VAIL ITEMS

Wednesday morning, Nov. 26, 1913, at St. Ann's church, Vail, Mr. Francis Powers and Elizabeth Costello were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Peter Murphy. Attending the couple were Miss Kate Costello and Mr. John O'Connor, of Denison. It is unnecessary for us to make an extended introduction of these young people to our readers. They have both resided here since childhood and are well known by the people of this community who extend their choicest congratulations unanimsously. The groom is the respected son of Mrs. J. Powers and has a wide circle of friends. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. P. Costello. She is amiable and intelligent, is fully worthy of the love and protection of the gentleman with whom she has cast her lot and will make him a good wife. After the ceremony at the church a number of relatives and a few friends assembled at the home of the bride's mother, where a bounteous dinner was served. They departed on the afternoon train for Chicago and will spend a week or ten days of their honeymoon in that great metropolis, after which they will settle down at housekeeping on his farm north of Vail, where they will be pleased to meet their friends. May they be ever happy and contented.
