

DEATH CAUSES SINCERE SORROW

William Mitchell, a Well Known Young Man of Vail, is Claimed by Death Last Week.

CONFINED TO HOME FIVE WEEKS

Funeral Took Place on Friday From St. Ann's Church, and Was Very Largely Attended.

Vail, Feb. 17.—(Special to the Review)—Expressions of sincere sorrow were universally manifested when it became known that William Mitchell had died at his home in Vail on Tuesday. His death is a terrible shock to his family and scores of friends, who did not know of his serious illness. Although ailing and more or less ill for the past few years he had not realized his own condition and had plans made to move on a farm the first of March. He was confined to his home for the past five weeks, but was not taken seriously ill until 2:30 on Monday. His ailment, which was Bright's disease, was far advanced and although all possible aid was given it was without avail, save to partly relieve his suffering and about midnight Tuesday, Feb. 10, 1914, the final summons came.

William Mitchell was born in Sterling, Ill., on Aug. 9, 1875, and had passed his thirty-eighth anniversary. He came with his parents to Iowa when but six or seven years old and has ever since resided here. On January 10, 1900, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary McCarthy, who with four sons and two daughters survive him. The children range in age from thirteen to two years. It was a touching sight, not soon to be forgotten, to see those little ones standing around the coffin, none of them scarcely old enough to realize the bitter sorrow that had come into their lives, or to know what it meant. He also leaves his father, mother, three brothers and five sisters, all living at Wagner, S. D., and all were present at the bedside when he breathed his last. Just when life seemed brightest, with his young heart so filled with high hope, God in His wisdom and love saw fit to call him away from all earthly cares.

Deceased was a good man and his many admirable traits and genial ways won him many friends. He had the respect of all who knew him and was a loving husband and father, devoted to home life, a kind neighbor and a good citizen. To speak of sympathy in such a case seems almost useless, yet the feeling of sympathy in this particular loss is universal, deep and sincere.

The funeral took place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Ann's church. High mass was celebrated by Rev. James Murphy, who delivered a touching sermon, and in spite of the in-element weather the church was crowded with those who came to pay a last sad tribute of respect to one who was a general favorite with those who knew him, and the hearts of all go out in strong sympathy for the sorely stricken wife and fatherless little ones, the aged mother, father, sisters and brothers in their grief. Interment was at St. Ann's cemetery. The pall bearers were six of his cousins, namely: Bert and Bart Mitchell, William, Frank, Ed and Wm. Mitchell. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Mollie, Alice, Lucy and James Beck and Michael Mitchell, Mrs. Hugh Costello and Mrs. Pete O'Connell, all of Wagner, S. D., and all brothers and sisters and father and mother of the deceased. Miss Lucy Ryder, John Grogan and Mrs. Healey, of Schuyler, Neb.; Mrs. Ellen McCarthy and daughter, Margaret, of Sioux Falls, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Connell and Mrs. Jennie Krueger, of Omaha; Mr. John Carey, of Dana, Iowa. Also a large number from Denison.
