

VAIL ITEMS.

Miss Pauline Cranny was a Denison visitor Saturday. Miss Ruth Hannah, of Denison, was the guest of Vail friends Sunday. Mrs. Pearsall, of Dow City, visited the first of last week with Vail friends. Miss Margaret Finnegan was an over-Sunday visitor with her folks in Carroll. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hoffman returned Tuesday from a pleasant visit with relatives in Des Moines. Mrs. Keane, daughter, Marie, and son, Ignatius, spent Sunday in the country at the Albert Vernon home. M. L. Houlihan, wife and baby spent Sunday in Carroll at the Frank Fee home. Gail Carey, of Denison, was in Vail on business Saturday. John McGovern was in Omaha on business last week. Mr. Cornish, of Maquoketa, visited here the past week. Chas. Macke came up from Carroll Saturday evening for an over-Sunday visit with friends. Mrs. Watson returned Thursday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Servoss, in Denison. Frank Etzel was in West Side on business Monday. Miss Hanseman was in Denison on business Tuesday. Miss Anna Mae Dillenberger is visiting with relatives at Omaha and Lincoln. Mrs. R. C. Hawley was down from Denison Tuesday calling on friends. Mrs. Anna Flynn and Mrs. A. Leahy, of Denison, spent Sunday with friends in this vicinity. Thos. Tarpay was up from West Side on business one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Boyle returned home last week from Toronto, where they were to attend the funeral of a relative. Mrs. Henry Gronemeyer spent Saturday in Carroll. Her sister, Mrs. Jansen, and two children returned home with her for a visit. Mrs. Chas. McCullough visited in Denison Tuesday with relatives. Mrs. Eugene Murtaugh has been visiting her sister in South Omaha for the past two weeks. Mrs. Frank Pieper and Mrs. Steve Kral were visitors in Denison Tuesday. Alex Hanneman visited his parents in Denison a couple of days last week. Maurice Norton spent last week in Sioux City. Mrs. M. D. O'Reilly and daughter, Mrs. G. B. McAndrews, returned Friday from a visit with relatives in the west. Mrs. W. F. Mannon and daughter, Annie, were visitors on business in Denison Monday. Mrs. Frank Starek and Mrs. A. H. Clark returned Friday night from a pleasant visit with friends at points in Colorado and Nebraska. Henry Hackman was a county seat caller Monday. Chas. Magill and family will soon move to Ross to make that place their future home. Mr. Magill contemplates opening a barber shop in that town. Supervisor Holland was in the county seat Tuesday on business. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Boyer, visited with friends. Mrs. J. R. Murphy and Miss Kate Conway were visitors in Denison between trains Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. A. White visited the first of last week in Council Bluffs with Mr. White's sister, Mrs. L. Arnold, and husband. Mr. Hanneman, of Denison, was calling on Vail friends a few days last week. H. Sulter was a Denison passenger Monday.

Miss Viola Brockelsby spent the fore part of last week in Dow City with friends. Miss Susie Flynn was a guest last week in the P. F. Lynch home in Carroll. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rohen, south of town, are the proud parents of a daughter born Friday, October 17th. A. J. Monaghan was in Omaha last week purchasing a couple of loads of cattle. Mesdames R. Dieter and F. Holland were Denison callers Saturday. Mrs. K. Gorman, of Kansas City, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Launderville, and family the past summer, returned home last week. Dr. Patterson, of West Side, was in this locality professionally last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. George Robinson and children and Mrs. John Duffy were shoppers in Omaha the first of last week. George Servoss was in Carroll on business Monday. Charles Brockelsby and sister, Miss Allie, left last week for Cottonwood, S. D., to visit relatives. Mrs. Chas. Atchinson, of Jefferson, was a guest in the C. E. Bridgeford home last week. Mrs. John Thompson and two sons, of Onawa, spent the first of the week here at the John Thompson home. Mrs. G. E. Dingman has been under the doctor's care the past week, but at this writing is on the road to recovery. Misses Margaret Holland and Nell Harrington were Denison visitors on Saturday. A. H. Clark arrived home Saturday morning from the Carroll hospital, where he has been for the past two months with a bad case of typhoid fever. On Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Palmer, the Ladies' Aid society assembled for a farewell surprise. All enjoyed the evening in conversation and departed at a late hour, wishing the Palmer family much success in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Dingman are enjoying a visit from his mother, who resides at Onawa. Mrs. Anthony O'Connell and granddaughter, Catherine Mitchell, of Wagner, S. D., arrived here last week for a visit with friends and relatives for a few weeks. Emmett Quirk is now acting as helper at the depot here. Miss Mary O'Boyle, of Pleasanton, Iowa, is here for a visit with her many relatives and schoolmates of former days. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reese, of Yutan, Neb., are the happy parents of a baby boy, Carroll Henry. Mrs. Reese was formerly Miss Rookh Lyman of this place. Miss Julia Ryan, of Omaha, visited here with relatives last week. The four months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown died this (Monday) morning, October 20th. The community extends sincere sympathy to the parents in the loss of their little one. Mr. and Mrs. H. Lind were in Denison Saturday on business. Mr. Miles, of Fremont, Neb., visited here last week with relatives. Miss Blanche Hickey was down from Denison over Sunday. Although the leading journalists will be busy reporting the world's series ball games, it would seem as though the household hints writer might be left at home to do the editorials. The Unexpected Happened. The Struggling Lawyer (pompously)—Anything unusual happen while I was out? Office Boy (after some thought)—Yes'r. There wasn't any debt collectors called.—London Tit-Bits.

BOYER ITEMS.

Mr. Levi Erickson was an Odebolt caller Wednesday. Mrs. Walker, of Denison, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Neville, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Neville Beckley drove to Odebolt Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Auchsetter are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, born Tuesday. John Erickson and Ed Clauson were business callers at the Levi Erickson home Monday. Ed Hendrickson visited relatives in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Swan Nelson returned to her home in Odebolt Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Fleming were Denison shoppers Monday. Mrs. John Judy visited at the Fred Kruger home Thursday. Herman Sheldorf returned home on Saturday from the hospital at Battle Creek, where he recently underwent an operation. We are glad to note that he is improving quite rapidly now. Miss Irene Anderson visited at the parental, C. J. Anderson, home over Sunday. Miss Anna Dobbert was a passenger to Denison Wednesday. Miss Cecelia Sykes entertained a few of her friends Thursday evening, the occasion being her birthday. All present report a most enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Erickson were business callers in Kiron Monday. Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott were Deloit visitors Friday. The Misses Jessie and Margaret Fleming were passengers to Denison Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woolston, of Des Moines, came Saturday for a visit at the home of their son, Frank. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Newcom autoed to Denison Sunday evening and attended the sacred concert at the M. E. church. Mrs. Emil Wangler, of Kiron, visited her sister, Mrs. John Neville, Friday. A number of invited friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Nelson gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Levi Erickson, to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, October 10th. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with house plants and autumn leaves. At 2 o'clock the guests partook of a sumptuous three course dinner, to which all did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were the recipients of many beautiful and useful pieces of silverware. In the evening the guests departed, wishing this worthy couple many more years of happy married life. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fleming attended the silver wedding of Rev. and Mrs. Christenson of Kiron Monday.

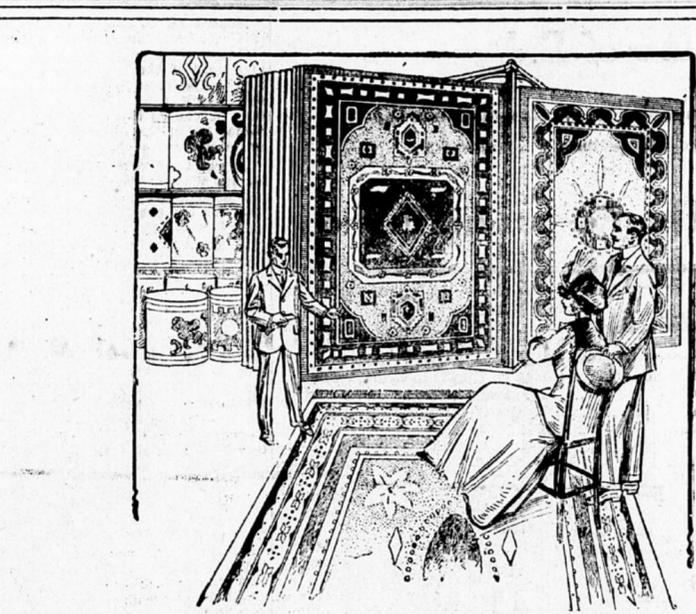

WEST DENISON ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cornwell and Mrs. Rogers of Denison called on Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rogers one day last week. Mr. Wm. Kruse and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Evers north of Denison. Mr. Jos. Conway, of Reynolds, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. T. Meehan of Denison were guests at the C. Houlihan home last Thursday. A number of young people responded to the invitation given by the Misses Lenz to form a party to surprise Frank Lenz at his home Sunday evening. The surprise was complete. A bountiful lap supper rounded out the pleasure of the occasion. Fred Giss of Denison spent a few days last week with the Ahart Bros. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Houlihan of Denison were Tuesday visitors at the home of their son Con. The Misses Brown and Miss Owens returned Sunday evening from a week end visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. Buss near Dunlap. The girls are loud in their praise of Mrs. Buss' hospitality. Miss Alice Behan is visiting at the Murphy home near Dunlap, this week. Mr. and Mrs. H. Broger spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. Lenz. Emma and Amanda Broger visited with their friend, Emma Schramm Sunday. The Misses Comstock and brother autoed over to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rogers for a Sunday visit. B. Harvey and John O'Hare attended a Redmen meeting at Ft. Dodge the first of last week.

ELLS ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brake and son were pleasant Denison callers last Wednesday. Mrs. Chris Kock and children were visiting at the H. W. Pithan home one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Giermann and daughters, Elsie and Lillian, were pleasant Denison callers Friday. Mrs. John Rabe and daughter, Anna, were visiting friends in Denison last Friday. Mrs. Henry Vosgerau returned to her home in Denison Friday after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Hans Wolf. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Koch and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pithan autoed to Breda Sunday. Eloy Anderson spent Sunday at the B. F. Ellis home. Mr. John Carlson, of Gillmore City, is making a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ellis, this week. Mrs. Cochran, of Richards, was visiting at the B. F. Ellis home Monday. Hans Wolf was a business caller in Denison Monday.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

High Quality and Low Price are the two main characteristics of the goods sold by the Salomon Furniture Co.

The quality of an article remains long after the price has been forgotten. A cheap article always was too high in price, it never gave the purchaser value received, but not so with good high class, well made goods such as we are offering you at prices as low as inferior goods demand.

FOR CHRISTMAS. It is very near time now to begin to look around for your Christmas presents. You may want a certain piece of our good furniture in a certain wood finish, or a chair, a davenport, or whatever you may want. Look early; make your selection early, that way you can get just what you want and run no risk of getting it here in time. Our Floor covering department has been strengthened with new goods, Linoleum, Rugs and carpets.

See us for your wants in our line

SALOMON FURNITURE CO.

BUCK GROVE ITEMS

Miss Tillie Arndt went to Sioux City Sunday morning and spent a week visiting her parents and family. She returned Saturday evening. Mrs. Ed Wageman was in town on Tuesday. She says her husband is gaining, but very slowly. However, even a slight improvement in his case is encouraging. C. W. Gottsch and wife were called to Clinton last Monday owing to the death of a brother. They returned on Sunday. Mrs. Tom McGuire and children visited over Sunday with friends in Dunlap. The Misses Carrie and Bertha Kenyon autoed to Denison Wednesday to visit a week with their grandmother, Mrs. Coburn. Little Genevieve Gottsch spent the past week with W. L. Morton and wife during the absence of her parents at Clinton. Dr. Bonney and Frank Slater went out to Alex Helden's one day last week to take some bees out of his house. They had to kill the bees, but secured a nice lot of honey. There was a very enjoyable party at D. Grief's Saturday evening. He had a bowery built so the young folks could dance to their heart's content, and all report a good time. Mesdames Wise, Haley, with another lady friend from Dow City, were callers in our town Friday. John Keptord killed a rattlesnake a few days ago. It was about two feet long. It is hoped that there are not many of its specie in this vicinity. Will Switzer and Fritz Olsen were called to Denison on a lawsuit for a debt. It seems they bought some farm produce from a renter and the owner of the land is suing to collect from these gentlemen. Jack Welsh and family spent Sunday afternoon with Byron McMullen and wife. Dr. Bonney is the possessor of a fine rattlesnake skin, which when alive was about 6 feet long, and a stuffed baby alligator, finished with a coat of varnish. He procured these treasures from Wm. Bertram and they came from the wilds of Florida. Mr. Jake Greder's fine house is nearly finished and the painters are at work on the outside.

ladies remained for a few days' visit with relatives. Miss Agnes Monaghan spent a few days last week at the H. E. Miller home. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watje autoed to Denison Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John DeWitt and son, Wade, of West Side, spent Sunday at the Thos. Hutchinson and Wm. Petty homes. Mrs. Allie J. Robinson went to Boone Saturday for a week's visit. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brogden were Denison callers Thursday. Last Monday several of our Milford Center people hauled lumber for the new house which is being built on the 'inos. Hutchinson farm. Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hawley and family were Saturday callers in Denison. Mrs. C. E. Breen and children, Raymond and Marie, visited a few days last week at the Collins and Breen homes in Denison. Mrs. S. A. Kral and Miss Marcella Byrnes were among the county seat callers Saturday. Leon Kral, from near Vail, was a visitor at the Hutchinson home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson spent Saturday with friends in Denison. The new barn on the farm occupied by Blaine Wilson burned to the ground Saturday noon. The cause of the fire has not been learned by the writer. Ray Winans returned about a week ago from a two weeks' visit in Oklahoma. He, with his father and mother, autoed to Denison Saturday afternoon. Jas. Byrnes was in Denison Saturday to attend a meeting of the officers of the short course, which will be from February 9th to 14th.

NEWS FROM HANOVER.

People in this neighborhood have started picking corn. John Henning and family motored to Denison Wednesday. John Maak finished threshing last Thursday. Last Thursday evening a number of friends gathered at the Quandt home and enjoyed a pleasant time. Henry Maak celebrated his birthday Saturday evening. John Kruger hauled several loads of oats to Denison Monday. Willie Mesenbrink and family autoed to Denison Wednesday. Reinhold Kruger and cousin, Will iam, took in the show at Charter Oak Thursday evening. On Tuesday, when Louie Maak was harrowing the potato patch, his horses became frightened and ran through the barbed wire fence. His team running at such a rapid rate caused the harrow to turn over, hitting one of the horses and injuring it somewhat. John Schlimmer and Wm. Krueger drove to Denison Friday. Miss Bertha Schlie went to Schlesing last week to visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Kluever.

DR. B. A. STOCKDALE The Noted Specialist of Des Moines, Iowa, will visit Denison at Hotel Denison, Wednesday, Nov. 12, From 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. He will return every four weeks.

Dr. Stockdale wants every person who suffers from a chronic disease—It makes no difference how bad the case, or how long they have suffered—to call and consult him. He will make a thorough examination of their case, tell exactly what can be done, whether they are curable or not, how long it will require and all about it. He treats only chronic diseases. He has devoted twenty years of his life to the study and treatment of diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Kidneys; Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Diabetes; Heart and Nerve troubles, Rheumatism, Chronic Catarrh in all its forms—in fact all Chronic Diseases. Dr. Stockdale has a system of treatment which he believes is the best known for chronic diseases. He is able to cure many cases that have resisted other treatments—that are considered incurable. He wants it distinctly understood that he does not undertake any case that he thinks is incurable, and will tell the patient candidly when he has made the examination. He has a special treatment for nervous and physical weakness of men, which he would like to explain in person. Call and get his opinion and advice free of charge. If for any reason you cannot visit him personally, write him for an examination blank. Address DR. B. A. STOCKDALE, Utica Bldg., Des Moines, Ia. October Weddings now in order, but not always orderly!

JARDINIERE SALE

Friday and Saturday Only

We will put on sale an assortment of fancy jardiniere. The price will range from 20c and up according to the size. These were a special purchase and usually sell for more than these prices.

CHINA

Nearly all our fancy Christmas China is on display and it will pay the buyers to make their selection before the rush and the curios are picked up. We have special values in hand painted china.

House Dresses

Just received another shipment of Ladies' House Dresses. Special prices to make room for our holiday lines.

Halloween and Thanksgiving novelty party favors, birthday novelties, etc., are on display. Lamps, Lanterns, Underwear, Husking mittens, Alarm Clocks, Watches, etc., always at the Variety Store prices.

WALZ'S PLAIN PRICE VARIETY STORE CRAWFORD COUNTY'S MOST POPULAR STORE.