

A Human Match Factory

The body contains phosphorus sufficient to make 483,000 matches. Phosphorus is one of fourteen elements composing the body—divided among bones, flesh, nervous system and other organs. The perfect health of body requires a perfect balance of the elements. These elements come from the food we eat—the stomach extracts and distributes them.

But if stomach is deranged—the balance of health is destroyed and the blood does not carry the proper elements to the different organs, and there is blood trouble—nerve trouble—heart trouble. Pain is the hungry cry of starved organs. Put the liver, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health. That is just what is done by Horace Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shives were in town last Tuesday.

Mrs. Ann Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winans took dinner last Sunday at the J. M. Childress home. Mrs. Turner then went home with her niece Mrs. Lloyd Winans, and stayed over night, returning home the next morning.

It was with deep regret the many relatives and friends learned by dispatch last Wednesday of the death of Wm. H. Cose, familiarly known as "Bid" Cose, of Osage, Kans., on Tuesday, December 17th. His brother, C. J. Cose, of Sac City, had just been to see him and his wife's father, J. M. Childress, was there and returned home when the family and Mrs. Elsie Ruckstep and little boy, a sister of Mrs. W. H. Cose, accompanied the remains to Deloit for the funeral and interment in the Deloit cemetery. The pall bearers were Woodmen, the deceased being a member of that order. The family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Several from here attended the wedding of Miss Mabel Shives and Mr. J. Yankey at the home of her parents Wednesday evening. We wish them a long, happy wedded life and prosperity.

Elder C. J. Hunt returned home from Cherokee last Wednesday for a few days' stay.

N. E. Brogden came home from Omaha last Wednesday, his wife returning Friday.

Miss Blanche Taylor spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Bessie Cose.

Mrs. J. D. Newcom was in town Wednesday. Mrs. Pitcher, of Denison, visited at her home a part of last week.

Mrs. F. A. True was at Council Bluffs the first of last week.

Miss Mina Landon went to Laurel, Neb., last week for an indefinite stay.

C. J. Cose and wife, of Sac City, came down Thursday evening to attend the funeral of his brother, W. H. Cose.

Mrs. Mary J. Newcom, of Bonesteel S. D., came Friday morning to attend the funeral of her brother, W. H. Cose. She will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Mae Winans, until after Christmas.

There was a very large crowd gathered at the M. E. church to pay their last respects to their friend and neighbor, W. H. Cose, Friday afternoon.

A splendid program was rendered before a crowded house Friday evening by the pupils of each room of our school. It would be better if such programs appeared oftener. A hearty laugh cheers and lightens up the gloom.

Mrs. W. H. Cose and her little son and daughter and her sister, Mrs. Perry Huckstep, and little son will remain until after Christmas with relatives.

William Henry Cose was born Nov. 81, 1872, near Deloit, Iowa, and died Dec. 17, 1912, at his home near Osage City, Kans., being 40 years and 29 days old. He was married Nov. 6, 1898, to Mattie Childress at her home near Deloit, and to this union were born two children, Virgil Ardath, age 10 years, and Alton Victor, aged 8 years, who, with their mother, are left to mourn the untimely loss of a loving father and husband. Besides these are an aged father, two sisters, three brothers and numerous friends. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Deloit Friday at 2:30 p. m., and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. L. Eddy. Mr. Cose has
