've certainly made the price within your grasp. While attending the chautauqua drop into our store, we'll show you the best pianos at the lowest prices ever offered in western Iowa. John Fastje, Furniture and Pianos. 29-1t

LOST—A body dog collar with brass trimmings, with city dog tax no. 49 attached. Finder please leave at Review office. 29-1tpd

Latest styles in Photographs at Dean's Art Gallery, 126 Main street, upstairs over Fred Berg's jewelry store. 12-tf

Guernseys for Sale. Two bulls, now ready for service; also a few good cows at reasonable prices; also good herd bull for sale. 28-3t H. W. Logsdon, Dow City, Iowa

Call at the Reo garage and have your self starters installed at $25.00. The best of batteries, oils and tires, and other supplies in the automobile line. The best auto exhaust horn on the market for $8.00. J. N. Dean, Phone 390. 17-tf

WANTED—Situation for general housework; either in town or country. Address Box 107, Deloit. 28-2tpd

WANTED—A good reliable man in each neighborhood in the county to handle the Central Unadilla Silo. A good deal to the right man. W. H. Saunders, County Manager, Manilla, Iowa. 29-19t

ANNOUNCEMENT

Ever since the Book Store was discontinued in Denison we have, and will carry in stock, the finest line of Tablets, Envelopes, in fact all kinds of Stationery. Call and get low prices on high quality goods.

SCHLUMBERGER'S PHARMACY

The Best Place In Town

Our shop is the best place in town to buy your bologna, weiners, minced luncheon, boiled ham, pickled backs or dry beef; being all home made and nothing used but the best meats and manufacture the same.

While we are talking about home products we might tell you that all of our meats are home killed and we guarantee that our farmer friends can get anything procured at our shop home in a fresh and palatable condition.

If not already a patron of this shop one trial will convince you that this is the place to do your trading. Soliciting a trial order, we are,
Respectfully yours,

A. D. Randall