SHORT-COURSE ALL NEXT WEEK

In the Neighborhood of $2300 Worth of Premiums Will Be Awarded During Short Course Week

MANY DEPARTMENTS IN COURSE

All Denison Will Keep Open House During Course; Geo. Naevie Chairman of Accommodations.

Crawford county's second annual short course will be held in Denison next week, commencing Monday, February 9th, and ending on Saturday evening, February 14th. In the neighborhood of $2300 worth of premiums will be awarded during the course of the week and from all reports there will be considerable competition for some of the more valuable prizes. Short course is the main topic of conversation among the farmers of Crawford county at present, and it is estimated that there will be an attendance of over three hundred when the course opens next Monday. Tickets have been placed on sale in every part of the county and some have sent in requests asking for an additional supply of tickets, while other ticket sellers have made special trips to Denison to secure another supply.

All Denison will keep open house during short course week and while there are a number of hotels and lodging houses in the city, many private homes will be opened up to provide for the overflow. Board and room for the week may be secured at very reasonable rates and those from out of town who wish accommodations should communicate with George Naevie, vice-president of the Crawford County State bank, who will provide accommodations.

Places of Meeting
The officers and executive committee have secured the places of meeting for the different classes where they will be held during the entire week. They are as follows:
Corn class work—McKim hall.
Corn and grain judging—Court house.

School exhibits and school children's work—Superintendent's auditorium in court house.
Stock judging—Basement of opera house.
Domestic science, class work—Carnegie library.
Domestic science exhibits—Parlors of Hotel Denison.

Baby health demonstration—Sheriff's office, court house.
Evening entertainments at the opera house.

Many Departments of the Course.
There are many departments of the short course, some of which will appeal to every member of the family. For the men there is live stock, farm crops and horticulture, and in nearly all of these departments there are classes for the boys. Special classes will be held for boys who are attending school, a special period being provided from 4 to 5 o'clock. These classes for boys include corn and grain judging and classes in stock judging. The women will find plenty to interest them in the domestic science department, which will be held both in the forenoon and afternoon. The classes will assemble for five hours daily and every subject of vital importance to house work will be taken up. In this department there will be a 4 to 5 o'clock class for school girls who are unable to attend the classes held during school hours.

Baby Health Demonstration.

This department opens Monday, February 9th, and closes Wednesday noon. (See page 51 of premium list for rules and prizes.) Entries and examinations will begin at 10 a. m. Monday in the sheriff's office at the court house, will be absolutely free and open to all babies under one year and under two years of age. No child having any contagious disease will be allowed to enter. Hours of entry from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m., closing at noon Wednesday. Names of winners will be given Wednesday evening.

Every mother is requested to bring a blanket and towel to be used for the comfort of her baby when undressed. Wednesday afternoon will be used by the committee on figuring up the score cards and making duplicates, and for such other matters as may be connected with the work. Each child will receive its score card.

On Wednesday evening the Friday club will have the pleasure of furnishing a fine speaker, Dr. Mary Neff, of Des Moines, who will give an address at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Neff is a "splendid speaker and a brilliant woman," and a cordial invitation is given to parents, teachers and the general public to hear this address. There will be no charge for admission.

The Des Moines Capital of yesterday contained an excellent photograph of Miss Ann Gittens, who was formerly a teacher in the high school of this city. Miss Gittens has been made membership secretary at the Y. W. C. A.

FUNERAL SERVICE MRS. M. MOLONY

Well Known Resident of Coon Grove Passes Away at Clarinda Sanitarium on Sunday.

SEVEN CHILDREN SURVIVE HER

Married to Michael Molony in Year 1873 and Resided on a Farm in Coon Grove.

The funeral services of Mrs. Michael Molony, Sr. were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Rose of Lima church, Rev. Father Farrelly officiating, after which the body was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

For the past few years Mrs. Molony has been in delicate health and spent a greater part of the time in a sanitarium at Clarinda, Iowa, at which place she quietly passed away on last Sunday, February 1st. The day she passed away was the 59th anniversary of her birth, and it was indeed a sad coincidence that her keeper should call her to her eternal home on the anniversary of her birth.

The deceased was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Ayres, former residents of Hayes township, and was born near Davenport on Feb. 1, 1855. She was united in marriage to Michael Molony on the first day of November, 1873, and resided with her husband on a farm south of Denison until her health failed her and she was taken to a sanitarium at Clarinda for treatment some few years ago. This union was blessed with eleven children, seven of whom survive to mourn her death, namely: John and Will, of Vail; Margaret, wife of John Champion, of Vail; Kate, Dan and Michael, residing south of Denison.

Mrs. Molony made many friends in Crawford county and all who knew her will retain pleasant memories of this excellent woman and amiable mother. During her long illness she had the sympathy of a host of friends.

The Review joins with many friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved relatives in this their hour of sorrow.

Ned Fitch, of Manning, is spending the week in Denison visiting at the home of his uncle, Mr. H. L. Fitch. He recently underwent an operation at the Carroll hospital and came to Denison to recuperate before resuming his duties with the Doud Milling company at Manning.

ESCHER ALLOWED $5,000 DAMAGES

Court Grinding Away on Second Week of Term—Case of Crampton vs Crampton Now on Trial.

STEWART DRAWS FIVE YEARS

Porter on Northwestern Accused of Taking Handbag, Receives Sentence and Taken to Pen.

District court is grinding away on the second week of the term. The case which was predicted would take all of this week to conclude the trial was disposed of on Tuesday afternoon by a settlement. This is the somewhat famous case of Escher against Carroll county, brought to recover damages on account of personal injuries caused by the falling of a bridge over which Escher was driving in Carroll county. The case was brought here on change of venue and tried about five or six years ago and a verdict returned in favor of the plaintiff in the neighborhood of $7,000. This verdict was set aside by the supreme court and about three years ago the case was tried again with the result that a verdict of between $7,000 and $8,000 was returned in favor of the plaintiff. When the case was called for trial on Monday a disposition seemed to exist on both sides to settle it with the result that a settlement was concluded on yesterday afternoon, in which the plaintiff was allowed in the neighborhood of $5,000. This settlement was a logical conclusion of the case, in view of the possibilities of additional expense falling on both parties.

The settlement of this case somewhat disarranged the assignment of cases inasmuch as no other case was ready for trial at the time the settlement was concluded, but business has so shaped itself that from now on there will be something to try until court closes.

The case of Crampton against Crampton is now on trial and will probably occupy a day or two. It is an action brought by a son to have his father declared of unsound mind and to have a guardian appointed. It is claimed by the son that the facts are such as to warrant the appointment of a guardian, while the father asserts there is no ground whatever for such action. The evidence to be adduced will have to settle the matter and comment upon the evidence would be improper at this time.

The case of Henry Stewart, a porter on the Chicago & Northwestern sleeper, was up for trial the latter part of the week. This is the gentleman who found a handbag on the west bound passenger train on January 21st, which belonged to a Mrs. Kittinger, of Sterling, Ill., who with her husband was a passenger on the train. Stewart took a watch out of her bag and some six or eight dollars in money and later pawned the watch in his own name in Chicago. A detective in the employ of the railroad company found the watch in a pawn shop and was able to identify Mr. Stewart as the man who left it there. Mr. Kittinger came to Denison and swore out the information and when the porter came through on Thursday of last week on his usual run he was arrested by Sheriff Cummings and taken into custody. It did not take long to enable the defendant to figure out the net in which he had been caught and feeling that his jig was up he confessed to the crime and was sentenced by Judge Powers for a period of five years at Ft. Madison and was immediately taken by Sheriff Cummings to his temporary future home.

No doubt but what this prompt punishment coming to this porter will have a salutary influence upon the fraternity throughout the country, and it will be a long time before another porter will take the chances of appropriating the property of a passenger in his charge.

Several cases of minor importance have been disposed of during the term but few cases of any particular importance have been tried.

Crawford County State Bank.

In another part of the paper is published the statement of the Crawford County State bank on Jan. 28, 1914. It appears that its total footings are up to practically a million dollars. Since the date of the report the footings have run above a million and up until a few days before the statement was called for the footings had run above a million.

The condition of the bank would thus appear to be eminently satisfactory in showing a prosperous condition. The banks of Denison are a credit to the community and reflect the prosperity that abounds in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford returned last Thursday from Corpus Christi, Texas, where they enjoyed a three weeks' vacation. The Bamfords were greatly impressed with Corpus Christi and San Antonio as winter resorts and state that it is preferable to California.

DR. H. HOLKE LEAVES SUDDENLY

Takes Early Saturday Morning Illinois Central Train, Leaving Note Saying Had Gone to Springs.

LEAVES MEDICINE FOR PATIENTS

Professed Great Fright at What He Claims a Dastardly Act of Throwing Eggs at His Office.

Dr. Heinrich J. Holke suddenly took his departure from Denison on Saturday morning on an early train over the Illinois Central railroad. He left a note addressed to the city marshal, saying that he was going to the springs to be treated for rheumatism and would remain away a few weeks. We are unable to state whether his going is permanent or not, but it looks as if he might not return.

The doctor professed great fright at what he claims was the dastardly act of some people in throwing eggs against his office and offers that as a reason for going away. He also took exceptions, so we understand, to the remarks of the Review in last week's paper, dealing with the question of the unlawful assault upon the building.

He left medicine in his office for certain of his patients and directed the city marshal to see that the medicine is delivered to the patients. It is predicted the doctor's going is permanent and that he will not return at the time he says in his letter to the marshal.

The members of the board of supervisors, township trustees and road superintendents of Crawford county are holding a meeting in the county superintendents' office in the court house this afternoon and gaining much valuable information in regard to the new road laws. J. E. Holden, one of the state highway commissioners, of Des Moines; Senator Ames, of Traer, and C. C. Coykendal, field engineer for the state highway commission, are in attendance at the meeting and giving talks and answering questions in regard to the road laws. The meeting was called this forenoon at 10:30 and met again this afternoon at 1 o'clock with a very good crowd in attendance. We are sorry that space does not permit our giving the names of those in attendance.

Maurice Nielsen is reported on the sick list this week.

Advanced Showing of Spring Merchandise

For the first week in February. This week our showing of new silks, new spring suits, and silk and serge dresses is the most complete that we have ever shown at this season of the year.

50 New Spring Dresses Offered This Week

The showing in these dresses is one of the most complete that we will have this season. They are shown in all of the new cloths with a good assortment of serges.
