

DON'T DREAD WINTER'S COLD

Prepare to enjoy its exhilarating frosts by making your blood rich, pure and active to prevent colds, grippe and rheumatism.

Good blood prevents sickness and Scott's Emulsion will energize your blood and create reserve strength to endure changing seasons.

Scott's Emulsion is not an experiment but has served humanity faithfully for forty years; it contains the purest cod liver oil—free from alcohol or stupefying drugs.

Scott's Emulsion is nature's greatest blood-maker and furnishes the elements necessary for body warmth, rich blood and healthy circulation.

Shun alcoholic substitutes and demand the genuine Scott's Emulsion at any drug store.

SCOTT & BOWNE, BLOOMFIELD, N.Y.

DELOIT ITEMS.

Mrs. S. P. Spence spent a few days the first of last week at Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Sarah Newcom, of Odebolt, came to Deloit Tuesday of last week and stayed until Wednesday when her mother, Mrs. E. A. McKim, then went to Deloit to the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Tucker. She returned to Deloit for Saturday night, when her mother accompanied her back to Deloit Sunday afternoon.

Edith and Virgil Darling spent a few days during the holidays at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Darling, near Boyer.

Mrs. Alice Turner and Mrs. Myrtle Myers visited Wednesday at the parental, Fred Schuler, home.

Mrs. G. S. Meyers and daughter, Thelma, of Denison, came Tuesday and visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Maggie Brogden and at Mrs. Melissa Jordan's. She went Wednesday eve to visit her sister, Mrs. Sam Anderson calling on Mrs. Horr and leaving a present for the Willing Workers sale to be held in the near future.

Broder Boysen, Chas. Jensen, Henry Sachau, Herman Dethman were in Deloit Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Winey visited at B. Beaman's Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beaman entertained their immediate relatives New Years to dinner.

Hannibal Fink autoed up to Deloit one day this week.

Boysen and Herman Grill were receiving corn Monday morning that they had purchased early in the fall. It's fine weather for hauling and many are taking advantage of it to do their hauling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Riggleman drove to Denison last Wednesday and had some pictures taken.

Mrs. J. D. Newcom was in town last Wednesday. Two little girls from Denison spent the holidays at her home.

W. T. Huckstep bought some fine roosters of B. F. Leshner in Denison and drove down for them one day last week.

Miss Mina Landon returned home from Laurel, Neb. Tuesday last week.

Andy Barthman received a visit from his brother, George, of Odebolt last week who was accompanied by another brother whom he had not seen for a number of years.

Mr. Streeter got badly hurt last Wednesday night falling off the side walk in the ditch just this side of the I. C. Depot while coming home in the darkness of the evening. He was confined to the home for a few days, injuring a rib just over the heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Estes received a New Years present early New Years morning when a little boy baby came to make his home with them.

Miss Eunice Dobson drove her car to Dow City Tuesday after four o'clock accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. C. Dobson and Guy Johnson. They visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. May Rudd and Sunshine Rudd returned home with them and stayed until New Years afternoon.

Dave and James Estes nephew and wife and a friend came to Deloit last week. We understand they expect to make their home here.

Mrs. Gene Zea went to South Dakota one day last week to attend the funeral of her brother's wife, Mrs. Fred Riley.

Raymond Newcom received a visit recently from his brother-in-law, Mr. Christianson of Sac City.

Mr. Martin drove his car to Boyer Friday evening accompanied by Miss Edna Childress and Miss Anna Bordner and Otto Kneiff and John R. Riggleman. Mr. Martin, John Riggleman and Miss Edna Childress furnished some music for the Boyer social.

Rev. Ralston and wife attended the social at Boyer Friday night. While there Rev. Ralston received quite a fright when he found his team had run away. They were found near morning at the Abbott home. Very luckily not one bit of harm was done to horses, harness or buggy which is very unusual. His friends heartily rejoice with him in his good luck.

The picture shows last week of three nights was good and well attended. We understand they expect to come again.

The first number of the lecture course was given last Thursday evening. It was presented by twelve individuals, giving music and readings. There was a good crowd in attendance and all pronounced it fine.

A relative of Mr. Fisher and his wife and baby came from Oklahoma last Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Williams visited her daughter Mrs. Tom Brogan and family a few days last week.

The Northwestern train to Denison is now due at 2:15 p. m., ten minutes earlier.

Lew Wright was loading a car of wood to ship to Denison the latter part of the week.

F. H. Brogden and wife entertained F. A. True and wife one evening last week.

Bert Darling was a passenger to Denison Friday.

Mrs. Mary Keister-Thompson, who lived at what is known to the old settlers as Badger town years ago, was in town Saturday and stayed until Sunday with Mrs. M. Patchin and together they called on Mrs. J. C. Williams Saturday evening.

John Riggleman visited Sunday with his young friends at the Con Lingle home.

Lorin Patchin and Arden Newcom returned the latter part of the week from Minnesota. They report a fine time and weather similar to our own.

Elder D. R. Chambers began a series of meetings at the L. D. S. church Sunday to continue over next Sunday except Saturday evening and perhaps longer. All are invited to attend.

Crystal Newcom, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Newcom, was very sick last week, but is much better at present. She is just recovering from the whooping cough.

Mrs. Wescott was on the sick list a few days the past week.

Albert Spence has accepted a good position with the railroad company in Cherokee and went Monday to take up his work.

The dance at the hall was well attended Saturday evening. It would be far better to have the dances on some other night in the week so it won't continue on the sabbath day.

Mrs. F. A. True and her sister, Mrs. Anna Bordner and Miss Lovicie Morris were in Omaha a week ago Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Henry Ward of Meadow Grove, Neb. on December 30 at the age of 83 years. She had made her home with her son, E. A. Ward of that place since the death of her husband in 1911. Mrs. Ward was a pioneer of Crawford county in the early 60's. Mrs. Dobson received word too late to make train connections to reach there in time for the funeral.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Prayer meeting next Thursday evening at 7:30.

Choir practice next Friday evening at Mrs. McKim's at 7:30.

Next Saturday evening from 5:00 to 9:00 the Ladies Aid will give an oyster supper in the hall. We are going to have a good time and wish everyone to come and enjoy themselves with us. The Deloit band will give the music for the occasion. They are doing well in their late practices and we are sure they will furnish us some good music.

Regular services next Sunday at S. S. at 10:00, preaching at 11:00.

There are children in the community that are not in the S. S. who ought to attend. Parents ought to see that their children get S. S. training, for they will be men and women in a few years and now is the time to get it.

Epworth League at 7:15.

Preaching at 8:00 p. m. All who have no other church responsibilities are urged to attend.

HAYES ITEMS

W. H. Brockelsby, accompanied by Fred Fitzsimmons, motored to Kiron Tuesday on business.

J. K. Bremner and son, Leslie, and Geo. E. Maxwell motored to Botna on business Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Wulf spent New Years in Dow City.

Ward North, of Denison, was a New Years guest at the J. K. Bremner home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wulf, of Boyer, spent New Years at the Frank Wulf home.

Alva and Neal Crampton were Denison business callers Wednesday.

Misses Lelia Albert, of Denison, and Florence Huckstep, of Vall, were week end visitors at the J. K. Bremner home.

Albert Duffy had his hand severely hurt by a pump falling on it one day last week.

Will Marshall and family, from Millford, spent New Years at the Herm Christian home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsie Brockelsby spent New Years at the W. H. Brockelsby home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bremner motored to Denison Wednesday on business.

Miss Lydia Duffy left Wednesday for Wall Lake to visit friends and relatives.

W. H. Brockelsby and wife, accompanied Mrs. Ed Brockelsby and children to Omaha Saturday, remaining several days to visit relatives.

Misses Allie Brockelsby and Grace Hoffman, of Vall, spent Wednesday at the C. E. Brockelsby home.

Mrs. Sophie and daughter, Ollie, of Dunlap, were guests of the F. L. Maguire and W. E. Launderville families last week.

A number of the Hayes young folks attended the New Years ball in Vall.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hayes spent Sunday at the Ellsie Brockelsby home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bremner and family and Misses Myrtle and Lelia Albert spent Sunday at the R. A. Maxwell home near Boyer.

Miss Nellie Biernes and brother, Maurice, were visiting in Denison on Friday.

Mrs. Frank Wulf and sons, Leonard and Earl, spent Sunday at the Ed Duffy home.

Alva Crampton has purchased a farm just east of Denison, where he and his family intend to move in the spring. This community regrets to lose this good family, but wish them success in their new home.

BROGAN ITEMS.

Ernest Swanz and J. L. Maynard were business callers at Vall Monday. John Auen is the proud owner of a new Reo car, purchased in Ft. Dodge. He sold his Ford to his son-in-law, Will Schaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richardson, Mrs. J. L. Maynard and Mrs. George Maynard were pleasant callers at the Andrew Dozark home Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Sleshta was calling on friends in Denison Tuesday.

Maynard Brothers bought a fine bunch of cattle east of Carnavon last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Richardson and son, Clifford, and Chas. Franzek, Thos. Dixon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clauson and Mr. and Mrs. Andresen ate New Years dinner at the Jim Richardson home in Odebolt.

C. J. Fredrickson came down from Odebolt Saturday and spent the day at the Tom Brogan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jans spent New Years day in Arcadia with their parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maynard went to Carroll Thursday to visit at the H. Orpp home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Maynard and daughter, Enid, and son, Harrison, Miss Katie Madden, Mr. and Mrs. R. Peters and Roy Corey spent a most pleasant time at the T. M. Brogan home New Years day. The time was spent in games and cards and some fine music by the graphonola which was won by Miss Agnes in the Review's circulation contest, which closed a short time ago.

Peter Wulf and family spent an enjoyable day Sunday at the Charley Dean home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilko Meyers and Miss Bertha Auen and Mr. Arfman were business callers in Denison on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hero Cochran visited at the Fox home near Early.

Charles Peterson was a Denison shopper Saturday.

Roy Corey spent Sunday with some friends in Deloit.

John Swithers finished drilling a well for Mrs. Maud Dean. There are about ten feet of water in the well.

Grandma Williams spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. T. Brogan, and family.

The neighborhood club spent Sunday evening at the Floyd Chapman home and a very pleasant time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Rabe visited at the P. Fanglewartz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richardson and son and Charles Franzek spent Sunday in Odebolt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyers and family visited at the Frank Meyers home Sunday.

GOODRICH NEWS.

Isaac Newton and Ralph Beaman spent Sunday out at S. D. Newton's. Clarence Imes shelled corn Tuesday.

Henry Lass was down to Denison Monday.

Sam Anderson threshed corn fodder Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McNeal entertained the Yeomen Wednesday night. A jolly time was spent in seeing the old year out and the new year in.

Mrs. E. M. Paup of Denison came to spend a few days with her friend Mrs. Lillie Newton, returning home Sunday.

John Fink had the misfortune while cutting brush to cut his toe off. The physician was called and now John is nursing a sore toe but is getting along fine.

Mrs. George Meyers and Miss Thelma of Denison visited a few days this week at her sisters, Mrs. Sam Anderson.

Heman Newcom has been hauling wood to town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winey and children took their New Years dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winey.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winey had been married ten years New Years day and Mr. Carl Winey's birthday was on New Years and he and his good wife can celebrate their silver wedding this year.

Albert Winey sawed wood for S. D. Newton Friday and Abram Galland Saturday.

Steve Newton has been having a hard tussle with the La Grippe.

Bobbie McNeal was a Denison visitor Saturday.

Miss Lovicie Morris was a Denison shopper Saturday.

Mrs. Edith Mesenbrink and daughter visited relatives in this vicinity this week.

The Anderson boys have pulled their threshing machine into Louie Grill's and will thresh as soon as the weather is favorable.

Mrs. Chas. and Mrs. Bob. Robertson were callers at the John Anderson home one day this week.

Many people find the waste baskets which they received Christmas very convenient to throw Jan. 1 bills into.

The 50 cent piece is becoming unpopular, so that none have been coined lately. It is foreseen that the colored water will not be satisfied much longer with one of them as his tip.

"A Shine In Every Drop"

Get a Can Today

Our 4th Semi-Annual 9c Sale

Will Start Saturday, January 10th, at 9:30 a. m.

Will Close Saturday, January 24th, at 9:30 p. m.

This will be the biggest money-saving sale that we will be able to put on this year and by far the largest assortment that we have have ever offered. We will put on sale items that sell regularly from 25c to 50c. There are some odds and ends included that regularly sold for 75c. They go while they last for the small sum of 9c. Below we give you an idea of some of the bargains offered:

10 quart galvanized pails	8 inch hack saw
8 quart granite dish pan	1 assortment shoe soles
6 quart granite preserving kettles	10x17 drip pans
10 inch mill files	5 hair nets
10 inch handy trowels	3 pkgs. assorted gums
9 inch steel spiders	Men's suspenders
6 ft. rawhide buggy whip	Ladies' rib top hose
	Art cut glass ware

Many other items too numerous to mention

Besides this great sale we will offer you an assortment of embroideries and laces, a selection of quality and patterns in all widths and prices that will open your eyes. We will offer one assortment for 5c that sells regularly from 10c to 25c.

Be sure and get one of our large circulars and read every description carefully or you might overlook some good thing you need.

Be sure to come early Saturday morning and get the best selection.

Walz's PLAIN Variety Store

CRAWFORD COUNTY'S MOST POPULAR STORE.

NISHNABOTANY NEWS

Friends and relatives enjoyed the annual Christmas dance given at the Claus Kuhl home Thursday evening.

So greatly was the dancing enjoyed that it was continued until the wee small hours of the morn. Mrs. Kuhl always celebrates her birthday every Christmas day and all those present hope to be with them again next year and many others to follow.

Barney Mundt attended a birthday party at the Wm. Lockmiller home Sunday evening. It was Miss Tillie's birthday.

Edward McKim returned to his home at Dunlap Tuesday.

Fritz Muhl marketed hogs in Denison Tuesday and Jas. Tate at Manilla the same day.

Henry and Edward Hamann, Julius Suhr and Annie Hamann visited Monday evening at the Claus Kuhl home.

Orean, Otto and Herschel Tryon, Willie Mullenger, Misses Sarah Tryon and Ruby Mullenger were most pleasantly entertained in the W. D. Mundt home last Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Tate has been staying at the Frank Costello home the past week helping to care for her first granddaughter born on New Years day.

Mrs. W. D. Mundt and children spent New Years day at Denison with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Luney.

Miss Grace Murchland with her pupils and Misses Meta Meyers and Lulea Mundt after four o'clock Tuesday evening went to the Fred Brandenberg home to help Miss Velma celebrate her thirteenth birthday.

Misses May and Dollie Comstock and Ruby Mullenger, Dave Comstock, Willie Mullenger, Ed. Steckelberg, Willie Reinwalt and Fred Steinkuhler all attended the party given by Miss Hattie Greif at her home near Buck Grove New Years eve.

Henry Miller called on Willie Mullenger Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tryon and children attended the picture show in Denison New Years eve.

Otto Arnold and wife were guests at the Comstock home Sunday.

Jim Costello, of DeWitt visited here with his nephews, the McGinn Bros, the latter part of the week. Mr. McGinn of Dunlap accompanied him.

Viola Kuhl returned to her home Friday evening after a few days visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claus Kuhl.

A number of Nishnabotany people enjoyed the club dance given at the hall in Manilla Thursday evening, and Friday evening a large number went to Denison to attend the dance given at the parochial school building just recently finished. All report the finest kind of a time.

Mrs. Mommie Munson and babe came down from near Deloit one day last week to stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandenberg until spring. Mr. Munson expects to move the household goods and farm

STOMACH SUFFERERS

If You Wish To Obtain Complete and Permanent Results Try Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. One Dose Will Convince You

Why is it that there is so little enthusiasm about saying "Happy New Year," unless you can say it first?

machinery down soon. They will move on to the old Houlihan farm in East Boyer, which he has purchased, in the spring.

Ernest Polske and family received an invitation to the wedding of his sister, Miss Ella Schoening and Mr. Emil Lueth which took place at the Wm. Lueth home near Manilla on New Years day. W. D. Mundt took the minister from Denison over in his car, who performed the ceremony.

Last Saturday night Henry Schneider gave a party at his home in East Boyer for the young people celebrating his twentieth birthday. A number from this way received invitations and were loud in their praises of a good time and fine supper.

Misses Ruby Mullenger, Sarah Tryon and Lulea Mundt and Willie Mullenger, Orean, Otto and Herschel Tryon and Barney Mundt spent Sunday with the young people at the Henry Meyer home.

President Wilson may be 57 but he seems to keep out of the bald headed row at the theatres.

Original Notice.

In the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Crawford County. E. J. Miller, Plaintiff, vs Joseph Hodges, and the Heirs and Assigns of the said Joseph Hodges Unknown Claimants to Lot Sixteen (16) of Block Eighty-Seven (87) in the City of Denison, Crawford County, Iowa, as shown by the recorded plat thereof, Defendants.

To the defendant, Joseph Hodges, and the heirs and assigns of the said Joseph Hodges, unknown claimants of lot sixteen (16) of block eighty-seven (87) in the city of Denison, Crawford county, Iowa, as shown by the recorded plat thereof:

You and each of you are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the state of Iowa, in and for Crawford county, a petition in equity by the plaintiff, E. J. Miller, praying said court for a decree quieting and establishing his title in and to the above described real estate, and as grounds therefore, alleging that he is the absolute owner in fee of said real estate and that under color of title and claim of right, he and his grantors have been in the open, undisturbed, adverse and continuous possession of said real estate for the ten years and more last past; that in the chain of title to said real estate a certain deed from Joseph Hodges to one George J. Adams was lost or mislaid and never recorded, and that by reason thereof the defendant, Joseph Hodges, and the heirs and assigns of the said defendant, all unknown claimants, have or claim to have some title to, or interest in, said real estate, adverse to the title of the plaintiff, constituting a cloud upon the plaintiff's title, but that all title or interest of the said defendant, and the heirs and assigns of said defendant, in and to said real estate, has long since ceased, lapsed and determined, and said defendant, and the heirs and assigns of said defendant, have long since acquiesced in the title of this plaintiff; that the names and addresses of the heirs and assigns of said Joseph Hodges, all unknown claimants, are unknown to this plaintiff, although he has sought diligently to learn the same and that unless you appear thereto and defend on or before noon of the second day of the next term of said district court, to be held at Denison, Iowa, commencing on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1914, default will be entered against you and judgment and decree rendered thereon as prayed for in said petition.

E. J. MILLER, Plaintiff.

By P. J. Klinker, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Upon reading the petition in the foregoing entitled action and inspecting the above notice, said notice is hereby approved and ordered published in the Denison Review for four consecutive weeks.

Dated this 20th day of December, A. D. 1913.

F. M. POWERS, Judge 16th Judicial District of Iowa.

known throughout the country. Many thousands of people have taken it for Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments and report marvelous results and are highly praising it to others. Astonishing benefits sufferers have received even from one dose are heard everywhere and explain its tremendous sale. It cures indigestion and those afflicted with stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, indigestion, flatulence, the Stomach and Intestines, Bile, Biliousness, Fainting Spells, Colic Attacks, Dropsy, Liver, Constipation, etc., should by all means try this remedy. The benefits stomach sufferers who have taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy have received it in most cases a lasting one. After you have taken the Remedy you should be able to digest and assimilate your food, enable the heart to pump pure red blood to every part of the body, giving firmness and strength to fibre and muscle, lustre and sparkle to the eye, clearness and color to the complexion and activity and brilliancy to the brain. Do away with your pain and suffering and this is often possible with even one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Interesting literature and booklet describing Stomach Ailments sent free by Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill.

For sale in Denison, Iowa, by Rudolph Knaul and druggists everywhere.