HIGH SCHOOL DECLAMATORY TEST

To Be Held at Opera House Friday Evening of This Week—An Interesting Program.

WINNER TO REPRESENT DENISON

Twelve Schools in District Contest—Superintendent Fellows Acts as Judge at Gliddent Contest

On Friday evening of this week the high school declamatory contest will be held at the opera house, beginning at 8 o'clock. There should be a large attendance at this contest to help the boys and girls win through the series that finally lands one of them in the state declamatory contest. It is a great thing for a boy or a girl to be able to stand before an audience and speak, and this work should be given the greatest possible encouragement. The winner of Friday evening's contest will represent Denison in the sub-district contest in competition with eleven other schools for a place on the program of the district contest.

For two years in succession the Denison high school has been represented in the state contest and last year missed winning first place by a very narrow margin. In order to make it easy for all to attend the contest will be held in the opera house and an admission charge of twenty-five cents will be made to help defray the expenses of the winner to the district contest.

Superintendent Fellows was at Gliddent Friday evening, acting as a judge in their home contest. He reports that they had a seventy dollar house. Will Denison do as well?

We print below a list of the speakers and of their selections:

The usual Friday evening service at the Episcopal church will be dispensed with for this week, but Rev. Buxton will conduct the usual Sunday service at 10:30.

On Tuesday Rev. J. Jas. DePree performed the marriage ceremony that united Mr Herbert Dallas Scott and Miss Esther Caroline Wacker in marriage. The couple will be at home on a farm near Woodbine.

J. V. Barborka and son, Clifford, will render an instrumental duet and Clifford a cello solo on next Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. On the Sunday evening following there will be an instrumental and vocal concert at the church.

The cantata given by the Methodist choir on Friday evening a week ago was repeated at the church on Sunday night, there being a good attendance. The same performers took part as on the former occasion, and with equal merit. These musical numbers are popular and should be given oftener than they are. Denison has a great deal of musical talent and we are pleased to note a demand on the part of our people for more frequent musical entertainments.

SOCIAL NOTES.

On Tuesday evening the Misses Strahan and Miss Effie Norris gave a Kensington at the Strahan home. The guest list included the teachers and a few special friends. After a delightful evening devoted to fancy work, delicious refreshments were served.

The Eastern Stars met in special session Tuesday evening for initiatory work and election of officers. The election resulted as follows: W. M., Mrs. Boylan; A. M., Mrs. S. G. Wright; W. P., Mr. Terry; Secretary, Miss Edith Staley; Treasurer, Mrs. Rohwer; Con., Mrs. Kemp; Associate Con., Mrs. Robinson.

On Friday evening twelve of the high school girls surprised their classmates, Miss Emma Giss, by calling at her home and having a good old fashioned candy pull. The occasion was the birthday of the honored Miss and the young girls presented her with a high school pennant as a reminder of the pleasant occasion.

Mrs. Lulu Woodruff was hostess to the Penelope club and a number of special friends on Tuesday. A delightful afternoon was enjoyed in this pleasant home, which has lately been remodeled and made modern in every respect. Very elegant refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. S. G. Wright.

The high school football boys gave a fine banquet at the Carnegie club room Friday night. A very fine menu was served by Mrs. Staley and the evening devoted to games and music. Mrs. Rohwer entertained the German Priscilla club in a very delightful manner last Tuesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the session.

Mrs. P. J. Farrelly was hostess to the Coterie club and a number of special friends Thursday afternoon. It is customary with the club to exchange Christmas gifts at the meeting before the holidays and on this occasion the gifts were all toys. The pretty home was turned into a veritable toy shop and the grown-up youngsters made more noise with their whistles and horns than any boy or girl ever dared to inside the house. Each guest was presented with a beautiful rose carefully done up in a holly box. A very pretty idea much appreciated and enjoyed by the recipients. A very elegant two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Haugh and Mrs. Houlihan.

The Current Events club will again have a Christmas tree and entertainment for the children. The friends of the club are generous with their gifts and this year's tree will be as beautiful as those of past years, which have made for the Current Events club a place in the hearts of so many little folks. It is good to have one day in the year to loosen up our hearts and rejoice with the children. The hour set is 3:30 on Christmas afternoon, and it will be a time long remembered by those present.

In honor of her birthday, Mrs. Burmeister entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent pleasantly in conversation and at the close the ladies were invited into the beautiful dining room, where Mrs. Burmeister, assisted by her daughter, Tillie, served an elaborate luncheon. MANILLA ITEMS.

Mrs. Brockelsby, of Vail, visited her son, W. H. Brockelsby, the past week. Dr. Weber's father, of Neola, paid him a visit a couple of days last week. C. G. Saunders, of Council Bluffs, visited his brother, R. C. Saunders, last Thursday.

Miss LaRoyce Dempster went to Omaha Friday for a short visit. Thursday we wrote the date 12-12-12. A sequence like that will not happen for almost one hundred years.

Mr. John Vennink went to Sioux City Saturday to spend a few days with his brother and attend the poultry show which was being held there. Rev. E. J. G. Reid, of Stelle, N. D., came Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. Reid, and his sister, Mrs. Wier. Mrs. Reid expects to return with her son for a visit of several weeks.

The third annual corn and poultry show of last Wednesday and Thursday was a great success. The exhibits by far surpassed those of last year. The Commercial club and all who had a hand in helping it along deserve considerable credit for the effort put forth which made this event the best of its kind ever held in Crawford county.

Mrs. Dougherty, who lives in the northeast part of town, is very sick. Her daughter, who lives in Nebraska, is expected today.

W. O. Brown visited with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Ivey, the past week. Mrs. Jessie Johnson's sister, Miss Agnes Marsh, of Russellville, Ark., arrived Saturday for an extended visit with her sister.

Christmas is almost here, bringing with it the usual good cheer. The event that took place many, many years ago and made Christmas day sacred and honored by all returns again to cause us to pause in our everyday life and give a thought to the people and world around us, in a way that we do not any other day of the year. That "good will" toward those about us seems to stand out clear and distinct and we wonder how many times we have forgotten or remembered its meaning. Christmas time means the gathering of children home, a pleasant fireside reunion and by Christmas card or other tokens reminding those far away that some one thought of them and above all these the joy of helping someone else less fortunate than ourselves. All this cannot help but give us an inspiration toward a better life, a higher plane of thinking and a better way of living.
