

The Boys' Store

Mens Neckwear

"STRIPPED SPINNELA" a new wash fabric woven for summertime scarfs 50c

The Boys' Store

June Sale of Muslinwear Lowest Price Quotations

Corset Covers Made of fine nainsook, yoke trimmed with Valenciennes lace or english eyelet embroidery, run with ribbon, value up to 85c, very special at 45c

Variety of Fine Nainsook Gowns, open front or slip over styles, with high or low necks, trimmed with lace and embroideries, your choice this week 73c

Drawers Made of fine nainsook and trimmed with lace or embroidery, choice 39c

Princess Slips of Fine Nainsook for $1.95

Yokes of embroidery, beading run with fancy wash ribbon, flounce of wide eyelet embroidery, extra underlay. $3.50 value, special $1.95 Other lots at .98c and $1.39

Striped Gingham Petticoats Neat flounce, an exceptional bargain at 25c

Sale of Summer Underwear

Women's Shaped Vests Pants to match, regular and extra size, 35c and 39c values 25c

Mens $1.00 Genuine French Mercerized Balbriggan Shirts and drawers, choice 50c

Mens 50c Ecrú Balbriggan Shirts and drawers, this week at 38c

Boys Porosknit Shirts and Drawers, come in all sizes special at 22c

Mens Famous Porosknit Union Suits, this week 72c

Mens $1.00 Closed Crotch Union Suits, this week 78c

Mens 50c Nainsook Athletic style Shirts and drawers 29c

ing home and also attended League. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Anderson and children spent Sunday at Kiron and Arthur. Mr. Carl Kock, Miss Anna Nissen, Mr. Sam Newcom, Miss Frances Thiede and Mr. Louie Thiede, Miss Lydia Thiede and the Albert Baker family attended the circus in Odebolt Friday. Mr. and Mrs. David Calderwood and son, Seth, of Jackson, attended the M. E. church Sunday.

CHARTER OAK ITEMS.

J. C. Githens spent Sunday with his people at Ottumwa. Clayton Romans is at work again in the Haakinson store, relieving Chas. Turner of the work. Rev. L. Schenkelberg left Monday evening for a three months trip to Europe. He will sail from New York Saturday and expects to visit at Rome and Paris before going to his old home in Germany. Father Wegner, of Mapleton, will say mass here next Sunday and Father Schaffer, of Danbury, the next Sunday. Miss Edith Schelm returned home Wednesday after a months visit with her mother, Ed. at Atlantic. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones, Thursday, a baby boy.

C. A. Mains, who has recently been appointed state bank inspector, spent Sunday with his people in Charter Oak. Miss Fae E. Goin, who has taught in the public school at Rodney for the past two years, returned home Friday evening after another year of successful work there. Father Lynch, of Manila, called on Father Schenkelberg between trains Sunday afternoon. Dr. Shumway has sold his dental business in Charter Oak to J. E. Waterhouse who will soon take possession of it. Dr. Shumway expects to locate at Freeport, Ill., where he will be near his people. Miss Veronica Adams was a Denison caller Thursday returning home Friday afternoon. The Senior class enjoyed a hayrack ride to the Bretthauer home Sunday evening. Halbert Sturges visited at the O. E. Bromson home in Ute Monday. On Monday morning at 10:30 at the home of Rev. Schenkelberg, occurred the marriage of Miss Beulah Crone, of Charter Oak, and Mr. John Henney of Dunlap. They were attended by Miss Alta Mackey of Arion a cousin of the bride, and Mr. Hannigan, of Dunlap. After the ceremony a dainty three course breakfast was served at the Wm. Wilson home and the young couple left immediately for Dunlap. The new home will be made at Hamburg, where Mr. Henney has recently purchased a store. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life. Ed. Branson, of Ute attended the baccalaureate sermon in Charter Oak Sunday evening. The Misses Hilda Hansen, Maylow Richards, Grace Mains and Fred Thomsen autoed to Danbury Thursday evening to attend the commencement exercises at that place. Mrs. A. P. Knight came from her home in Council Bluffs Thursday afternoon to visit friends. Miss Pearle Wilson, of Woodbine is visiting at the Wm. Wilson home in Charter Oak this week.

other seed corn. A complete record will be kept and the field will be watched with interest. Mrs. Hudson Downs was an Omaha visitor last week. Mrs. Marr and Mr. and Mrs. John Blackman and Miss Tina Whited went to Denison to attend the exercises on Memorial day. Mrs. John Furne is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luck. There was a dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deibert Lee last Friday evening. The party was given in honor of Misses Florence and Edna Johnson and was much enjoyed by them and their young friends. Miss Emma Neubaum, LaMotte Galland and Warnie Roberts all have their birthday on May 28th. Mrs. Vogt gave a party for them at the hotel. A large crowd of young people enjoyed themselves dancing. J. N. Lee and son, John, furnished the music. Two men were brought to the county home Saturday. One is suffering with erysipelas. This makes a total of twenty-one persons who are cared for at the county home. Quite a number went from here to Dow City to attend the exercises on Memorial day. Mrs. Motter and Mrs. Stevenson went to Dow City to see the class play Wednesday evening and were much pleased. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bolton came down in the auto Sunday and took her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tripp, for a ride, including Dow City and Denison. Mrs. Motter went to Dow City on Thursday to the graduating exercises. Karl was among the graduates of the Dow City high school, finishing the course with high honors. Frank Howorth's sister, Lulu Howorth, and Mrs. Swasey motored to Arion and called on friends Wednesday evening. Oscar Goodrich was up in Ida county looking for his lost colt, but has found no trace of it yet. Mrs. Frank Marr was completely and happily surprised on the afternoon of May 31st, her twenty-fourth birthday. Several loads of friends and relatives came, bringing a fine lunch with them, and spent a pleasant afternoon. A set of very pretty dishes was given as a remembrance. Mrs. Butler spoke in behalf of the company and Mrs. Marr responded, thanking the friends who had planned the pleasant anniversary party. Arion people are certainly proud of their schools. This is the first year of the independent district and all are satisfied that the schools show great improvement. The church was decorated with potted plants, cut flowers and the class colors, lavender and old gold. There were four graduates, Misses Florence Johnson, Lila Lee and Grace Butler and Foster Kepford. The program was as follows: "Come, Flit Around"—Chorus of Girls. Invocation—Mrs. Bowers. Recitation—LaVanche Butler. Oration, "The Making of Colorado"—Foster Kepford. Oration, "Up From Slavery"—Grace Butler. Essay, "Manual Training"—Coral Argotsinger. Quartet—Messrs. Dan Talcott, O. W. Nelson, W. Remy, N. F. Stilson. Oration, "Pleasures of Life"—Lila Lee. Oration, "Character,"—Florence Johnson. Sextette—Girls Chorus. Address to Class—Prof. Mowrer. Instrumental Solo—Marguerite Mullen. Presentation of Diplomas—L. C. Butler. "Lovely Night"—Girls Chorus. Benediction—Mrs. Bowers. Everyone has spoken in high praise of the music and speaking which were unusually good and reflect much credit upon the efforts of both the teachers and pupils. Both and orations and music showed careful training and the audience realized that the graduates had given much thought to the preparation of their orations. Mrs. Bowers is arranging a Sunday afternoon meeting for the members of the L. T. L., called Flower Mission day. A program will be given by the children in the grove at the county home next Sunday afternoon. The recent wet weather has made a dangerous place in the pasture north of town. A valuable cow belonging to Wm. Kuykendall got down in the mud and died last week and two others were rescued with difficulty. Mrs. Kelly was called to Ralston Saturday on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Kortum. Mrs. Kelly returned Monday with the good news that Mrs. Kortum is now out of danger. Last Wednesday a program was given at the schools. A May pole decorated with ribbons occupied a place in the shade, where a large number of visitors gathered. The following program was rendered: "Revel of the Leaves"—High School A Comparison—Mary Meeves. Duet—Bessie Marr, Grace Butler. Shoemaker's Dance—Primary Room Song, "Anchored"—Intermediate and High School. Winding of the May Pole. This was a very pretty and well prepared program and was much enjoyed by the visitors.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Auen is still quite sick, but we hope he will soon improve. Mr. and Mrs. John Kock called at the John Auen home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gowels, of Lake View, sold their property at Lake View and will move to Arcadia this fall. Mr. and Mrs. John Andresen, of Irwin, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gherkin and Rickey Bruns, of Herring, visited at Arcadia Sunday evening. Julius Jans and Fred Rickers were Vail callers Saturday. A party was given at the Rudolph Rohde home last Saturday evening for the young folks of the neighborhood. Everybody ought to attend the basket social at Herring Saturday, June 7th. A dance will be held in the hall after all the baskets are sold. Herman Buck shipped a couple of loads of fat cattle to Chicago Saturday. Miss Izetta Brunt made a short call at the home of her folks, returning Saturday noon. Miss Lena Lamp is helping her mother with housework. She just returned from a several months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Julius Jans. Broder Bruggen, of Denison, spent a few days in this neighborhood, the guest of Messrs. Brothers and Kock. Laurence Stubbe was doing some road grading with the new grader the fore part of last week. Mrs. Wm. Detbarn and daughter, Mary, and Katie Mau were Denison passengers Wednesday. Corn planting is nearly all done in this neighborhood and some of the first planted corn is being cultivated. The dance for married folks at Arcadia Saturday evening was well attended. Jackson township was well represented. At the township insurance meeting Saturday, May 31st, the following were elected: Julius Dreesen, agent for the next year, and John Kock and Henry Schluter and Fred Rickers delegates to Manning Tuesday, June 3d.

The Misses Marie, Viola and Mabel Houlihan and Myrtle McMahon were Sunday visitors at the Owens home. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Houlihan and family were guests at the C. C. Houlihan home Sunday. Lena, Augusta and Amanda Boger spent Sunday at the Wm. Lentz home. Mae and Nora Collins, of Denison, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. M. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. E. Granger were Sunday visitors at the home of the latter's parents. Maurice and Rob Brosnahan were guests at the Frank Houlihan home Sunday. Emma Boger was a Sunday visitor at the Brown home. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Powell and sons were guests at the T. A. Harvey home Sunday. Fred Kuesel and Frank Lenz spent Saturday evening at the home of the latter's aunt, Miss Lenz, in Denison. Mr. and Mrs. Brian Houlihan were Sunday visitors at the Conroy home. John Bauman spent a few days last week at the home of his brother, Joe Bauman. Nellie Collins spent the week end visiting friends and relatives in Manila. Miss Nella Pollock returned Saturday evening from Mt. Home, Idaho, where she has been teaching the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Ahart came out from Denison last week to spend the summer with their sons on the Lally farm. Emma Schramm spent Sunday with Ella Moeller. Clara and Lottie Lenz were guests at the McCord home Sunday. Eugene Owens spent Saturday evening at the T. J. Flaherty home near Charter Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boger entertained a number of friends and relatives Saturday evening, the occasion being his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Schaffer and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Garreis autoed down from Lake View Wednesday to spend the day with Conrad Schaffer and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Sr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Jr. visited at the Wm. Lueth home near Manila last Wednesday. Alfred Boeck visited over night on Wednesday with his friend, Harry Rath. Mr. and Mrs. John Blunk, of Charter Oak, are visiting at the H. W. Boeck home at present. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Sr. visited at the Wm. Lochmiller home last Tuesday. Mrs. Flinn and son, George, left Tuesday for their home at Sioux City after a pleasant visit at the Tom Giblin home. J. H. Haman and son, Henry, called at the W. F. Heiden home Thursday evening. Miss Laura Marshall closed a very successful school year at district No. 5 last Thursday with a program. She left for her home at Denison that evening, where she will spend her vacation. The box social at district No. 3 last Thursday evening was largely attended, the sale of boxes amounting to $12, which will be used for school purposes. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mordhorst and daughter, Hattie, Sundayed at the Fritz Miller home. School at district No. 9 with Miss Grace Murchland as teacher, closed Thursday with a good program. Miss Clara Connor spent the week end at her home at Denison. Miss Mary Farrelly visited over Sunday with Charter Oak and Rickets friends. Misses Ella and Stella Mordhorst were guests of Manning friends over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Sr. spent Saturday at the L. H. Mundt home. Mr. and Mrs. M. Mumson, from near Deloit, visited at the parental, Fritz Brandenburg, home over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Sr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Jr. and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Heiden Sundayed at the Chas. Heiden home. Howard, Henry and Harry Boeck, Harry Rath, Wilbert Brandenburg, M. Mumson and Wm. Bauer were Sunday visitors at the H. W. Boeck home. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Boeck and Mr. and Mrs. John Blunk were guests of Manning friends Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heiden, Sr. left Monday for a few days' visit at the Fritz Mundt, Sr. home near Manila.

Miss Blanche Fremi spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Pieper. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Breen and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Byrnes were Sunday evening callers in Denison. Miss Lottie Vennink, of Manila, was a visitor at the Josiah Inghram home Saturday. Mrs. Dixon, of Clinton, is visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. J. Pieper and family. Mr. J. R. Robinson and family are the possessors of a splendid new seven passenger touring car, which they seem to be enjoying very much. Two of our popular young people were married last Wednesday at Vail, the parties being Miss Lizzie Hannon and Mr. Herman Kropf. A wedding dance, which was largely attended, was given that evening in the bowery at Deloit. Milford friends extend congratulations. Miss Helen Kral entertained her pupils at her home Saturday afternoon, that being the last day of the term. Dainty refreshments were served and the children report a splendid time.

For Sale. Thoroughbred Shorthorn and Double Standard Polled Durham bulls; these are solid reds and good individuals, guaranteed breeders; pedigrees furnished. Are from good milking cows and have plenty of beef quality. Prices reasonable. Your inspection invited. C. F. Chase, R. F. D. No. 1, Buck Grove, Iowa. Crawford County Phone 30-M. 7-11

Market Report. Wheat82-84c Oats32c Corn48c Butter22c Eggs13c

Adolph Nelson returned last week from Newmans Grove, Ner. where he has been vstnig for the past week.

ARION ITEMS.

Mrs. I. H. Scott and daughter, Eunice, of Creighton, Neb., came to see Lela Lee graduate and are visiting friends in Arion and Dow City. Misses Ferne and Stella Butler went to the G. H. C. club meeting at Mrs. Mart Goddard's Saturday afternoon. N. P. Underhill is up shaking hands with friends! Mr. Underhill always comes from whatever part of the country he may be in to be with his comrades at Dunlap on Decoration day. W. O. Brant, of Ames, is at the county farm, where he has planted twelve acres of ground to corn on the hill near the house. This experimental field will be carefully tended during the summer and will show clearly the advantage to be gained by planting corn that has been tested well and is of good quality in comparison with

MAY 29 TO JUNE 7 BIG CLEARING SALE on all my light and medium weight goods for Merchant Tailored Clothes

An Opportunity to Secure High Class Suits at Less Than Regular Price

Regular $35 quality at $29 Regular $30 quality at $25

Here is a chance to secure a suit made to your measure at a clear saving of $5. Perfect fit and absolute satisfaction guaranteed.

A. B. Reesberg

Studebaker advertisement featuring an illustration of a woman in a Studebaker wagon and text: "Studebaker wagons certainly last a long time". Includes testimonials and contact information for Studebaker in South Bend, Ind.