Mrs. Jessie Vognild arrived from South Dakota for a visit here with her many friends. Mrs. Vognild will be better remembered as Jessie Vint, who was a successful Crawford county teacher and compositor in the Dunlap Reporter office. Baughman and Miss Sophia Roundy visited with Mrs. David Hall at Portsmouth the latter part of the week. County Supt. Susie T. Faith visited the schools of Harrison township last week. Dr. H. A. county, living since she came to the county near Modale. The Davis children, whose serious illness was mentioned last week, have so far recovered as to be able to dispense with the nurse's services, much to the pleasure of their friends. Revival meetings at the M. E. church will continue through this week. A great interest is manifested and several conversions have been made. Rev. Jones is a live wire evangelist of the old Methodist school who tells you of your sins, even if it makes you uncomfortable to hear of them. The Congregational church members met for a business session and election of officers. The trustees reported that all debts were paid. The congregation voted to raise the pastor's salary $100. This marked the end of Rev. Conrad's first year as pastor. Thomas Christensen was also re-elected Sunday school superintendent. A lecture will be given at St. Patrick's church on Tuesday, January 20th, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. This lecture will be given by S. A. Balduz, a Chicago journalist. The subject is, "The Signs of the Times." The Knights of Columbus, for the past two years, have been bringing these fine lectures to the town free. Elder Chambers, of Modale, is holding a series of meetings at the L. D. S. church in Gallands Grove. The record made by the Fortnightly club in promoting library spirit is one of which each member may feel justly proud. After counting up the books at the beginning of the year it was found that the club as a body had given 1500 volumes to the library, aside from a cash gift of over $200, and nearly all the liberal donations were made by members of this club. The many friends of the Brace family learn with sincere regret of the death of Fred Brace at his home near Woodbine on Monday, January 18th, after a protracted illness of typhoid. All that medical skill and a trained nurse could do were of no avail and the young life was yielded up. Fred grew to manhood on the Brace homestead south of town and by his happy disposition, pleasing manner and exemplary habits endeared himself to his large circle of friends. He followed the noble occupation of his forefathers, that of a farmer. He was married three years ago to Miss Helen Reilly, who with his mother and seven brothers, Edward H., of Omaha; Leo O., of Jefferson; O. H., of Dow City; B. L., Chas. H., G. W., and I. L., of Dunlap, and one sister, Mrs. Walter Schlenzig, of Gordon, Neb., are left to mourn his early death. All the family were at his bedside when death came. The interment will be made in Pleasant Hill cemetery beside his father who preceded him to the great beyond several years ago. The sincere sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family.

A. D. Jones Sale of Big Type Poland Chinas
To Be Held in a Well Heated Pavilion at Dunlap, Ia.,
Saturday, January 31, 1914
70 Big Type Poland Chinas 70
Leaders in Size and Quality
I will close out my whole herd of Big Type Poland Chinas. The entire herd is immune, having been treated with the double method or simultaneous vaccination. They are proof against cholera for a life time.
This will be one of the greatest sales of the year. I am putting in this sale what all breeders would reserve for breeding purposes, my immense herd headers of massive boars and sows that no breeder would think of parting with were they intending to continue in the business. This will furnish an opportunity to buy as grand a herd boar or bred sow as any breeder can turn out. Not only my boars are of immense size but sows also. This sale is rendered necessary on account of falling health, as nothing would please me better than to continue this breeding of a herd that I am proud of. Some of these that go in the sale I have refused to sell at any price. Boars with 11 inch bone on great feet combining size and quality, nothing better, nothing greater, nothing more royal in Big Types. The ancestors of this herd trace back to 1000 and 1200 pound boars.
Write for catalog. It tells all about this great offering
