SCHLESWIG ITEMS

Dr. and Mrs. Jones went to Sioux City last Thursday to visit friends and do some shopping.
Lou Bahnsen, head clerk at H. W. Schmidt's store, spent several days visiting friends in Charter Oak and Mapleton.
Rudolph Christiansen and Harry Lorenzen were over Sunday visitors in Omaha.
Aug. D. Paulsen, accompanied by Martin Schultze, went to Council Bluffs to inspect a new threshing machine, the purchase of which the former is contemplating.
A. R. Gray, of Moorhead, was in Schleswig last Saturday trying to dispose of some wood which he is taking off some pasture land that he is clearing.
Mrs. T. F. McGrath left last week Wednesday for a week's visit with friends and relatives in Sioux City and Sloan.
Miss Nellie Porter returned last Monday from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Sioux City.
Clyde Jones, head plumber for the Vollertsen & Vollertsen company, of Battle Creek, came last Wednesday to install the heating plant in the Bassett bungalow.
Among the out of town people who attended the entertainment at the Pastime theater Saturday evening were Myron Miller, John Rae, Hershel Perry, Frank Yeager, Hans Hendrickson, Fred Eisland and Earl Jones, of Charter Oak.
The Schleswig Card club was entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jones last Monday evening.
Fred Brasse and daughter, of Mitchell, S. D., returned to their home last Friday after having spent a few days visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sophia Brasse, here. Mr. Brasse also has land interests here that required some of his attention while here.
Spahn & Zabel last week sold two storm proof buggies. Dr. Schultz and John Ehlers being the purchasers.
Gustav John, who for some time has been having trouble with his eyes, went to Omaha last week, where he entered a hospital for treatment.
The ladies of the M. G. R. club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bassett last Friday afternoon.
A dance was given after the program at the Pastime theater last Saturday night. Seventy-two tickets were sold, which demonstrates the fact that it is not at all difficult to procure an attendance at a ball in Schleswig.
Henry Kahler and his sister, Miss Ella, returned last Saturday from Denison, where they had been attending the short course. Miss Kahler won several prizes in the domestic science department.
Otto Bruggen, of Denison, has accepted a position in the August Rickett store at this place.

DELOIT ITEMS.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson was in Denison last Wednesday.
Willard Rickman and J. Loux gave the wood sawyer, Albert Winey, an all day's job of sawing last Wednesday. They have a fine pile of wood for sale, which is a very necessary article this cold weather.
Harry Childress and wife spent a few days in Denison, returning home on Wednesday. Harry had undergone an operation at the hospital while there. Her mother, Mrs. Ann Winans, remained at their home with the children.
Mrs. Sparks and children, who have been visiting at the J. W. True home, took their departure last Monday.
A new residence is being built on the east side of town. We understand Dave Estis is going to live there.
The Willing Workers postponed their apron sale and supper Saturday, as the smallpox seemed scattered here and there and some felt timid about attending gatherings for fear of exposure.
Mrs. Alice Turner and Mrs. Myrtle Myers visited at the parental, Fred Schuler, home last Friday.
A dance was held at the hall last Friday. The crowd was not large as several did not go for fear of smallpox. There are no cases in town and people feel like they want to use all precaution not to get it here.
Mrs. S. W. Streeter visited part of last week with her daughter and family, Mrs. Nina McKim.
Guy Martin was an over-Sunday visitor at his home in Avoca.
Leslie Childress and Russell Newcom, who have been attending college in Denison, came home a week ago Friday night not feeling well, and later both developed cases of small pox and each home is under quarantine. They live near Deloit. Leslie was the sickest, but both are getting along well.
Among those who attended the district conference at Dow City were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Spence, Mrs. T. C. Dobson and Miss Eunice, Mr. and Mrs. S. Horr, C. W. Winey, Lloyd Winans and Lacy Myers.
The Willing Workers were very much pleased to be remembered in a good cause by Mrs. Myrtle Cose-Armour, who sent several articles which she donated for their sale. She has their appreciation and thanks. Aunt Jane Johnson is another outside of the society who donated some articles for their sale. She also has their thanks.
The next number of the lecture course will be on March 27th.
