

1912	JULY	1912
SUN	MON	TUE
1	2	3
4	5	6
7	8	9
10	11	12
13	14	15
16	17	18
19	20	21
22	23	24
25	26	27
28	29	30
31

This calendar is published here to be a convenience to you, and also to remind you that you should look at the ADDRESS label on your paper to see if your subscription expires during this month. Do this AT ONCE. Subscription price is $1.50 per year.

DOW CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. Ab Rigby and son, Charles, returned last week from a visit with relatives and friends at Harlan and Council Bluffs.

Misses Ellen and Agnes Goddard attended the chautauqua at Woodbine last Thursday and visited with the Hunt family at that place.

Mrs. John Edwards went to Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract from one of her eyes. Her husband and Mrs. Mary Baber accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Riley and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara attended the funeral of Michael O'Brien at Dunlap last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gilroy, of Pandora, came Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Blackman. The two ladies are sisters.

Mrs. Elmer Newkirk has returned from a visit with friends at Ute.

Mrs. Morey and daughter, Mae, of Marshalltown, have been pleasant visitors at the John Williamson home. They went to Woodbine Friday, at which place they will visit before returning home.

Mrs. Frank Odell and two children returned Saturday from Waterloo, at which place they visited Mrs. Fred Daudel, formerly Miss Rita Odell. They report having had a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearsall were Omaha visitors Thursday.

Miss Neu Scott returned last week from her trip to Chicago and other points.

J. H. Rolls was up from Dunlap last Thursday visiting at the home of his son, W. C. Rolls.

Miss Lena Baker came down from Sioux City for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rudd, and other relatives.

Robert Davis is here from Omaha to spend the remainder of his vacation at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Bell.

Mrs. J. R. Griffin is contemplating an enjoyable trip which will probably begin shortly after the first of next month. It includes Colorado Springs, Portland, through Washington and home by the Northern Pacific route. It is needless to state that she anticipates a most enjoyable time.

Miss Rosalia Thurliman and brother, Otmor, of Carroll, are here visiting at the James Scott and Pete Halliwell homes.

Mrs. Paul Wight and children have gone to Council Bluffs to visit relatives and former friends.

Walter Cole returned last Wednesday from Clarinda, where he had gone to assist the sheriff in conveying Israel Cole to the state insane asylum.

Ed Chamberlain and family came down from Lake View the middle of the week and spent several days at their home, returning to the lake on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Goddard got moved Thursday to Mrs. Woods' rooms over the bakery and are now cosily settled and ready for callers.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Goddard were business visitors at Denison Wednesday.

Sheriff Cummings was down from Denison Sunday on business connected with his office.

Mrs. Jack Welch was over from Buck Grove Saturday calling at the Pete O'Meara home. Vernon O'Meara went home with her to spend Sunday.

Miss Emma Lick returned Saturday from her visit at Wayne, Neb.

Eugene Wiggins is taking a vacation from his work in the bank and is enjoying the sights at Colorado Springs and other points in Colorado. This is a well earned vacation and Gene will certainly make the most of his time.

Miss Agnes Goddard, in company with Miss Emily Schneckloth, of Denison, will go Wednesday to Orient, to visit a former school friend.

Miss Mable Nelson, of Magacalia, is spending a week or more at the J. R. Griffin home west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Meara spent Sunday in Denison with relatives.

Elmer Newkirk came down from Kenwood Saturday and spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiley spent several days last week in and near Denison with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McColl and daughter, Opal, have gone to Council Bluffs, where they are attending a holiness camp meeting.

Elias O'Meara made a business trip to Omaha last Thursday.

Robert, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell, met with a painful accident about a week ago, when he got a finger between the rollers of a wringer, taking the finger nail off as smoothly as if cut with a razor. The little fellow suffered severely, but the finger is healing nicely.

Mrs. Stella Riddle came Friday night from Creighton, Neb., to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Jane Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Etteman expect to move into the house with Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggins this week and will soon be housekeeping. We welcome them to our midst.

Arch Wight has purchased David McNair's residence property and will move into it by the middle of next month. Mr. and Mrs. McNair will move to Omaha, where they will be near their daughters. We much regret their removal from our little town, but trust they may find health and contentment in their new home.

Miss Esther Turndal went to Arion Sunday, where she spent the day at the home of her brother, John.

Joseph Smith has been ill the past week with a physician in daily attendance. He is not much improved at this writing.

Many friends here of Mrs. W. A. McHenry regret exceedingly to hear of her death at Okoboji and extend sympathy to the bereaved family. The Bank of Dow City was closed all day Monday on account of the funeral, which many from here attended.

Mrs. Amella Denton and granddaughter, Gladys Denton, of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting at the P. J. Halliwell and Jas. Scott homes north of town.

The Friday club was handsomely entertained last Friday at the country home of Mrs. Walter Swatman. A number of other guests were present and helped to make a very pleasant afternoon. Lunch was served at 5 o'clock.

Little Evelyn Buss is on the mend and relatives are much encouraged over the child's condition. The cause of her illness is peritonitis instead of typhoid fever as stated last week.

A good crowd of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs accompanied installing officers J. H. Killion and Mrs. L. A. Vore to Charter Oak last Wednesday evening to witness the installation of officers of these two lodges at that place. They report a fine trip and a dandy good time.

Paul Wight has accepted a position as manager of a mercantile establishment in some Nebraska town and has gone to take up his work. We wish him success.

Lester Moyer has sold his dry line to Paul Ahrens and Paul has assumed charge. He is a hustler and will make the business a paying one if anyone can. We are not informed as to what Mr. Moyer intends to do, but trust he may continue to be one of us.

Mrs. A. H. Rudd entertained last Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 7 for her resident and visiting nieces and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. A nice lunch was a feature that found favor with all.

Mrs. Ada Wheelright notified the officers one day last week that a purse containing $28 had been stolen from her house, and up to this time no trace of it has been found.

Last Sunday evening Charley Chase's family were thrown into a panic when they discovered that a youngster, two years old, had gotten hold of some fly poison and drank a quantity of it. A physician hastily summoned gave medical treatment, and the little fellow bids fair to pull through all right. The call, however, was too close for comfort.

Miss Louise Koenekamp has returned home with her sister-in-law, of Washington, Kans., arrived Saturday for a week's visit.

There were a number of bidders present Monday to bid on the construction of the electric light plant, but the council saw fit to delay the letting until next Friday.

Our chautauqua commences next week and everything is in readiness for it. Will you be there?

County Attorney Klinker was down from Denison Monday on official business.

Mrs. Charles Horn and children returned to their home at Omaha Sunday after a week's visit here with relatives.

Mrs. W. K. Johnston, of Cordova, Ill., has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. M. H. Blanding, the past week.

turned to her home at Denison after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Best.

S. A. Dow and Harry Huntington were in Woodbine Sunday.

Mrs. Leslie Poitevin was hostess to the Priscilla club last Thursday. The ladies were invited out to 12 o'clock dinner and they report an excellent repast and a most enjoyable time.

Fred Coleman took a trip to Omaha Friday.

The work on Herman Lazerus' new house is progressing nicely and will be pushed to completion as soon as possible.

Medford Rudd came Sunday from Wayne, Neb., for a visit with numerous young friends here.

Last Saturday night A. S. Palmer, who lives four miles north of town, tried to do harm to his family while under the influence of liquor. An officer was called to the scene of the trouble and took Mr. Palmer in charge. He was brought to Dow City and placed in the jail. On Monday he was brought before the proper authority, where he plead guilty to the charge against him. He was given a fine, which he promptly paid, together with the costs, after which he returned home in meeker spirits than he came.

Chris Vollerion has employed Jay Baber as helper in the place of Paul Ahrens, who leaves to run the dray business.

Miss Hattie Hargens, of Kimball, S. D., who had been visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Doser, returned to her home last Wednesday.

Gallagher Brothers shipped a car load of cattle to Chicago last Saturday. Will going in charge.

Quite a number of Hayes young people attended the West Side dance Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hannemann and daughter, Glennie, were Manning visitors last Friday.

John Petersen is sporting a new buggy.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Lohrman and son, Willie, were visiting at the John Asmus home Friday.

Tom Meehan was transacting business in Denison last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Sievers and Mrs. Henry Dohse, of West Side, visited at the Herman Jahn home Monday.

Louie Lohrman was a Denison business visitor last Saturday.

Hans and Hattie Voss visited their brother, Carl, and wife last Sunday.

Raymond Smith, of Kansas City, visited last week at the Fred Fitzsimons home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Whiting and children attended chautauqua in Denison Sunday.

Mary and Vincent Launderville Sunday at the Pat Bieme home.

Mrs. Mary Slater and Mrs. George Slater and children visited at the W. H. Brockelsby home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cousins and Miss Allie Brockelsby attended the chautauqua in Denison Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Osterlund spent Sunday at the Rob Hawley home.

Mrs. Kate Gorman returned to her home in Kansas City Saturday after a three months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Launderville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brockelsby had a family reunion Sunday. All of the children and grandchildren were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brockelsby and children, of Atlantic, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. R. Brockelsby and children, of Vail; Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brockelsby, of Manilla, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsie Brockelsby, of Hayes.

Pat Gallagher, wife and son, LeRoy, Sundayed at the Rob Hawley home.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Store news—Read the ads in the Denison Review.

MANILLA ITEMS.

Miss Hazel Barrow spent the past week at the Tixel home in Denison and also attended the chautauqua.

Arley Saunders left on a two weeks' vacation Sunday for Ainsworth, Neb., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Rae Grimes.

Mrs. Lute Tillet, of Goodwin, S. D., an old-time resident of this place, is visiting her brother, C. H. Crakes.

D. P. Robertson, W. S. Moore and Henry John transacted business in Denison Wednesday.

The Manilla Commercial club are planning for a corn show to be held some time in September.

The Milwaukee railroad now has men at work on the new coal chutes. This will be a great improvement, and when completed will cost about $25,000.

Your scribe spent the past week at Vail at the Dan Robertson home, and also took in the chautauqua at Denison Friday.

Misses Gladys Leitner and Hattie Morris left last Friday for Sioux City, after a few days' vacation spent with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Buffington.

Roger McMahon and Tom Carey left Thursday for Denison to attend the funeral of John Meehan, who passed away the past week.

Misses Cassie Sowles, Marie and Ellen Palmer spent Wednesday in Denison and also took in the chautauqua.

D. P. Robertson and son, Marvin, spent a few days the latter part of last week in Grant Center fishing on the Little Sioux.

Miss Clara Landorf accepted a position with the Park hotel Tuesday.

Wm. Brockelsby transacted business in Denison Saturday.

Ale Bliven, who was called to Omaha a week ago, returned home the past week.

Miss Lydia Otto, who has been visiting at the Wm. Otto home here, returned to her home in Denison the past week.

Jas. Robertson, of Vail, was a Manilla visitor Saturday.

Miss Lottie Vennick, who has been spending her vacation at Aberdeen, S. D., returned home the past week and will resume her telephone duties.

Mrs. J. P. Barber left Friday for Sioux City for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Calvin and son, Russell, left Wednesday for Vermont, where they will make a short visit with the former's mother.

Mrs. B. H. Winey returned home the past week from Irvindale, where she has been visiting her sisters.

Misses Erma and Matilda Grief left Saturday for Dallas Center for a visit with their aunt.

Miss Ruth Hayes returned Thursday evening from Audubon, where she had been visiting with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ale Milligan spent Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hayes.

The Ladies' Aid society met on Wednesday afternoon in the city school room.

Miss Pearl Sutor returned home Sunday evening from Denison after a week's visit with her aunt.

O. L. Potter and son transacted business in Manning Thursday.

Miss Gotsche, of Coon Rapids, visited the past week at the L. L. Bliven home.

Henry and Arthur Miller, of Grant Center, spent the latter part of the week with their sister, Miss Mata Miller.

Arthur Barrow transacted business in Omaha Wednesday.

BOVER ITEMS.

The Misses Nelson and Fleming attended the chautauqua at Denison on Thursday.

Studebaker

So Simple Anyone Can Run It

No need of a mechanic to take care of the Studebaker "20." No need of a chauffeur. You or your wife can run it as easily as an expert.

Simplicity of operation and control, added to the light running and easy riding qualities of Studebaker cars are the delight of their 75,000 owners.

The Studebaker (Flanders) "20" is equal in quality of material and workmanship to any car made, and its low price and low upkeep cost puts it within your reach.

We know the quality of our cars because every part is made in our own plants and guarantees to us what we guarantee to you. The Studebaker name, too, means service after you buy.

Ready for immediate delivery.

The $800 Studebaker (Flanders) "20"
Price, Standard Equipped, $800 f. o. b. Detroit. Equipped as above, with Top, Windshield, Prest-O-Lite Tank and Speedometer, $885.

Ask our dealer for the new Studebaker art catalogue or send to us for it

The Studebaker Corporation Detroit, Michigan

Denison Auto Co.

Phone 535 Denison, Iowa.

Lake, and friend, Mrs. Peterson, of Nebraska, spent Sunday at the C. J. Anderson home.

Chas. Dobbett returned home from Sioux City this week with a three passenger Ford car, which he purchased of the Iverson-Johnson Auto company.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson visited her friend, Miss Ida Moline, at Odebolt over Sunday.

Those in attendance at the chautauqua from this place were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Newcom, Mrs. Frank Dozark, James Fleming and sisters, Mary and Nellie.

Mr. Seth Anderson came home from Odebolt Sunday for a visit.

Miss Stiener, of West Side, visited her friend, Miss Jessie Fleming, for a few days this week.

Mrs. Gust Peterson and daughter stopped at Doyce Thursday on their way to Denison.

Miss Evelyn Johnson went to Kiron Friday to visit her grandparents over Sunday.

Lewis Erickson and Miss Nellie Nelson went to Odebolt Tuesday, where they attended chautauqua and visited at the home of C. M. Graham.

Mrs. Andrew Dozark and son, Loyd, and Mrs. Frank Corn and children, Naomi and Albert, attended the chautauqua at Denison Thursday and visited at the C. P. Lorenzen home.

David Anderson and sisters, Tilda, Emma and Elizabeth, spent Tuesday in Odebolt, where they attended the chautauqua.

Mrs. Julia Nelson and daughters, Edna and Tina, are expected home from their trip in the east this week.

Joe Anderson attended chautauqua at Odebolt Tuesday.

Misses Alice and Anna Kulberg went to Lunyon last week to visit with relatives and friends for some time.

Herman Beckley and Miss Naomi Beltz spent Sunday at the Beckley home.

Homer and Earnest Kulberg and sisters, Alice and Anna, an cousin, Alta, attended chautauqua at Odebolt Tuesday.

John Bornhoft was a caller in Jackson Tuesday.

George Foley was calling on relatives and friends in our neighborhood Tuesday.

S. J. Jans sold fourteen head of steers to John Bornhoft, Sr. Tuesday, receiving the top price.

Dr. Patterson called at the Charles O'Donnell home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bahr are the proud parents of a baby girl, born on Wednesday.

Tom Dixon rented the Pat Sheridan farm in Jackson township for the next season.

Detlef Brotherson called at the Wm. Dettbarn and Fred Rickers homes on Thursday.

Two sisters of Mrs. Robert Hannah are visiting at her home this week.

Mrs. John Anton is expecting her father and mother for a visit this week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Dohse Wednesday, but passed away the same day. We extend sympathy to the sorrowing parents in their hour of sorrow.

Hans Wilkens and Henry Clausen shipped cattle to Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mau, of Holstein, attended the funeral of his brother, Fred, Sunday.

Ben Doldt and sister, Lena, spent Sunday at Lake View.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Joens called at the John Koch home Sunday.

John Kernman spent Sunday with his friend, Wm. Kealy.

Lew Kerrigan has gone to South Dakota to run a threshing machine.

Wm. Rickers called at the Julius Dreessen home Saturday.

While in Wall Lake last Sunday we had the pleasure of meeting our former neighbor, Fred Schroeder.

Geo. Koch will assist Julius Jans with his farm work this fall.

Herman Scheldorf was calling on relatives in West Jackson Sunday.

Try a want ad. In these columns.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Reo Garage

113 E. TREMONT STREET
Office Up Stairs Next to Bulletin Office

TELEPHONE No. 390, Denison, Ia.

Allen Dudley & Co.

Live Stock Commission Merchants.....

High Sellers of all kinds of Live Stock.

TRY US

235-237 Exchange Bldg. South Omaha, Neb. Both Phones - No. 132

Cure Your Sick Chickens

Get one ounce of Asceptazone at your druggist's and dissolve it in one gallon of warm water. Give a tablespoonful of this solution in each quart of drinking water. Asceptazone will cure and prevent cholera, bowel trouble, roup, colds and canker.

The time is arriving when you will wish to let purchasers know what you have for sale. REMEMBER The Review is the best medium through which to make your wants known. The kind of people you want to sell to are the kind of readers we reach. Call, write or phone your order. ::

Breeders of FINE HORSES FINE CATTLE FINE HOGS FINE SHEEP FINE POULTRY Attention!!!

8-34E