

VAIL ITEMS.

Don't forget that the last dance of the season is Friday evening of this week in the Vail opera house. Everybody invited to attend.

Clara Dohler came home the last of the week from Ute, where she is teaching in the public school.

Mrs. Ed Duffy and two children returned last week from a pleasant visit with relatives at Wall Lake.

John Cowham, of Brogan, was a Vail caller the first of last week.

Tuesday morning, February 10th, at the Episcopal church in Denison Mr. Hans Rasmussen and Miss Matilda Stehlik were united in marriage by Rev. H. J. Buxton, followed by a wedding dinner at the Denison hotel. Miss Anna Stehlik, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Henry Rasmussen, brother of the groom, best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen have gone to Arkansas on their wedding trip and on their return will be at home to their friends on the J. R. Murphy farm east of Vail.

Miss Nell Hickey was a Denison visitor Saturday.

G. E. Dingman and wife, who have been visiting relatives at Perry, have returned home.

Fred Fitzsimmons, Jr. was a business caller in Denison Tuesday.

C. C. Wood made a trip to Denison Friday on business.

Miss Christine Sheridan, of Omaha, who was the guest of Vail relatives the past six days, returned home Saturday afternoon.

P. Gallagher was a county seat visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon and baby drove over from Manilla Monday and spent the day at the Thos. Powers home.

John Barth, of Carroll, was a business visitor in our city Friday.

Dr. W. T. Wright was here from Denison Friday on business.

Mr. Bolte and family arrived here last week from Wheatland, Wyo., and will farm the Kinch farm south of Vail the coming year.

Mrs. A. W. Starek was up from West Side the first of last week calling on relatives.

A lively game of basketball was played Wednesday evening between the Vail high school team and the Denison high school team, with a score of 19 to 16 in favor of the Denison boys.

Miss Stella Hickey was an over-Sunday visitor in Denison.

Miss Bidz McNertney, of Duck Grove

who has been spending some time here at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Gallagher, returned home the last of the week.

Henry Minter made a trip to Denison Monday.

Thos. Collins, of Denison, was an over-Sunday visitor with Vail relatives.

Matt McCalpin, whose sickness has been noted heretofore, died some ten days ago at his home in Muskogee, Okla. The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved ones.

Misses Mabel Dugan and Nell Hickey were calling on Denison friends Tuesday.

Mart Conroy, of Arion, visited Vail relatives the first of last week.

Elzie Brockelsby was a Denison passenger Monday.

J. P. Fitch visited friends at Carroll the fore part of last week.

Harry Pendleton left last week for Belmont, N. Y., where he will spend some time visiting his parents.

Ernest and Chris Swanz, of Brogan, were business visitors here last week.

Mark Clark, of Missouri Valley, and Mr. Welch, of Omaha, spent a few hours here Saturday evening with friends.

Thos. Bennett was a passenger to Denison Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. James McAndrews and daughter, Pearl, visited the first of last week at the J. H. Jones home in Denison.

Wm. Harrington, Sr. made a trip to West Side the last of the week on business.

Miss Ella Krueger, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in and around Vail the past two weeks, returned home to Omaha Tuesday.

B. J. Gronemeyer and Chris Larson were Denison business visitors Friday.

Miss Rachael Downey was up from West Side Sunday and spent a few hours with friends.

Will McCullough and Chas. Duffy were Denison callers Thursday.

Mrs. James Byrnes was in Omaha last week to attend the funeral of an uncle.

Mrs. Koester and daughter, Emma, were calling on friends in Denison Tuesday.

Dan Moiseed, of Chicago, and John, of Centerville, S. D., are here on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. B. Moiseed.

Mrs. A. Short was a Denison visitor Tuesday.

James Hickey made a trip to Omaha the first of the week on business.

Mrs. James O'Reilly and Miss Duffy spent a few hours in Denison Tuesday.

Mrs. James Lynch and Miss Margaret Lynch, of West Side, were calling on relatives in Vail Saturday.

Mrs. A. H. Clark and Miss Agnes Starek were visitors Tuesday in Denison.

Mrs. Thos. Sheridan and son, Eddie, were Denison visitors Friday.

P. O'Driscoll, of Carroll, was calling on his many Vail friends a couple of days last week.

The Royal Neighbors held a valentine party at the opera house Tuesday evening of last week. After the program and distribution of valentines, a neat lunch was served and the evening was merrily spent with games, music and dancing.

Mrs. L. L. Osterlund visited at the R. C. Hawley home in Denison the first of last week.

Miss Irene Hickey, who attends school in Vail, spent Sunday at her home near Manilla.

Wm. Lauderdale was in Denison on business Thursday.

Mrs. P. Kenney and daughter, Nelle, attended the spelling contest in Denison Friday evening and Miss Nelle carried off one of the prizes.

E. L. Chapman, of Denison, spent the first of last week here with relatives.

John Duffy visited recently with relatives at Valley Junction.

Mrs. Wm. Robertson and son, Lawrence, were passengers to Denison Saturday.

Grandma Moiseed has been quite low at her home here for the past week.

Mrs. M. Burke and Thos. Meagher, of Denison, were Sunday guests here at the Jas. E. Walsh home.

Steve Krav was in Denison the first of the week.

Mrs. Thos. McCarthy, of Davenport, was here last week to attend the funeral of the late W. F. Mitchell.

Miss Mary Robinson went to Maple River Junction Saturday for an over-Sunday visit at the Wm. Welch home.

A. J. Slichta and Jas. Dozark spent last week at Cedar Rapids on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Bagley, who has been visiting with relatives at Omaha and Council Bluffs for the past ten days, returned home the first of last week.

Frank O'Boyle was a Denison passenger Monday.

Miss Sarah Welch spent the first of last week at Maple River Junction with her mother, Wm. Welch, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick were visitors in Carroll, Denison on business Friday.

F. Sindt was in Denison the first of last week at his home in Arcadia.

Frank Murtaugh was a passenger to Denison Monday.

Miss Katie Duffy returned home last week from an extended visit with relatives at Valley Junction.

Mike Shupitor returned home the first of last week from a pleasant visit with relatives at Breda.

H. Bakke is now working at the lumber and Emmett Quirk is acting as helper at the depot here in his place.

Miss Brown, of Denison, was a Vail visitor last week.

R. C. Hawley was down from Denison Saturday calling on friends.

Grandma Flynn, who has been visiting here at the B. F. Mitchell home, left Sunday for Denison and expects to go to Sioux City in a few days to visit some of her children.

Miss Pauline Cranny went to Logan Thursday for a visit at the Dr. Booher home, returning Sunday evening.

John Hadenbaugh, of Boise, Idaho, visited here the first of last week at the E. Chamberlin home.

E. T. Ryan came from Omaha the first of last week and spent the week here attending to business.

John Maloy, of West Side, was a Sunday visitor here.

Hannah Hussion left Saturday for Topeka, Kans., to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Costello.

M. L. Houlihan was a business visitor Thursday in Denison.

Miss Emma Thompson, of Jefferson, was an over-Sunday guest here at the Jas. Dugan home.

Floyd, the eight year old son of Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, has been quite ill for a few days, but at this writing is thought to be on the road to recovery.

Miss Jessie McVeigh, of Omaha, was calling on Vail relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson spent Sunday with Denison friends.

The Floyd Chapman home was the scene of an enjoyable surprise party Friday evening, the occasion being a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, who leave this week for Canada to make their home. Music, games and other pleasant diversion were participated in by those present, and an elegant midnight lunch was served. They presented the worthy couple with a token of remembrance and the guests departed at a late hour wishing them joy and happiness in their new home and bidding them God speed.

Mr. Chapman is loading his household goods and stock today (Monday) and will soon be on his way to his new home. What Vail loses others gain, so such is life.

J. Goss, of Denison, was a social and business visitor in our town today (Monday).

A. J. Adams went to Omaha last Tuesday and brought his wife home from the Wise Memorial hospital, at which place she has been taking treatment for some time. They were accompanied home by a registered nurse, who will remain in charge of the case.

The W. C. O. F. initiated a class of nineteen into their lodge on Sunday afternoon, February 8th. A delightful time was enjoyed, including the serving of a nice lunch.

Jess Cranny, of Omaha, spent Sunday here with the home folks.

Miss Margaret Gaffey, who teaches school in Hayes township, went to Denison Friday afternoon for an over-Sunday visit at her home.

John and Tim Finneran, of Denison, spent a couple of days here last week with friends.

Miss Birdie Hussion returned home Tuesday from a two weeks' stay at the home of her cousin, Thos. Tarry, near West Side.

Mrs. Gribbon, of Cedar Rapids, enroute from Omaha, where she was to attend the funeral of a relative, stopped in Vail for a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Byrnes and Maurice Casey.

A large number from Vail attended the short course at Denison last week.

Mrs. John McCormick is in Carroll taking treatment at St. Anthony's hospital.

Miss Blanche Hickey spent Sunday at home from her work in Denison.

Mrs. M. F. Moore returned home Sunday evening from Omaha, where she was purchasing her spring millinery. Her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Knowles returned with her and will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

JACKSON ITEMS.

William Bolte bought a span of young mules at the Beeberger sale last Tuesday.

Frank Jans spent the past week with his uncle, Steve Jans and left Wednesday for his home near Fuida, Minn.

S. W. Calderwood and Fred Rickers were Denison passengers from Boyer Thursday to hear the lecture on tuberculosis. If the farmers at large are to have more benefit from these lectures, the managers must arrange to have them in the early afternoon and not at night alone.

Emil Dettbarn, Katie Mau, Frank Jans and Wm. Rickers were Denison visitors Friday.

Lew Kerrigan purchased a number of fine Duroc brood sows from Mr. Beirne, south of Vail Saturday.

Frank Lucey left for his home in Nebraska the first of the week, for a month's visit with old time friends.

Frank Dozark and Charles Richardson shipped a load of hogs and cattle Saturday.

P. J. Lawler was in our neighborhood the past week.

Julius Jans was sawing wood Tuesday for Fred Rickers.

Fred Neuman of Fontanelle, Iowa was visiting his cousins and friends last week.

Joe Dozark was hauling ice from the Rickers farm the first of this week.

The teacher and scholars of Dist. No. 2 have been very busy practicing for the entertainment February 15th.

Miss Stella Hickey was an over-Sunday caller at Carroll last Friday.

Paul and Ralph Hannah won several prizes at the short course for this district, winning first prize on spring wheat and second and third on oats. Gus Gerts spent Sunday and Monday at the J. F. Dreessen home.

Herman Dreessen and sister left for their home near Bennington, Neb. after a two weeks visit at the home of their uncle, Julius Dreessen.

Last Friday marked the birthday anniversary of Gus Gerts but Gus being a new neighbor we did not celebrate.

Otto Wilkens shipped two car loads of fat cattle to Chicago Saturday.

Max Veters returned from Fontanelle, Iowa, with his farm machinery and household goods to resume farming near Arcadia on the John Rix farm. He left here a year ago but the then climate did not agree with

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned having sold his farm will offer for sale on the place, six miles northeast of Denison; two miles southeast of Deloit, five miles west of Vail, known as the Huckstep farm in Milford township; on

Thursday, Feb. 26, '14

Commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described property, to wit:-

SIX HEAD OF HORSES

Consisting of one black team, mare and gelding, one bay mare, one black mare, one two year old colt. and one black gelding.

24 Head of Cattle

consisting of six milch cows, some fresh and some coming fresh early in the spring; one eighteen month's old Red Pole bull; twelve yearlings, comprising ten heifers and two steers; one Red Poll bull calf, six months old and four calves. All high grade Red Poll.

Farming Machinery

1 two-seated carriage; 1 lumber wagon; 1 wagon and hay rack; Milwaukee corn binder, good as new; Champion Harvester; mowing machine; hay rake; 3 cultivators; 1 drag; 1 sixteen inch plow; seeder; disc; corn planter and potato planter combined with eighty rods of wire; corn planter nearly new, with one-hundred and twenty rods of wire; hand corn sheller; feed grinder; blacksmith forge; 3 sets of harness.

About 8 bushels of seed corn; 220 egg incubator; 10 gallon churn; forty gallon jar; 1000 bushels of corn and other articles too numerous to mention.

40 Head of Shoats

5 Dozen Chickens

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

Terms: All sums of $10 and under, cash, all sums over that amount, a credit of one year's time will be given on approved notes, bearing 8 per cent interest. No property to be removed until settled for.

John Fritz, Owner

McAhren & Malone, Auct. Crawford Co. State Bank, Clerk

IMMUNE POLAND CHINA

BRED SOW SALE

At Logan, Iowa
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, '14
Twenty Sows, Twenty Gilts

THESE are sired or bred to Chief Price Again, Monarch Chief, Long Nelson, or Long Chief, all extraordinary boars, and I can truthfully say that here are Forty Big Type Poland China Queens at your own price. They will positively be sold at public auction, in the heated Short Course Building, and you will certainly turn down a rare opportunity if you fail to come to the sale, and see this wonderful offering. The sale promises to be the best one held this season. The stock is thoroughly immune from cholera, and is in good healthy condition.

FRANK RAINIER, Prop.
H. S. Duncan, Auctioneer. B. J. Wood, Clerk.

The Baking Powder Question Solved

solved once for all by Calumet. For daily use in millions of kitchens has proved that Calumet is highest not only in quality but in leavening power as well—unfailing in results—pure to the extreme—and wonderfully economical in use. Ask your grocer. And try Calumet next bake day.

Received Highest Awards

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big baking powder. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior in your kitchen.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.