

Additional Local

Joseph Duffy, of Vail, was a county seat visitor Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Chas. Bollen will entertain the Coterie club on Thursday afternoon.

The Misses Josie and Mae Fisher spent last week with relatives at Dow City.

Miss Jesse Kelsey, of Missouri Valley, visited her friend, Mrs. Anna Fisher, last week.

Catherine and Lucile Lynch, of Dubuque, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. P. J. Farrelly, in Denison.

The Misses Gertrude and Jennie Fitzpatrick are spending this week with their sister, Mrs. M. J. Conway.

John Heffernan, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past month, left for his home at Doland, S. D., Monday.

Mrs. E. L. Crippen is reported to be dangerously ill at her home on Chestnut street. Grave fears are entertained for her recovery.

Earnest Baak, Frank Passick, Herman Schneekloth, Peter Bruhn and Fred Eck motored down from Ricketts Tuesday and spent the day in Denison transacting business.

Miss Clara Scriver has returned from Lincoln, Neb., where she has finished her school work at the State university. She intends to return to Lincoln in June to take part in the commencement exercises and receive her diploma. We understand that she will return to Aberdeen with her sister, Mrs. R. F. Romans, for an extended visit.

The Vail letter will be greatly missed in this issue of the Review, due to the fact that M. J. Keane, father of our correspondent, Miss Marie Keane, passed away on Wednesday, February 12th. Miss Keane has been very loyal to the Review and her letters have been greatly appreciated, not only by the publishers, but the reading public in general. The letters will be taken up as usual with the next issue.

Fred Richards will open up a barber shop in the Hotel Denison, recently vacated by the Ackley Brothers, who are now located in their former place under the Magnet pool hall. Mr. Richards was in Omaha the fore part of the week and purchased the furnishings for the new shop and expects to have them here some time this week. Fred is a good barber and no doubt will have a good trade at the Hotel Denison.

On Monday evening of next week the illustrated lecture on the Forests and Conservation of Forests of the United States, which has been secured by the D. A. R., will be repeated at the high school building. While this lecture is given particularly for the students of the high school and of the college, all who are interested are invited. Small children are requested not to come unless accompanied by parents or some other adult person.

News comes from Des Moines that Miss Eunice Meyers, who will graduate from the kindergarten department of Drake university this summer, has been assigned for practice teaching in the Lincoln building, where Miss Belle Marshall has the kindergarten work in charge. The Lincoln building is located among the foreign population and these two Denison teachers have many funny experiences with the little tots, dressed as they are according to the tastes of their European mothers.

During the past three weeks the Review has furnished stock catalogues to A. D. Jones, Raymond E. Brown and John F. Holst, and will issue another this week for Messrs. Weberg and Hunt. The catalogues are being printed upon a highly callandered paper with heavy enamel cover, the latter being in colors. Breeders of thoroughbred stock are relying upon the Review for good catalogue work and advertising matter. The Review has printed double the number of sale bills this season of any office in the county and has yet the first complaint to hear. The output from the Review job rooms the past year far exceeded any previous year by far, and the indications for this year's business are very gratifying. A representative of one of the leading type foundries is expected tomorrow, when an order for entire new job type will be placed.

Good Roads Meeting.

A meeting of the different township trustees and road supervisors of Crawford county is being held at the court house today. There are seventy-six trustees and supervisors present, called by the county supervisors, under the state law, and all seem much interested in the questions under discussion. Talks on good roads, best methods of building them; King dragging and grading; how horses should be worked to best advantage, etc., are being discussed. There are a number of experts present and the meeting promises good results. Mention in detail will be made in our next issue.

MRS. EARL BARRETT

Dies Suddenly at Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. Ed Maloney, of Muskogee, Okla., Last Friday.

Mrs. Earl Barrett, for a number of years a resident of this city, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Maloney, in Muskogee, Okla., on last Friday, the immediate cause of her death being due to blood poisoning.

The remains were brought to Denison the fore part of the week and funeral services were held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, C. C. Kemming officiating, after which the body was laid to rest in Oakland cemetery beside that of her husband, who departed this life a number of years ago.

Mrs. Barrett was a woman in the sixties and was well known to a number of people in Denison and vicinity, who were grieved to learn of her sudden death. She leaves to mourn her death three children, namely: Frank Barrett, of near Denison; Kate, wife of Edward Maloney, of Muskogee, Okla., and Edith Barrett, of Auburn, Iowa.

SISTERS ENTERTAIN KNIGHTS.

Knights of Pythias of Manilla Are the Guests at the Annual Banquet Given by Pythian Sisters.

Manilla, Feb. 17—(Special to The Review)—On Wednesday evening the Knights of Pythias were entertained in Castle hall by the Pythian Sisters at the annual banquet. Occurring on Lincoln's birthday the decorations were the national colors and smilax.

The dining room was a thing of beauty. The tables were set in the form of a maltese cross and the center piece was a miniature log cabin.

Promptly at 6:30 the guests were seated at the tables which fairly groaned with the good things for which the Pythian Sisters are noted for serving.

After dinner the members and the guests adjourned to the assembly hall where a most excellent program was given, consisting of music by a three-piece orchestra composed of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Liggett and Mrs. Molinda, a vocal solo by Mrs. Will White, a piano solo by Anna Brown and one by Edna Smith, a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCracken, a reading by Miss Marie Palmer and toasts by C. A. Sykes, F. L. VanSlyke, Rev. A. M. McClintosh, C. M. Krogh and Rev. R. R. Moser.

After the program the remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and at a late hour all departed for their homes. About ninety members and guests were present.

DEATH CHEATS THE ALTAR.

Miss Elsie Samuelson, Bride-to-be, Dies Within a Week of Her Wedding Day.

Charter Oak, Feb. 17—(Special to The Review)—The funeral of Miss Elsie Samuelson was held today just a week before the day she was to have been married. It is the second death in her family within a week and two other members of the family are still sick. Miss Samuelson was to have been married February 23d to Robert Turner.

MANY RELATIVES MOURN.

of his death. No man in the community was better advised on public affairs than was Mr. Keane and it was always a pleasure to meet him and to listen to his discussion of public matters. He was a democrat in politics, but was liberal enough in his views and criticisms to recognize the good in other parties as well as his own. In the discharge of his duties in public office he was regarded as eminently fair and just.

Funeral services were held on Friday last at 10 o'clock from St. Ann's church, when a solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Peter Murphy. After mass Rev. Jas. Murphy delivered an impressive and consoling sermon and eulogized many of the lovable qualities of the deceased and in which he expressed not only his own deep sorrow, but that of the entire community.

The pall bearers were: M. R. McGrath, Thomas Hickey, E. J. Ryan, George Dieter, J. Murphy and Thomas Ratchford. As an expression of the respect in which the deceased was held, all of the business houses in Vail were closed during the funeral services. The body was laid to rest in St. Ann's cemetery immediately after the funeral service.

There were so many of the relatives and friends of the deceased living at a distance who attended the funeral that it would be impossible to mention all of their names. His brothers, Mert, of Alliance, and John, of Hartington, were both present and a delegation of fifty or more of the friends and admirers of the deceased from Denison attended the funeral.

M. J. Keane, Died February 12, 1913

SOCIAL NOTES.

The H. H. club met at the club room on Thursday evening for a pleasant session. Miss Hall was chairman for the evening and a fine supper was served.

A very delightful valentine party was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. B. Thompson. Everything was suggestive of valentines. Several clever games were indulged in and the ladies proved themselves expert at shooting arrows at cupids which the clever hostess had arranged for the sport. Very elegant refreshments were also served and the party was a social triumph for the charming hostess.

The Friday club guest night proved to be a grand success, being a literary treat in every sense. Mr. Hardy, of Northwestern university, gave an interpretation of Ibsen's "Doll House," which was delightful and instructive.

The college chapel, which Professor VanNess so kindly tendered the club for the occasion, was well filled with a representative audience of cultured people and the attention given the clever artist attested the delight of his hearers. A beautiful piano duet by the Misses Hazel Laub and Rena Senseney was much enjoyed, while Mrs. McConaughy delighted all with her sweet singing and Mrs. R. B. Thompson entertained the audience with a beautiful piano solo.

Mrs. M. E. Jones entertained the Sunday school classes of Mrs. M. E. Jones and Mrs. Plimpton with her own Friday evening at a very lovely valentine party. The house was decorated with red hearts and the evening much enjoyed by the boys and girls, who played all sorts of games. The hostess served very lovely refreshments.

The D. A. R.'s will celebrate Washington's birthday on Saturday evening, when all anticipate a grand good time.

Mrs. Sears McHenry entertained the Penelope club on Tuesday afternoon in a very charming manner. A number of guests added much to the enjoyment of the afternoon. Very delicious refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

Trinity Guild will hold a tea room on Wednesday afternoon, February 26th, at the home of Mrs. O. A. Patterson. These teas are very popular. Every one is invited and the ladies hope for a large crowd to enjoy the sociability and swell the treasury.

On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Theodore Benecke and Miss Ella Buesing were united in marriage by Rev. Benecke, of Sioux City, who is an uncle of the groom. The bride, who is a very attractive young woman, was gown in a hand embroidered white dress and was attended by her sister. Mr. Oscar Benecke attended his brother. It was a beautiful, quiet wedding, attended only by the immediate relatives. The happy couple left on the evening train for Minneapolis and other points and will make their home in Denison on their return. Many admiring friends wish them much happiness.

There was a joint meeting of the literary societies of the college Tuesday evening. With the brilliant talent connected with these societies a strong program was given.

Marriage Licenses.

Below we print the list of the marriage licenses issued by the county clerk since the last issue of this paper:

- Feb. 13: Fred C. Peters and Emma Blunk.
- Feb. 14: Theo. T. Benecke and Ella A. Buesing; Otto Clausen and Martha Henning.
- Feb. 15: Frank Marquardt and Minnie Ploog; H. J. Thiesen and Hulda D. Lueth.
- Feb. 17: Diedrich C. Engelking and Hilda A. Paulsen; Asmus C. Hollander and Emma Kahl.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The basket social given at the college Wednesday evening, February 12th, for the benefit of the athletic association, was a success in every way. Under the management of the Booster club it was made one round of pleasure from beginning to end. The fore part of the evening was devoted to a mock short course, which afforded a great deal of amusement. The girls had brought a large number of beautiful, well filled baskets, and at about 9:30, with Will Maneman and Prof. R. G. Catron as auctioneers, the sale was begun. The boys bid readily and the boxes were soon sold, netting $50.60. Another merry hour was spent in eating and chatting, after which all returned to their homes reporting a good time.

Come to the college chapel Friday, February 28th, and see Ted Ralston teach the bashful lover how to make love. The basket ball girls of the college played the north brick girls' team on Friday evening at the city hall. The score ended in favor of the college girls.

Who's the "Man from Arizona?" Come to the college chapel February 28th and find out.

See the "Box of Monkeys" at the college chapel Friday, February 28th. Owing to sickness the Misses Gotter and Girard and M. O. Johnson are unable to attend classes this week. These people have parts in the farces which were to have been given this Friday evening. However, the farces have been postponed one week.

Prof. Clarion Hardy, a former student and graduate of D. N. C., but who is now a professor in the department of english and oratory at Northwestern university, favored the students and faculty with a very helpful and interesting address at chapel Friday morning. Mr. Hardy is a forceful speaker and it is a pleasure to know that his career as an orator was begun at D. N. C.

The plays, "The Man from Arizona" and "The Box of Monkeys," and the drill by the physical culture class are nearing perfection and will be given at the college chapel Friday, February 28th. The proceeds are to be given to the athletic association. Everybody come. Admission 25c.

AGED MANILLA WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. Mary A. McCracken Dies at the Home of Her Daughter, at the Age of 90 Years.

Manilla, Feb. 15—(Special to The Review)—Mrs. Mary A. McCracken, one of the faithful members of the Methodist Episcopal church, passed away on Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. D. Brokaw, of this city.

Mrs. McCracken had been in declining health for the past fifteen years, and for the last year had been almost helpless. Mary A. Williams was born in Columbus, O., Dec. 22, 1822. She was united in marriage to James W. McCracken Feb. 5, 1845. This happy union was blessed with five children. They were: Alice J. Brokaw, Walter J., William J., John E., and James E. McCracken. Walter J. departed this life April 5, 1912. Mr. McCracken died Oct. 5, 1877, at Chesterville, O., and the next year Mrs. McCracken came here and has for the past years made her home with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brokaw.

The funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brokaw, Rev. R. R. Moser officiating. Interment was made in the Nishnabotny cemetery beside her son, Walter.

If some men were compelled to pay as they go they would never get started.

K. OF C. MEET AT DUNLAP.

Four Hundred Attend the Big Banquet Given in the Opera House by Members of the Order.

Dunlap, Feb. 17—(Special to The Review)—Sunday was a red letter day for Dunlap Knights of Columbus. Large delegations arrived in the morning on all trains. At 10 o'clock the order, in a body, attended mass at St. Patrick's church. At 12:30 the work of the lodge was begun at the Masonic temple and continued until 7 p. m. Fifty-two in all were initiated, all residents here, except six from Missouri Valley. The work in the first and second degrees was conducted by the Council Bluffs team, the third degree being given by J. J. Myers, of Carroll, assisted by the Sioux City team.

In the evening a sumptuous banquet was served at the opera house by the ladies of the St. Patrick church. It is estimated that over 400 were in attendance, 150 of them from out of town. The address of welcome was given by Father Hansen. E. W. Houston, in his usual happy manner, acted as toastmaster. Ed always makes good in a place of this kind. P. E. C. Lally, of Denison, Maurice O'Connor, of Vail, and Father O'Neil, of Council Bluffs, responded in a pleasing manner to toasts. J. B. O'Keefe, of Sioux City, added to the interest of the occasion by a few remarks of a humorous nature. The occasion is one long to be remembered by the members of the local lodge, as well as by the visitors in attendance.

Opperman Funeral.

Manilla, Feb. 18—(Special to The Review)—Miss Hannah Opperman, who died here Friday morning of injuries received in an auto accident of Wednesday, was born in Manning in 1894, and died on February 14th, being 18 years, 5 months and 28 days old. She moved with her parents from Manning to Manilla some five years ago and has since made her home here. Her remains were moved from the home of Lester Hayes, where she died, to her home here in town on Friday.

She leaves a mother and father, three sisters and one brother to mourn her untimely death. The funeral was held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Lutheran Trinity church, Rev. Wendt conducting the services. Interment was made in the Manilla cemetery.

Capt. Robert F. Scott and some of the members of his exploration party were overwhelmed by a blizzard on the return from a journey to the south pole and he and all of the men with him lost their lives. The records found with the bodies by a rescue party showed that Captain Scott and his men had reached the south pole Jan. 18, 1912, and found there the hut and the Norwegian flag left by Captain Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, Dec. 17, 1911. Captain Scott and his party sailed from England June 10, 1910, for New Zealand. The vessel, Terra Nova, in which they sailed, returned to New Zealand, March 31, 1912, bringing with it a report from Captain Scott, dated Jan. 3, 1912, and stating that he had reached a point 150 miles from the pole and was advancing toward his destination. It was planned that he and his men would stay in the polar region during the winter to make further observations. The party was one of the best equipped ever engaged in polar exploration and the news of the death of the commander and some of his men is a great shock to men of science and the public generally.
