Alfred Rohwer returned to Denison last evening from Clovis, N. M., where he has been working for the Santa Fe railroad. He expects to remain in Denison and visit his parents for about a month. John Shaw Van is also connected with the Santa Fe at Clovis, in the capacity of claim agent, and is getting along nicely.

Miss Amelia Haskins left Monday for Milford, where she has accepted a position as stenographer in the First National bank. Miss Haskins was formerly an employe of the Crawford County Telephone company and later studied stenography at the Denison Normal and Business college and no doubt will prove a competent stenographer.

Miss Grace Schlumberger has been re-elected by the school board of Vail to teach music for the coming year at the school at that place. Vail is indeed fortunate to secure a teacher of music who is so thoroughly capable and do doubt it is because her work has been so satisfactory there in the past that she was employed for the coming year.

Fourteen students are taking the high school normal examination at the county superintendent's office in the court house today. The normal course in high schools covers a period of two years and students who pass the examinations are given a license to teach in the county for two years, and if their work proves satisfactory they are given a certificate of the same grade.

The popcorn booth, which caused so much comment, has been moved from the corner of Broadway and Main to the vacant lot just east of the Baptist church. Since the warm weather the popcorn machine can be wheeled about the streets and now occupies some space on sidewalks of the business district while at night it is housed in the small building which was located near the Chamberlin store.

Mr. Louie Precht and wife left on Tuesday evening for Rochester, Minn., where they went to consult the Mayo brothers in regard to Mrs. Precht's condition. She has been in poor health for some time and has undergone several operations, but as her condition has not improved as rapidly as had been hoped for it was thought best to consult the Mayos in hopes that they might be able to do something for her.

P. E. C. Lally is so much improved in health since his recent operation that he is able to attend to his duties at the law office each day. While he is rapidly regaining strength it will no doubt be several weeks before he completely recovered from the effects of the operation. Denison friends are more than pleased that Mr. Lally is so speedily recovering from such a serious operation and is once more able to be up town looking after his business affairs and greeting friends.

Mr. Theo. Benecke, Sr., teacher of the German Lutheran parochial school has resigned his position here and accepted a position as teacher in a graded school at Marwood, Pa. His resignation will take effect July 1st. He and his family expect to leave Denison the fore part of July for Marwood.

Mrs. W. W. Holmes is reported quite ill at the Swedish hospital in Omaha. She went to Omaha last week for a visit and was just starting to the Geo. Menagh home in North Omaha, when she suffered a breakdown and was immediately taken to the hospital. Her many friends trust for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edith Luney-Cole returned to Denison Saturday evening and will visit during the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Luney. She and her husband have been playing with a large theatrical company in the east, presenting Robert Edison's "Where the Trail Divides," and they have met with great success. The season closed at Buffalo, N. Y.

W. C. Hills, recently of Mapleton, where he edited the Mapleton Press, was a Review caller on Saturday last. Mr. Hills has sold the Press and purchased the Reporter at Dunlap. He is a newspaper man of considerable experience, and will give the people of Dunlap, a good, readable paper and should receive every encouragement from the business men of that place.

The Crawford County Telephone company has issued a new directory, which is being given out to patrons of the company this week. The new directory not only gives the phone numbers, but also contains the addresses of its patrons, both in Denison and the rural routes. The book is a product of the Review office, having been printed and bound in this office.

W. W. Cushman is in receipt of a letter from his daughter, Miss Florence, who is visiting in New York state, in which she tells of an auto trip to a number of the more important cities in the vicinity of her sister's home. In company with her brother-in-law and a graduate from the engineering department of Ames college, they were making an inspection of the public highways. Miss Cushman was much surprised that the reputation of Ames college was such that a graduate from that school stood head and shoulders above other engineers when it came to engineering advice.

LOSES VALUED CORRESPONDENT

Mrs. S. Horr, Who for More Than 20 Years Has Supplied News From Deloit, Resigns.

GOES WEST FOR HER HEALTH

Miss Edith Dobson Has Been Appointed to the Vacancy, and News Service Will Be Continued.

With this issue of the Review Mrs. S. Horr severs her connection with the Review as correspondent at Deloit. For more than twenty years Mrs. Horr has sent letters of interest each week from Deloit and has long been considered an efficient member of the Review's staff. In handing in her resignation, Mrs. Horr says:

"Mr. Horr and I are going to take a vacation this summer a few months to visit our children in South Dakota and Montana, and perhaps other relatives in Oregon. My health has been poor and we hope the rest and change will prove beneficial. It has been nearly 20 years since I began writing the Deloit correspondence for your valuable paper, the Review, and has really become a part of my life, as each Monday forenoon has always been spent writing the Deloit items, and it will seem strange not to accomplish that work each Monday for some time. I have secured Miss Edith Dobson to write up the Deloit news during my absence and she begins with this week's issue for the month of May. I shall always be interested in your paper and hope to read it each week while absent from home. Please send my Review to Cameron, Mont., care Bert Keller, beginning with May 21st issue, until I come back home or notify you further. Mrs. S. Horr."

Word comes from San Diego, Cal., that Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McMahon have located at that place for the summer and have rented apartments in one of the most fashionable apartments in that place.
